Mill Creek preparatory meeting was established in "Cox's Settlement" in the 1750s or 1760s, as a outgrowth of Cane Creek Friends Meeting in Orange (now Alamance) county. After the War of the Regulation and the Revolution when the area was under the control of David Fanning, the Mill Creek Meeting lapsed. About 1790 a new group, Holly Spring Preparatory Meeting, was established and became an independent Friends Meeting. The Mill Creek cemetery was used until a cemetery was established at Holly Spring. It is still maintained by Holly Spring meeting.
