kids! be creative

Appalachian Music Man Jeff Robbins

Appearing at all libraries during June! Jeff Robbins gets his audiences to join in a lively array of mountain music, jaw-dropping stories, and a sit down square dance. Group participation makes kids a part of his lesson in Appalachian music, culture and history.

Magical Storyteller Mark Daniel

Appearing at all libraries during July! Mark Daniel's programs have entertained and inspired over three million children in thousands of schools and libraries over 20 years, celebrating the joy of reading and great books.

adults! master the art of reading

Adults can join in Summer Reading too! For each book you read or audiobook you listen to during June and July, turn in a form at the library. Drawings will be held and prizes awarded from the forms, which are available at the library or on the web. You can also write a review, which might appear in the library column in The Courier-Tribune.
