HOME LIFE

Members of our club drove a cancer patient to Evergreen Nursing Home for therapy treatments weekly.

At Christmas, the Home Life Department prepared and delivered twelve fruit baskets to shut-ins and the needy in our area. Toys and gifts for the needy were distributed by club members for the Randolph County Social Services.

Club members participated in the Meals on Wheels Program.

Mr. Bill McCaskill of the Randolph County Department of Social Services discussed problems dealing with child abuse and neglect with the club.

GERONTOLOGY

A senior citizens club (The Golden Age Club) is sponsored by our Woman's Club. Each month club members take turn providing transportation to and from and arranging for the Golden Age Club meeting.

Each club member has a Golden Age Club member as a secret pal, remembering them during the year with cards and gifts.

In September, a cookout was held for the Golden Agers.

A trip was taken in October to Camp Caraway with club members buying lunch for their secret pals.

The Golden Age Club invited the Woman's Club for a Thanksgiving luncheon.

The club's December meeting was a Christmas luncheon with the Golden Agers attending. Secret pals were revealed and gifts were exchanged.

Gerontology Chairman, Cheryl Graves installed the new officers of the Golden Age Club.

Thanksgiving Dinner Held

The Archdale-Trinity Golden Age Club held its November meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 19, at the Archdale United Methodist Church hut.

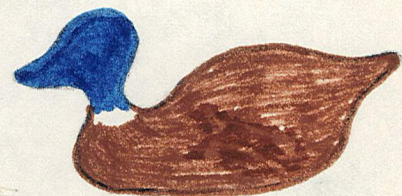

The business meeting was held and a program was presented by Juanita Hamilton, entitled "Thanksgiving from A to Z."

After the program, the annual Thanksgiving dinner was served. It was prepared by members of the Golden Age Club.

It was announced that the Golden Age Club will be the guests of the Archdale-Trinity Woman's Club on Dec. 10 at Archdale Friends Church.

Nine members of the woman's club were guests at the Thanksgiving dinner. They were Susan Spell, Kemper Parris, Diane Brenner, Shirley Clodfelter, Joyce Varner, Cheryl Graves, Marge Clements, Naomi Albertson and Peggy Wyatt.

A Christmas Prayer

Let us pray that strength and courage abundant be given to all who work for a world of reason and understanding & that the good that lies in every man's heart may day by day be magnified & that men will come to see more clearly not that which divides them, but that which unites them & that each hour may bring us closer to a final victory, not of nation over nation, but of man over his own evils and weaknesses & that the true spirit of this Christmas Season—its joy, its beauty, its hope, and above all its abiding faith—may live among us & that the blessings of peace be ours—the peace to build and grow, to live in harmony and sympathy with others, and to plan for the future with confidence.

The above are your secret pals beginning January 1981 and going thru January 1982. If, for any reason, you cannot accept this responsibility please contact your Gerontology chairman.

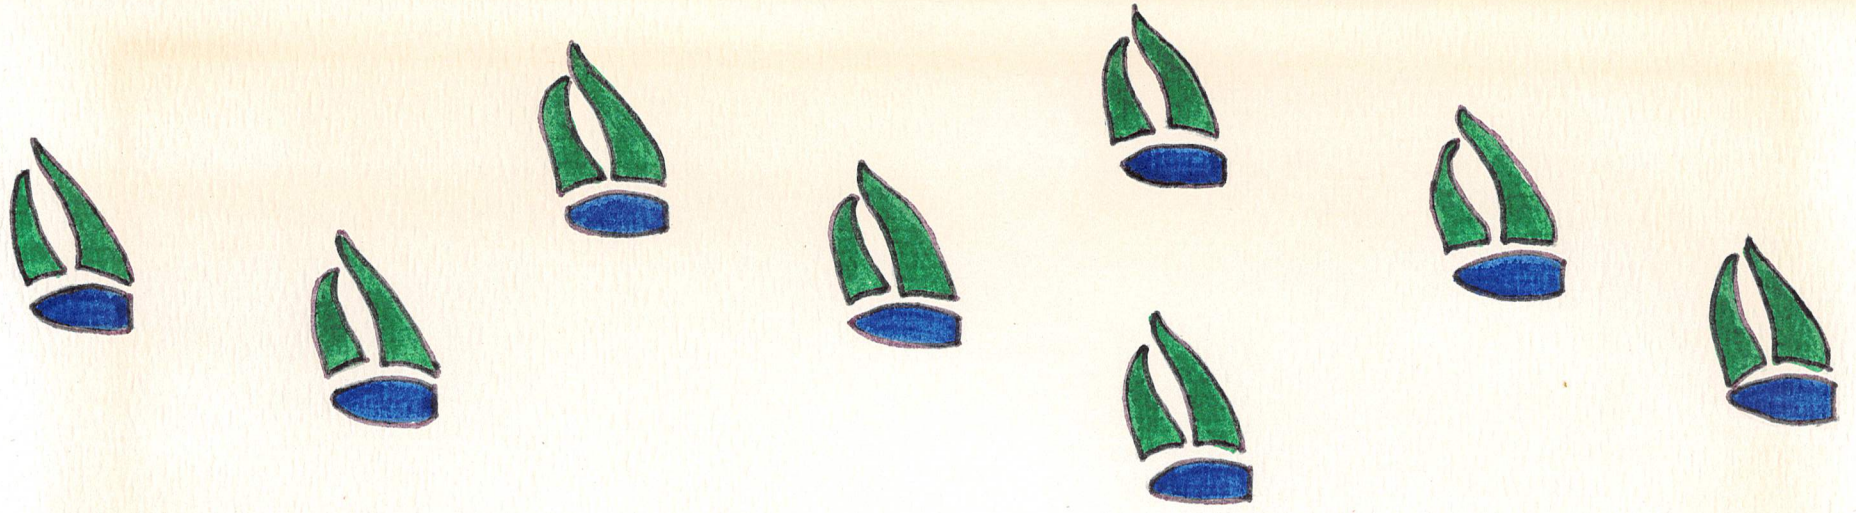

What you do for your secret pal is up to your individual tastes, but please do something! Even a simple card means so much. A quick phone call to see if all is OK can be nice. Other ideas they really enjoy are:

- homemade articles (something crochet or hand painted)
- corsage for a special occasion
- jewelry
- home-baked goodies (bread, cakes, etc.)
- a book if their vision permits
- live plants
- cards (Halloween, Valentine, etc.)
- toiletries (cologne, hand cream, etc.)

Giving can be a very rewarding experience if you let it be. Just a little of your time is all that is required. Remember every year at our Christmas meeting each clubwoman is responsible for calling, inviting, and bringing their secret pal to our meeting as our guest. At this time you reveal yourself to your secret pal. This does not mean you have to keep this a secret all year --- that's up to you!

If you have any questions concerning what your secret pal might enjoy or what sizes to get call your Gerontology chairman. Most Golden Agers have filled out a sheet of information on themselves

Letters

From Woman's Club: Remove THS Rubble

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following was sent to members of the Randolph County Board of Education, as well as to local newspapers.)

Dear Board Members:

As residents of the Archdale and Trinity Communities, we are concerned about the lack of progress in the removal of the old Trinity High School building. We feel that the wreckage of the old building is not only unsightly, but a safety hazard to the children who attend Braxton Craven Elementary as well as to the many people who attend events at the nearby Trinity High School stadium. Also, this land is badly needed as a recreation area by Braxton Craven Eelmentary.

When the building was auctioned off the terms of the agreement were that the building would be cleared off in 90 days. This time period has passed, as have several more months and we see nothing to indicate that the site will be cleared any time soon.

As members of the Randolph County Board of Education, it is your responsibility to see that this site is cleared promptly. Since the present method of removal is obviously inefficient, we call upon you to take steps to insure that this unsafe and unsightly mess is removed within the next month or at the latest before 1981.

Walk-A-Thon Gets Pledges For Fund

The Archdale-Trinity Jaycees sponsored a Walk-A-Thon Saturday, to establish a Carter Sink Trust Fund.

The fund will be used to pay for the education of the children of Carter Sink, the educator and community leader who died this year of cancer.

The 67 who participated in the event received pledges from $3,500 to $3,600.

Mike Wise, a former Trinity High School male to complete the 20-mile course. Mike finished in 1 hour, 53 minutes and eight minutes, and he indicated Saturday morning run for him. He usually Debbie Lindsey was the first female to complete the course.

All pledges should be collected and mailed to Carter Sink Trust Fund, Box 216, Trinity, 27370. Anyone who has made a donation may also mail one to that address. All checks should be made out to the Carter Sink Trust Fund.

The Jaycees would like to thank the local school staffs of the local schools, the churches and the community for their support of this project.

JUNIORETTES

JUNIORETTES

The Lady Bulldog Juniorette Club is sponsored by the A-T Woman's Club. Advisors are Lynda Juffines and Joyce Varner.

The Junioresettes started their year off with a Rush Party at the home of one of our club members with club members providing refreshments.

Many projects were undertaken this year by the Junioresettes with the support of our Woman's Club. Honoring the teachers during National Education Week, constructing a homecoming float, saving stamps for Care, having a Rock-A-Thon for cancer, sponsoring a speaker on drug abuse for the entire high school student body, observing Energy Awareness Week were some of their accomplishments.

The Woman's Club held a Christmas Party for the girls at a club member's home. A cook-out was given for the Junioresettes by their advisors at the end of the year.

Juniorette, Conita McDowell served as State Arts Chairman.

Club members transported nineteen Junioresettes to the State Jamboree in Greenville, N. C. The Junioresettes were awarded the Parker Morgan Award, first runner-up in the Arts and Education Department and second runner-up in Public Affairs and International Affairs. Two Junioresettes were installed as state officers.

Advisor, Lynda Huffines was recognized as first runner-up in the Amy Myers Rudd Award for advisor of the year.

A different Juniorette was chosen to attend our Woman's Club meeting each month.

At the State NCFWC Convention, the Woman's Club won the Margaret Taylor Harper silver tray for first place for most outstanding work with a juniorette club.

Juniorettes Plan Projects

By KELLY WYATT
NEWS Correspondent

The Lady Bulldog Juniorette Club held a scavenger hunt and party welcoming prospective new members on Wednesday, Sept. 17 at 6 p.m. at Laura Varner's house.

During the business session, two fund-raising projects were decided on. Homecoming week the club will be selling silk mums at $2 apiece and spirit fuzzies at 30 cents apiece.

Also during the business session, department committees were established. Mrs. Linda Huffines, Juniorette advisor, reminded all eligible students to be working on art projects for the Woman's Club Arts Festival to be held in January.

The Junioresettes made plans for their homecoming float.

Last night, Wednesday, the club met at Laura Varner's house to begin working on their fund raising projects.

LADY BULLDOG JUNIORETTE'S CONTRIBUTE TO GIRLS HOME

The Lady Bulldog Junioresettes at Trinity High School have made a donation to Girls Home in the amount of $161.23. The club raised the money by having a Rock-A-Thon which lasted 8 hours on March 15 at Westchester Mall in High Point. The donation was made with the request that the money be used for whatever the greatest need is at the time.

The Lady Bulldogs are sponsored by the Archdale Trinity Woman's Club, District 7. The Woman's Club has given much support and help to the Junioresettes this year. The girls have had an active year, accomplishing much but couldn't have done it without the support of the general club, reports Mrs. Lynda Huffines, Advisor to the club.

Juniorettes Note Energy Week

By KELLY WYATT
NEWS Correspondent

Many people waste a lot of energy and too many of their hard-earned energy dollars. So the Lady Bulldog Juniorette Club of Trinity High School are expressing their concern by sponsoring an energy awareness week this week.

On Monday, posters were displayed at various places on campus to make all students aware of the growing need to conserve energy.

Tuesday was bag lunch day. Bag lunches were served to the students instead of hot lunches in order to cut down on energy use in the cafeteria.

Today there was a parking lot check scheduled during the students' arrival at school. Club members gave away buttons which say "Be a dear, conserve energy" to those they found car-pooling. Buttons which said "Don't be a hog, conserve energy" were given to those found not car-pooling.

During the week the girls were passing out home check lists in their neighborhoods. These pamphlets, provided by Duke Power Co., stressed the need for families to watch their energy uses.

An Initiation

Women's Clubs Hold Fall Meeting

District 7 of the GFWC-N.C. Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its annual fall meeting Oct. 7 at First Christian Church in Eden.

The conference will begin at 9 a.m. with registration and refreshments followed by assembly at 10 a.m. and luncheon and award ceremonies at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. John V. Sutton, NCFWC president, and Mrs. Michael Lewis, NCFWC director of juniors, are guest speakers for the event.

Mrs. Sutton will speak on the subject "The Good of All — Federation." She has been an active member of the Federation for 24 years having served as first vice president, treasurer and president as well as positions in the education and home life departments and various committees. She has also served in her district as department chairman, chaplain, vice president and parliamentarian.

A native of Virginia, Mrs. Sutton and her husband reside in Greensboro and have two children and one grandchild. A member of the Charity League of Greensboro, she is active in her church and enjoys working with her husband to make jewelry and gifts from rocks. She is employed part time as a bookkeeper for a printing company.

"The Goal — Is It Worth the Effort?" will be the topic Mrs. Lewis addresses. She has served in various positions in the Federation including chairman of the junior education committee and director of juniors. In her district she has served on the constitution and bylaws committee and as arts division chairman.

Mrs. Lewis and her husband live in Gastonia with their daughter, Jennifer. Employed as director of publication and information with Gaston Memorial Hospital, she is an active member of Myers Memorial United Methodist Church and has served on the board of the Pfeiffer College Alumni Assn. and as division chairman of Gaston County United Way Campaign.

District Meeting

District 7 of the N.C. Federation of Women's Clubs, state unit of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will meet Tuesday at Eden's First Christian Church.

Registration begins at 9 a.m., followed by an opening assembly, luncheon and awards.

Speakers for the morning session will be Mrs. John V. Sutton, NCFWC president, and Mrs. Michael Lewis of Gastonia, state director of juniors.

The state president, who is a member of Greensboro's Charity League, will speak on "The Good of All—Federation." Helen has been active in federation work at the local, district and state levels for 24 years. At the 1978 state convention, her club honored her with an honorary NCFWC Life Membership. In addition to her federation work and a part-time job, Helen has been active in her church and in the Women of Orange Presbytery. She is on the Advisory Board of Glade Valley School. During her term as state federation president, she is having to put most of her church and civic work, as well as her "rockhound" partnership with husband John, on the back burner. Heading up an organization as large as NCFWC keeps her busy and on the go.

Topic for Lewis will be "The Goal: Is It Worth It?" Carol also has been an active federation member at local, district and state levels, and in her community and the United Methodist Church. As director of the Junior Women's Clubs, Carol is having to fit travel into a schedule which became busier in April when the Lewis daughter was born.

Festival Planned Saturday

GREENSBORO — District 7 of the GFWCNC Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its 16th annual arts festival Saturday at Centenary United Methodist Church.

First place winners, both clubwomen and students, from clubs within District 7 will be competing. Categories to be judged include crafts, sewing, literature, drama, public speaking, music and visual arts.

Students from area high schools will compete for the Sally Southall Cotton Scholarship, which is awarded annually by the NCFWC. The recipient of the Linda G. White Award for outstanding junior clubwoman will also be announced.

The Arts Festival will begin at 8:30 a.m. with registration and coffee. An executive board meeting follows at 9:45 a.m. with a noon luncheon and assembly in the afternoon. Mrs. John Dixon, district president, will preside at the assembly where winners will be announced and awards presented. There will be a short Junior Buzz Session at 10:30 a.m. also.

First place winners will compete in the State Arts Festival at Salem College in Winston-Salem on March 28.

Hostess club for the festival is Sedgfield Woman's Club. Mrs. R.W. Hubner is District 7 arts chairman.

Club Gets Firsts In Arts Contest

By PEGGY WYATT
NEWS Correspondent

On Saturday, March 7, the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs held the annual District 7 Arts Festival at Centenary United Methodist Church in Greensboro.

The Archdale-Trinity Woman's Club was represented by five of their members: Mrs. Janice Smith, Mrs. Peggy Wyatt, Mrs. Judy Grissom, Mrs. Joyce Varner and Mrs. Lynda Huffines.

Also attending were three Trinity High School students: Lori Bryant, Kelly Wyatt and Cindy Bingham.

The NCFWC Arts Department is organized into three divisions: Creative Arts, Visual Arts and Performing Arts. The A-T Woman's Club sponsored Trinity High students in all three divisions.

Winners in the creative arts division were: Literature: first place winners — Marjorie Ross and Marie Scott; third place winners, Geoff Zann and Lisa Delgatto. Craft winners were: second place — Kelly Wyatt, Lori Frye and Robin Patterson.

In the visual arts division, Dawn Hyde was the third place winner in arts — grade 10-11. Lori Bryant represented the A-T club in the performing arts division. She entered the public speaking contest and was awarded first place.

The local Woman's Club members entered 11 categories in crafts and one in arts. Mrs. Darlene Leviner placed first in decorative painting on wood, decorative painting on fabric and combination craft. She placed second in decorative painting on metal. She was given honorable mention for her overall workmanship in decorative painting on fabric.

Mrs. Peggy Wyatt was third place winner in the knitted garment category.

All first place winners will compete in the NCFWC state arts festival on March 28 at Salem College in Winston-Salem.

Lori Takes First Place

Lori Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Bryant of Route 1, Randleman, represented the Archdale-Trinity Woman's Club in the public speaking category of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs' District 7 Arts Festival in Greensboro on March 11.

Lori won first place in the public speaking contest with the topic "Draft Women?" She will compete March 28 at the NCFWC state Arts Festival at Salem College in Winston-Salem.

Lori is a senior at Trinity High School. She won the N.C. Girls' Extemporaneous Championship in 1979 and 1980. She was the Tr Heel Forensic League district champion in 1979 and a national qualifier for the National Forensic League finals in 1978, 1979 and 1980.

She plans to attend Appalachian State University in the fall.

Arts Festival

On Saturday in the Arts Center at Salem College, Winston-Salem, the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its annual Arts Festival, which also includes the Sallie Southall Cotton Scholarship final competition. High school students and clubwomen who have won first place at the local and district level will be competing for state honors.

The arts and crafts rooms will open to the public at noon. At 1:15 p.m. clubwomen and guests will gather in the auditorium to hear winners in music, drama and public speaking perform and to hear announcement of winners in art, crafts, photography, sculpture, sewing and literature. Winners in the 16 districts are competing for the scholarship and the winner will receive a four-year scholarship to a state university in the amount of $2,000 per year, according to Mrs. J.T. Moore of Henrietta, state scholarship chairman.

Mrs. J.C. Bolt of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Stokes Hepler Jr. of Thomasville are festival chairmen. The state president, Mrs. John V. Sutton (that's Helen), will preside.

Woman's Club Wins State Honors

By JANICE SMITH
NEWS Correspondent

The Archdale-Trinity Woman's Club honored one of its own members and received two state awards at the 79th annual convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, held April 26-29 at the Hyatt House and convention center in Winston-Salem.

During the opening night banquet activities, Mrs. Kern Holoman, president-elect of the NCFWC, presented Mrs. Shirley Clodfelter with an honorary lifetime membership. Mrs. Clodfelter was honored by the Archdale-Trinity club for her dedication and service.

The Archdale club was founded in 1959, and Mrs. Clodfelter is the club's only remaining charter member.

Local club members attending the opening night banquet were: Mrs. Clodfelter, Mrs. Janice Smith (club president), Mrs. Diane Brenner, Mrs. Judy Grissom, Mrs.

Lynda Huffines, Mrs. Diane Meredith, Mrs. Sara Newberry and Mrs. Joyce Varner.

During division awards presentation on Monday, the club received the Marie B. Hunt pitcher for the state's first place award in the performing arts division of the arts department.

During the special category awards on Tuesday, the local woman's club received the Margaret Taylor Harper Award for the state's first place winner in work with juniorettes. This award was presented to the club for the second year.

Clubwomen attending Monday and Tuesday activities were Diane Brenner, Lynda Huffines, Janice Smith and Joyce Varner.

The 1980-82 MCFWC theme is "The Union of All For the Good of All in Unity and Diversity." The state membership for women's clubs is 10,912. The convention theme was "Volunteer Recognition," with registration of 560 clubwomen.

My dear NORTH CAROLINA CLUBWOMEN:

At this Blessed Holiday Season, let me take the opportunity to thank each of you for all the support you have given to me during the years. I am very proud to be the President Elect of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and to be representing our great state of North Carolina as I travel throughout the United States and abroad. However, it is because of everything that all of you have done that makes this possible and I am grateful to each of you.

It would be impossible for me to write all of you individually; but, I would especially like to thank you personally, and each club, that has - and is - participating in the "FRIENDS OF JUANITA" Fund. My very deep gratitude for your contributions.

I would also like to encourage all of you to plan to go with us to North Dakota in June, 1982 for the installation. It is my hope that many clubs will have projects to send delegates to this convention and that we will have a good representation. The installation will be Friday night, June 11th. Watch the CLUBWOMAN for more information.

I would also like to express to you how very much I appreciate all that you are doing for our great North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs and your parent organization the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

I wish for you and yours a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Yours in Federation,

Juanita M. Bryant
