These are 194 readable stones. There are 8 stones with numbers or initials and one reads: 1839 ----- Hinshaw. There are a good many rocks left that mark graves and several stones that all markings are gone. Its the first cemetery the editor has seen with headstones facing two directions. Most of the older stones face the old Greensboro Road and Peter Dick's stone is one of those closest to the Road. The front row and those next to the church are facing towards the church and backing the older stones. Joel Ingold's stone is marked: Lauder, Fayetteville, N.C., perhaps made by them. Ed.

History of New Salem Methodist Church

Compiled and written by

Mrs. C. R. Wood 1968

The history of New Salem Methodist Church dates back to 1815.

It was originally started by the Society of Friends or Quakers. When William Dennis conveyed to Jesse Hinshaw and Joseph Elliott, in trust for The Society of Friends, a tract of land on which to build a house of worship.

The first building was a log structure, some time later it was weatherboarded, then finally torn down and replaced with a frame building.

The first church stood near the northeast corner where the cemetery now is.

For seventy four years these two buildings served as places of worship for the Friends. Around 1889 the Friends at New Salem united with others of their faith in another community and their church at New Salem was sold or given to a group of Methodists who were trying to organize a church at that time.

It is said there was one condition the Friends required of the Methodist group. That the cemetery be kept in order, and speaking of the cemetery, let me say here, that there are some interesting markings on some of the soapstones used for headstones in this cemetery.

There is one with the date 1800 No. 10. Another dated 1820 and the letters J. H. One dated 1820 No. 10 J. D. One dated 1823 M. D. Also the following: 1825 No. 28., 1825 No. 30 L. D., 1827 No. 41 P. E., 1827 No. 32 L. D. What these strange inscriptions mean no one seems to know. But personally I wonder if these could be graves of slaves or perhaps Indians?

The oldest graves I have found, with names inscribed, is Joseph Julian who died May 11, 1813, and William Victory May 11, 1817. Peter Dicks, who is reputed to be one of the founders of the town of Randleman, is buried in New Salem cemetery. His stone bears the date Dec. 1843. There is on record at this time (1968) 195 marked graves in the cemetery but there are scores of unmarked ones. The history of the cemetery seems to be much older than the history of the church. (Ed. note: Another section of this Quarterly Mrs. Wood has listed the cemetery stones.)

In the year of 1894 the Methodist protestants began plans to build a new church. Mr. James (Jimmy) Hayes of New Salem gave them a strip of land adjoining the church property on which to build the church.

At this time, we are told, they were holding their services in the school house, which stood near the place where Mr. and Mrs. Jim Trodgons home now stands. (Ed. between New Salem and Randleman southerly direction). Just how often they had services then, we cannot say, perhaps not very often, as the old circuit rider preacher usually had to travel on horse-back or in a buggy and some times he walked. The roads in those days were rugged, the winters cold, and many times the snows were deep.

There were no comfortable parsonages near by, for the preachers to live in, and they would travel on Saturdays, some times many miles, and spend the night with one of their members near the place where they would preach on Sunday.

Of course we cannot be certain who the preachers were for these first services held in the school house, but from an old Methodist protestant Journal I find that some of the preachers filling the pulpits of nearby churches of the same denomination were the Rev. William M. Pike, who was at the Randleman church in 1890-1891. Rev. C. A. Cecil was there in 1893 and Rev. W. F. Kennette was there in 1895. It is very probably these men were the very first preachers to preach at New Salem church at the time of its organization.

The new church building was completed in 1895 and the Rev. E. A. Plyler was assigned as the first regular pastor of the new church, November 1895.

Some of the Charter Members of the New Salem M. P. church were, Frank Bischer, David Fogleman, E. L. Hayes and Robert Taley.

The church was a one room wooden structure. There were no class rooms, all the people, young and old, met in the sanctuary for their Sunday School sessions. Some time later the classes were divided by drawing a curtain between them. There was a large wood-burner stove near the center of the church that furnished heat for the building. There was a lot of trees in the yard which served as hitching posts for the horses.

The Annual Conference of the Methodist protestant church always met in Nov. each year. They did not have District Supt. then as we do now, but a President of the Conference. It was considered quite an honor to have the president of the Conference to visit your church, which he did occasionally.

Rev. W. A. Bunch was President of the Conference at the time New Salem Church was organized.

The Randleman Circuit was set up in 1895. It consisted of the following churches: Mt. Lebanon, Worthville, Bethany and New Salem. These made up what was called the Four Point Circuit.

Twenty five years later in 1919 Bethany church was taken off this circuit and put on the Randolph charge and Level Cross church was put on the Randleman circuit. (Ed. Old M. E. church 3 miles north of New Salem.) The churches continued in this connection for thirty years then Mt. Lebanon church requested in 1949 to be removed and be made a two point charge with Old Union Methodist church. (Ed. Mt. Lebanon Methodist Church is in Randleman and Old Union Church about six miles west of Randleman. Both are older than New Salem and will be featured in future issues of the Quarterly.) Since that time the Randleman Circuit has remained a three point charge with Worthville, New Salem and Level Cross Churches. Rev. G. B. Ferree was the pastor at this time.

The Rev. Mr. Plyler left the charge in Nov. 1897 after serving two years. He was followed by Rev. P. C. Battle, who also served two years, from 1897 to 1899. Rev. J. F. Austin came in Nov. 1899. He was in the work one year. Rev. S. E. Lucas followed him in Nov. 1900. He served three years. Rev. J. H. Bowman was next, he came in Nov. 1903 and stayed two years. Rev. J. R. Hutton served one year from 1905 to 1906. Rev. W. A. Bunch came in Nov. 1906 and was serving in his third year when he died in 1909. Rev. W. C. Hammer supplied the balance of that year. Rev. T. H. Matthews was assigned to the work next and served two years. Rev. J. B. O'Bryant was the next pastor. He came in Nov. 1911. He was perhaps the most beloved pastor to serve the church. He was on the charge seven years, and was wanted longer but he felt that he had fulfilled his mission at New Salem and should go elsewhere. He left in Nov. 1918. Let me say here that during Rev. Mr. O'Bryant's pastorate a parsonage was bought for the charge. in Randleman and still serves as the parsonage. He may have lived in it for a few years but during part of the time he served the work he lived in New Salem, in the house now owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wood, and where they live. It was used several years for a parsonage. (Ed. Mr. and Mrs. Wood came to this parsonage to be married while the pastor was living there not knowing that one day they would own and live in the house.) Rev. E. G. Lowdermilk followed Mr. O'Bryant in 1918. He served one

Year. Rev. J. A. Ledbetter came in Nov. 1919 and was at New Salem two years. In the 1919 Conference Bethany Methodist church was taken off the charge with New Salem and Level Cross was added. (Ed. Bethany Methodist church is an old church and is east of New Salem about four miles.) Rev. H. S. B. Thomson was assigned to the charge in Nov. 1921 and served two years. Some time during his pastorate the parsonage was destroyed by fire.

Rev. J. H. Trolinger, a young minister, was assigned to the work next, in Nov. 1923. He and his young wife lived in Worthville, as there was no parsonage for them. But they spent much time in the planning and erection of a new parsonage, to replace the one burned. It was finished about the time he left the work a year later to resume his studies at Westminster Seminary. Rev. W. H. Neece moved into the new parsonage in Nov. 1924 and served four years.

Rev. T. A. Williams came in Nov. 1928 and served four years. Rev. J. B. Trodgon came in Nov. 1932 and stayed five years, until 1937. Rev. C. L. Spencer followed next and was at New Salem two years, leaving in 1939.

The year of 1939 marks the unification of Methodism. At this time the word "Protestant" was dropped from the church name. Being united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Episcopal Church, the church is now known as "New Salem Methodist Church".

Rev. J. R. Anderson was the first pastor of the New Methodist Church. He came on the work in Oct. 1939 and was serving in his second year when he died on July 7, 1941. As you will notice the annual conference has been changed now from Nov. to Oct. Rev. Robert Stamey, a young ministerial student from Duke University, was sent to finish out that conference year.

Rev. Y. D. Pool came in Oct. 1941 and served one year. Rev. J. H. Trolinger came next and served three years, from 1942 to 1945. Rev. Mr. Trolinger was the only pastor, in the history of the church, to make a repetition, coming back after having pastored the church eighteen years before.

Rev. J. C. Gentry was assigned to the charge next, Oct. 1945 and he served two years. Rev. G. B. Ferree followed next, he was on the charge three years, from Oct. 1947 to Oct. 1950. It was during Mr. Ferree's pastorate that Mt. Lebanon- Old Union charge was set up in 1949. This left Randleman Circuit a three point charge. Churches on the charge were, New Salem, Level Cross and Worthville.

In 1948 plans were made and construction started to build a new brick veneer church at New Salem.

Roy Hayes gave to the church a small strip of land adjoining the church property. This gave them ample room to turn the old church around, and convert it into class rooms. So only a new sanctuary was built.

Those serving on the building committee, with the pastor, were W. V. Bisher, Mike Fogleman, R. S. Hayes, Talmage Daniels, M. C. Henley, Cliff Hinshaw, Jesse Skeen, Bernard Richardson, Gene Hinshaw, R. F. Ward and Fuller Russell.

Rev. J. P. Rutledge came to the charge in Oct. 1950 and served two years. It was during his ministry that the new church was completed. He was followed in Oct. 1952 by Rev. Claud Young, who was pastor for four years.

On June 27, 1954 the laying of the corner stone and the dedication service was held. Rev. J. P. Rutledge, a former pastor, preached the dedication sermon. Rev. M. T. Hipps District Supt. of the Thomasville District, together with the pastor Rev. Young, and Rev. Rutledge with another former pastor, Rev. G. B. Ferree, took part in laying the corner stone.

In January 1955 the official board of the church voted to start a building fund for the purpose of building an educational building, as the class rooms had become over crowded and there were not enough rooms to accomodate the Sunday School.

A finance committee was appointed to look after the building fund program. This committee was; Gilbert Christenberry, Treas., Leard Brown and Mrs. Alta Johnson. One Sunday in each month was set aside as "Building Fund Sunday." The fourth Sunday in each month was chosen.

Several months later a building committee was appointed to start working on plans for the new building. This committee was; John Wood, Chairman, C. O. Hayes, and C.W. Henley. The first steps taken in this new project was to have a deep well drilled and pump installed. This was done in 1956. Rev. Mr. Young left the work in Oct. 1956.

Rev. Don Bridges followed Rev. Young. He served two years. His second year was a short term as the Annual Conference voted at their 1957 session to change the time of meeting from Oct. to June.

By the middle of the year 1957 the church was about ready to launch out in a new building project. John Wood donated to the church the land on which to build the new educational building, to the right of the church, and land for a driveway. The contract for the building was given to Coltrane and Graham of High Point, N.C. Sept. 1957. The contract price was $24,600.00 and this called only for the main floor of the building to be completed. The basement was to be finished later. This price did not include plumming, heating or wiring. These were separte contracts. Tom Henry Daniels was appointed overseer of the construction. Oct. 2, 1957 the first dirt was moved making ready for the foundation of the building. By April 1958 the new educational buildings main floor was completed.

On Easter Sunday April 6, 1958 the building was formally opened, when the two oldest members of the church, Mike Fogleman and Walter Bischer, cut the ribbon across the door leading from the sanctuary into the building. Then all the people present went through to view and admire the beautiful class rooms. But it was not until June 22, 1958, on the annual Home Coming Day, that all the furnishings were in and the rooms made ready for use by the classes.

Rev. Mr. Bridges left the work in June 1958. Rev. Vandry Williams was next. He served three years, leaving in 1961. He was followed in June 1961 by Rev. Coy L. Brown, Jr. He was on the wotk two years and left in June 1963.

In 1962 the basement of the educational building was completed and furnished. Early in 1963 all indebtedness was paid and it was formally dedicated on May 5, 1963.

Dr. Ralph Taylor, District Supt. of the High Point District, had charge of the dedication service.

Rev. Cameron M. Dodson was assigned to the charge in June 1963, and then in June 1964, the Rev. Lee Roy Hunt, was called as an Associate pastor. In June 1966 both Rev. Dodson and Rev. Hunt left the Circuit and was followed by Rev. Ervin S. Cook in June 1966. It was during Rev. Cook's pastorate that the Methodist Church joined with the Evangelical United Brethren Church, April 23, 1968. The special service of this historical event, officially consummating the union, took place in the arena of the Dallas Memorial Auditorium in Dallas, Texas. At this time the church name was changed from Methodist to the "United Methodist Church."

Rev. Mr. Cook left the charge in June 1968 after serving two years. He was followed by Rev. H. B. Hyatt.

ISAAC FARLOW'S STATEMENT OF REVOLUTIONARY EVENTS

Isaac Farlow aged 85 the 10th of October 1852, son of Nathan Farlow who came from Chester County, Pa. Captain William Clark lived about one mile west from Bells Mills in Randolph and was over 75 years old when he died which was 15 years ago--he had brothers Thomas, Edward, Samuel, Joseph, John.

William Clark was a Presbyterian before the war and acted clerk in that church at Union, N. C. 3 miles from Bells Mills, and would shed tears in giving out hymns, and remained a Presbyterian until after the war was over and told Isaac Farlow that war and bloodshed and Negro slavery was inconsistent with the Gospel and changed him.

Several years after the war he joined the Society of Friends--he was for a long time under concern of mind and on Saturday attended a meeting at Centre Meeting House of Friends in Guilford, at a Quarterly Meeting and Daniel Haviland from the north attended and preached--after the sermon had closed he rose and walked forward and spoke to the meeting and said he had a desire to become a member of that Religious Society--he had for some time before used the plain language--Isaac Farlow was present--(this was in 1800)

William Clark served a regular tour towards Charleston, S.C., under Genl. Lincoln.

And Clark was in an engagement in S.C. near Charleston and 700 were killed and he there killed a man himself. Clark died about the Union Factory on Deep River in Randolph.--- Farlow was always very intimate with Clark and was at his burying. Clark had Dougan a Son and a daughter Rachel married a Lamb--- another named Jane married Benja Saunders---Alexander--- John---Thomas.

Maj. Elrod was a Tory and held a commission---and he with Samuel Still and Michael Robbins on their way from Randolph to Surry County where Elrod's Mother lived---and met Henry Johnson and Robert Tucker, and Elrod had a new sword, and Johnson being on parol, having been taken prisoner by Col. Wm. Fields Company of Tories to be taken with John Graham, Joseph Johnson and others to Col. John Giles at Cairn Creek, and Giles hacking match taking place---Col. Fields turned Henry Johnson loose and the other Whig prisoners on parol---and Isaac Farlow saw Henry and Joseph Johnson Whigs returned home. Elrod knew Henry Johnson was on parol and as he with Saml. Still passed H. Johnson who had a gun, said he would chastise him for having a gun and stuck Johnson with his new sword and broke it and then with the peice he held knocked Johnson down and Still with a gun shot him---and then a fear arose that Tucker would alarm the lighthouse and they concluded to kill him---and Tucker rushed to the muzzle of the gun and turned it around and leaped off and escaped but a gun fired and broke Tuckers arm---Elrod---Still and Robbins went on from this place which was near Col. Hogans (Osborne place) and they went off the road to eat a bit and take a dram and heard horses feet along the road and went back and found fresh shod tracks and some thought them Quakers going to Meeting and others thought they were the Lighthouse tracks and Robbins then left and was never taken and finally left Randolph and went to the frontier of Georgia and never returned---took his family with him. Elrod and Still went on to Elrods mothers in Surry County and Tucker did arouse the Lighthouse and Col. Thomas Dougan and Captain William Clark, Jackie Veach, Bartholomew Grogan and many others pursued very quick and they went to Elrods mothers in the night in March 1782 and held a counsel what to do and sent Clark to the house to make a discovery and he found a high stump back of the house on which he got and stood and by the little light in the house through a crack could see 2 men in bed and one by the fire and their guns in the corner and returned and reported this.

and it was concluded for two to rush to the door and stave it down and take the men before they could get their guns--- and Veech volunteered to go with Clark and they started and getting near the house Veach flinched and gave back and declined and they returned to the company close by and Grogan then offered to go and he and Clark started and they went up to the door and before they reached the door Grogan gave back and Clark kept on by himself and stove the door off the hinges halfway across the house and seized a man in bed and rushed him to the fireplace and says I have got hold of Mr. Still and the man said no it was not--- and Clark jolted his head a few times against the mantle piece and Still said don't abuse me---and Clark said tell me no lies and I won't and then Still did not deny his name any more, and Clark knew him by the light.

And Clark said you had pretty fun killing Henry Johnson and Still said he was dead when I shot him(this was evidence that he killed him.) and Col. Dougan and his Company forthwith followed Clark and seized Elrod and the other man before they could get their guns- and when Still said Johnson was dead when he shot him Elrod said Still don't go to death with a lie in your mouth---and Col. Dougan's company held a sort of court martial and decided to shoot them and next day took them half a mile from his mothers and shot them both. Elrod behaved calmly, but Still turned and twisted and could not be kept quiet. Elrod was shot under the arm---for Isaac Farlow saw Wm. Durnell wear Elrods waistcoat after with a patch over the bullet hole---Elrod quietly submitted to his fate and distributed some of his clothing, and Elrod and still were left where they were killed. Col. Dougan had before this been taken prisoner by the Brittish and conveyed to a Prison ship at Wilmington, N.C. and his mother Mary Dougan and Matty Bell wife of William Bell went to the prison ship from Randolph to see Col. Dougan and they were refused the liberty of seeing him---and along time afterwards Col. Dougan was sentenced to be hung off the Prison ship and he was blindfolded to be swung off, and Elrod and Michael Robbins were present and begged him off, and he was discharged and sent home, and shortly after Isaac Farlow saw him very much emaciated walking the mill yard and Bells Mills² and bemoaned and sighed much and was very melancholy and he was so poor his legs did not near fit his long stockings,(he wore shorts.)

The Tories came one night to Wm. Bells to kill him and his house was barred and they could not get in and Bell put his head out at a window to shoot some of them with a pistol and one near struck him with a sword and his wife screamed and hollered and called a negro to run to Joseph Clarks(a brother of Williams) for the Lighthouse and one of the Tories thought he saw a negro run and the Tories left---and shortly the Lighthouse did pursue and Col. Dougan along and found the Tories down Deep River above the mouth of Webbs Creek³ and one by the name of Franklin mounted his horse and Col. Dougan pursued him horseback and levelled his gun and shot Franklin and he fell and begged to be helped up and Clark dismounted and helped him and always said that it was a sure work of a coward to crow over a man in his power---poor Franklin died. Col. Dougan was awhile confined at Wilmington before he was placed in a prison ship and used to say that every woman he saw his heart would rise to his throat fearing it was Franklin's wife come to have him hung.

When Col. Dugan and others took Elrod and Still, Elrod and Dougan sat on the side of the bed and talked a long time and Elrod urged upon Dougan to recollect that he saved him from being hung at the prison ship and Dougan replied to Elrod that for anything he ever did to him he could freely forgive him, but for Elrod having killed Henry Johnson he must be put to death. Isaac Farlow knows nothing of the families of Elrod and Still---Jo. Clark once shot at Michael Robbins.

(Farlow statement)

Sometime after Elrod was killed Capt. Wm. Clark went to Edward Thornburghs in Randolph and as he entered the door Michael Robbins rose and met him and offered Clark his hand and Clark took it and then they sat down and had a long talk about the whole matter. Clark was mowing near Thornburghs and broke his scythe and stepped over to Thornburghs to mend his scythe and found Robbins there by accident---Robbins was a bold and fearless man and often remarked before he left he feared nothing he had ever done except the affair of Johnson's death.

Joseph Clark lived near Bells Mills and married a Smith a family of Tories. A day or two after Col. Fanning and Company had killed John Bryant 2 miles South--west⁴ of Bells Mills Jo. Clark and others pursued and found a Tory running and rode after and overtook him and he got behind a sappling and there turned about and John Dougan snapped at him a few times and J. Clark rode up and fired and the Tory sank down as dead and Captl. Clark then rode and directed them not to leave the man till he was dead but they all went off and the Tory got up and ran off. Near Uwharrie Jo. Clark was after riding hard with Wm. Millikan and Clarks Horse flew the way and struck his head against a tree and in 2 or 3 days he died--- he left a widow and several children and all are now dead. His widow was afterwards married to Benjamin Mendenhall a member of the Society of Friends.

John Clark was Capt. Wm. Clarks youngest brother and took an active part in the war and was more bold and daring then any of them and resolute. Samuel Clark was their father and came from Ireland.

Elrod was only occasionally with Col. Fanning. Col. Fanning and company had hung a Whig(his name is not known) when returning from killing Bryant for the Whigs had before hung a Tory on the limb near Browsers and Spinks named Isaac Jackson and Fanning had threatened he would hang 5 Whigs on the same limb for every Tory the Whigs hung, but Fanning mistook the limb and hung the Whig on another limb near it--- and the limb was hacked off where the Whig was hung near a short turn in the road when the Lighthorse rode up in pursuit of Fanning after Bryants death and found the Tories laying out the corpse of the Whig and they ran off and it was one of these whom John Dougan snapped and Jo. Clark shot when he sank down and after run off.

Isaac Farlow has seen the hack in the limb where Fanning hung the Whig.

John Bryant was killed $\frac{1}{2}$ mile south of the New Market where Joseph Newland lives---at his own house?---Stephen Walker was a bloody Tory and was with Fanning when Bryant was killed. Bryant must have been on a parol, and had a Captains commission on the Whig side(tho he had been a Tory) for when he was attacked in the night in his own house and required him to surrender he asked what they would do with him if he did not surrender and they answered they would parol him and Bryant replied damn you and your parol too; I have had one and I will never take another, and Fanning spoke and said my life for his if Walker don't kill him. Fanning and company in going to Bryants missed their way and got Betsy and Alcey Horlin⁶ 2 daughters of Stephen Horlin to go and show them Bryants house and these girls who were forced to go begged of Bryant to surrender assuring him it was Col. Fanning who was there, but Bryant would not believe Fanning was there and cursed Fanning and the whole of them. And one of the girls was about to go in, for Bryant opened the door to let her in and Walker caught her by the coat and pulled her back and swore he was going to protect Bryant. After many hours of resistance, Bryant opened the door and stepped out on the step and said Gentlemen I surrender----and he was forthwith shot down not known by whom and he fell back against his wife who was at his back and she was raising him up and another man stepped up and shot him in the eye. Fanning threatened death to any who would give the alarm before daylight after Fanning rocking himself awhile in the cradle, and straightway Richard Isaacs who lived at Bryants went to Nathan Farlows and he and his wife Ruth went to Bryants before day and Nathan stayed off a little and Ruth went up and passed the dead body of Bryant, finding his head in the house and feet and legs outdoors. Shortly Nathan went up, finding all the party had left, and by daylight they had Bryant laid out, and at sunrise Isaac Farlow went himself and saw the corpse and the two bullet holes. No ball went through him ---the first shot was in his breast. The Horlin girls said the firing was with rifles.

Fanning on his way to Bryants, pressed Benja Millikan and Joshua Lowe with him as pilots to Col. Collier's house--- Collier was at home asleep and had his horse at the door eating out of a mortar and Benja Fincher with a gun keeping watch on a pile of rails; when Fanning approached Fincher hailed and Fanning made Millikan and Lowe answer Fincher kept hailing and they answering till Fanning came up and some of them fired guns at Fincher and he had a tight vest on and the bullets glanced and he came where Bryant was a corpse and Isaac Farlow saw the next day the place on the vest where the bullet glanced---when Fincher was fired upon he hopped off the rail pile leaving his musket and ran. The firing waked Col. Collier and he rose and cried out, "parade boys, parade," and this checked Fanning a little and this allowed Collier time to mount his horse and escape. Col. Collier was county surveyor and was not capable and brought William Clark from Virginia to do the business; and Clark found where the vacant land was entered, Nathan Farlow, Horlins and others, and after Clark employed Linder to sell his lands and Ralph Lowe, Jno. Bryant helped Clark to survey; and Nathan Farlow had to pay a fat steer and gold for his land, and after Nathan Farlow owned all Lowe's land and Bryant's land and Collier's too, and Isaac Farlow now lives on the Lowe land. N. Farlow thought very hard of their near neighbor Lowe and Bryant for assisting Clark in taking their land away.

Fanning had old William Millikan's house burnt and Collins and Col Thomas Dougan's, and all this was done the same trip, and he had killed Col. Balfour on his way before he got to Collier's, and Millikan's house also burnt before and the barn, and Millikan's son Benja and Joshua Lowe he took as pilots.

Wherever Fanning found the man and killed him, he did not burn the house.

Nathan Farlow has drafted and declined going and was fined 10 pounds and Genl. John Hamilton was fine collector and he took Farlow's horse to Martinville⁷ and sold him for Farlow's fine.

ISAAC FARLOW

Thomas Farlow came from England to Virginia with his wife and daughter Ann in the "Ship Ann2" and were living close to Jamestown, Virginia in 1623. He was in the House of Burgesses in 1631-32. About the year 1758 John Farlow, descendant of the fourth generation from Thomas came to North Carolina with the families of Carters and Harlans, from Penn. where some of the Virginia family had moved. The three families had intermarried, Ruth Carter married Nathan Farlow, a grandson of John, and became the mother of all North Carolina Farlows. Margaret Farlow, a daughter of John, was married to William Harlan and stayed in Penn.

Michael Farlow, who married Mary White in Old Swedish Church in Wilmington, Del., came to North Carolina with his father John.

Michael was the father of William, George and Nathan. Nathan Farlow married Ruth Carter and had 11 children, one Isaac Farlow.

Ruth Carter Farlow came from Chester County, Penn. with her family and a group of other families and settled with her family on a small strip of land later cut from Orange county to make Guilford and Randolph and was about a mile south of Marlboro Friends Church. Ruth and Michael are buried in Marlboro Church.

NEW SALEM LODGE NO. 209
THE GRAND LODGE
OF ANCIENT, FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS
OF NORTH CAROLINA

Masonic Lodge No. 209 of New Salem, N. C. was chartered on December 7, 1859. The meetings were held in a two-story, eight room, wooden house, that stood where the present brick store, between the Oscar Hayes and Roy Hayes house's are, on the street in New Salem. First officers were: L.C. Underwood, E.H. Lineberry, S. Lineberry.

The lodge was moved to Randleman in 1880 and the name was officially changed to Randleman Lodge No. 209 on December 8, 1880.

The lodge home was a building standing when the lodge began to use it for meetings. It had four large rooms upstairs and four down stairs, with fireplaces. E. P. (Pierce) Hayes may have owned the house before and during the time the lodge met but he owned it later. After the lodge moved to Randleman Mr. Hayes rented the house for a dwelling, then it was moved down Naomi street, back on the hill facing the present Shaw street and later it caught fire and burned.

According to records in the Masonic office in Raleigh, N.C. this lodge apparently had a rather stormy career. The records show that it forfeited its charter in 1887 but had it restored in 1888. It was active again until 1895 when it again surrendered its charter. This time it was officially restored on August 4, 1896, and was active until January 31, 1942 when the charter was arrested by the Grand Lodge. When a lodge gives up its charter for any reason, the Grand Lodge takes all books and records. There are two minute books and several cash books or ledgers in the Raleigh that was turned in when the charter was arrested the last time.

Four of these books have been examined. The oldest date found was Dec. 27, 1899. One page with the above date and the following information was listed.

Holly Barker recieved and committee on petation was: B. H. Lassiter, J. M. Pugh and F.N. Ingold.

Rent due Dr. W.A. Woolen for office building.

C. H. Henly was granted a dermit.(added later) but never sent to him had no blank Officers serving Dec. 1899:

S. G. Newlin, S. W.	J. L. Lassiter, Sec.
J. M. Pugh, J. W.	J. R. Betts, Tylr.
Benj. Lassiter, Treas.

New officers elected for the year 1900:

S. E. Bostic, W. M.	S.E. Kirkman, J.D.
S. G. Newlin, S.W.	J. M. Brown, Tylr.
C. K. Bryant, J.W.	D. A. Harmon, and
Benj. H. Lassiter, Treas.	J. L. Lassiter, stewards
J. R. Betts, Sec't.
W. W. Evans, S. D.

Others listed in the minutes on committees and in reports were:

Adam Brown, F. N. Ingold, C. H. Hurley, J. N. Caudle

There were no members roll listed in Book I, Dec. 1899, Jan. 1900, Dec. 1901. Minutes begin August 1911 and show two meetings. There are a few written through 1913. Three of the books showed meetings through April 29, 1941, when the lodge disbanded and granted demits to all those desiring them. Last officers listed were:

T. L. Helms, W. M.
H. H. Hamilton, S. W. Sec't.
W. F. Matthews, J. W.
J. V. Fox, Treas.

J. G. Brown, S. D.

Lodge Meetings Held

NEW SALEM, N. C. -- Hayes House

RANDLEMAN -- Woolen Building, Hayes Racket Store and a mention a the lodge's "new building."

Dec. 1, 1926 -- The books show that Brothers G. G. Smith and J. F. Schaeffer were efforts in securing an electric sign to place outside the Lodge Meeting hall. What records are left of the 80 odd years of service of New Salem Lodge No. 209 also show many acts of kindness and help that the members did.

Ed. - We are grateful for the kindness and help of Mr. Charles A. Harris, P.G.M., Grand Secretary, The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of N.C., (P.O. Box 6506) Raleigh, N.C. for his help and interest in this article. He would appreciate any one having any records or old books that would help fill in the years that are missing to please get in touch with him so that he might save all the old records. Charter Member

Mrs. Joseph R. (Glenn Floyd) Lassiter's name was omitted from the list of Charter Members in the March 1968 issue of the Quarterly. We regret this omission. St. Paul Church was her family church and she worked faithfully in many jobs while the church was active. Her father, A.M. Floyd, was Sunday School Supt. for many years. The family is buried in St. Paul Cemetery. She was one of the first to join The North Randolph Historical Society.

 Families still in New Salem or areas close by.
 Picture and hymn book, cover June issue, loaned by his granddaughter, Mrs. G. E. Wertz, Apt. Q, Oxford Place, High Point, N. C.

The N.R.H.S. has several electrostats of original material signed by the above postmasters, some with geographical site locations pertaining to the New Salem post office drawn by them, at the time of their service. These will be placed in the Museum.

North Carolina mail route registers for the years 1830-34 shows New Salem was on mail route No. 2164 from Leaksville to Asheboro, N.C. over which distance of 62 miles the mail was carried by William Dennis, Jr. twice a week.

A post office was established at Walker's(sic) Mills(sic), Randolph county, N.C., on February 9, 1832, with Jesse Walker appointed as its only postmaster. Walkers Mill post office was discontinued on October 18, 1836.
Ed.- Walkers Mill(as the place is still known, was once Pells Mill, is approx. 2 miles west of New Salem.)

GENEALOGY

Mr. Edwin A. Arnold, 1341 West Hammer Lane, Stockton, California 95207

I am interested in a FRANCIS ARNOLD, who was in Randolph Co., N.C., in 1790 and 1820 and in Bedford Co., Tenn. in 1820. My grandfather, JESSE ARNOLD; b Dec. 1800, I do not know the place of his birth. He died in Dec. 1832, in Bedford Co., Tenn. He was married to Katherine Morgan, b Sept. 11, 1789; Rowan Co., N.C. Their children were James T. Arnold; Francis Arnold; Marion Arnold; Martha Arnold, and Benjamin Pleasant Arnold, my grandfather. I think my Jesse Arnold, could have been a son of Francis Arnold.

Mrs. James D. Fraser, 777 South 5th Street, Coos Bay, Oregon 97420

Randolph county, N.C. will of EDWARD SHARP, died 1789, mentions daughter Isbel. When was she born and whom did she marry? Will of JOSEPH KERR, probated 1784, names sister MARY DOUGAN. What was name of her husband? She could not have been mother of THOMAS DOUGAN (1746-1795) as has been assumed by some researchers.

Mrs. Don Bradbury, 1306 South Washington Street, Ellis, Kansas 67637

I would like any information of the UNDERHILL'S of Randolph county, N.C. Specifically, JOHN UNDERHILL, SR. and sons, WILLIAM, JOHN, JR., AND DANIEL.

Mr. John M. Nees, Route 2, Greenup, Ill. 62428

Will exchange information on DAVID NEES (P) b Guilford Co., N.C. April 22, 1808 m SARAH HAGIE June 26, 1834. DAVID d June 26, 1890, SARAH d Oct. 2, 1899 both in Jasper Co., Ill. Would like parents names & dates of DAVID. Also info on RACHEL PEGGIE (GREESON) FOUST who married JOHN FOUST. Both b around 1800. My Gr Gr grandparents came from Guilford Co., N.C. (near the Brick Church at Alamance, N.C.) David and wife left there abt 1875. Could any of David's brothers or sister's families still live in N.C.?

Mrs. Golden (Mary Todd) Greeson, Route 1, Toledo, Illinois 62468

Would like information on following: Who is the father of DAVID GREESON born 1800 Guilford county, N.C., married ELIZABETH INGOLF (D) on the 4, Dec. 1819 Guilford Co., N.C.? Was it SAMUEL GREESON born abt 1770 Guilford Co., N.C. Also any info on COLLIN CAMPBELL TODD born in N.C. 16 Apr. 1808 who married SARAH STILES of Green Co., Ohio (18 Apr. 1819) and died in Coles Co., Ill. 2 Dec. 1890. Will exchange on following: GREESON-TODD (HANOVER TODD'S of Pa.) Scotland to Ireland to Pa. to Ohio to Ill.; Walters; Mohler; Graves; Monfort; Holsapple; Hubbard; Seaman; Stitt; Rinker; Ingole; Pittenger; Sterrett; Elliott; Johnston; Collum; Aldrich; Laslie; Ketchall; Spriggs. Will also do research in Coles and Cumberland counties in Ill.

Mrs. Henry Lee (Myrtle H.) Cranford, 5456 North Cherry Street, Winston Salem, N.C.

Will exchange info on the following families: CRANFORDS; LASSITERS; HENLEYS; VARNERS; COGGINS. (ED. note: Mrs. Cranford joined our Society and was to fill in a Family Sheet and A Query but was in a very bad accident and tho recovering has not felt up to furnishing information yet. If you are interested in any of these families, please write her as she has done several weeks research in Randolph Co. records and has files on these families. We decided to make her interests available and will give Query info later.)

Mrs. Ralph O. Frazer, 145 East Dauenhauer St., East Syracuse, N.Y. 13057

I am interested in the FRAZER and STANLEY families of the 1750's and 1830's. They were members of the Quaker sect. Published records of the time do not seem to be complete as they are not mentioned. THOMAS/GEORGE FRAZER who's sons married into the STANLEY and SOFFRIGHT families, 1790's in Guilford, later Randolph Co., N.C. This family is another set from those listed in Robert H. Frazer's book, "Descendants of David Coltrane and James Frazer of N.C." THOMAS/GEORGE FRAZER b c 1740-1750 Scotland(?) resided in Guilford/Randolph Co. m MARY ---c 1765. Ch.: THOMAS b 1769 m MARY ---, JOHN b 1769 m MARY STANLEY, GEORGE m MARY RUSSEL, DAVID m ELIZABETH STANLEY, ISAAC m REBECCA SOFFRIGHT, FRANCIS m SOLOMON REYNOLDS, RACHEL believed never to have married, ANN m THOMAS RUSSEL. One of the ELIZABETH'S may be ELIZABETH SOFFRITE. (Could THOMAS b 1769 have m CATHERINE PARSONS 3 Sept. 1818?) Would appreciate any info concerning any of the above families as they were so inter-related and had intermarried so much, also honored so many of the parents with the given name its a maze to fit them in the right places. Many of these "children" went to Ohio, Indiana and Iowa. (Ed. In some records turned in we have found, from Randolph Co., N.C. the following. We have not had time to check to see if these connect or are in Mrs. Frazer's line. Perhaps they would help some one in writing to her: JAMES R. FRAZER m CENITH HOLEDAY (HOLIDAY) 27 Dec. 1868, place ----, by P. FRAZER. parents of JAMES R./ GEO. B. FRAZER and ELIZABETH ---FRAZER. Parents of CENITH: ABRAHAM and ANNA ---RICHARDSON. J.A. FRAZER and ELIZABETH STALEY (NOT STANLEY) on the 19 of Jany. 1866, P.M. BALWIN, Elder.)

Does any one have PENNINGTON or BEESON material that would help me prove this connection? I have much data on many PENNINGTON lines and will gladly exchange.

Mrs. Daisy Pierce Sellingslah, 4167 Park Lane, Dallas, Texas 75420

Would like information of PHILIP PEARCE who was in Caswell Co., N.C. 1800-1810-1820. He must have left Caswell Co., after 1823 as that was last date of land transaction listed. The family may have gone to Tenn. and later to Miss. I have found PHILIP PEARCE (PIERCE) listed in Randolph, Montgomery, Caswell, Franklin, Johnston Co., N.C. in different transactions and census. Would appreciate any information of a PHILIP PEARCE mentioned in N.C., Tenn.

Dear Members:

If you have sent in a Query and do not find it printed will you please send me information again. All the materials for the Quarterly plus the genealogy files, with some of the gifts to our Museum are at my home until we can get the building prepared for the material. Many items are, also, in the homes of our President and secretary with some now in the process of being moved into the Museum.

For our Open House events, 2-5 Sunday evening hours every 4th Sunday, many of the items are packed, carried to town, unpacked, displayed, packed, carried, unpacked and stored again. This can create problems.

We want, so much, to collect files that will be a help to any one looking for our county material. That takes a while. Do not think that we ask for your family sheets and then forgot you. I must confess, being a young Society and untried, we might, at times, have promised more than we have produced, for the present. Proof is about one hundred letters, unanswered. For some of our readers, you will find material that is old and familiar to you---BUT NOT TO MANY OF OUR RANDOLPH COUNTY members, tho its county or state material. Some will be incorrect, as we try to preserve as much as possible, with out facilities to check materials. We welcome corrections, as we want our records correct.

We will be glad to print Queries for any one with Randolph county lines. We do ask that you send us a family sheet so that we can file and members and guests can check while they are in the Museum. We will make notations and add to your material and will be glad to write you when something is added. PLEASE DO NOT SEND US ANY MATERIAL THAT YOU DO NOT CARE TO BE COPIED OR PUT IN A PUBLIC FILE with out marking it as such. If you would like it kept confidential, please mark it.

We will ONLY do checking in general for names. We have found ourselves expected to do many family lines and have made repeated trips to the county courthouse (Asheboro-13 mi.) 25¢ a sheet if photocopied and then been told that they already had the material or no answers. Beginning January 1, 1969 no letters will be answered with out a self-stamped envelope is enclosed.

Be patient with us, we'll answer your letters and hope you'll write, again!
