

Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission

Resolution of Recognition

WHEREAS, The Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission desires to recognize those Cultural Heritage Sites that provide a tangible link to the past, with the people and events that have made significant contributions to Randolph County history, and thus shaped our present; and

WHEREAS, the Trinity Cemetery, established in 1859, is the resting place of many educators and supporters who shaped Trinity College into the institution that would become Duke University, and many people who helped build the Trinity community; and

WHEREAS, burials include Trinity College founder and president Braxton Craven and his family, and George Braxton Pegram, who was instrumental in the creation of the Manhattan Project, which developed the atomic bomb;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that official recognition as a Cultural Heritage Site approved in public meeting by the Historic Landmark Preservation Commission, is given to

THE TRINITY CEMETERY, 1859

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution be recorded in the minutes of the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission, appropriate history and photographs placed on the Commission's historical website, notation made in the county's GIS database, and a suitable copy of the Resolution presented to the recipient.

Approved this 26 Day of July, 2023
