

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

Sophia, rt. 1 — July 20 — Mr. and Mrs. Ormie Rich, Esther Rich and Nora Farlow recently visited relatives at Elizabeth City and other places of interest in the eastern part of the state.

Tuesday, November 6, 1958

Final Rites Earl F. Bulla Held Wed.

Final rites for Earl Franklin Bulla, 69, were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home on the Lexington road with the Rev. Brunson Wallace, pastor of the Central Methodist church officiating. Interment was made in the Oaklawn cemetery.

Pallbearers were William K. Johnson, Jack Garner, S. E. Triggdon, E. N. Morgan, Charles Hoover and T. P. McKellar.

Mr. Bulla died unexpectedly at the Randolph hospital Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock, when he had been a patient for ten days following surgery.

A native of Randolph county, he was a son of Dr. Jeff D. Bulla, of Trinity and the late Mrs. Mattie McCrary Bulla.

Mr. Bulla was a retired dairy farm and dairy plant operator and was a member of the Central Methodist church. Since his retirement a few years ago he and Mrs. Bulla have been residing during the winter months in Florida where they have a winter home at Ft. St. Surviving are his father, Dr. J. D. Bulla of Trinity; his wife, Mrs. Blanche Millikan Bulla; one daughter, Mrs. R. C. Solder of Troy; one son, William Bulla of Ashboro; one sister, Mrs. Ella Mae Farlow of High Point; and three brothers, Alex and Davey Bulla of Trinity and Jack Bulla of Ashboro and four grandchildren.

Life Spent In Concern For Others Funeral Held For Mrs. Whitehead

By RALPH L. BULLA

Mrs. Jessie Davis Whitehead, a well known resident of New Market township, was buried Saturday afternoon in the cemetery of the Marlboro Friends Meeting House, of which place she was a birth-right member.

She died Thursday afternoon at her home on Route 1, Sophia, after a serious illness of three months. She was 75 years of age.

A native of the Cedar Square section north of the

An Enid, Okla., doctor, whose great-grandfather was a pioneer Randolph County doctor and in whose family there have been eight doctors, visited recently with relatives in this vicinity.

Dr. Mike Dougan, accompanied by his wife, their two children and his wife's parents, paid a brief visit recently with Ernest Clark in Ashboro and with members of the Dougan family west of Ashboro.

Parker Funeral Held Wednesday At Mt. Pleasant

Thomas Lemuel Parker, 92, retired farmer, died at his home in the Fairview community in Randolph county at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been in declining health for two years and in a serious condition eight weeks.

He was born in Randolph county March 11, 1862, the son of John Calvin and Angelina People Parker. He had spent his entire life in Randolph county and was a member of Mt. Pleasant Methodist church.

He was twice married, first to Miss Mary Hodge, who died Dec. 1, 1926; and then later he married Miss Eula Lovings.

Surviving are his wife, the first marriage, Luther C. Parker of High Point; Mrs. Maggie Morris of near Trinity and Mrs. Myrtle Burchfield of High Point, several grandchildren. Funeral service was held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Mt. Pleasant Methodist church in Randolph county and burial was in the church cemetery.

2-68

Son Of Local Pioneer Visits In Randolph

Harvey and Etta, Dougan didn't like the Indian territory and soon came back to Randolph County with her three children, McKay Dougan remained in Oklahoma and upon becoming a young man, Arch Dougan rejoined his father, studied medicine and became a doctor also.

Dr. Arch Dougan married after going back to Oklahoma, resided and practiced medicine in the town of Carmen, and became the father of three children. He died two or three years ago and one of his three children is Dr. Mike Dougan, who visited here recently with relatives.

Funeral Held For Mrs. Whitehead

Ernest Clark, with whom the doctor and his family visited in Ashboro, was a first cousin of Dr. Arch Dougan and in his younger years went to Oklahoma and worked on the doctor's ranch farm. The members of the Dougan family, including Joe, Glenn, Tom and Wade Dougan and their sister, Mrs. Essie Dougan Routh, are first cousins of Dr. Mike Dougan, as their father, Harvey Dougan, was a brother of Dr. Arch Dougan.

The Oklahoma visitors visited with Dr. J. D. Bulla at his home and went on to High Point to visit with Everett and Wade Marsh, sons of Mrs. Etta Dougan Marsh, sister of Dr. Arch Dougan, the Messrs. Marsh also being first cousins of Dr. Mike Dougan.

These visits continued, even more regularly, after Jessie's illness as the friends came out of concern for her condition and to help make pleasant her last days.

May the people still come, to comfort the aged and lonely man as he sits in his rocker and remembers the happy days which he and Jessie spent, dating back through the past 50 years.

place at which her life came to an end, she was married on August 12, 1909 to Banner J. Whitehead, a native of Adams County, who survives her at the age of 85 years.

She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Sallie Arrington, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Jennie Welborn of High Point. She was the youngest child of David Stanton and Elizabeth Spencer Davis and except for the first five years of her marriage she spent her entire life in the vicinity in which she was born and in which she died.

Three friends, Bobby Medford, York Teague and Isaac Harris, ministers of the Friends faith, officiated at the funeral, the Cedar Square quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jody Coltrane, Sonny Davis and Bobby Hatt, some of the young people which she loved so much, sang two songs, "Tomorrow May Mean Good-bye" and "There Is a Wonderful Country Somewhere."

Pallbearers were Kenneth Pugh, D. S. Davis, Branson Davis, Robert Davis, Fred Brewer, David Davis, Will Coltrane and Henry Crofts, all of whom were neighbors and friends.

Two significant statements were brought out by the ministers in their prayers and their eulogy. One gave thanks "for every kind, loving and generous deed" while another one referred to the "love, devotion and concern."

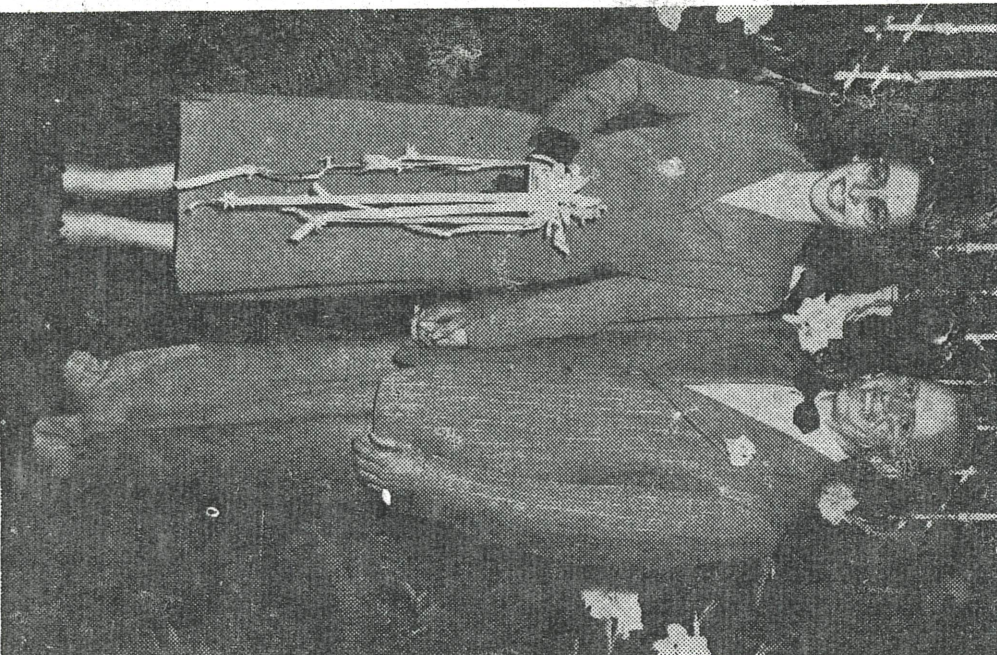

These statements characterized the life of Jessie Whitehead. Her life had been spent in concern for others and many had been the recipient of her kindness and hospitality. The home which she and Banner had maintained for over half a century had been a hospitable place, to which their large number of friends had always been made welcome.

For a period of years, before they had become less active, Banner and Jessie Whitehead had invited a group of the older people of the community to partake of their hospitality at Thanksgiving and a similar group of the younger people to come at Christmas. During their 45 years of residence at the place where Jessie died, friends, relatives and acquaintances found the Whitehead doors wide open and they came continuously to visit and to fellowship with this beloved couple.

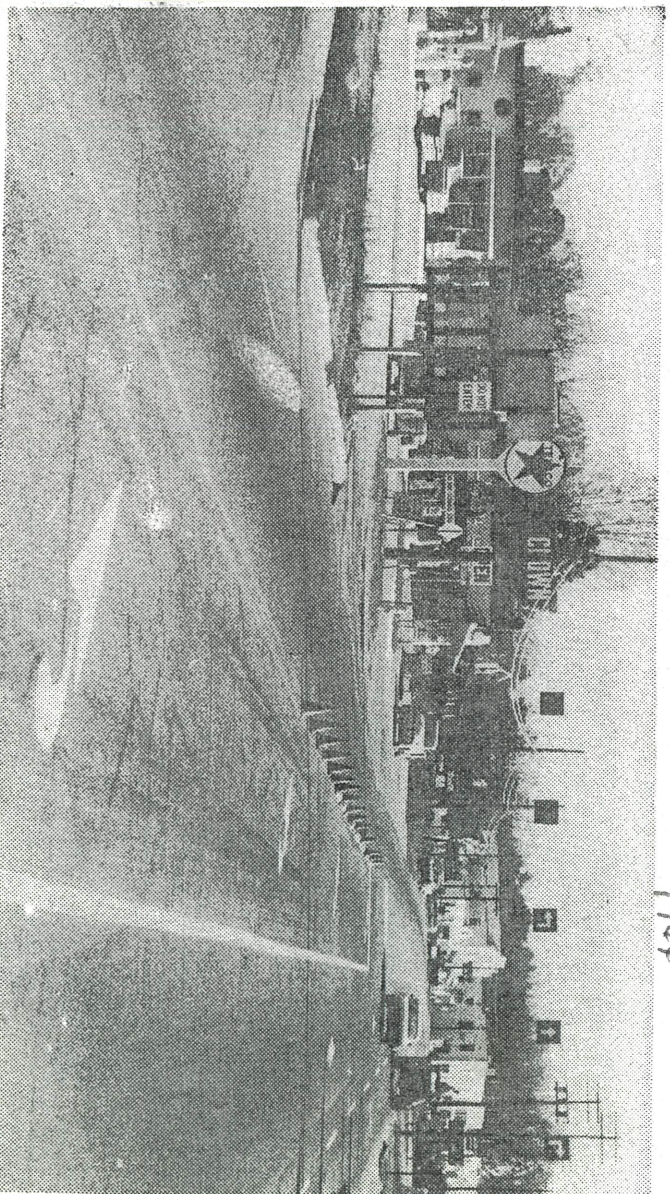

These visits continued, even more regularly, after Jessie's illness as the friends came out of concern for her condition and to help make pleasant her last days.

May the people still come, to comfort the aged and lonely man as he sits in his rocker and remembers the happy days which he and Jessie spent, dating back through the past 50 years.

(N. C.) Enterprise, Sunday, Oct. 1, 1950

BRIDAL COUPLE—Mr. and Mrs. Clinton James Brown are pictured above following their marriage at Glenola Baptist Church Saturday evening September 23. The bride is the former Miss Margie Lee Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Small of Sophia.

SHOWING THE WAY ON S. MAIN

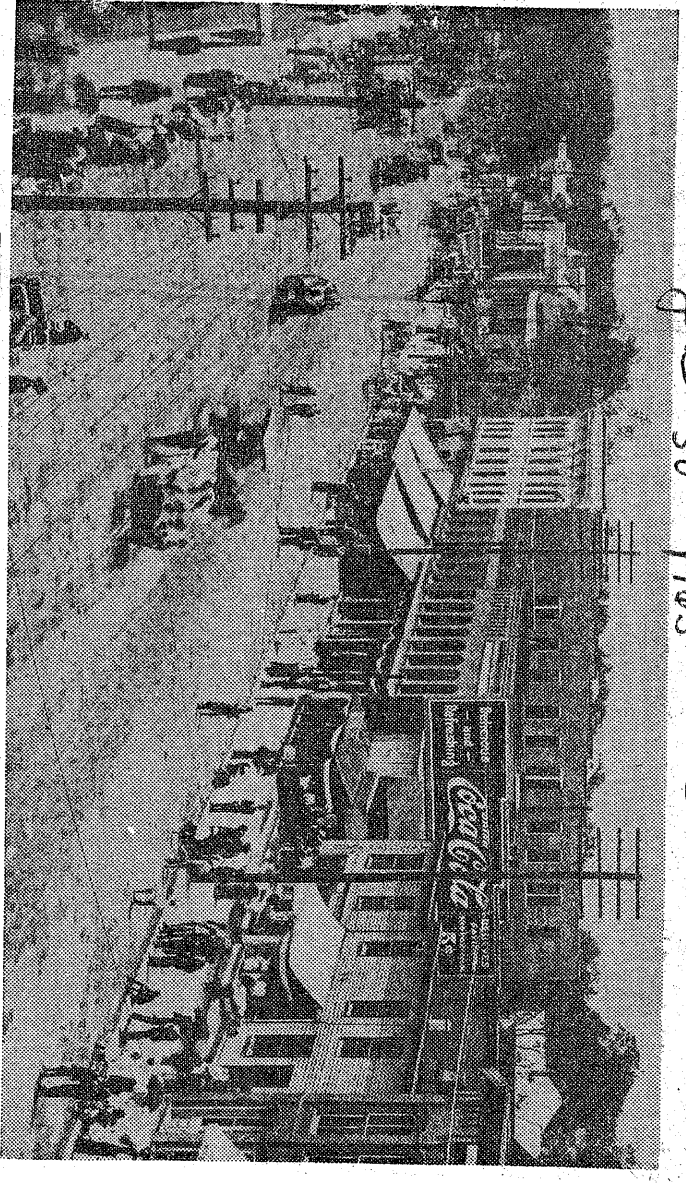

Traffic officers are trying to break motorists of the dangerous habit of making left turns off S. Main Street to get onto the Superhighway. Traffic "mushrooms" were installed on the street to direct motorists to turn right to get onto the highway, either from a north or south direction. After two near-wrecks at 1946

PARADE DOWN MAIN STREET

Glorious 4th In Old High Point

July 30 1963

FOURTH OF JULY PARADE IN HIGH POINT, ABOUT 1907

Fast as the Plays Occur" was a headline on a pre-World Series Story. Ernest Shore, now sheriff of Forsyth County, pitched for the Philadelphia Phillies that year.

There was an outbreak of Spanish influenza in High Point in 1918 and by the second month 18 persons had died. Mayor William P. Ragan was one of its victims when he died on Oct. 15 after a 3-days' illness.

During the war years, the United States issued bonds to be sold to the citizens. Prior to the fourth round of selling 1-billion bonds, valued at some $6 million, High Point was assigned the quota of $775,100. It was a little different in the yesterday of High Point.

Even had Fourth of July celebrations. People from in and around High Point gathered for the big parade, possible some fireworks and plenty to eat. This type of thing went out some time ago, except for the fireworks display that some cities still have.

Still along the entertainment line, there seems to have once been an Eagle Theatre around town. Denealaker's Musical Comedy Co. was said to be "the best that has struck town in some time."

Another theatre that was operating in High Point around 1920 was the Broadway. "Absolutely one of the greatest pic-

In the early High Point business world, it seems office space in the Peacock-Sheraton building could be rented from $7.50 to $10 a month. In another place someone was offering $1.50 a day to help "develop child welfare in High Point."

Newspapers were pretty cheap back then too. A one year's subscription was only $5, or 10 cents a week.

It seems that in 1914 they had something that we do not see much of now, circus parades. On April 15 the Enterprise published an advertisement for the Sparks Circus and the circus parade to start at 10:30. Also, they claimed to have "rents that are positively watertight."

The book reports that they

High Point then was governed the Board of Aldermen in- d of the City Council under present setup. According to High Point, the Manufacturing City," the law enforcement agency had only three members and the mayor and board of aldermen served without pay.

Around town:

The High Point Enterprise carried an advertisement from the Braher Pearsall establishment, which was going out of business. It seems that back then they had some real "hot bargain" sales. "The wizard" had to sell the entire stock.

Slogan

The eye-catching slogan used was in big bold letters spelled across the page: "Come Hitch Your Money to the Biggest Load It Has Ever Pulled."

24
Feb 14 1964
W. Cox

June Wiley Cox, 57, of 107 Oak St. died Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in High Point Memorial Hospital. He had been in declining health for one year.

Mr. Cox was born April 7, 1909 in Frankville, a son of Baskin and Alice Fernae Cox. He lived in the High Point area most of his life and was of the Baptist faith. He was last employed at Triangle Hosiery Mill.

In 1956, he was married to the former Mrs. Lois Ledwell Miles, who survives of the home.

Surviving in addition to his wife are three step-sons, Raymond Miles of Rt. 3, High Point, John S. Miles of New Hope, Va., and Eugene C. Miles of 218 Lindsay St.; one step-daughter, Mrs. H. J. (Doris) Austin of 81 Westchester Dr.; nine step-grandchildren; two sisters, s. Kelly Bailey of Rockingham and Mrs. Lena Ethroy of Spartanburg, S. C.

Funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at Gimby Chapel by Rev. Woodrow W. Robb. Burial will be in Floral Garden Park Cemetery. The body will remain at the funeral home until placed in the chapel 30 minutes prior to the services. The family will be at the funeral home tonight from 7 until 9.

JOHN BALL

Lonnie D. Jones of 117 Jackson Ave. is manager of the new Big Bear Supermarket in the Southgate Shopping Center. Formerly with the Wreem Street Big Bear, he has been with the company for 20 years. He is married and the father of two children.

LONNIE JONES

Unusual Civil Case

Randleman Teacher Is Jailed After Widow Alleges Assault

A Randleman High School teacher was held in jail for some four hours yesterday before he was released after posting $5,000 bond for his appearance to answer civil charges growing out of the alleged assault of a 20-year-old widow.

Termed an "unusual" action by attorneys, the teacher, Jacob M. Smith, about 51, was arrested at the close of school yesterday afternoon and was held in jail until shortly after 7 p.m.

The plaintiff in the action, Mrs. Jewell Y. Kersey, widow of Henry C. Kersey, of Sophia, is seeking a total of $25,000 damages against Smith, whom she contends assaulted her to such an extent that she required hospitalization and treatment. She seeks $15,000 actual damages and $10,000 punitive damages.

Based on an infrequently used legal procedure, the warrant ordered that the defendant be to get into the house, locked herself inside and then contacted her son, Frank C. Kersey, to come from his home a mile away to defend her.

Mrs. Kersey said she was admitted to Randolph Hospital on Oct. 16 and remained in the hospital under medication and treatment until Oct. 23, suffering from shock, mental anguish and leg.

The plaintiff contends that she had had no previous difficulty with Smith and that they had been friends prior to the incident of Oct. 10.

Smith has taught math at Randleman High School for the past several years, coming to Randolph from Eastern North Carolina.

Further criminal charges of assault and battery are pending against him, it was learned.

FIFTEEN HUNGRY MOUTHS

There were originally 17 piglets in this mother sow. Members of this suddenly litter on the farm of Kermit Hayes, Rt. 1, Sophia, but two were mashed by the

(Staff Photo by Dick Swaim)

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

By MRS. ALTHEA F. BROWN

Sophia, Rt. 1, April 21—Miss Clara Davis of Spencer high school faculty spent Easter week end with homefolks here.

Tom Davis of West Branch, Iowa, spent a few days here last week having been called home due to the sudden death of his brother, Plato Davis, whose funeral was held at Springfield Friends Meeting House last Saturday afternoon. He was a son of Cyrus and Cindarella Farlow Davis and married Ada Bristolow. He was a well known business man in High Point.

Mrs. D. D. Hinshaw

Funeral for Mrs. Lena Stout Hinshaw will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday in Cedar Square Friends Meeting House by Rev. Bob Darsch. Burial will be in Cedar Square Friends Cemetery. The body was returned to the home at 1 p.m. today and will remain there until placed in the church 30 minutes before the funeral.

Mrs. Hinshaw, 50, of Rt. 1, Randleman, widow of Delbert D. Hinshaw, died Saturday at her home.

1020 21-1960

Fumbling Auto Kills Youth On Flint Hill Road

By FRANK WARREN
Enterprise Staff Writer

James Marvin Alred, 18, of 116 Englewood Drive, Archdale, died last night in the wreckage of his first automobile.

Young Alred held the position of claims manager for English Motor Co. here. He had bought the automobile, a 1961 model, Friday.

Dr. T. E. Terrell, county medical examiner, said the youth died from a broken neck suffered when the automobile rolled on top of him.

He also suffered severe lacerations of the right arm and head. He was pronounced dead on arrival at High Point Memorial Hospital at 10:20 p.m.

Highway patrolman Lloyd Malpass who investigated the accident shortly after 1 p.m. yesterday on the Flint Hill Road said that young Alred lost control of the vehicle about two miles south of Archdale.

He was headed north toward his home and officers said he apparently was traveling at an excessive rate of speed at the time of the accident.

"He just started sliding sideways on a straight section of road and lost control," said Malpass. Young Alred was alone in the automobile at the time.

The car, according to highway patrol reports, traveled 210 feet, sliding along the highway and then began to turn over.

The car tumbled for 125 more feet along the highway. "I don't know how many times it turned over," Malpass said.

JAMES MARVIN ALRED

It came to rest, officers reported, lying in a ditch partially on the shoulder of the road. Young Alred was pinned underneath the wreckage.

But when officers arrived on the scene residents in the vicinity, with the help of passing motorists, had removed the car from Alred.

"He was lying on the pavement when I got there," said Malpass. People living in the vicinity told the patrolmen that they heard the rumbling of the car turning over and rushed outside to see headlights shining up into the air.

An ambulance from Gumbo Funeral Home was immediately called. Attendents found the boy still breathing, but he was pronounced dead.

See TUMBLING on Page 8-D

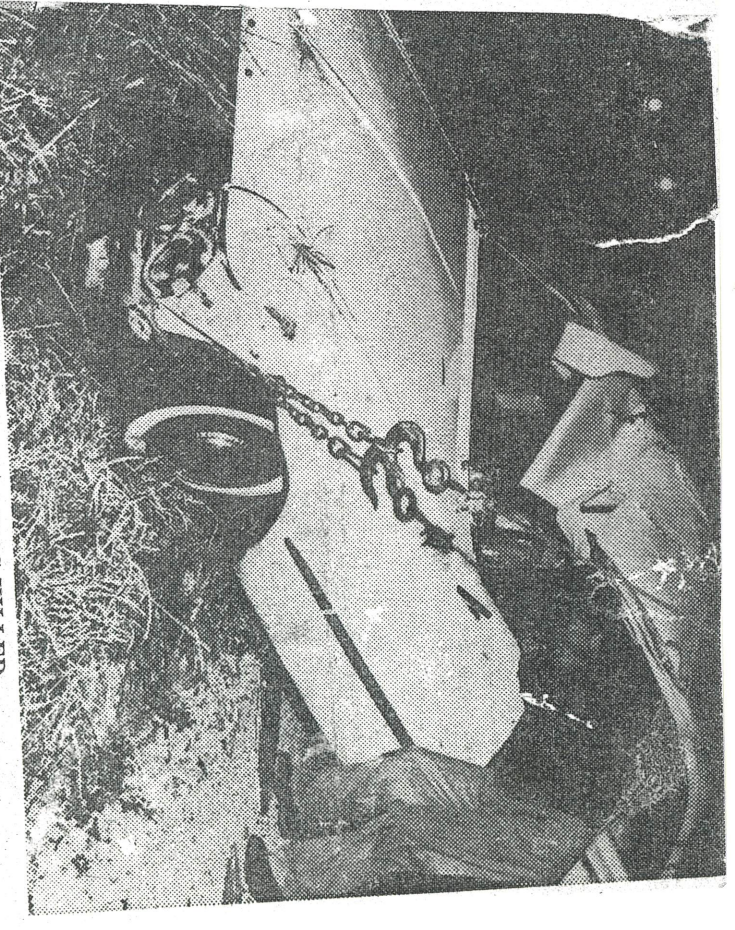

Phia, Rt. 1, ws Items

phia, Rt. 1, Aug. 25.—South-quarterly meeting of Friends will be held at Marlboro Saturday afternoon. There will be a preparation session at 10 o'clock followed by the worship service at 11 o'clock. A picnic lunch and social period will be at the noon hour. A short business session will be held in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cosson of Lakeland, Fla., recently visited the C. M. Farlows.

United Friends Women Society of Marlboro met with Alice Farlow Thursday afternoon. John Pipkin was the worship leader. The program was in charge of Mary Wade Farlow. Delicious refreshments were served.

Walker Davis and son, Carl, of Germantown, Tenn., recently spent a few days visiting relatives here. They were accompanied home Tuesday week by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, brother and sister-in-law, and two sisters, Nanette Davis and Blanche Farlow who returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. David Davis entertained Saturday evening a number of friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Coltrane of Miami, Fla. Mrs. Coltrane was the former Miss Ada Penn of this community.

CAR IN WHICH YOUTH WAS KILLED
(Staff Photo by Dal Reeves)

Walter Brunson, Ex-High Point Resident Dies

Walter I. Brunson, 55, of 1400 King Ave., Florence, S. C., died at 12:25 a.m. Friday, in a hospital after suffering a heart attack.

Prior to taking up residence in South Carolina, Mr. Brunson had been a resident of High Point for several years and manager of an A & P Store. He had been a citizen of Florence for 12 years and manager of the A & P Store since going to the city.

Mr. Brunson, a native of Sumter County, was born Oct. 4, 1901. His parents were the late John Q. and Mattie Seymour. Brunson, pioneer citizens of Sumter County. He was a member of Central Methodist Church, the board of stewards and Wesley Fellowship Sunday School class of the church.

He was also a Mason and a member of Hampton Lodge 204, A.F.M.; a Shriner, member of Omar Temple, and a member of the Florence Chamber of Commerce.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Walter I. Brunson of Florence, former-daughters, Mrs. Earl R. Cook of Raleigh and Mrs. Anthony P. Sims of Fort Bragg; three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Tisdale of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. Theodore Dubeose of Oswego, S. C., and Mrs. Grover Owen of Savannah, Ga.; three brothers, Edgar and Isaac Brunson, both of Sumter and Mildred Brunson of Memphis, Tenn.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4:30 this afternoon at the Walters Funeral Home in Florence, S. C., by Dr. Melvin K. Medlock, pastor of Central Methodist Church. Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery with masonic rites conducted by Hampton Lodge 204, F.M.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Parker of Kinston visited Ridge relatives here last week. Mrs. Parker is the former Miss Ida Ridge.

The descendants of N. E. and Alice Davis gathered at the old Davis homeplace, now the home of David Davis, last Sunday for a family reunion dinner.

William Alred has moved his home to Miami, Fla., to take care of Mrs. Alred. He is the former Miss Ruth Cox.

Allard Jones, pastor of field Friends meetings, held services at Marlboro Saturday night. o'clock service Sunday. Everyone enjoyed the ages, John Pipkin is announced dead upon arrival at the local hospital. The Guilford Rescue Squad also rushed to the scene. Alred had bought the new car in his father's name on Friday with money he had saved from his job with English Motors. Officials at the company said today that the youth had graduated from Trinity high school in 1959 and went to work with the motor company shortly afterwards.

FROM PAGE 1-D

The youth was born here Aug. 10, 1942, a son of Marvin E. and Edith Lawrence Alred. He attended Sunday School at the Randolph Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin E. Alred; one brother, Ricky Len Alred, all of Archdale; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lawrence, Pinola, and Mrs. Hattie Alred, 116

Englewood Dr., Archdale. Funeral will be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow in Hickory Chapel Wesleyan Methodist Church by Wesleyan Methodist Church pastor of Randolph Presbyterian Rev. George H. V. Hunter Jr., Rev. Arthur L. Wesleyan Methodist Church Chapel. Official will be in the church cemetery. The body was to be returned to the home late this afternoon where it will remain until placed in the church 30 minutes before the funeral.

Hard Freeze Seen After Snow Leaves

The first snow of the season fell today on the northern Piedmont area, with little accumulation expected.

The snow started about 10 a.m. with first just a trace. However, like Topsy, it grew until shortly before noon it was falling in blizzard-like proportions.

At that time, though, ground temperature was high enough to cause the snow to melt when it hit the earth. Forecasters at the Greensboro-High Point-Winston-Salem Airport said that the clouds which brought the snow were expected to move on in the afternoon. They added that strong northerly winds were scheduled to continue, bringing colder weather with them for tonight and tomorrow, as well as Wednesday.

The forecast is for decreasing cloudiness and much colder weather tonight, while tomorrow will be clear and very cold. The outlook for Wednesday is for fair skies and continued cold.

Low last night was 33, high for today was to be 38 and low for tonight will be 20. High for tomorrow is to be 33.

Freak Storm Reported

A short and freak but severe storm hit the section between Science Hill and the Mack road Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

At least one farm building, owned by Charlie York, was lattered by wind. A number of trees was felled. The storm was localized, not reaching as far as Farmer.

Some residents described it as being tornadic. There were no personal injuries and the rain which accompanied the storm was not of great intensity.

C
E
A

1020 21-1960

John R. ...
1963

JOE M. FARLOW

Funeral services for Joe M. Farlow, 68, of 1800 Grove St., who died Saturday, will be held at 2 p.m. today at Hanes-Linberry Chapel by the Rev. James C. Kirk, pastor of Glenwood Methodist Church. Burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery in Randolm.

Funeral Services
W. S. Farlow
Held Sunday 4 P. M.

Funeral services for Whitfield S. Farlow, 77, of Robbins, were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Level Cross Methodist church and interment made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Farlow died early Saturday in a Philadelphia hospital after an illness of two weeks.

Final Rites Monday
Mrs. S. J. Crofts
Held Wednesday

Funeral rites for Mrs. Florence Shows Crofts, 76, of Route 1, Sophia, were conducted Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. from the Carraway Baptist Church. Burial was made in the Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church cemetery.

Mr. Crofts died Monday afternoon in the Randolph Hospital in Asheboro after several years declining health.

A native of Mississippi, she had been a resident of the Sophia view for 38 years and was a member of the Carraway Baptist Church.

Surviving are her husband, Santos J. Crofts, three sons, Jesse, Alvin, and Douglas; two daughters, Mrs. T. W. Skeen, Mrs. W. O. Cagemon, Mrs. Bryce Cooper and Mrs. Madison Davis, all of Route 1, Sophia; two brothers, Albert and Lonzo Shows of Ellersville, Miss.; four sisters, Mrs. Hetta Williams, Mrs. Alma Ward, Vallee Hyatt and Mrs. Alice Hyatt, all of Ellersville, Miss.; 27 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

Asheboro Native, Dies In Charlotte

ASHEBORO — Mrs. Sarah Mae Henson Farlow, 59, died Thursday in Charlotte where she had lived for the past three years. She was a native of Asheboro. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Doris F. Byrd of High Point; three sons, Oliver S., Don E., and David Wayne Farlow, all of Los Angeles, Calif.; her mother, Mrs. Fannie Allied Henson of Asheboro; four sisters, Mrs. Fannie Hopkins of Denton, Mrs. Estie Kirkman and Mrs. Ruth Farlow of Asheboro and Mrs. Violet White of High Point; and two brothers, George Henson of Asheboro and John Thomas Henson of Greensboro.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete, but the body is being returned to Asheboro for burial and burial.

Funeral Services
Mrs. B. VonCannon
Held Sunday P. M.

Funeral services for Mrs. Jamie Welch VonCannon, 73, were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the Pleasant Union Christian church and interment made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. VonCannon died Friday night at her home on Asheboro route 3, following an illness of one year.

She is survived by her husband, Berry VonCannon; two daughters, Mrs. M. D. Saunders of High Point and Miss Beulah VonCannon of the home; two sons, Lewis VonCannon of Asheboro and Wade VonCannon of the home; one sister, Mrs. M. H. Hammond of route 3, Asheboro; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Youth Killed In Wreck; Had Relatives Here

HIGH POINT — The 15-year-old grandson of Sophia Route One and Archdale residents, Barry Rush of Stratford Road in High Point, died in an auto accident early Saturday morning. Funeral services were held this afternoon at Green Street Baptist Church and burial followed in Floral Garden Park Cemetery.

Sidney Farlow
Dies Suddenly
At Age 61

Sidney Emory Farlow, 61, died suddenly en route to High Point Memorial Hospital shortly after 2 p. m. yesterday. He had been in poor health until a few moments before his death.

Mr. Farlow was born in Randolph County Sept. 10, 1899, son of Osborne Farlow and Eunice Osborne Farlow. He had spent his entire life in the home and community of his birth. He was a member of the Marbleboro Friends Meeting. On April 19, 1924, he was married to Miss Blanche Davis.

Surviving are his wife of the home in the New Market Community, Rt. 1, Sophia; one son, Everett Farlow of Rt. 1, Sophia; two daughters, Mrs. Eva Ashburn of Greensboro and Mrs. Marie brother, Walter Farlow of Rt. 2, Trinity; one sister, Mrs. Lillie Davis of Route 1, Sophia, and two grandchildren.

Funeral will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at Marbleboro Friends Meeting by Rev. Bobby League and Rev. B. B. Bulla, both former pastors. The body will be placed in the church 30 minutes before the service. Burial will be in the church cemetery. The body will remain at Koontz Funeral Home until time to leave for the church.

Funeral Rites Set For Tuesday
R. L. Pearce

Funeral rites for R. L. Pearce, 74, of Sophia, will be conducted Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. from the Marbleboro Friends Meetinghouse by the Rev. Laef A. Presnell. The Rev. Avery Brown and the Rev. Bobby Medford will be officiating. The body will be placed in the church 30 minutes before the service. Burial will be in the church cemetery. The body will remain at Koontz Funeral Home in Asheboro until placed in the church at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Pearce died Sunday morning in a High Point hospital after a brief illness. Born in Randolph County, he was a son of the late Newton and Xanthippe Farlow Pearce. He was a member of the Congregational Christian Church at High Point and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Retirement Home for a number of years, employed by the Peetess Veneer Company in High Point.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Hazel Klingrey Pearce; two daughters, Mrs. Aubrey Rich of Sopola, Mrs. Dorothy Bowers of St. Louis, Mo.; one son, Lloyd L. Blanche Millikan of Sophia, Mrs. Lola Cox of Emporia, Kan.; two brothers, Percy of Greensboro and Charlie of Wheaton, Md.; six grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. today at Star Methodist Church by Rev. R. D. Ricks, Rev. Paul Browning and Rev. A. W. Lohr. Burial will be in the Methodist Church cemetery.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. ETHEL BALDWIN
Funeral services for Mrs. Ethel Cox Baldwin were held in Pleasant Ridge Christian Church in Randolph County Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Isaac Harris, pastor of Archdale Friends Meeting, the Rev. O. L. Brown, pastor of Archdale Methodist Church, and the Rev. Max Vestal of Pleasant Ridge, officiated. Interment was in the family plot of the church cemetery. Pallbearers were William B. Tooley, Jack Curtis, Clarence Peace, Shelly York, George Kersey, Fred Rutledge, Carson Thornburg and Walter Cox.

Mrs. Baldwin, 75, widow of Henry Pinkney Baldwin, died in High Point Memorial Hospital Friday. She had been in declining health for two years and critically ill for two weeks.

Bennett Infant Died In Hospital

ASHEBORO, Aug. 11 — Lourine Virginia Bennett, 11 months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bennett of Route 1, Sophia, died at 1 p. m. Saturday in Randolph Hospital.

Teachers' Services Set Today

Albion Monroe Feentress, 35, who taught in local singing schools in Guilford County for 60 years, died yesterday at 1:35 a. m. at Clapp's Rest Home after an illness of two weeks.

He was a former Sunday School superintendent at Pleasant Garden Methodist Church where he also taught Sunday School for a number of years.

Teaching singing was his major vocation and avocation. He trained many church choirs and has written words and music to several hymns which have been published.

Surviving are his wife, the former Flora Newman, a daughter Mrs. Lucian Riley of Pleasant Garden; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. today at Pleasant Garden Methodist Church by the Rev. C. O. Kennedy, former pastor; the Rev. Roy Taylor, pastor of Pleasant Garden Friends Church; and the Rev. L. F. Strader, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church. Burial will be in the church cemetery. Pallbearers will be Harold Marylin, Emory and David Osborne, D. L. McDonald and David M. McDonald.

Friday Funeral For H. T. Adams Of Asheboro

RANDLEMAN — Harris Thelbert Adams of Rt. 2, Asheboro died yesterday in a Winston-Salem hospital.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary Etha Robins Adams of the home; one brother, L. N. Adam of Rt. 1, Randleman; eight sisters, Mrs. Mary McChiee of High Point, Mrs. Bella Robins and Mrs. Nancy Trogden, both of R. 1, Sophia, Mrs. Malva Bowers of High Point, Mrs. Myrtle Hinshaw of Rt. 3, Randleman, Mrs. Callie Hunt and Mrs. Grace Hussey, both of Rt. 1, Randleman, and Mrs. Clara Spillman of Sophia.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. at Mount Shepherd Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. Everett Wright and Rev. Claude Barley. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Stanley Rich
Funeral for Stanley Hal Rich

Funeral for Stanley Hal Rich will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at Glenola Baptist Church by James Ralph Holcomb and Rev. Ralph Holcomb and Rev. Marbleboro Friends Cemetery.

The body was to be taken to the home today at 2 a. m. to remain until placed in the church 30 minutes prior to the service.

Stanley, 17, of Rt. 3 High Point, died Friday at 5:30 a. m. at his home.

He devoted his death.

MRS. FLORA HICKS

ASHEBORO — Mrs. Flora Craven Hicks, 80, of Route 1, Asheboro, died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Cox of Asheboro, after an illness of several months. She is survived by one son, Colonel Hicks of Ranssaur; three daughters, Mrs. P. A. Cox and Mrs. Ervin Brown of Asheboro and Mrs. Cordia Wright of Whittier, Calif.; one brother, Vester Craven of Route 1, Asheboro; 20 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were to be held at 2:30 p. m. today at the Pleasant Ridge Christian Church by the Revs. J. E. Shaw and Paul Teague, followed by interment in the church cemetery.

C. A. Bristow Dies At 72 In Asheboro

RANDLEMAN — Charles Anderson Bristow, 72, of Sophia, died in an Asheboro hospital at 6 a. m. yesterday after an extended illness.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Flossie Coltrane Bristow; three sons, C. E. Bristow of Robins, J. C. Bristow of High Point, and Warren Bristow of Thomasville; six grandchildren; one brother, John Bristow of Sophia; two sisters, Mrs. Dora Wilborn of Garnett, Kansas, and Mrs. Ada Davis of High Point.

Funeral will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at Old Union Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. John Edwards and Rev. Herbert Perry. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

The body was to be returned to the home in Sophia today and placed in the church 30 minutes before the service.

1st Funerals

Short Infant Dies Monday In Hospital

RANDEMAN — The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Short of Rt. 1, Sophia, died yesterday in High Point Memorial Hospital.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are one brother, Sidney Short of the home; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Colbert Beeson of Rt. 1, Sophia, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Short of Rt. 1, Randeaman.

Graveside services were to be conducted today at 2 p.m. in Martboro Friends Church Cemetery by Rev. Bobby Medford.

Henry C. Miller Of Route 3 Dies; Funeral Tuesday

Henry C. Miller, 77, of Route 3, High Point, died at his home at 12 o'clock midnight Saturday. He had been in declining health for 10 years, and in a serious condition for six weeks.

Mr. Miller was born in Randolph County Jan. 31, 1879, in the son of Mckenzie and Lydia Small Miller. He had lived in the Archdale Community for the past 40 years, where he farmed until his health failed. On April 26, 1903, he was married to Miss Roella Pritchard. He was a member of Randolph Presbyterian Church of Archdale. He is survived by his wife of the home; one sister, Mrs. Ortus Henry of Chin Alberta, Canada; one brother, Wilison M. Miller of Seattle, Wash., and several nieces and nephews.

The body was to be taken to the residence today at 4 p.m. Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock at Randolph Presbyterian Church by the Rev. W. M. Baker, pastor of Crestwood Presbyterian church, and a former pastor, the Rev. Jerry N. Reiff now at Pilot Mountain Presbyterian Church. The body will be placed in a casket 30 minutes prior to the time. Interment will be in Floral Garden Park Cemetery.

Prayer for TODAY

Our Father, we thank thee that the smallest of our desires are known to thee. We pray for our loved ones and for the interest that is so near to our own hearts that it is seldom expressed to others. Let thy blessing be upon our loved ones and causes we represent to thee according to thy wisdom and love. In all our ways we would seek to acknowledge thee that thou mayest direct our paths; for Jesus' sake. Amen.

—M. Ray McKay, Wake Forest, N. C., professor of preaching, Southeastern Baptist Seminary.

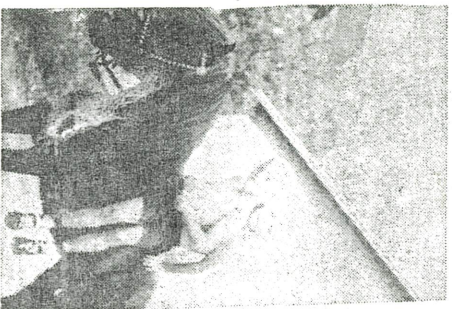

John W. Robbins Funeral Services To Be Held Monday

Funeral services for John Wesley Robbins, 67, well known resident of 221 Mangum Avenue and employe of the Snow Lumber company for more than 31 years who died in a local hospital Saturday morning at 10 o'clock where he had been a patient since March 8th, will be held in the Central Friends Meeting House Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. Cecil Haworth, minister. Rev. Arthur Kale, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Methodist church, and Rev. E. M. Evert, associate pastor. Burial will be in the family plot in the Oakwood cemetery. The body will be returned to the residence Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock where it will remain until two o'clock Monday, at which time it will be removed to the church to lie in state until the hour of the service. ~~Funeral~~ The active pallbearers will be George E. Yates, H. G. Walker, Doake Johnson, D. A. Howard, D. O. Dowdy, Norman Elders, Lee Morgan and Wesley Teague, employes of the Snow Lumber company. The honorary pallbearers will be Jack Dunn, James Blackwell, Clarence Furr, Richard Furr, Charles Mendenhall, Charlie Baker, Marvin Beck, Gary LeVine, members of the Brotherhood class of Central Friends Meeting House.

Mr. Robbins is survived by the widow, Mrs. Mollie McGhee Robbins; a son, William Edward Robbins; a sister, Mrs. W. M. Thomas, all of High Point; a brother, H. W. Robbins of Sophia; and several nieces and nephews.

Twin Davises Enjoy Varied Farm Activity

Sitting astride their pony, "Charlie" are twins Jerry and Terry Davises, sons of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Davises, of Route 1, Randeaman. The boys are identical and are six years of age. The picture was made before

The "looming barn" which is a part of the equipment and buildings of the dairy farm operated by D. S. Davises and his father, L. S. Davises.

Mother of the twins is the former Bernice Millikan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Millikan of Route 1, Sophia. The twin boys have three older sisters, Rita, Jane and Kay.

Besides "Charlie," there are four other ponies on the Davises farm. School children from Randeaman and other places told picnic outings at the farm in order that the children can ride the ponies.

AT REUNION — Just after eating, Sunday at the Miller-Hill reunion, both of whom had spoken in the morning session of the reunion which was held at the Mountain View Methodist church. The Rev. Mr. Thompson has served as pastor of the church for nearly 12 years while the Rev. Mr. Nelson is Nazarene minister, a writer, a philosopher and a political leader.

Miller-Hill Families Gather At Mountain View Methodist Church

Morning and afternoon sessions, with dinner on the grounds featured the 13th annual reunion of the Miller and Hill families Sunday at the Mountain View Methodist church.

A large crowd was in attendance at both sessions, with the church auditorium being filled to overflowing for the afternoon session.

Wayman Trotter, of Route

2, Asheboro, was elected to his third two year term as president of the annual gathering. All of the other officers of the reunion organization were also re-elected to the full term of office.

They are vice president, Mrs. Alma Miller Purvis of Asheboro; secretary and treasurer, Miss Louise Hunt, of Route 2, Asheboro; program committee Okei Hunt, Charles Hunt and Allen Robbins of Asheboro.

A memorial service was being held at the church grounds. A riel business session was also held at the beginning of the session.

Four members of the two families, Jason Sheffield, Mrs. Annie Davis Cranford, Mrs. Jessie Hill Foster and Troy R. (Darr) Hill, were honored in the memorial service. Mrs. William F. Redding gave the memorial for Jason Sheffield and Mrs. Cranford while her sister, Mrs. Allen Robbins, spoke in memory of Mrs. Foster and Dan Hill.

Flowers in the church were presented in memory of Jason Sheffield by his children, in memory of Mrs. Cranford by Mrs. Redding, Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Annie Hughes, of the Hugher Bouquet Shop, and in memory of the late John I. and Angeline Miller Jarrell by his daughters, Mrs. Redding and Mrs. Robbins, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Michael Thompson.

ACTIVE IN FAMILY—Gathering their plates, lunch baskets and other utensils together following the picnic luncheon Sunday at the Miller-Hill reunion are two sisters, Mrs. William F. Redding, left, and Mrs. Allen Robbins. The two women, well known in the western part of Randolph county and in other sections, are daughters of the late John F. and Angeline Miller Jarrell. They have been very prominent in the activities of the Miller-Hill reunion since its origination 12 years ago.

Mrs. Betty Sheffield, of Asheboro, widow of Jason

A memorial service was being held at the church grounds. A riel business session was also held at the beginning of the session.

Four members of the two families, Jason Sheffield, Mrs. Annie Davis Cranford, Mrs. Jessie Hill Foster and Troy R. (Darr) Hill, were honored in the memorial service. Mrs. William F. Redding gave the memorial for Jason Sheffield and Mrs. Cranford while her sister, Mrs. Allen Robbins, spoke in memory of Mrs. Foster and Dan Hill.

Flowers in the church were presented in memory of Jason Sheffield by his children, in memory of Mrs. Cranford by Mrs. Redding, Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Annie Hughes, of the Hugher Bouquet Shop, and in memory of the late John I. and Angeline Miller Jarrell by his daughters, Mrs. Redding and Mrs. Robbins, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Michael Thompson.

Miss Ridge Dies After One Day In Local Hospital

ASHEBORO — Miss Emma Ridge, 75, of Rt. 2, Randeaman, died in a local hospital yesterday following one day of serious illness.

Miss Ridge was a native of Randolph County, a public school teacher, and had taught school for 50 years here and in surrounding counties. She was a member of Farmer Methodist Church.

Funeral will be held at 3 p.m. today at Pugh Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be in Oaklawn Cemetery. Rev. Mr. White, and Rev. Cecil Fehrer will officiate.

MRS. NANNIE I. COLTRANE

Funeral services for Mrs. Nannie I. Coltrane, 79, of 4503 W. Market St., who died Friday morning at Wesley Long Hospital will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Center Friends Meeting House, the Rev. Donald Osborne officiating. Pallbearers will be Floyd V. Gamble, W. Branson Gamble, Charles T. Benbow, Paul J. Gardner, Willie E. Bentley, and James J. Baker. Burial will be in the Center Friends Cemetery. The body will remain at the Hanes-Limeberry Funeral Home until the service.

MRS. ELMA CAPES

Funeral services for Mrs. Elma Sinson Capes were conducted Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church by the Rev. Frank Marks, pastor of Hilliard Memorial Baptist Church. Pallbearers were J. J. May, W. J. Cranford, Glenn Osborne, Thomas Siegner, B. J. Siegner Sr. and Johnny Sparks. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Capes, 75, resident of the Hickory Chapel Road, died Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in High Point Memorial Hospital. She had been in declining health 18 months and in a critical condition since last Thursday.

MRS. ADA STOUT
HIGH POINT, March 31—Mrs. Ada Cox Stout, 81, of Route 1, Randleman, was dead on arrival at High Point Memorial Hospital at 10 a.m. today. Mrs. Stout was a native of Randolph County. She was a member of Cedar Square Friends Meeting. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Delbert Hinshaw of the home and Mrs. W. E. Spangle of Route 1, White Plains, Tenn.; seven grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Cedar Square Friends Church, with the Rev. Floyd Teague and the Rev. Play Moore officiating. Burial will be in Ebenezer Cemetery.

MRS. I. E. PEARSON
GOLDSBORO, Sept. 26—Mrs. Eula J. Pearson, wife of I. E. Pearson of Goldsboro, died today at Wayne Memorial Hospital. She was a native of Goldsboro and a member of the Goldsboro Friends Church where funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday by the Rev. Willie Fyfe. Burial will be in Willow Dale Cemetery. Surviving, in addition to her husband, are one daughter, Mrs. Arthur L. Wright of Moorestown, N.J.; one brother, Grover C. Johnson; and two sisters, Miss Clyde Johnson and Mrs. Berta J. Wegner, all of Goldsboro.

Sunday Rites Scheduled For

Mrs. Tjotter 1962
ASHEBORO—Mrs. Lee Trotter, 84, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Bunting of Rt. 2, Asheboro. She was a member of Sawyers-Hile Pilgrim Holiness Church. Surviving are four other daughters, Mrs. Esther Rogers of Statesville, Mrs. Homer Cox and Mrs. Becece Branley, both of Asheboro, and Mrs. T. V. Almon of Rt. 3, Asheboro; one son, Irvin Trotter of Rt. 2, Asheboro; 37 grandchildren; 58 great-grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren; one brother, Lewis Yates of Denton; and one sister, Mrs. Bessie Barker of Denton.

Funeral will be conducted Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in Mt. Sheppard Methodist Church. Burial will be in the church cemetery. The body will remain at Farlow Funeral home until the funeral hour.

She died Sat Oct 6 - 1961

MISS MARY ELLA JOHNSON
HIGH POINT, Oct. 8—Miss Mary Ella Johnson, 48, of High Point died Saturday in a Durham Hospital. She was a native of Randolph County. Surviving are one sister, Mrs. D. R. Bulla of Soplar; one brother, Earl Johnson of Randleman. Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. Tuesday at the Marlboro Friends Meeting House by the Rev. Bob Edwards. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

R. Clyde Coltrane, 70, of Trinity died in the local hospital this morning at 5 o'clock of a heart attack. Although he had been in declining health eight months and hospitalized at three weeks his death was unexpected.

He was born in Randolph County July 6, 1889, a son of Rufus E. and Partha Gray Coltrane. He was married to Vera Patterson in 1946. He was a farmer and a charter member of the Trinity Grange. He was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife of the home; and two sisters, Mrs. Melvina Coltrane Davis of 505 Denny St., and Mrs. Bertha Coltrane McBane of Pittsboro.

Funeral services will be conducted in Trinity Methodist Church Wednesday at 4 p.m. The Rev. R. L. Oakley, pastor, will officiate. Interment will follow in the family plot in Trinity Cemetery. The body will be placed in the church at 3:30 p.m. and will remain at the Harold C. Davis Chapel until that time.

Mrs. J. R. Hill Dies In Local Hospital

THOMASVILLE—Mrs. Nertina Farlow Hill, 63, wife of John R. Hill of Route 1, Sophia, died at Memorial Hospital at High Point in declining health for eight years and seriously ill one week.

She was born May 24, 1894, in Randolph County, a daughter of William and Digena Farlow. She had spent all her life in Randolph County.

Surviving are her husband; five daughters, Mrs. Walter Ward and Mrs. Robert Smith of Archdale; Mrs. Clarence Peterson of Lexington, Mrs. Howard Morris and Mrs. Conrad Mullis, both of Route 1, Sophia; three sons, Ernest and Walter Hill of Route 1, Sophia and Ter, Mrs. Eliza Goodman of Route 2, High Point and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. from Garryway Baptist Church. The body will be placed in the church 30 minutes prior to the services. Officiating will be the Rev. Floyd Clark, the Rev. Dallas Rusch and the Rev. Stanley Karomski. Interment will be in the church cemetery. The body was to be taken to the residence today at 5 p.m.

Sophia, Rt. 1 News

SOPHIA, Rt. 1, Nov. 15—The supper that the Marlboro women served at the New Market school cafeteria Saturday evening was a big success. The proceeds, $515.50, will be used for the basement floor.

C. A. and Mabel Farlow had special guests last week, cousin Maurice Hunt and wife of Chicago, Ill. They were enroute to Florida.

John Pickett, pastor of Marlboro Friends Meeting, will be guest speaker at Asheboro Friends Meeting Sunday morning. It will be Advance Sunday. The theme will be "Friends at Work Through Our United Service." Marlboro guests will be Bascom Robbins and Sena Cagle.

MISS MYRTLE SNIDER
MISS MYRTLE Snider, 50, died at her home Route 1, Sophia, at 5:30 o'clock last night. She had been in declining health for several years.

Miss Snider was born at the home place, the daughter of the late B. F. and Flora Moore Snider.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. A. N. Hedrick of High Point and Mrs. P. T. Pierce of Greensboro; three brothers, Baxter Snider of the home, Lester Snider of Guilford College and James Herbert Snider of Canton, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from Old Union Church, near Sophia. The body will remain at Farlow Funeral Home in Asheboro until time of the funeral. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

High Pointer's Sister Dies In Washington

Word was received here today of the death in Washington, D. C., Jan. 13 of Mrs. Edith G. Hart, for many years an employe of the dining room at the House of Representatives.

Mrs. Hart was born in Randolph County, a daughter of William D. and Katiippe Laughlin.

Survivors include one son, Arthur K. Hart Jr.; two grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. R. C. Aldridge of Rt. 2, Trinity; and one brother, Preston Laughlin of High Point.

Funeral was conducted Jan. 16, burial was in Glenwood Cemetery in Washington, D. C.

Miss Briles Passes At Home At Home

ASHEBORO—Miss Leola Briles, 61, died at her home, Route 1, Trinity, early today of a sudden illness.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Lottie Briles of the home; three sisters, Mrs. Ethel Ledwell of Route 1, Trinity, Mrs. John Hughes of Thomasville, and Mrs. Louie Halton of Asheboro; two brothers, Willard of Route 1, Sophia and Joel Briles of Washington, D. C.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from Mount Giles a d Methodist Church by the Rev. Frank Berry. The body was to be taken to the home this afternoon where it will remain until placed in the church at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Sophia, Rt. 1 News

SOPHIA, Rt. 1, Dec. 13—The New Market Grange was held at the school cafeteria Thursday evening. The annual supper was served followed by a business session. Officers for the new year were installed as follows: Ira Swain, master; Richard Earl Johnson, overseer; Mrs. B. E. Davis, treasurer; D. R. Reynolds, lecturer; Mrs. Clyde Loftin, chaplain; Mrs. Jean Swiggert, steward; Jean Johnson, assistant steward; Mrs. W. B. Ridge, lady; Fred McCall, gatekeeper; Grace, Cora, Alta Davis, Pomona, Jane McCall; Flora, Faidie Farlow; executive committee, B. E. Davis, W. B. Ridge, H. A. Brown; home economic chairman, Mrs. Troy Hall; community service, Harvey Adams, youth, Mrs. E. E. Johnson.

Cora Beeson entertained a number of children at her home Saturday evening in honor of her little granddaughter, Shirley Beeson, who left Sunday for Duke hospital. About thirty of her schoolmates and friends were present and presented Shirley some nice gifts. Refreshments were served.

There will be an auction sale of household goods at the home-place of the late Emma Johnson Madden near Cedar Square Meeting House Saturday at 1 p.m.

Bianche Farlow and daughter, Marie, Peggy Wall and Althea Brown visited Bill and Eva Mae.

SOPHIA, Rt. 1, Dec. 13—The New Market Grange was held at the school cafeteria Thursday evening. The annual supper was served followed by a business session. Officers for the new year were installed as follows: Ira Swain, master; Richard Earl Johnson, overseer; Mrs. B. E. Davis, treasurer; D. R. Reynolds, lecturer; Mrs. Clyde Loftin, chaplain; Mrs. Jean Swiggert, steward; Jean Johnson, assistant steward; Mrs. W. B. Ridge, lady; Fred McCall, gatekeeper; Grace, Cora, Alta Davis, Pomona, Jane McCall; Flora, Faidie Farlow; executive committee, B. E. Davis, W. B. Ridge, H. A. Brown; home economic chairman, Mrs. Troy Hall; community service, Harvey Adams, youth, Mrs. E. E. Johnson.

Cora Beeson entertained a number of children at her home Saturday evening in honor of her little granddaughter, Shirley Beeson, who left Sunday for Duke hospital. About thirty of her schoolmates and friends were present and presented Shirley some nice gifts. Refreshments were served.

There will be an auction sale of household goods at the home-place of the late Emma Johnson Madden near Cedar Square Meeting House Saturday at 1 p.m.

Bianche Farlow and daughter, Marie, Peggy Wall and Althea Brown visited Bill and Eva Mae.

Mortons Married 50 Years

Five grownup children, 15 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren were on hand Jan. 1 to pay tribute to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Morton on the occasion of the couple's 50th wedding anniversary.

Other guests were also invited to the Morton residence at 608 Baker Rd. between the hours of 5 and 5 p.m.

They were served from a dining table appointed with a white lace cloth and arranged with white tapers in crystal holders and with trails of ivy. Punch was served from a crystal bowl. Other refreshments included nuts, minis and a tiered wedding cake.

Serving was completed by daughters-in-law and granddaughters of the honored pair.

The Mortons' five children, all residents of the vicinity of High Point, are: Mrs. Jettie Carter, Mrs. Egie Byrd, Mrs. Emma Cross, Clifford Morton and Robert Morton. They were hosts and hostesses for the event.

Married in Troy on Jan. 1, 1911, the couple came to High Point on Nov. 14, 1922. Until his retirement in 1957, Mr. Morton had been actively engaged in farming. Mrs. Morton is the former Miss Viola Mottis.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN A. MORTON

Music Study Club Plans Friday Meet
 Friday Morning Music Study Club will meet Jan. 13 at 11 a. Henry W. Lindsay.

SOPHIA
 Several around this community attended the camp meeting at Pilgrim Holiness College Ketterville over the weekend, including Boyd and Eva Bulla, who are not well, but able to be out some.

Reading has returned to the singing soprano.

Mint Waldorn Milkman who has been confined to her home in High Point is a patient in High Point Memorial Hospital for treatment.

The children and grandchildren of the late Michael A. and Louvenia Laughlin Farlow had a family reunion at the home of their daughter, Dora Farlow Adams at Sophia, Sunday. Five was a very pleasant occasion, and it was a very pleasant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Orell of High Point visited at Jim Davis' home, Sunday.

Little Barbara Woodard of High Point spent part of last week with Althea Brown.

Betty Moxley of Washington, D. C., spent part of last week with Doris Davis.

Mrs. Nora Norman and daughter, Mrs. Bruce Campbell, and two little daughters of various homes in this community last Wednesday. The Norman family lived in this community several years ago. Mrs. Campbell was formerly Joetta Norman.

Sophia News

Miss Taylor Honored With Shower; Missionary Society; Bible Schools

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1—Last Saturday evening Miss Nancy Taylor was honored with a delightful surprise bridal shower at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Virgil Gray. Her aunts, Mrs. Doris Allred and Mrs. Olga McFayden, and her cousin, Miss Nancy opened her many gifts...

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Marlboro Women's Missionary Society met with Tassie Bulla at her home at Sophia last Thursday night with Jo Ann Spencer as co-hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Fadine Farlow who read this month's theme, "The United Nations Children's Funds." The worship leader was Mary Wade Farlow, who read scripture Matthew 25: 37-43, with her own comments and prayer. Elizabeth Rice had the program and read quite a bit of the work of the U. N. of the many ways they have helped out in need doing things for others that really count for good and for other nations as well as at home. The business was discussed and various reports read. The society decided to give sunshine cheer gifts to three shut-ins of the church, Mrs. B. J. Whitehead, Mrs. Birch Brookshire and John Farlow. The meeting adjourned to meet with Alice and Cartrude Farlow next month. During the social period the hostesses served delicious refreshments to the 13 members present.

BIBLE SCHOOLS HELD

The Marlboro Daily Vacation Bible School began June 13 and closed last Friday, June 17, with a picnic lunch at noon. It seems to have been a very successful one and the attendance good—there being 65 on roll and average attendance of 57. Blanche F. Farlow was the leader and the teachers were Marie Pugh, Jewell B. Farlow, Jewel J. Farlow, Edith Davis and Rev. Bob Medford. The helpers were Shirley Farlow, Elizabeth Ann Farlow, Shirley Beeson, Judy Davis, Brenda Farlow, Diane Farlow, Joyce Small and Jessie Loflin.

Cedar Square Daily Vacation Bible School was held for 6 nights last week and was considered quite a success. There were 50 children and 15 workers. Their closing program was held Friday morning.

PERSONALS

W. B. and Lucy Lowe daughter, Mrs. Eddle Fra Greensboro, and C. A. F. and daughter, Vadaia Fra have returned home from Wheelersburg, Ohio, where attended the funeral of nephew and cousin, T. Lowe DeCamp, 52. He had been declining health for some time but had visited here in April. He was oldest son of Joseph and Lowe De Camp. He was Randolph County as his parents lived here for a while...

fore going to Batavia, Ohio to make their home. Laura was the daughter of Thomas and Lillian Lowe and the family were well-known here.

Sorry to note that George Herring, Marlboro Meetinghouse caretaker is in Randolph Hospital, Asheboro.

Also Irvin Robbins who has been in High Point Hospital for sometime was supposed to undergo surgery this last Monday. Some of B. B. and Eva Bulla's friends of Burlington visited them Sunday. They included the Thomas family and others.

Mrs. Agnes Welborn Spencer is in a very weak condition. She developed a case of pneumonia last week but better of that now but weak.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pickard and their two daughters and son-in-law, Max and Cecia Farlow and baby Kevin and David and Betsy Jo Taylor and baby Karen spent last Sunday in Danville with Mrs. Pickard's parents for fathers day.

Burleigh Wall accompanied by other members of his family left last Friday night for Myrtle Beach, S. C., to attend the funeral of his nephew in late teens, Arnold Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Owens of Myrtle Beach. The boy drowned at the Air base there. Burleigh came home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prevatt and son, Billy of Miami, Fla., have been visiting relatives and friends around and spent a while with H. A. and Althea Brown last Monday. They used to live in this community.

Mrs. Faye Davis, Peggy and Betty Davis, Donna Rea and Judy Davis spent the weekend at Myrtle Beach.

Work is progressing very well on the new home of Everett and Ophelia Farlow. It is located near his parents, Emory and Blanche D. Farlow. So sorry to note that Mrs. B. J. (Jessie Davis) Whitehead is not doing well as desired by her many friends. She is in a very weak condition and is confined to her bed now.

Kermit and Faye Hayes have brought their little son, Tommy home from High Point Hospital where he has been right sick. He is some better but still in a weak condition.

Mrs. Cecelia Farlow Cagle and her daughter, Sheila of Benson are spending part of last week and this week with her parents, C. A. and Mabel Farlow and Vadaia Farlow. She was with her mother while the Farlows went to Ohio.

The revival meeting closed at Glenola Baptist Church last Sunday night. The evangelist was John Gamble of Virginia. The interest was very good and also the attendance.

The descendants of Jim and Corinne Smith Hill which included the children-in-laws and their families, had their annual get together family reunion at the old Hill homestead last Sunday. Though it stands empty they come back here for this occasion. There were 12 children and 10 of whom are living. Seven were present. The crowd was estimated to be about one hundred. The honor guests were John Hill, an uncle, and an aunt, Mrs. Lou Hill Farlow.

Funeral Services W. F. Potts Held Saturday

Funeral services for William Franklin Potts, 72, were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Flint Hill Congregational Christian church, with Rev. F. R. Cooper of Asheboro and the pastor, Rev. Avery Brown, officiating. Interment was made in the church cemetery. Mr. Potts died suddenly Friday morning at the home of his brother, T. W. Potts in Asheboro, who is the only surviving relative.

Miss Shirley Farlow entertained her Marlboro Sunday School intermediate class at her home last Monday night, with several present. She served refreshments during the social period. Mrs. Carl (Cora Loflin) Beeson is right sick. She is not able to be up much at this time.

Stanley and Fadine Farlow were hosts to their Marlboro Sunday School Friendly Friends Class last Saturday night week. Several were present. Just the regular routine of business and election of officers. During the social period refreshments were served.

Sophia, Rt. 1, News & Items

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1, Oct. 2.—Members of the Marlboro Missionary Society and a few friends met in the basement of the Meeting House Wednesday to make quilts to send to the foreign mission work. At noon a covered dish lunch was enjoyed. Eight quilts were made and others were made at home. Mrs. R. A. Pickard underwent surgery in High Point hospital Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Teague of Highsville, Mo., are visiting relatives here. Mr. Teague and his brother, Sanford, visited Jim and Gladys Davis Sunday. Also, Glenn Nance and wife of Thomasville visited at the Davis home Sunday night. We are sorry to report that Mrs. Lester Smith of Archdale has undergone major surgery at High Point hospital. Mrs. Smith is well known in this community. She was formerly Louise Loflin, oldest daughter of Mrs. Zorardo Loflin and the late J. C. Loflin.

Mrs. Emory (Blanche D. Farlow and her daughter, Mrs. Eva Mae Ashburn, returned to their homes here by plane Sunday evening from Hopkinsville, Ky., where they had spent a week with Blanche's daughter and son-in-law, Sonny and Marie Robbins, who have a new son, Harry Dale. Sonny is in service and stationed near there. Glad to note that Duke Davis, who recently underwent eye surgery at High Point hospital, is recovering nicely. Mary Osborne is on the sick list at her home.

There were several visitors at Marlboro Sunday morning. Troy and Blanche Millikan of South Plainfield, who have been visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Wilfred and Lola M. Davis and children; Kate Bulla of Asheboro, who has been visiting her sister and brother-in-law, John and Mary V. Farlow at Sophia. The 36th annual reunion of the Bulla, Farlow, Millikan families will be held Sunday at New Market schoolhouse. There were 8 states represented last year.

Sherry McDowell of route 4, High Point, spent the weekend with Wanda Farlow. Stanley and Fadine Farlow attended services at Archdale Friends Meetinghouse Sunday

TROY T. PEARCE DIED TUESDAY IN LOCAL HOSPITAL

Funeral Services Conducted Wed. At Marlboro Friends Church

ILL ONLY TWO DAYS

Funeral services for Troy T. Pearce, 68, of Asheboro, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Marlboro Friends church with Rev. Sam Nelson, Friends Minister, and Rev. Mr. Baucum, pastor of the Gravel Hill Baptist church, in charge. Interment was made in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were Watson Milikan, Lloyd Pearce, Wade Fitch Gilmore, Davis, Horace Davis and James Frazier. Mrs. Harry Heyman was in charge of the flowers which were carried by nieces and friends of the deceased.

Mr. Pearce died early Tuesday morning in a local hospital following a critical illness of two days. A retired textile clerk, he had been in declining health for the past five years.

A native of Randolph county, Sophia community, Mr. Pearce was the son of the late Isaiah Newton and Xantippe Farlow Pearce.

When a young man he went to Kansas where he was employed for seven years, returning to Randolph county he came to Asheboro about 33 years ago where he was employed as warehouse clerk for the Southern Railway Company for eight years. Later he was manager of the Asheboro Ice and Coal Company for a number of years. He was a member of the Asheboro Friends church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Hoyle Moore of Asheboro; Mrs. D. W. McMathon of Tarboro; one son, Newton Pearce of Denton, route 3; two sisters, Mrs. R. A. Cox of Emporia, Kansas; Mrs. Troy Millikan, of Sophia; three brothers, Rom Pearce, of Sophia; Percy Pearce, of Greensboro; Charlie Pearce of Washington, D. C.; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

JOHN W. FARLOW

ASHEBORO — John Walter Farlow, 62, of Route 1, Sophia, died in a hospital in Winston-Salem yesterday following an illness of several months. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Bunting Farlow, of the home; two sons, John W. Farlow Jr. of Route 1, Sophia, and Thomas Arrington Farlow of Guilford College; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Farlow of Route 2, Trinity, Farlow of Route 1, Sophia, and two brothers, J. D. and Horace F. Farlow of Route 1, Sophia. Funeral services will be conducted from Flint Hill Congregational Christian Church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in the church cemetery. The body will be placed in the church 30 minutes prior to the service.

Among the recent visitors at C. A. and Mabel Farlow's were Miss Ione Lowe and Ross Lewis Farlow, and family of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kobe and daughter, Mrs. Harriet Gardner of Greensboro.

Sophia News

Missionary Society Meets, Party Honors Mrs. Farlow

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1 — Marlboro Woman's Missionary Society held the regular monthly meeting last Thursday night with Cora Beeson at her home with Kathleen Spencer as co-hostess. The president, Fadhne Farlow, called the meeting to order and read this month's theme, "Personal Spiritual Growth."

Vera Davis gave the devotional, reading Psalm 8:17, and Vadalia Farlow gave the program. Afterwards a business meeting was held. The next meeting will be held in February with Lillie Davis, Irene Peace and Eva Bulla as hostesses.

Since it was a rough, rainy, cold night, not too many were present. The hostesses served refreshments.

Mrs. Farlow Honored
Mesdames Eva Mae Ashburn and Marie Robbins were joint hostesses at New Market School Cafeteria last Saturday afternoon to about 30 ladies of the community honoring their sister-in-law, Mrs. Everette (Ophelia Ball) Farlow. It was indeed a very pleasant occasion.

Upon her arrival, the honoree received a nice corsage of white carnations.

Games were enjoyed and then Mrs. Farlow was asked to go to a table piled high with gifts for her, which she in her own charming way accepted.

Refreshments of cake squares, nuts, mints and hot coffee were served.

This young couple has recently moved into their lovely new modern brick home near the Farlow's old home.

Dr. Beeson Speaks
This coming Friday night, January 27, at 7:30, Dr. Wilbur Beeson who is on leave from the Friends Hospital work in Kenya will be speaking at Marlboro Friends Meetinghouse. He Drake.

Mrs. O. W. Spencer Passes Saturday Archdale Home
Mrs. Mamie Marsh Spencer, 79, a member of one of Randolph county's prominent families, died at her home in Archdale Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock following a lingering illness.

is doing missionary work at this place and I believe it will be quite interesting to hear his report. Everyone that can come is invited and urged to attend. Other Friends congregations are invited, also.

Personals
Quite a number attended Young Friends Quarterly meeting at Marlboro last Sunday afternoon. Asheboro Young Friends put on a good program in the form of a play, "Wake Up Dad". Marlboro was host to this group.

The regular monthly get-together family church supper of Marlboro Friends was very well attended in the church basement last Sunday night.

Glad to note that Garland Alford's family has recently moved into their nice new home near his father, Fred Alford.

The Pomona Grange will meet at New Market School house Friday night, Feb. 3rd. All members are urged to make an effort to be present if possible.

So sorry to note that Miss Theresa Spencer happened to the misfortune to fall at her home last week and break her right arm. She has it in a cast.

Her mother, Mrs. Agnes Welborn Spencer has been helpless in her bed for a long time and seems to gradually get weaker.

Mrs. Grace (Davis) Bronson of Florence, S. C., is spending some time among her Davis family here. Her daughter and son-in-law, Earl and Helen Cook and children of Raleigh, visited Grace and her sister and brother-in-law, Arthur and Ruth Brown last Sunday. We are hoping that Grace will decide to build her a new home in this community and be among us permanently.

Sorry to report that Sherrill Steed, son of Cleo and Etoyil Beeson Steed underwent surgery at Cone hospital, Greensboro on his left elbow last Tuesday morning. Also their son, Ken, is being kept close because of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vaughn and sons of High Point were recent supper guests at the Byron and Peggy Farlow home at Sophia.

Sorry to note that Mrs. Nanette Davis has been suffering with a bad attack of burstitis in her arm but is slowly improving.

A beautiful floral arrangement was placed in Marlboro Meetinghouse Sunday morning in memory of Mrs. Muriel Love Farlow and Verda Farlow by their family. Some of the close relatives from other Meeting Houses attended the service here.

PERSONALS
C. A. and Mabel Farlow and Vadalia Farlow and children spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Curtis and Catherine Farlow Andrews at Mt. Gilead.

Mrs. Marie B. Pugh attended a seminar for Quaker school teachers in Washington, D. C. the past weekend. They were accompanied by Marie's husband, Wade Pugh.

We are glad to hear that Pearl Nance who recently underwent surgery at Randolph hospital is improving nicely.

Clara Davis and Zorardo Loflin have returned home after several days visit among relatives in Florida.

Glad to hear that Ada Stout, who recently underwent surgery at High Point hospital, has returned to her home near Cedar Square and is able to be around the house.

TRIBUTE IN CHURCH
A beautiful floral arrangement was placed in Marlboro Meetinghouse Sunday morning in memory of Mrs. Muriel Love Farlow and Verda Farlow by their family. Some of the close relatives from other Meeting Houses attended the service here.

PERSONALS
C. A. and Mabel Farlow and Vadalia Farlow and children spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Curtis and Catherine Farlow Andrews at Mt. Gilead.

Mrs. Marie B. Pugh attended a seminar for Quaker school teachers in Washington, D. C. the past weekend. They were accompanied by Marie's husband, Wade Pugh.

We are glad to hear that Pearl Nance who recently underwent surgery at Randolph hospital is improving nicely.

Clara Davis and Zorardo Loflin have returned home after several days visit among relatives in Florida.

Glad to hear that Ada Stout, who recently underwent surgery at High Point hospital, has returned to her home near Cedar Square and is able to be around the house.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Foust of Graham went the week-end with Clara Davis. They were in school at Guilford College together.

Beeson who has had pneumonia is getting along very nicely. Several attended the get-together supper and social period and Youth Fellowship at Marlboro last Sunday night.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Foust of Graham went the week-end with Clara Davis. They were in school at Guilford College together.

Beeson who has had pneumonia is getting along very nicely. Several attended the get-together supper and social period and Youth Fellowship at Marlboro last Sunday night.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Foust of Graham went the week-end with Clara Davis. They were in school at Guilford College together.

Beeson who has had pneumonia is getting along very nicely. Several attended the get-together supper and social period and Youth Fellowship at Marlboro last Sunday night.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

13A—The Courier-Tribune, Thursday, December 4, 1958

Sophia News

'42 Randleman Class Meets At New Market

By ALTHEA BROWN

CLASS OF '42
SOPHIA, RT. 1—The class of 1942 of Randleman high school held their reunion at New Market school cafeteria Saturday night. The dinner was donated and prepared by Marlboro Friends women and all proceeds will be used for the church building fund.

TRIBUTE IN CHURCH
A beautiful floral arrangement was placed in Marlboro Meetinghouse Sunday morning in memory of Mrs. Muriel Love Farlow and Verda Farlow by their family. Some of the close relatives from other Meeting Houses attended the service here.

PERSONALS
C. A. and Mabel Farlow and Vadalia Farlow and children spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Curtis and Catherine Farlow Andrews at Mt. Gilead.

Mrs. Marie B. Pugh attended a seminar for Quaker school teachers in Washington, D. C. the past weekend. They were accompanied by Marie's husband, Wade Pugh.

We are glad to hear that Pearl Nance who recently underwent surgery at Randolph hospital is improving nicely.

Clara Davis and Zorardo Loflin have returned home after several days visit among relatives in Florida.

Glad to hear that Ada Stout, who recently underwent surgery at High Point hospital, has returned to her home near Cedar Square and is able to be around the house.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Foust of Graham went the week-end with Clara Davis. They were in school at Guilford College together.

Beeson who has had pneumonia is getting along very nicely. Several attended the get-together supper and social period and Youth Fellowship at Marlboro last Sunday night.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Foust of Graham went the week-end with Clara Davis. They were in school at Guilford College together.

Beeson who has had pneumonia is getting along very nicely. Several attended the get-together supper and social period and Youth Fellowship at Marlboro last Sunday night.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Foust of Graham went the week-end with Clara Davis. They were in school at Guilford College together.

Beeson who has had pneumonia is getting along very nicely. Several attended the get-together supper and social period and Youth Fellowship at Marlboro last Sunday night.

PERSONALS
Carl and Cora Beeson, son, Odell, and Burliegh and Lillie Wall visited at the home of York Teague near Carle Creek Friends Meeting House last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Foust of Graham went the week-end with Clara Davis. They were in school at Guilford College together.

Beeson who has had pneumonia is getting along very nicely. Several attended the get-together supper and social period and Youth Fellowship at Marlboro last Sunday night.

Offer Your Services Through

Sophia News Marlboro Revival Complete; Many Community Gatherings

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Route 1—The weekly revival at Marlboro Friends Meetinghouse came to a close last Friday night. The attendance was good and the interest inspirational, soul-searching messages by Dr. C. Excellence Rozelle of Winsor-Salem. The fill-a-pew method in getting people out proved most successful. There were many visitors and to all of you who read this we thank you for so kindly responding to our invitations. It was all appreciated, we hope, and believe much good has been accomplished. To everyone that can come often as you can and hear the pastor, Rev. Bob Medford. He gives us good messages also. We were glad to have ministers from other churches at the meeting.

We are so glad to have Mrs. Della Hinshaw back in our midst. She makes her home with her children. Now it is her time to live with her daughter and son-in-law, Willis and Ethel H. Beeson for a few months. She is a very quiet, friendly person. Though aged in years, she enjoys going around and being with her many friends.

The dinner guests of Emory and Blanche D. Farlow last Sunday were his sister and brother, Mrs. Lillie F. Davis and Walter Farlow. Also Raymond and Ruth Farlow, Archdale, Wilson and Dot Wilkie and son, Terry of Greensboro and pastor of Marlboro, Rev. Bob and Pam Medford, also the Farlow's daughter and son-in-law, Bill and Eva Mae Ashburn of Greensboro.

The children-in-law and grandchildren of Walter Farlow gathered at the home of a son, Raymond and Ruth Farlow at Archdale one evening recently to celebrate Walter's seventysixth birthday. A few cousins, neighbors, Archdale pastor Isaac Harris and wife, and Bob Medford, pastor of Marlboro and Several attended the family get-together supper at Marlboro church basement last Sunday night. Later the men's organization held their regular monthly meeting.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Davis of Cedar Square community is a patient in High Point Hospital suffering with a badly infected hand which he recently got hurt.

Mrs. Martha D. Jones of the Fairfield community who has been visiting her parents Frank and Nannie Davis for several days returned to her home last Sunday evening. So glad she seems better and hope she soon gets well.

Mrs. Emma Hunt and daughter, Mrs. Weaver of High Point visited Mary Osborn recently. She and Mrs. Hunt were room-

The senior Sunday School class had their class with Bunn and Sue Pugh last Monday night. Frank and Nannie Davis, Alvah and Ethel D. Loftin and daughter, Miss Iris Loftin were dinner guests of Frank and Ethel's brother and sister-in-law, Clifford and Mildred Davis at Greensboro.

Mrs. Emma Hunt and daughter, Mrs. Weaver of High Point visited Mary Osborn recently. She and Mrs. Hunt were room-

Several attended the family get-together supper at Marlboro church basement last Sunday night. Later the men's organization held their regular monthly meeting.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Davis of Cedar Square community is a patient in High Point Hospital suffering with a badly infected hand which he recently got hurt.

Mrs. Martha D. Jones of the Fairfield community who has been visiting her parents Frank and Nannie Davis for several days returned to her home last Sunday evening. So glad she seems better and hope she soon gets well.

The children-in-law and grandchildren of Walter Farlow gathered at the home of a son, Raymond and Ruth Farlow at Archdale one evening recently to celebrate Walter's seventysixth birthday. A few cousins, neighbors, Archdale pastor Isaac Harris and wife, and Bob Medford, pastor of Marlboro and

The dinner guests of Emory and Blanche D. Farlow last Sunday were his sister and brother, Mrs. Lillie F. Davis and Walter Farlow. Also Raymond and Ruth Farlow, Archdale, Wilson and Dot Wilkie and son, Terry of Greensboro and pastor of Marlboro, Rev. Bob and Pam Medford, also the Farlow's daughter and son-in-law, Bill and Eva Mae Ashburn of Greensboro.

The children-in-law and grandchildren of Walter Farlow gathered at the home of a son, Raymond and Ruth Farlow at Archdale one evening recently to celebrate Walter's seventysixth birthday. A few cousins, neighbors, Archdale pastor Isaac Harris and wife, and Bob Medford, pastor of Marlboro and

The dinner guests of Emory and Blanche D. Farlow last Sunday were his sister and brother, Mrs. Lillie F. Davis and Walter Farlow. Also Raymond and Ruth Farlow, Archdale, Wilson and Dot Wilkie and son, Terry of Greensboro and pastor of Marlboro, Rev. Bob and Pam Medford, also the Farlow's daughter and son-in-law, Bill and Eva Mae Ashburn of Greensboro.

Sophia Route One New Market Grange In Session; Cookouts Held

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1—The New Market Grange met together at the home of James and Jean Swiggett for the regular monthly meeting last Thursday night. Farlow and Verla Ridge were hostesses. After a business session was over a program of gospel hymns was given by the Cedar Square quartet and young folks who which was much enjoyed by all. The hostesses served refreshments during the social period.

DOG SUPPER

The New Market little league team, who came out on top 3 year, with parents or some members of their family gathered at the old homestead of the Elva Davis and enjoyed a dog cook out supper. It was a perfect place in the yard in the cool shade and everyone really enjoyed this occasion a lot. Garfield Davis was manager this season but had others to assist him. This supper was last Saturday evening.

COOKOUT SUPPER

Last Friday evening the men of Marlboro Friends Church gave a cookout supper in the yard for the ladies and children. The men did the cooking and the menu consisted of hot dogs and hamburgers with all the trimmings. Baked potatoes and cold drinks. It was a very delicious meal and everyone really enjoyed it to the fullest extent. There were about 70 present for this social occasion.

ANNUAL PICNIC

The Friendly Friends Sunday School Class of Marlboro Church had their annual picnic supper at High Point City Lake last Saturday night. The older group enjoyed a sociable period while the children of the parents present enjoyed the rides and amusements. There were several present for this pleasant time.

PERSONALS

Major Sgt. James and Nancy Ellen Farlow Hunt will return to Fort Riley, Kansas. There have been visiting Hunt-Farlow families for several days. She is the oldest daughter of Perry and Marjorie Farlow. Arthur and Ruth D. Brown and Elsie Davis spent the 4th week with their sister, Mrs. Grace D. Brenson at Florence, S. C.

So sorry to note that Frank Farlow of Sophia, who has been in failing health for some time, does not seem to improve as fast as wished for by his many relatives and friends. Hope he will get out again soon.

Sophia News Many Family Gatherings In Area; Seek Bloodmobile Donors; Personals

By ALTHEA BROWN

(Anyone in the surrounding communities having any news items which could be interesting for the readers of this column, please get in touch with Mrs. Althea Brown at Sophia, Route 1 or by telephoning 8825926 mornings.)

SOPHIA, Route 1—Clara Davis, Blanche and Alice Farlow, Willis and Ethel Beeson and the Rev. Bobby Medford of Marlboro Friends Meeting have returned to their homes here after attending the five-years meeting at Richmond, Indiana last week. They brought back reports of a most pleasant and a most interesting friends-meeting affair. A good attendance was noted and North Carolina had a large number of friends present. There were many interesting reports, worship periods and good messages.

The children in-laws and grandchildren of the late Jabez and Emma Farlow Cox gathered last Sunday at noon at the home of a daughter and son-in-law, Harry and Dorothy C. Smith at 724 Baker Road for their annual family reunion dinner.

A sumptuous meal was served and much reminiscing of the past was enjoyed. Those present were Dallas and Ethel Cox Farlow of Sophia, Norman Farlow and family, Cleus Hall and family, Dean Huffman and family, Edward and Bertha Cox family, and children of Lynchburg, Va., William and Ruth Cox, Alfred and children of Miami, Fla., Matthew and Clara Cox Powers on Allen Jay road and Gordon and Peggy Washam and baby of Charlotte and Randy Smith.

Everyone really did enjoy this get-together.

Stanley and Fadhine Farlow and daughter Wanda and her father, Gunney McDowell spent the weekend at Atlanta, Ga., at the home of Gunney's son, Boyd McDowell and family.

J. B. and Irene D. Peace and mother Lillie Davis had her cousins as dinner guests last Sunday week at their home. They were Lewis and Nellie F. Steed of S. Painfield and his three sisters, Mrs. Elva Bingham, Mrs. Daisy Elder of High Point, and Blanche D. Emery and Blanche D. Farlow.

The youth fellowship group of Cedar Square meeting with invited young guests enjoyed a social get-together in the church basement last Sunday evening. Several were present for this pleasant occasion.

Mrs. Emma Hunt and daughter, Mrs. Weaver of High Point visited Mary Osborn recently. She and Mrs. Hunt were room-

The senior Sunday School class had their class with Bunn and Sue Pugh last Monday night. Frank and Nannie Davis, Alvah and Ethel D. Loftin and daughter, Miss Iris Loftin were dinner guests of Frank and Ethel's brother and sister-in-law, Clifford and Mildred Davis at Greensboro.

Mrs. Emma Hunt and daughter, Mrs. Weaver of High Point visited Mary Osborn recently. She and Mrs. Hunt were room-

Several attended the family get-together supper at Marlboro church basement last Sunday night. Later the men's organization held their regular monthly meeting.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Davis of Cedar Square community is a patient in High Point Hospital suffering with a badly infected hand which he recently got hurt.

Mrs. Martha D. Jones of the Fairfield community who has been visiting her parents Frank and Nannie Davis for several days returned to her home last Sunday evening. So glad she seems better and hope she soon gets well.

The children-in-law and grandchildren of Walter Farlow gathered at the home of a son, Raymond and Ruth Farlow at Archdale one evening recently to celebrate Walter's seventysixth birthday. A few cousins, neighbors, Archdale pastor Isaac Harris and wife, and Bob Medford, pastor of Marlboro and

The dinner guests of Emory and Blanche D. Farlow last Sunday were his sister and brother, Mrs. Lillie F. Davis and Walter Farlow. Also Raymond and Ruth Farlow, Archdale, Wilson and Dot Wilkie and son, Terry of Greensboro and pastor of Marlboro, Rev. Bob and Pam Medford, also the Farlow's daughter and son-in-law, Bill and Eva Mae Ashburn of Greensboro.

The children-in-law and grandchildren of Walter Farlow gathered at the home of a son, Raymond and Ruth Farlow at Archdale one evening recently to celebrate Walter's seventysixth birthday. A few cousins, neighbors, Archdale pastor Isaac Harris and wife, and Bob Medford, pastor of Marlboro and

The dinner guests of Emory and Blanche D. Farlow last Sunday were his sister and brother, Mrs. Lillie F. Davis and Walter Farlow. Also Raymond and Ruth Farlow, Archdale, Wilson and Dot Wilkie and son, Terry of Greensboro and pastor of Marlboro, Rev. Bob and Pam Medford, also the Farlow's daughter and son-in-law, Bill and Eva Mae Ashburn of Greensboro.

Funeral Services Randolph Native Held Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Trackon, 71, of Greensboro, were held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Hands Chapel here with Dr. Claude Bowen, pastor of the First Baptist church, in charge. Interment was made in the New Salem Methodist church cemetery in Randolph county.

A native of Randolph county Mrs. Jackson died Friday night in a Durham hospital following several years ill health. She had been residing in Greensboro for a number of years.

Surviving are three sons, C. Wade Jackson of Greensboro, Roy Jackson of Richmond, Va., and O. W. Jackson of Los Angeles, Calif., two daughters, Mrs. W. D. Cook of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Beulah Rockett of Greensboro; one brother, O. B. Inshaw of Asheboro; one sister, Mrs. Ella Kirkman of Greensboro; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Henley-Spencer Vows Related

In an impressive ceremony Miss Ruby Spencer, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Spencer of Randleman, route 2, became the bride of Joseph W. Henley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Henley of Asheboro, route 1, Saturday afternoon, January 10, at 3 o'clock at Giles Chapel Methodist church.

Rev. W. A. Jarrett, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony amid a setting of palms, baskets of white glad-rolls and seven branched candles. The bride couple entered together. The bride wore a blue suit with navy and white accessories and carried a white Bible topped with white rosebuds and showered with white satin ribbons.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Reid Rich, pianist, played "Because" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." Mrs. W. A. Jarrett, soloist, sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer," as benediction, James W. Wilson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Herman Spencer, brother of the bride, lighted the candles. Mothers of the bride carried thinned corsages of white carnations at their shoulders.

Mrs. Henley graduated with the class of 1931 at Franklinville high school and Mr. Henley attended Franklinville school and is now serving with the Air Force in Travis.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. Upon their return they will leave for California where they will make their home.

Sophia News

Marlboro Friends Women's Society Meets On Thursday

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Route One—Marlboro Women's Missionary Society met at the church parsonage last Thursday night. Pam Medford and Vadaia Farlow were co-hostesses. The president, Fadhie Farlow called order and read this month's theme "Employed Women Cause Changes." Alice Farlow read Acts 14-17 along with comments and prayer for devotional.

Nora Farlow was program leader reading from blueprint of the many changes brought by women working. We are indeed stewards of our time, talent and treasure for the Kingdom of God. Also she read a question-maine for members.

This month's project is help for foreign student. Various committees reported and notes of thanks read from appreciative mention made of other sick ones to be remembered. We feel that gifts to the sick around us will be doing good same as help sent to other places. All sick ones do appreciate being remembered with gifts, visits and kind words and cards from the community folks. It makes the afflicted ones feel they are not forgotten by others and gives new hope and encouragement.

Plans were discussed for the November bazaar. It was decided to hold it at New Market school. There will be more announcements later.

Three new members were welcomed into this society. The hostesses served delicious prune cake, nuts and punch to the 20 present and one visitor.

The children and families of the late Michael A. (Tim) and Louvenia Laughlin Farlow gathered at the home of a son and wife, Frank and Nora S. Farlow, at Sophia, a recent Sunday, for a family get-together. About 40 relatives came in for the lunch hour and others came in later.

A son, John B. Farlow, due to illness was unable to be present. The ones coming the longest distance was Mrs. Robert Lowder and family of Norwood. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ella Farlow and the late Chess Farlow. Also Marlboro pastor and wife, Bob and Pam Medford were present.

A good meal and fellowship were much enjoyed by those present. Tim, as he was called, was a recorded minister of Marlboro Friends Meeting where several members of the family now attend, and the family were all well-known throughout the surrounding community.

Birthday Observed
Shelle Faye Morris was one year old the past week. She is the daughter of John and Jane Davis Morris of Route 1, Randleman. Jane invited a few children to her home for a little birthday cake. The little honoree received some lovely gifts.

There were 10 little folks and some grown-ups present.

Personals

Sorry to note that Kermit Hayes met with an accident last week while working outside. He has been suffering quite a bit with an infected eye due to getting it hurt by a stick hitting his eye and breaking a piece off in his eye. Part of it was gotten out but more still in it. The doctor is trying to treat it and get it out the best way possible.

There will be a weekend revival beginning this Friday night at 7:30 and continuing through Sunday night at Cedar Square Friends Church. Rev. Howard Ward, pastor of South Plainfield, will be the visiting minister to speak. Rev. Dallas Rush is pastor here. Everybody urged and invited to attend these services.

The two past Sunday night training courses for teachers and workers in Sunday school work has really been well attended and found to be quite interesting for all. Marlboro was well represented. It was held at Archdale Friends Church.

Several of the men in this community as invited guests attended the Rotary Club supper at the Randleman School Cafeteria last Monday night. A most delicious meal was much enjoyed and also the interesting program after supper.

So sorry to hear that Mrs. Della Hinshaw, the mother of Mrs. Ethel H. Beeson, who is spending sometime at the Beeson home, has been a patient in High Point Hospital for operations on her eyes. She had a cataract taken off one eye on Tuesday and the second cataract taken off the other eye on Friday. Though she is over 80 years old she stood the operation very nicely and is expected to have very good vision of her eyes again before too long.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy and Marjorie Farlow have returned home. He and Percy and Marjorie Farlow are spending some time at the home of their daughter, Lottie Briles on Route 2, and son-in-law Clyde and Kath-ryn Spencer.

The revival which has been in progress at Glenola Baptist Church for several days until this day. They were accompanied Sunday. The attendance is very good. The pastor is Cecil Wright and the evangelist is John Gamm-own. After noon they all are accompanied by May went to be of Virginia.

Mrs. Agnes Welborn Spencer, assistant garden for a short while by infirmities of age (86) Victory Toomes. does not seem to improve much. Congratulations to Clarence the birth of their fourth child, daughter, Betty Sue, October 2, at High Point Hospital. They have four daughters.

Burleigh and Lillie Wall attended the homecoming day at Glenwood Friends Church, Greensboro last Sunday. Other friends' meetings were repeated. Rev. Seth Hinshaw was the speaker of the day.

Mrs. Martha Ramestaff Walker, 98, died this morning at the home of her son, Arthur H. Walker on Sophia, route 1. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the St. Paul Methodist church from the Plainfield Friends' church and interment made in the same cemetery, Randleman.

Surviving in addition to the son, Arthur H. Walker are 9 great-grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner of northern Pines last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner of northern Pines last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner of northern Pines last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner of northern Pines last Tuesday.

id Route One News

Marlboro Bible School Underway; Rival Continues At Glenola

By ALTHEA BROWN

ALTHEA BROWN — We noted that Mrs. Bird Bulla, wife of Randleman resident at her home break-ell at her home in Randolph limb. She is in Randolph school in Asheboro. She is town throughout this community and is a faithful attendant almost every Sunday for service at Marlboro Meeting.

Irvin Robbins has been a patient at High Point Hospital for several days for treatment of pneumonia and complications. He seems to be improving and hopes to be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Beason

Sophia News Much Illness Reported In Sophia Area; Class Meets

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Route 1 — Hayes Davis, 51, died last week after a long illness. He was the son of Mrs. Ma Gray Davis and the late Jerome Davis of Glenola. He had lived here most of his life. He was married and the father of eight children. His funeral and burial were at Mt. Vernon. We extend sympathy to the family.

Hobert Dicks, 62, was quietly laid to rest in the Marlboro cemetery last week. He will be remembered by several here. He was the son of Nathan

Mrs. Martha Walker Passes Monday Sophia, Route 1

Mrs. Martha Ramestaff Walker, 98, died this morning at the home of her son, Arthur H. Walker on Sophia, route 1. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the St. Paul Methodist church from the Plainfield Friends' church and interment made in the same cemetery, Randleman.

Surviving in addition to the son, Arthur H. Walker are 9 great-grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

SCHOOL ROYALTY—Named King and Queen and Prince and Princess of New Market Elementary School at the school's annual PTA Talent Show were these handsome young people. Left to right, King Larry Richardson, Queen Karen Beeson, Princess Anita Johnson and Prince Robbie Davis.

Thursday, March 1, 1936

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Freeman celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary Sunday, February 12, at their home on route 1, Sophia, with an open house from 1:30 until 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Freeman is 80 years of age, and Mrs. Freeman is 72 years of age. Both are very active and alert. They have thirteen living children, six sons and seven daughters. A. W. Freeman, Lloyd Freeman, Raymond Freeman, all of Ashboro, Lloyd Freeman and Talmaage Freeman of Randlemann; Mrs. Ruben Fink of Concord, Mrs. Z. B. Cole of Seagrave, Mrs. G. T. Cole of Ashboro, Mrs. James Lee of Pennywanda, Mrs. Henry Moffitt of route 1, Sophia, Mrs. James Hicks of Champlain, Illinois and Mrs. Marvin Osborne of Pleasant Garden, 37 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Over two hundred friends and relatives called during the afternoon to extend best wishes and congratulations.

Mendenhall
Held Wednesday
Marlboro Church

Robert Thomas Mendenhall, 56, of route 1, Sophia, died Monday afternoon at his home. Survivors include his wife, Pearl Linden Mendenhall; one son, Raeford of Sophia; one brother, David of Greensboro; six sisters, Mrs. Ethel Rich, Mrs. Lester Myers, Mrs. Gladys Adams, Mrs. Louise Queen and Mrs. Homer Bame of High Point and Mrs. Garnet Buck of Portsmouth, Va.; one grandchild.

Funeral service was held Wednesday at 3 p.m. at Marlboro Friends Meeting House and burial was in the church cemetery.

Sophia, Rt. 1,
News Items

Sophia, Rt. 1, Feb. 2.—The Woman's Missionary Society of Marlboro Friends Meeting had as guests at Marlboro members of S. Plainfield, Cedar Square and Randlemann societies. Guest speaker was Mrs. Selma Mackie, state president. The Woman's Missionary president, Lillian, was served the noon hour. Mrs. Mackie, the overnight guest, was accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Beeson. The society attended morning services at Marlboro.

Delliah Cecil of High Point spent Saturday night with her sister-in-law, Gladys C. Davis.

Mrs. Annie Redding is confined to her home by illness. Mrs. Eva Julla, who has been quite sick, is still confined to her room and slowly improving. Emma Johnson, respected agricultural woman, is a patient at High Point Memorial hospital where she recently had one of her legs amputated. She is improving nicely.

Aubrey Kirby left last week for Raleigh to join her husband who is in school there. Kirby is the former Nancy Randlemann and Mrs. Alva Latham just of Sophia; and five brothers, Voltaire, Harvey and Frank Davis, all of Sophia, Clifton Davis of Greensboro and Thomas Davis of Centerville, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cecil of Highboro and Thomas Davis of Centerville, Iowa, spent Saturday night with guests at Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, Sr.

Liberty Native
Died Tuesday
At Trinity Home

Mrs. T. S. Bouldin, Sr., 75, died Tuesday at her home on route 2, Trinity, after a long illness.

A native of Liberty, she had lived in the Trinity community since 1902. She was educated at Guilford College and was a member of Trinity Methodist church. Her husband, Thomas S. Bouldin, a farmer, died in 1939.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Ray Parrish of Rutherfordton, Mrs. Lloyd Clodfelter of High Point and Mrs. Fred Ferguson of Thomasville; six sons, Herman M. Bouldin of Winston-Salem, Thomas S., William C., and Carl V. Bouldin, all of Trinity, John W. and George S. Bouldin, both of High Point; a brother, Alfred I. Cox of Thomasville; and five sisters, Mrs. Ora Boggs and Mrs. C. L. Harris of Thomasville, Mrs. Mamie Sigman of Whinston-Salem, Mrs. Anna Rierson of Charlotte and Mrs. Sallie Shepard of Richmond, Va.

The funeral was held at 3 p.m. Thursday at Trinity Methodist church. The Rev. J. L. Love and Rev. J. C. Gatewood officiated. Burial was in Trinity cemetery.

Attack Fatal To Plato M.
Davis, 68

Plato Melvin Davis, 68, died unexpectedly at about 8:30 a.m. today after suffering an attack at his office. He was rushed to the hospital but was dead on arrival.

Mr. Davis was born in Randolph County on Oct. 2, 1885, a son of Cyrus and Chiderella Farlow Davis. He was married to Miss Ada Biscow of Randolph County on April 20, 1910. He was a prominent farmer and for over 35 years was in charge of Blair's Dairy here.

More recently he was connected with Koonts Realty Co. He was active in the Trinity Grange, a member of Springfield Friends Meeting and chairman of the board of trustees at Springfield; a member of the Guilford County Agriculture board and a director of the High Point F.C.C.

Surviving, in addition to his wife of 109 Springdale Ave., are a daughter, Mrs. John Purcell, and a son, James Plato Davis, both of High Point; four granddaughters; two sisters, Mrs. W. F. Coe of Randlemann and Mrs. Alva Latham just of Sophia; and five brothers, Voltaire, Harvey and Frank Davis, all of Sophia, Clifton Davis of Greensboro and Thomas Davis of Centerville, Iowa.

Funeral services will be held in Springfield Friends Meeting Saturday at 4 p.m. by the pastor, the Rev. Millard Jones. Burial will be in the family plot in the church cemetery. The body will remain at Yow's Funeral Home until it is placed in the church at 3 p.m. to lie in state.

Funeral Services
Ella Gray Lanier
Monday 11 A.M.

Funeral services for Ella Gray Lanier, 84, of Sophia, Route 1, widow of Benjamin Lanier, were conducted this morning at 11 o'clock at the Mt. Gilead Methodist church, and interment made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Lanier died Saturday in the Randolph hospital after a long illness.

Surviving are two brothers, Sam and Charlie Gray of Route 1, Trinity. She was a member of Hopewell Methodist church.

ROY BRYSON, Route 5. 'My wife cooked just as good as my mother used to, and that's a fact. I've been married 12 years now, and I still you I'm satisfied with the way my wife cooks.'

A. M. Spencer Dies Sunday;
Burial Tuesday

Martha Davis Spencer, 67, died at her home on Randolph route 2, Sunday evening, 10:30 o'clock after an illness of six months. Surviving are the husband, Mr. M. Spencer, four daughters: Mrs. George Barker of East; Mrs. Marvin Allied, of East; Mrs. Esther of the home; Mrs. W. Henley, of Ashboro; Mrs. I. two sons, Clayton D. Spencer, of Randolph; and Mrs. P. Spencer of the home. Burial will be held at 10:30 o'clock at the home. The funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock at the Chapel Methodist Church, with Rev. W. A. Jarrett in charge. Interment will be made in the Poplar Ridge cemetery at 4 o'clock. The body will be taken to the home this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

May 14 - 1959
Marlboro Group Attends Conferences; Picnic Dinner Is Held; Memorial Day

By ALTHEA BROWN

PHIA, Route 1 — Several Marlboro attended the U. S. W., at High Point and the Conferences at Springfield last week. There were a number of state folks present. It was an inspiration and an occasion to be long remembered, many good spiritual messages and the fellowship was there. There were a number of state visitors at Marlboro Sunday morning. Some were from Indiana whose anniversary; and six grand-

Service as usual in the morning. There will be picnic dinner and afternoon memorial services. Dr. George Joyner will speak and there will be special singing. This is homecoming day for many from other places to come meet friends and enjoy the day.

PERSONAL MENTION

The William White family have recently moved into their lovely new home built on lots bought from part of the Raegan estate near Glenola, just off highway 311. Mrs. White was Ina Lee Millikan. She has returned home from High Point Hospital with her new baby daughter, Leah Ann, born May 6.

Marlboro young friends were hosts to the quarterly meeting social in the basement last Thursday night. It was quite a success with about 100 in attendance.

Two very aged well-known citizens throughout the community passed on the past week. It makes our hearts very sad to lose good friends and neighbors but this does happen and we feel our earthly loss is

Friday, Jan. 28, 1953

MEMORIAL DAY
Remember this Sunday will be Memorial Day at Marlboro.

High Point for the Conference.

WILLIAM C. LOWE

William Clarkson Lowe, 69, died at his home, 910 Hickory Chapel Rd., yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Death was unexpected, he having been in his usual health until stricken.

Mr. Lowe was born in Randolph County April 3, 1883, a son of Samuel H. and Civilla Lewis Lowe. He was a member of Springfield Friends Meeting and of the Brotherhood Class of that church, and had engaged in farming all of his life with the exception of a few years spent as a carpenter.

He was twice married, first to Miss Ava Mary Lamb, on Nov. 20, 1910, who died May 10, 1948. Surviving this union are three daughters: Mrs. Helen Herndon and Mrs. Hazel Cagle, both of High Point and Mrs. Halcie Harris of Greenville, S. C. and a granddaughter. He was married July 16, 1949 to Mrs. Hattie Cook who survives. He has four sisters, Mrs. Mary M. Barker of Archdale, Mrs. Mary Thelma Newton of Burlington and Mrs. Lucy Lowe of Greensboro; four brothers, James and Clyde Lowe of High Point, Farley Lowe of Mebane, five stepchildren, Mrs. Ruth O'Neill, Mrs. Elsie Meadows, Mrs. Dot Farlow, Mrs. Agnes Wilbrand and Jeter Cook, all of High Point, and eight step-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in Springfield Friends Meeting House Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by H. Willard Jones, minister, and the Rev. J. A. Groat, pastor of First Pilgrim Holiness Church. Interment will follow in the family plot in Springfield Cemetery. The body will be returned to the church Saturday morning at 11 o'clock and will be placed in the church 30 minutes prior to the services.

Items of Interest
The Past Week
Sophia Rt. 1

SOPHIA, Rt. 1, May 1 — Relatives here have received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Norma Allred of Florida and Gerald Hoffman of Lancaster, Ohio. The vows were spoken in the Bible Baptist church on April 21 in Miami, Fla., at 8 p. m., in the presence of relatives and friends. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Leslie Bechel and soloist was Dean Price. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon net and lace over white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Pauline Clark was her sister's maid of honor and another sister, Miss Rosalie Allred was bridesmaid. They wore blue nylon net over blue tulle and carried bouquets of red carnations. The bridegroom had Ralph Papa for his best man. Ushers were Rudolph Clark, brother-in-law of the bride, and Richard Sommers. Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Allred of Miami and prior to moving there five years ago they were residents of Deep River community. The family is well known here as the parents were former Miss Ruth Cox. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoffman of Lancaster, Ohio. The bride is a graduate of North Miami high school and attended Davis Institute of Medical Technology Heaven's gain, for these badly afflicted ones it is hard to see them be sick for a long time. First, was W. F. (Willie) Coe, 83, who died at Greensboro. He lived here at Walker's Mill for a long time until the death of his wife, Elsie Davis Coe, who died October 13, 1956. He was not well and was taken to Greensboro to live with his children. He was sick 2 1/2 years. He was a very quiet, peaceful man and much liked. Second, Mrs. Emma Bookshire Laughlin, 84, who had not been well for some time. She was the daughter of John and Martha Lambert Brookshire and married "Babe" Laughlin. Much sympathy to the children. Mother will be missed but lets hope she is much better off.

Weak condition and illness desired by her family and friends. Toromy, little son of Kernit and Fay L. Hayes is back home from High Point Hospital and doing nicely now. Mrs. Elmira F. Cook is home from High Point Hospital and some better but quite weak. Mrs. Eloyl Steed is also home from same hospital and much better. Sorry to note that Arthur D. Farlow of Bahama is at his home resting in bed for some time caused by leg affection. John Farlow of Sophia who has not been well for a long time is in a very weak condition now. Mrs. Fadhine Farlow's guests during the Conference week were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Farlow Davis and Mrs. Florence Higgins and Mrs. Lola Beard of Richmond, Indiana, and Miss Phyllis Brown of Jamaica, West Indies. Mrs. Cecelia F. Cagle and daughter, Sheila of Benson visited her parents, C. A. and Mabel Farlow Friday night. Also Mrs. Catherine F. Andrews and daughter, Christine, and son, Keith of Mt. Gilead visited her parents, the Farlows, Sunday.

M. M. Kearns
Randolph Native
Passes Wednesday

It makes us very sad when we hear that someone we have known for many years of usefulness has passed on. Sympathies are extended to the family (High Point, North Carolina, Los Angeles, Calif.; two grandchildren; one great-grandchild; three brothers, Carl, Roy R., and Early F. Kearns, all of High Point; one sister, Mrs. Fuller, of High Point. Funeral services will be held Friday at 3 o'clock at the Fairview Methodist church and interment made in the church cemetery. The body will be taken to the church a half hour prior to the services.

and is now assistant to Benie Perry, M.D. The bridegroom is high school graduate and is now serving in the U. S. Marine Corps at Florida. Our sympathy is extended to the family of I. A. Duncan, 73, who passed away recently. We are glad to report that John Pipkin, pastor of Marlboro Meeting, is recovering from a recent operation. Seth Hinshaw filled the pulpit at the Meeting for John Sunday. He gave us a good message. A. D. and Ora I. Farlow of Bahama spent Sunday and part of Monday with Farlow and Lotlin relatives here. Among the dinner guests at Jim and Gladys Davis' Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Reed and son, Tommy, of Spartanburg, S. C., and W. A. Cecil of High Point. We are wishing that John and Mary Wade Farlow will soon be in their usual health; also C. E. Lotlin and family.

Stout Rites
Held Wednesday
At Deep River

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1954

Larkin M. Stout, 71, retired Randolph county farmer, died in Chatham hospital Monday after two years of serious illness and one week of serious illness. Funeral service was held at Deep River Baptist church at 2 p.m. Wednesday. Burial was in the Holy Spring Friends cemetery.

and Difie Stout, all of route 2, Ramseur, and Albert Stout of route 2, Silver City; one sister, Mrs. Sallie Stout of Garland; one half-sister, Mrs. Garland Andrews of Burlington; two brothers, James W. Stout of rt. 2, Snow Camp, and A. C. Stout of Graham; two half-brothers, Hampton and Robert Stout, both of route 2, Graham; 18 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

F R N S

2652

Sophia News

World Day of Prayer Held, Youth Meet

BY ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1—There was a World Day of Prayer program held at Sophia Congregational Church last Friday night. There were five meetings in this service which included Marlboro Friends, South Plainfield Friends, Old Union Methodist, and Flint Hill Congregational. All meetings were represented. A good program was enjoyed by several present. Howard Ward, Friends minister, gave a good message.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

The Youth Fellowship group met at Marlboro last Sunday night then went to Cedar Square for a singing by the Guilford College singers. This event was well attended and enjoyed by all present.

PERSONALS

There were many in the community that were sad at the death of James Ralph Newlin, 73, whose funeral was held at Marlboro last Saturday afternoon. He was the son of Duncan and Ladoska Farlow Newlin. He was a member of Marlboro Meeting. He was a very familiar figure walking the highway and country roads selling things, and enjoyed talking with folks. He had been sick for several months.

Sympathy to the relatives of Julius B. Farlow, 81, of Greensboro, who was laid to rest in Marlboro Cemetery last Friday afternoon. He spent his boyhood in this section. The oldest son of Isaac and Martha Davis Farlow, he left this community many years ago and established his home and business there. But he came to visit relatives and occasionally attended services at Mt. Olive Holiness Church. He had been in declining health for a long time. He has a large circle of relatives.

We are so glad to know that John Farlow who has been a patient in High Point Hospital for quite some time now is now at his home. Also Robert Bulla who has been in the same hospital for sometime is now at home. Both live at Sophia. They are improving very nicely and we hope they will soon be out again.

C. A. and Mabel Farlow spent Sunday and Monday with their son-in-law and daughter, Curtis and Cath. The F. Andrews at Mt. Gilead. Glad that Sherrill Steed who has been a patient in High Point Hospital for treatment for several days has returned to his home and is improving nicely.

Shirley Beeson is a patient in Randolph Hospital, Ashboro, for treatment. She has been a very sick little girl and we hope for her a quick recovery and get back home soon.

E. B. and Flossie Jarrett of Pleasant Garden and son and daughter-in-law, J. R. Josephine Jarrett of High Point, and Ronald Jarrett visited at Carl Beeson's last Sunday.

Congratulations to Wayne and Louise Webster Loflin on the birth of their third child a daughter, Louella Gale.

So glad George Cox has improved a lot from his recent sick spell. He and his wife have returned to their home near Walkers Mill.

Book publishers in the United States issued a total of 13,462 new titles during 1958, a gain of 320 over 1957. In England, there were 22,143 new titles, an increase of 1,424.

8A—The Courier-Tribune, Thursday, January 7, 1960

Sophia News

Illness Reported; Anniversaries

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1—Well, only a few days of the New Year have gone by and some very sad things have already been happening for which we are very sorry. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Winifred Spencer Canoy and her family in the death of her son, Jerry Ronald Canoy, 21, whose funeral was held at Flint Hill last Sunday afternoon. It seems so hard to give up loved ones but no doubt his loss from earth is Heaven's eternal gain and he is at rest from his suffering on earth. The attendance at his funeral and the large floral array attested to his high esteem.

Congratulations to Marshall and Iris (Spencer) Farlow on the birth of their son, Phillip Ferrell last Thursday, December 31.

Ernest Farlow 73 died at Charlotte Sunday, December 26. He was the son of John and Mary Vickrey Farlow of High Point. He was a charter member of High Point Friends Meeting where his funeral was held. Graveside rites were held in Marlboro Cemetery where he was laid to rest. He was known by several around as he has a large number of cousins. The family had been away from around here for many years.

Congratulations to Rev. Ben H. and Pearl Andrews Millikan who recently celebrated their golden wedding with a large reception. We were also glad to have them attend service at Marlboro last Sunday morning. Ben gave a very good message. Also spoke of attending Marlboro as a boy and how Friends held their meetings in those days.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Dora Farlow Adams who has been a patient at National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md., says she has had very encouraging words from her doctors in regard to her afflicted eyes, but will still take several more months. She wishes to express her thanks and appreciation to all who have sent her cards and messages of cheer and gifts. Hope Dora can be back among us before too long.

Sorry to note that D. Frank Davis whose old home is in Cedar Square Community has the past week been in High Point Hospital with pneumonia but was taken last Sunday back to the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Ray and Kathleen D. Bowman at Winston-Salem with whom he has been living for sometime.

Miss Margaret Vuncannon of High Point spent a few days last week with her uncle and aunt, Burleigh and Lillie Wall. She returned to Coker College, S. C. last Sunday.

Sorry to note that Mrs. Walter (Nan Wall) McGee is a patient in High Point Hospital. Also sorry that Amelia Farlow who has been very sick is still not able to return to school. C. A. and Mabel L. Farlow are neither very well. Mrs. Emery (Blanche D.) Farlow was sick the past weekend and Mrs. Elmina Cook has been right sick again but some better. Also little Denise and Debra Farlow have been sick. There has been quite a bit of flu around but seems like most of those having it are now able to be out.

Congratulations to B. B. and Eva Taylor Bulla who celebrated their 50th wedding at Marlboro Church basement last Sunday afternoon.

Among those to visit Mrs. Gladys C. Davis recently were Mrs. W. L. Hutchens and her daughter Mrs. Sam Myers. Mrs. E. L. Beasley and her daughter, Mrs. James Sumner and two girls, Linda and Gale all of High

Mrs. N. Millikan Passes Suddenly

Wednesday P.M.

Mrs. Nancy Mae Millikan, 77, died suddenly Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ed Nixon, on Randleman, Route 2, with whom she made her home.

Surviving are three other daughters, Mrs. Clifford Nixon, of Franklinville, Route 1; Mrs. Charlie York, of Northville; Mrs. Harvey Hoover of Quakerown, Pa.; two sons, Robert Millikan of Franklinville, Route 1; John Millikan of Quakerown, Pa.; and 27 grandchildren; four stepdaughters, Mrs. Roby Burlew of Franklinville, Rt. 1, Mrs. Levi Harrelson of Asheboro, Pa., Rt. 1; Mrs. Nora Tippett Vidleman, Rt. 2; a stepson, Millikan of Franklinville, Pa.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Gray's Chapel Baptist church with Rev. J. J. Tamm, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the cemetery. The body was taken to the home of the deceased, 4:30 o'clock.

Funeral Services

Mrs. R. E. Heath

Sunday 1 P.M.

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence Cherk Heath, 71, of Haw River, Route 1, were held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock from the First Baptist church of Graham, with the Rev. Harley Anderson, pastor of Oak Grove Baptist church in charge, assisted by Rev. V. D. Phillips, Rev. W. A. Poole, and Rev. J. I. Memory. Interment was made in the Friends Lutheran cemetery, near Gibsonville.

Mrs. Heath, a native of Chatham county, died at her home Friday night after several months ill health and several days' critical illness.

Mrs. Heath was the wife of the Rev. R. E. Heath, who served as pastor of the Balltown Baptist church of Ashboro for 14 years. She Maple Springs Baptist church at Seagrave for 13 years and the Oak Grove Baptist church for the past 2½ years. Surviving in addition to her husband are three sons, Troy, W. G. and R. E. Heath, Jr., all of Greensboro; one daughter, Mrs. Nancy Oaks of Greensboro; one sister, Mrs. J. C. Johnson of Greensboro; two brothers, J. C. Cheek of Silver City and H. W. Cheek of Pitsboro; 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Henry Kersey Dies; Coroner Rules Suicide

Henry Clifford Kersey, 58, died at his home near Sophia Tuesday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. Death was caused by a gunshot wound in the head, that was self-inflicted, according to the verdict of the Randolph County coroner.

Mr. Kersey was born in Archdale Oct. 31, 1898, a son of Amos and Angela Kersey, and was married to Miss Jewel York on Aug. 28, 1924. He was a member of Archdale Friends Meeting and had lived in the Sophia community for the past 35 years. He had been manager of the Mountain View Hunting Lodge for about 30 years. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Jewel Y. Kersey of the homeplace; two sons, Frank C. Kersey of Greensboro and Amos C. Kersey of Winston-Salem; one sister, Mrs. Gertrude Aldridge of Route 3, High Point; and a half-brother, John Kersey of Virginia; and one granddaughter.

Funeral services will be held in the Sechrist Chapel Thursday morning at 11 o'clock by the Rev. Clifton C. Pearson, minister of Liberty Friends Meeting. Interment

JOSEPH MILLIGAN

Joseph Coyt Milligan, 81, resident of Route 2, Trinity, died in the local hospital this morning at 8:45 o'clock following an illness of several days. He was taken to the hospital last evening.

Mr. Milligan was born in Florence, S. C., Aug. 2, 1873, a son of Annie and Robert Milligan. He was twice married; first to Fannie Prince who died in 1917. He was married to Josephine Davis on Aug. 7, 1920. He had been a resident of this section since 1916 when he moved here from South Carolina. Prior to his retirement in 1935 he was for 30 years a section foreman with the Southern Railway. He was a member of Trinity Baptist Church.

Surviving in addition to his wife of the home are six daughters, Mrs. Emma Moore of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. Estelle Krinski of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Lottie Broadway of High Point, Mrs. Kathleen Burris of San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of the home and Mrs. Louise Macaluso of Meadville, Pa.; four sons, Ernest, Douglas and Leonard Milligan of Norfolk, Va., and Jessie Milligan of Philadelphia, Pa.; 27 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in Trinity Baptist Church by the pastor, the Rev. J. C. Gatewood. Interment will follow in the family plot in Marlboro Friends Cemetery. The body will remain at the Harold C. Davis Chapel until one hour prior to the service at which time it will be placed in the casket to lie in state until the funeral hour.

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

Sophia Rt. 1, Oct. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. John Cook attended the funeral of Mrs. Cook's cousin, Mrs. Julia Lamb Brookbank, 72, at Sumnerfield, last Sunday week. She will be remembered as Julia Lamb, daughter of Penn and Jane Thompson Lamb who lived, at one time, in this community.

Friends Meeting pastor, Rev. John Pipkin and family, have moved into the new parsonage. An open house will be held Sunday afternoon, 3 until 6 o'clock. It is located near old New Market and on land once owned by the Duncan Newlin family bought by Willis Beeson and wife who gave an parsonage. The public is invited to attend.

James Green, principal of New Market school, has moved his family to the Clara Davis' home for the school year. Several attended the monthly meeting at Marlboro Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hines of Winston-Salem announce the birth of a daughter, Martha Jane, on October 4. Mrs. Hines was formerly Miss Sarah Farlow, daughter of Arthur Farlow and Ora Loflin Farlow of Bahams, but were natives of this community.

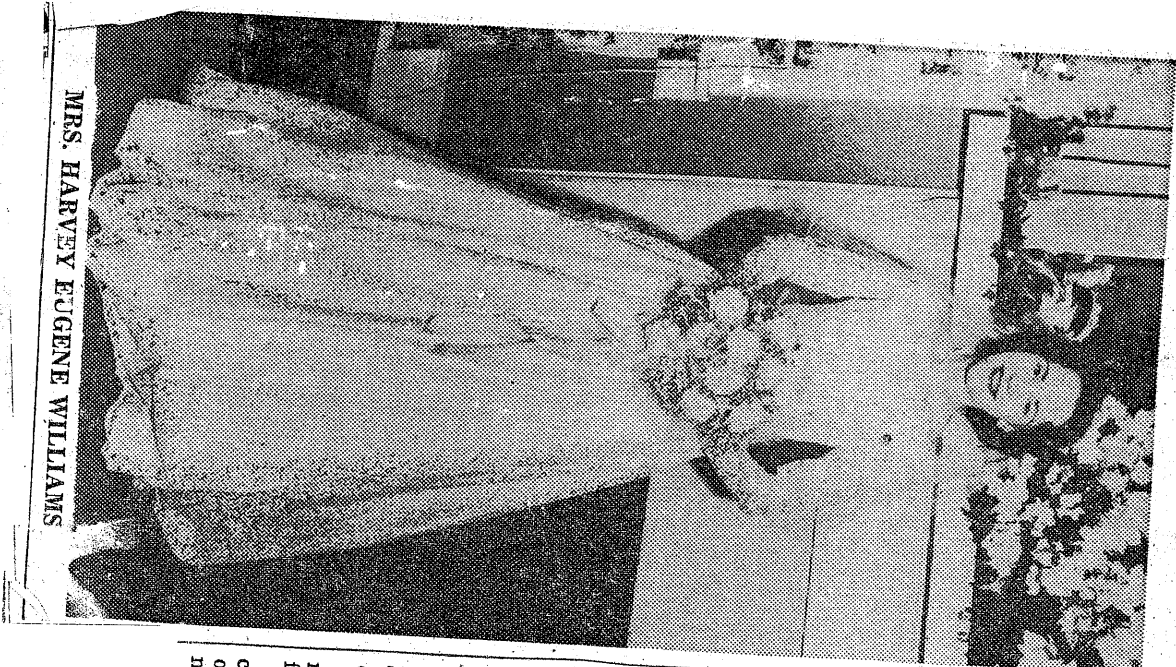

A large crowd attended the annual Farlow-Bulla-Millikan reunion held at New Market school house last Sunday. A beautiful picnic dinner was served at the noon hour.

Mrs. Jim Davis visited her brother, Will Cecil, in High Point Memorial hospital where he is a patient, Monday.

Mrs. Lena Bulla Coe and Lillian Bulla of Charlotte attended the service at Marlboro last Sunday and the reunion at New Market.

Mrs. C. M. Farlow and Mrs. Zoraco Loflin have returned home after spending several days with friends in West Virginia.

Covert Farlow remains very ill.

MRS. HARVEY EUGENE WILLIAMS

Nancy Taylor,
Harvey Williams
Wed In Sophia

SOPHIA—Miss Nancy Lucille Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Taylor of Sophia, was married Friday evening in a home ceremony to Harvey Eugene Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Williams of Trinity. The Rev. Frank Williams, pastor of Piney Grove Baptist Church, officiated. The bride wore a dress of hand cut lace with chapel train. Her bouquet was of white carnations. Her headpiece was of seed pearls which held a fingertip veil. She was given in marriage by her father. Her only attendant was her cousin, Janice McFayden. The groom had as his best man his brother, J. H. Williams. The altar was decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums mixed with gypsophila. The background was banked in Oregon fern. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for a wedding trip. Following the wedding a reception was given at the home of the bride for friends and members of the wedding party.

A. W. Pickett,
Randlemann, Route 2, Taken By Death

Alderson Wiley Pickett, 78, of route 2, Randlemann, died Monday afternoon at his home after several months of illness. Surviving are his wife, the former Genie Spivey; one daughter, Mrs. Grady D. Laughlin of route 2, Randlemann; one son, Colon of Asheboro, two brothers, W. Russell of Liberty and Jim of route 1, Liberty; one sister, Mrs. Newton Melton of Worthville; two half-brothers, N. B. Pickett of Worthville and Ed Pickett of Sophia; two half-sisters, Mrs. Earl Walker of route 1, Franksville, and Mrs. C. J. Townsford of Elberbe, and one grandchild.

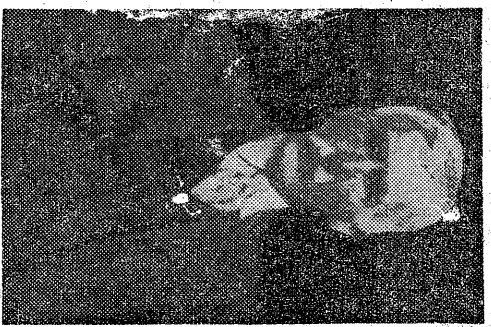

LAST RITES TODAY
Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. today at Glenwood Friends Church for Robert H. Mevyn, 80, retired Quaker minister who died Monday. Burial will be in Mt. Zion's Chapel Cemetery. Officiating will be the Rev. Norman Carter of Glenwood Friends Church, the Rev. R. I. McCluskey, pastor of the First Pilgrim Holiness Church, the Rev. Charles Johnson and the Rev. Robert Southern of Camp Herrick Baptist Church.

Sophia News

Thursday, June 2, 1912

SOPHIA, ROUTE ONE
Southern Quarterly Meeting of Friends was held at High Falls last Saturday. Marboro had a good attendance. Those included pastor Bob Medford, Willis and Ethel Beeson, Binford and Jewell Farlow, Nora Farlow, Lowell, Zorado, Lottin Ruth, Clara Davis, E. & Bulla, Blanch Farlow, Althea Brown, Fadine Farlow and Emily Fugh. There was a crowd present and Norman Carter delivered a good message at the 11 a.m. service. Went to Mrs. B. G. (Jesse Davis) Whitehead last Sunday evening. Though she spoke of suffering quite a bit, she seemed cheerful and said she had lots of company and enjoyed it so much. Hope she will improve soon. She is being cared for by Mrs. Miller of High Point. So glad to note that Mrs. Martha Blair Jones has returned from High Point Hospital where she recently underwent surgery. She is at the home of her parents Frank and Nannie Davis. She seems to be doing nicely and she is having a lot of company which she enjoys so much. Mrs. Lella Hinshaw, formerly of Holly Springs community, spent last week with her daughter and son-in-law Willie and Ethel Beeson. Last Sunday was quite an enjoyable occasion at the home of Burleigh and Lucy Wall when a number of his close relatives gathered at their home to celebrate the birthday of Burleigh with a dinner. Several were present.

DAVID WALKER
David Walker
Dies At 90

DAVID WALKER, 90, retired farmer of Route 1, Sophia, near Trinity, died at 2 p.m. yesterday at the High Point Memorial Hospital, where he had been a patient two days. He had been in normal health until one day before entering the hospital. Mr. Walker was born Aug. 3, 1866, in Randolph County, a son of the late John and Miriam Laughlin Walker of Randolph County. He was married in early manhood to Nellie V. Smith of Randolph County who died June 2, 1912. He had 18 children, nine of whom survive. Survivors include five sons, Herman P. Walker of Darrington, S. C., W. Jarvis Walker of Salisbury, Charles M. Walker of the home, Otis L. Walker of Asheboro and Joel E. Walker of Salisbury and Thomasville; four daughters, Mrs. G. C. Farlow of Sophia, Mrs. E. M. Farlow of High Point, Mrs. Luther H. Spencer of Randlemann and Miss Lena Walker of Route 1, Sophia. 30 grandchildren, 51 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Bulla Funeral Held Sunday
At Giles Chapel

Della Howell Bulla, 70, died Friday at the home of her daughter in Charlotte. A native of Randolph county, she lived in Charlotte for several years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Randlemann. Mrs. Bulla was taken to Asheboro for some time before going to Charlotte. Surviving are her husband Charlie M. Bulla, Asheboro; a son, Lester B. of Charlotte; a daughter, Mrs. J. H. Alexander of Charlotte; four step-grandchildren; two sisters, Miss I. W. Phillips of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. J. K. McNeill of St. Petersburg, Fla.; a brother, the Rev. J. A. Howell of Asheboro, and a grandchild.

Jo. E. Ward
Passes Wednesday;
Funeral Friday

Joseph Elwood Ward, 80, of Sophia, route 1, Hunt Hill community, died Wednesday morning in a High Point hospital following ill health for six months and a serious illness of six weeks. A native of Randolph county, Mr. Ward was a son of the late Joseph Lindsay and Catherine Barker Ward. He was a retired grocery merchant. Mr. Ward was a member of the Mount Olive Pilgrim Holiness church where he served as Sunday school superintendent for a number of years.

Surviving are five sons, Carl, Clyde and Walter Ward, all of Archdale; Roy Ward of Trinity, route 1; Rev. Howard Ward, Sophia, route 1; two daughters, Mrs. Lewis Farlow, Sophia, route 1; Mrs. Grady Peace, of Archdale; one foster sister Mrs. Retta Ingram of High Point; 26 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Marboro Friends Meeting with Rev. James DeWitt, Mt. Olive Pilgrim Holiness church pastor, Rev. Arlo Newell, pastor of First Church of God, High Point, Rev. Waldo Smith, pastor Poplar Ridge Friends Meeting and Rev. John Pipkin, pastor of the Marboro church officiating. Interment will be made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. E. A. Presnell

MRS. E. A. PRESNELL, 79, Mrs. Eida Osborne Presnell, died at her home, 405 Highland Ave., at 11:55 last night. She had been ill for the past three months, the last two weeks of which she was critically ill. Mrs. Presnell was born in Randolph County Oct. 11, 1876, the daughter of Frank and Hettie Swain Osborne. She came to High Point in 1916 from Randolph County and attended Pentecostal Holiness Church. Her husband died 30 years ago. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Howard J. McManus and Mrs. Kay Walden, both of the home, Mrs. R. S. Allen of Burlington and Mrs. Flossie Brady of Cameron, N. J.; two sons, W. M. Presnell of Georgetown, S. C., and Jason Presnell of Saxapahaw; 13 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from County Holiness Church near Randlemann. The service will be led by the Rev. W. L. Smith, pastor of Friendly Baptist Church. A brief service will be held at the home at 2 p.m. Interment will be in Country Holiness Church Cemetery. The body will be taken to the residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

FIRST BIRTHDAY—Vicki Lynn Alired, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Alired, 14 1/2 North Terrace, Asheboro, will celebrate her first birthday tomorrow, November 26. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. E. L. Farlow of Sophia and the late Mr. Farlow and Mrs. Farlow of Asheboro, and the third child of the late Mr. Farlow of Asheboro.

NEW MARKET CLASS VISITS C-T PLANT
Members of Mrs. Vadalia Farlow's sixth grade class at New Market School took a guided tour through the offices and plant of the Ashboro Courier-Tribune recently as a class project. The group was attended by Mrs. Farlow and adult leaders Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baldwin, Mrs. D. S. Bennice Davis, and Mrs. Clyde Spencer. Members of the class above (not in order) are Martha Wright, Helen Alred, Agnes Baldwin, Donna Bennett,

Elaine Boyd, Glenna Farlow, Renee Hurley, Cathy Lewallen, Janet Lithicum, Faye Rich, Sam Spencer, Diane Sumner, Anita Tuttenow, Donna Vanover, Judy Vaughn, Raymond Alred, Shelby Canoy, Jerry Davis, Raymond Farlow, Tony Farlow, Elmer Farlow, Robert Hill, Danny Holfield, John Macow, Darrell Staley, Larry Staley, Jerry Steed, Jeffrey Thompson, Tony Williams, and Michael York. (Staff photo by Tom Riggsbee)

BRIDE—Mrs. Jay Elwood Cox, the former Miss Margaret Ellen Davis was married in Chesterfield, S. C. last Saturday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Davis of Route three, where the couple are at home, temporarily.

Miss Margaret Ellen Davis Married To Jay Elwood Cox In South Carolina

Announcement is made of the and joined the United States Marine Corps, with which he serves for sometime. He is now employed by Bray Electric Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox will make their home, temporarily, with the bride's parents, Route 3.

Miss Vada Jones

Sophia, Rt. 1 News

Southern Quarterly Friends Meet Saturday

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1 — Southern Quarterly Meeting of Friends will be held at Marlboro this Saturday. Beginning at ten o'clock there will be a business session and at eleven o'clock will be an hour of worship. A minister will bring the message and at the noon hour a picnic dinner will be served by the Marlboro Fellowship. Following a period of fellowship, a second business meeting will be held.

Quarterly meeting used to be held here every August, but since changing it to be held at each of the thirteen meetings in the quarter, it comes here very three years. We welcome everyone and hope all meetings will be represented.

Personals
Mrs. Etha Mae Walker of Rt. High Point, is a patient in High Point Hospital where she is suffering from a broken collar. Received in a car wreck as she turned into her driveway last Saturday night.

Her car was hit by another car. Mrs. Lula Hilton Aimes was taken to High Point Hospital last Saturday. She is 95 years of age, blind and near deaf and very weak. She is living here at the home of her son, John Wesley Aimes and family. Glad to note that Frank M. Davis has returned from High Point Hospital for treatment and is much improved.

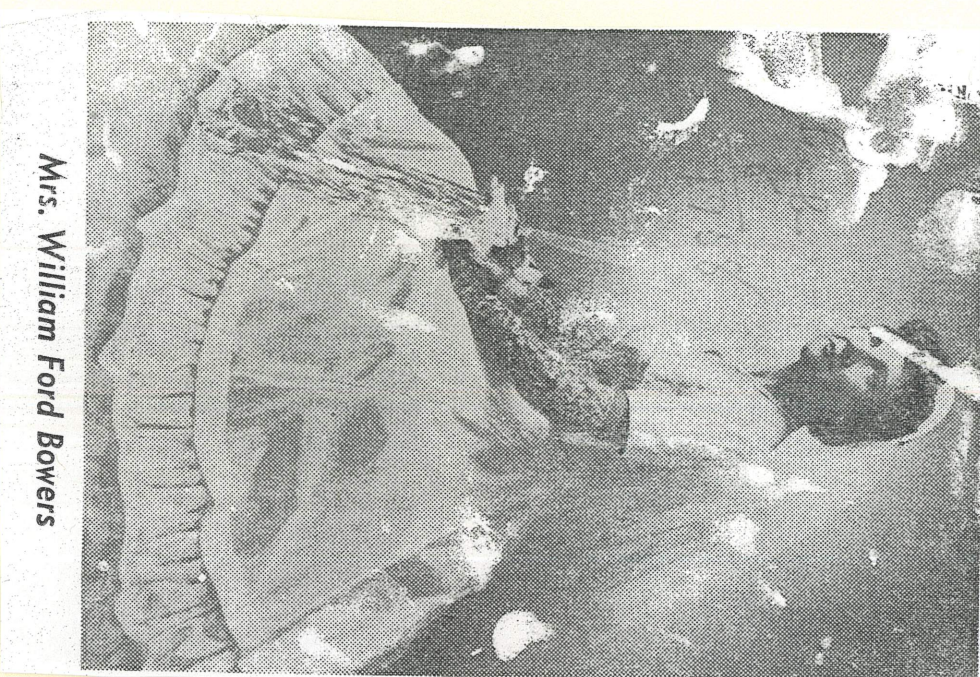

Mrs. Joe (Edith Cox) Heiser and daughter, Christine, of Arleans, France, where he is in service, is visiting her Cox family here. There was a family reunion of the six sisters last Sunday at the home of a sister, Harry and Dot C. Smith, on Rt. 4, High Point. Also attending were Dallas and Ethel Cox Farlow, Bill and Ruth C. Alred, Mrs. Bertha C. Carson of Lynchburg, Virginia and Matthew and Clara C. Powell of near Allen Jay.

A picnic dinner was served. This was the first time in several years that these sisters had all been together.

also showed slides of various places of interest. Farlow relatives of Asheville visited at the home of their cousin, Emery Farlow, Saturday night.

Margaret Farlow Davis of Richmond, Ind. has arrived here. She is a Friends minister and will attend yearly meeting at Guilford College this week. She is the daughter of Walter and the late Edna Farlow.

We hope that Bruce Spence who has been on the sick list will soon be well again. We wish to express sympathy to the relatives of Clarence Hill.

Mrs. William Ford Bowers

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

By ALTHEA BROWN

Sophia, Route 1 August 7—There are a number of relatives here who regretted to hear of the death of Mrs. Amanda Millikan Tussey at Savannah, Ga. Mrs. Tussey, age 85, was born and raised in South Plainfield community, the daughter of Azel and Ann Stalker Millikan. She was one of a large family and now only two survive. She was a faithful attendant of the Bulla-Farlow-Millikan reunion and she will be greatly missed, as well as her brother, B. E. Millikan of Beaumont, Texas, who passed away last year. Those from here attending the funeral services for her in Savannah were Troy Millikan, Halce Beeson, Ed and Hazel Davis, Cora Beeson, Sheriff Steed, Ora Farlow and son, James.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. McMastery of Philadelphia, Pa. recently visited at the Burleigh Wall's home.

Our Sophia, Route 1, mail carrier, Garfield Davis, and his wife, Edith, and children and his sister, Grace Davis Bronson, spent a pleasant vacation in the west. While away they visited at the home of their uncle and aunt, Tom and Luella Davis at West Branch, Iowa. Many of the descendants of David and Rachel Millikan Davis held their annual reunion at the old homestead

Sunday. The old home still stands with no one living in it, but is a well known landmark for their reunion. Upon arrival at noon a delicious picnic dinner was served. Prayer was said by Mrs. Reuben Davis of High Point. Later a short business session was held. Over fifty were present.

William and Ruth Cox Alred and children have returned to their home at Miami, Fla. after a two weeks visit with relatives here. Edward and Bertha Cox Carson and children of Lynchburg, Va. came here for the reunion with the Alreds at Dallas and Ethel Cox Farlow's home.

Members of the New Market Grange met with Trinity Grange Friday night at Trinity Grange Hall. A good picnic supper was enjoyed. Amelia Farlow is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, John and Cecelia F. Ca-

Trinity Man Dies At Thomasville

Funeral Today

J. F. "Jim" Cousins, well known resident of Trinity died in the City Memorial Hospital, Thomasville, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. He had been a patient there for a week.

Mr. Cousins was born in Randolph county, September 21, 1869, a son of Frank and Fannie Caroline Leach Cousins, and was nearing his 70th birthday. He had spent the greater part of his life in the county in which he was born.

Surviving are one brother, H. A. Cousins of Trinity, and one sister, Mrs. W. M. Goode, of Lexington, Ky.

Funeral service will be conducted from the home of a nephew, Edward Cousins, in Trinity, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. W. B. Shinn, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church. Interment will be made in the Trinity cemetery.

Mrs. Joann Short Honored At New Market Festival; Grange In Meeting; Honored Citizen Passes On

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1 — As a courtesy to Mrs. Joann Beeson Short, her mother's sisters, the former Millikan girls, including Madames Lola Davis, Ina Lee White, Marie Hill, Hazel Davis, Bernice Davis, and Betty Jean Ridge, and also a cousin, Mrs. Bea Beeson, joined in hospital duty for her last Saturday afternoon at New Market School cafeteria. Games were enjoyed with prizes being awarded. Joann was presented a rosette corsage, also a shower of lovely gifts by the 75 guests present. The hostesses presented her with a useful gift. They also served a delicious sweet course.

NEW MARKET GRANGE — New Market Grange met together in the school cafeteria at Thursday night for the regular monthly meeting. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Teague of Guilford county. They are representatives of the State Grange. They ve much interesting information. He is the son of Alice and Ark Teague, a former pastor of Marlboro Friends Meeting. During the social period, Mrs. Branson Davis served ice cream, cake and coffee and cold drinks.

CITIZEN PASSES ON — It was quite a shock around Glenola Community last Friday morning to hear that one of the oldest and well known citizens, Mrs. Mary Lenora (Nora) Moore Spencer aged 79 had passed on to her reward in her sleep, found by a member of her family. She had lived there for about fifty years and was a charter member of Glenola Baptist Church. The many kind words spoken by her neighbors and friends of her and the large crowd and the beautiful floral array at her funeral at Glenola Sunday evening attested to her esteem in the community. The burial was in the family plot in Marlboro Cemetery. Sympathy to her four children and their families.

PERSONALS — McLain and Vadalie Farlow had their church class meeting, Friendly Friends, at their home last Saturday night. Lucille Ridge had a real good Easter Biblical program, also business session. A sweet course was served during the social period. The Youth Fellowship group which meets on Sunday nights, was very well attended last Sunday night. Clara Davis gave a good devotional and Mrs. Vadalie Farlow served refreshments. John Pipkin, Marlboro pastor is away this week conducting a series of meetings at Behel meeting in Virginia quarter of Baltimore yearly meeting. Guest minister at Marlboro this Sunday will be J. Floyd Moore professor of religion at Guilford College and pastor of Cedar Square Meeting.

ed his brother and sister-in-law, A. D. and Ora Farlow at Bahama last Tuesday and Wednesday.

We are glad to hear that Shirley Beeson and Sherrill Speed who have been real stars are now back in school.

Sorry that Kevin, little baby son of Max and Cecil Farlow, had to undergo surgery at High Point Hospital last Friday.

The men attending the Quaker Men's Organization dinner at Center Meeting last Saturday night from Marlboro were Kenneth Hayes, Ogburn Loftin, Carl Hill, Bill Ashburn, Jim Davis, Bimford Farlow, Harvey Farlow, Willie Beeson and the pastor John Pipkin.

Xorado Loftin and all her children and families took a picnic lunch and had dinner at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Lester and Louise L. Smith, near Archdale last Sunday.

Bert and Fannie Cox Moxey, of La Jara, New Mexico, have arrived to visit her parents, the George Coxes and other relatives. George has been sick but lots better now.

Bobby and Jane Farlow Myer have returned here from Newport, Rhode Island. Jane is visiting her parents, Percy and Marjorie Farlow while Bob will spend three months Great Lakes Naval Training.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Chilton McDowell is not improving much as wished for her by her family and friends. She is at home. The condition of Emma Cook is not very good at present. Chilton and some of his children have also been sick with flu.

Marlboro Church Setting Of Hockett-Farlow Vow

File 17-1956

Marlboro Friends Meeting House attracted in a miniature bridal party the setting on Saturday night of the wedding of Miss Janice Jane Farlow and Edward Stanton Hockett. Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Elbert Newlin, pastor of the Center Friends Meeting, assisted by the Rev. John Pipkin, pastor of the Marlboro Friends Meeting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Farlow of Route 3, High Point. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henschell N. Hockett Sr. of Route 1, Randleman.

The altar of the church was banked with baskets of white gladioli and emerald fern, and the setting was lighted by white cathedral tapers in multi-branched candelabra.

The program of wedding music was provided by Miss Nancy Beeson, pianist, and Tom Gibbs of Greensboro, soloist. Mr. Gibson's selections included "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me," and as the benediction, "The Lord's Prayer."

Maid of honor to the bride was her sister, Miss Shirley Farlow. Her full-length gown was of cotton blue velvet and crystalite. The fitted bodice of velvet was fashioned with vertical folds of the crystalite, and the slim jacket of velvet which completed the effect was styled with cap sleeves. The bouffant skirt of crystalite man High School, and after serving was gathered over taffeta. The lining two years with the Armadillo was a small half-inch of

Sophia News Friendly Friends Class Meets; Auction Sale

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, R. 1—The Friendly Friends class of young married folks of Marlboro Sunday School met with Wayne and Louise Loftin last Saturday night. This month's project is each member pay for a chair for their new classroom. They have also completed a new well on the church grounds.

Auction Sale — Marlboro Friends will sponsor an auction sale at New Market School next Thursday night, November 17, beginning at 8 o'clock. Assorted homemade articles will be on sale. Proceeds will be used for church work. The public is invited to attend.

PERSONALS — Mrs. Janie Farlow, Miss Helen McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Queen and daughter, Kahly, and Mrs. Dot McKinney all of Asheville came after having been called to attend the funeral of their ject is getting curtains for the basement. Shirley and her mother, Fadhne Farlow, served refreshments.

McLain and Vadalie Farlow had their church class meeting, Friendly Friends, at their home last Saturday night. Lucille Ridge had a real good Easter Biblical program, also business session. A sweet course was served during the social period. The Youth Fellowship group which meets on Sunday nights, was very well attended last Sunday night. Clara Davis gave a good devotional and Mrs. Vadalie Farlow served refreshments. John Pipkin, Marlboro pastor is away this week conducting a series of meetings at Behel meeting in Virginia quarter of Baltimore yearly meeting. Guest minister at Marlboro this Sunday will be J. Floyd Moore professor of religion at Guilford College and pastor of Cedar Square Meeting.

Mrs. Grace Bronson of Florence, S. C., has been visiting her Davis brothers and sisters. C. A. and Mabel Farlow visited

ed his brother and sister-in-law, A. D. and Ora Farlow at Bahama last Tuesday and Wednesday.

We are glad to hear that Shirley Beeson and Sherrill Speed who have been real stars are now back in school.

Sorry that Kevin, little baby son of Max and Cecil Farlow, had to undergo surgery at High Point Hospital last Friday.

The men attending the Quaker Men's Organization dinner at Center Meeting last Saturday night from Marlboro were Kenneth Hayes, Ogburn Loftin, Carl Hill, Bill Ashburn, Jim Davis, Bimford Farlow, Harvey Farlow, Willie Beeson and the pastor John Pipkin.

Xorado Loftin and all her children and families took a picnic lunch and had dinner at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Lester and Louise L. Smith, near Archdale last Sunday.

Bert and Fannie Cox Moxey, of La Jara, New Mexico, have arrived to visit her parents, the George Coxes and other relatives. George has been sick but lots better now.

Bobby and Jane Farlow Myer have returned here from Newport, Rhode Island. Jane is visiting her parents, Percy and Marjorie Farlow while Bob will spend three months Great Lakes Naval Training.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Chilton McDowell is not improving much as wished for her by her family and friends. She is at home. The condition of Emma Cook is not very good at present. Chilton and some of his children have also been sick with flu.

Miss Nancy Spencer Shown Courtesy At Informal Party

Miss Nancy Lee Spencer, bride-elect of September, was honored last evening when Mrs. Thomas R. Allen, Mrs. Myrtle Boyles and Mrs. Vera Roth joined hospitality at the Y.M.C.A.

Approximately 30 guests were invited for a miscellaneous shower at 7:30.

The entertainment room was decorated with mixed summer flowers in pastel shades. Miss Spencer received a corsage of white asters to complement her summer dress in blue and white. An ice cream was served from a table covered with a white cloth and centered with the pastel flowers.

Various games and contests were directed by the hostesses, last evening with Miss Marlene Stanley and Mrs. Jay Hendrix being among the prize winners.

At the conclusion of play, Miss Spencer received linens as the gift of her hostesses.

Among those present were Mrs. Esther Spencer, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Paul Hoffman, mother of the groom-elect, and Mrs. Vada Myrick of Greensboro. Miss Theresa Spencer of Ashboro, and Mrs. Lily Wall of Ashboro, aunts of the bride-elect.

Miss Spencer is to marry High Stanley Hoffman, Sept. 9, in Ebenezer Methodist Church.

AT BRIDAL PARTY—Miss Nancy Spencer chats with her hostesses as she was honored Thursday evening at the Y.M.C.A.

Sophia Child Dies Suddenly This Morning 1954

Christopher Jefferson McCrosky, 5-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gordon McCrosky of Route One, Sophia died at Randolph hospital late this morning following a sudden illness.

The child is survived by his parents, one sister, Reena Gale, two brothers, William Gordon Jr. and Ivan Dale all of the home, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Neely of Jenkins Jones West Virginia, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Jennings of Abbs Valley, Virginia. Services will be held Sunday afternoon at the home at 2 p.m. with the body remaining at Farlow Funeral Home in Ashboro until 2 p.m. Saturday, when it will be returned to the home. Interment will be in the Mt Olive Pilgrim Holiness church cemetery.

CELEBRATES 98TH—Trinity's Dr. J. D. Bulla was relaxing a moment in the afternoon sun when the Courier-Tribune photographer visited this week for the county natives' 98th birthday. Dr. Bulla remains active in his practice of medicine despite his many years. (Photo by Ralph L. Bulla.)

The doctor doesn't drive a car any more, he has had to give up duck hunting and he is slightly unsteady on his feet. Otherwise, he seems to be in good shape physically and walked out of the house in fine fashion to have his picture made.

He objected, somewhat, at having his picture made, saying that folks were getting tired of seeing his picture in the papers, but agreed to pose if he could keep his hat on.

Our annual visit with the doctor was over and we left still amazed as we were years ago at the agility, the keenness of mind and the remarkable character of this physician who is close to the century mark.

We thought too, as we left, that nothing we could write or nothing that any one could say would sum up the situation as well as the words of the husband of the lady who had the skin affliction. He said, as we waited for the doctor to dismiss the other patient, that "when the doctor goes, he will be the worst missed man in the whole country."

Dr. Bulla became the practice of medicine in the year 1883 in the community in which he now lives. He has practiced there continuously since forming a partnership with the late Dr. Thomas Winslow 72 years ago.

Living with him in the commodious country residence which he built many years ago are his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Bulla, and his daughter-in-law assists him in the receiving of his patients and the dispensing of the medicines. His wife died in 1935 and several of his children are also dead.

After 96 Years Still Steady In Practicing

By RALPH L. BULLA

We went late Sunday morning to pay our respect to the patriarch of northwestern Randolph, Dr. Jefferson Davis (Jeff) Bulla, and had to wait before we could see him, as he was busy attending to a patient who had come down from Trinity to receive medical attention.

Dr. Jeff, as he is affectionately known to hundreds of patients and friends, is in the process of observing his 96th birthday and it is our desire to go each year at this time and pay our humble tribute to a man and a doctor who with a normal life-time of service behind him, is still rendering aid to his fellowman.

The patient we waited on was not the first one to call at the two-story residence, setting back of a grove of trees, on last Sunday morning. Several others had come earlier to seek the medical advice, prescriptions and applications of this country doctor who began his practice over 70 years ago.

We questioned the patient as she left Sunday morning and learned that she had been coming to Dr. Bulla for approximately forty years.

Dr. Bulla's entire practice has been spent in the community in which he resides on Route 1, Trinity. Following his graduation from the Baltimore College of Physicians, he began practicing with the late Dr. Thomas Winslow in April, 1888.

He had been born in September, 1862 at the old Bulla homestead in Back Creek township, now occupied by the Dougan family, grandchildren of his sister, the late Margaret Bulla Dougan. There is a little confusion as to the day of the month on which he was born. He has observed September 22 and September 24 but it inclined to think that he was born on September 28, as that date is recorded in a Bible which belonged to his parents, Dr. A. C. Bulla and Milliecent Rush Bulla.

Although his mind is still keen, his memory is good and his sense of humor is strong, he has become a little "clumsy" in the past few years and that is his own description. However, he is still able to walk about. He has had to quit deer hunting and duck hunting in recent years, even though he would still like very much to go. He eats anything he wants to eat and says when he is sitting down he feels just as good as he ever did.

Most of his practice is done at his home but occasionally he is taken to the homes of patients in order to give shots or under a like service. He was dressed very neatly Sunday morning and just before we left he revealed that he was waiting to be taken to the dedication of the Mt. Vernon church where his wife, the former Mattie McCree, is buried. She died in 1924.

Our annual visit was over and as we left, he sat down on the spacious front porch to await the trip to the church hut. There he sat, straight, stalwart and with great dignity. Another year had passed, but lightly over the frame of his grand old man of northwestern Randolph.

Torgan.

Victory Reunion Level Cross Church

The annual Victory reunion was held Sunday at Level Cross Methodist church. After the opening song, the devotions were given by Linda Marley, program chairman.

Robert S. Hayes of Randleman welcomed the members and guests, and introduced D. Holt of Asheboro as the guest speaker. Mr. Holt's subject was "The Castle of Our Dreams."

After a bountiful picnic dinner a short business session was held in the church. The awards of the oldest people being present went to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farlow, who also qualified as the couple who had been married the longest, which was fifty-six years.

The youngest girl and boy, Faye Delaine Rich and Thomas Lewis Hayes, also received awards.

Officers elected for the new year were as follows: O. W. Rich of Sophia, president; A. B. Marley of Pleasant Garden, vice president; Mrs. Joe Kearns of Greensboro, secretary; Robert S. Hayes of Randleman, program chairman.

Business As Usual As 100th Nears

Dr. Bulla Celebrates His 98th Year As Physician

By RALPH L. BULLA

On Wednesday, September 28, Dr. J. D. Bulla, venerable Route 1, Trinity physician, reached his 98th year and when this reporter and photographer visited him on Sunday before his birthday it was business as usual with the aged doctor.

One patient was being attended to in the living room, another one was waiting on the front porch while another car was driving up in the front yard.

It was then mid-afternoon and the doctor estimated that he had seen around fifteen patients up to that time of the day. They had started early in the day and some of them had come from a distance and from adjoining we were gathering by that time for the annual birthday celebration to be held at the Mt. Vernon Methodist Church but in late afternoon and this reporter has not yet learned whether the doctor got away from his patients in time to attend the celebration of his 98th birthday.

We watched as the doctor attended to the lady with "ring worm" or a skin affliction on her arm. The application of medicine was made before she left and she carried a bottle of the same type with her. When her husband asked the doctor what he charged, Dr. Bulla said "one George Washington" and told the lady if the medicine didn't cure her to come back and he would return the "George Washington" to her.

He

His 100th occurred at the home of his parents, Dr. A. C. Bulla and Milliecent Rush Bulla, which house still stands on the old highway 64 in Back Creek township.

He attended the one-room school in the community in which he was born and grew to young manhood, later attended the New Hope

Mar

Oct 3 - 1960

Congratulations Pour In

Century Old Trinity Doctor Says He Will 'Keep On'

By RALPH L. BULLA

DR. JEFFERSON DAVIS BULLA, "a devoted physician—a trusted and beloved friend and neighbor"—reached the one hundredth year of his life Friday, September 28 and said, in relation to the continuance of his practice, "I reckon I'll have to keep on."

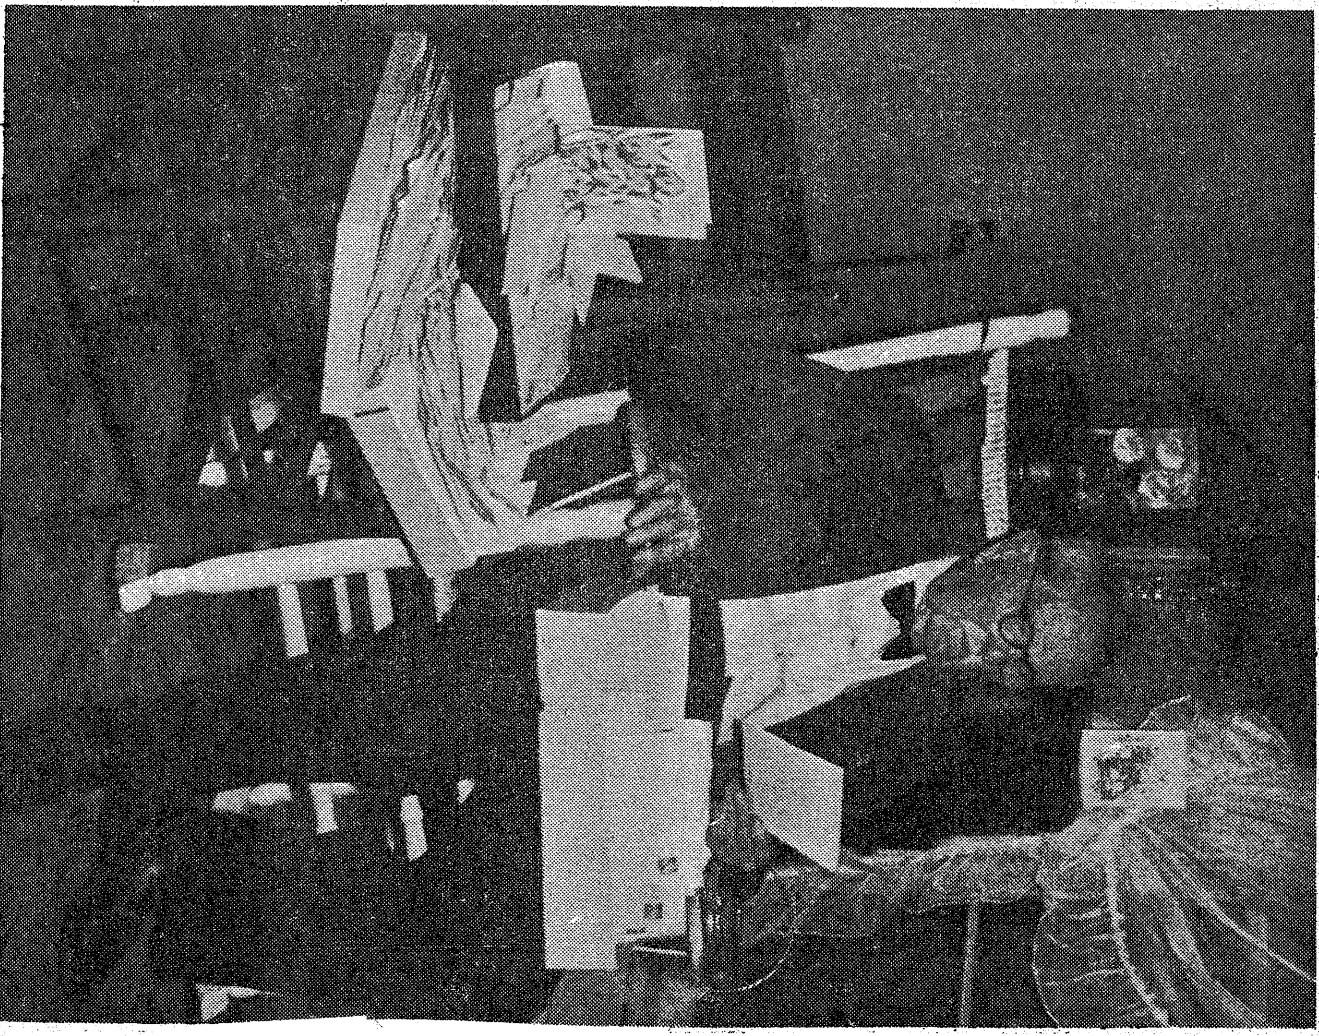

He made this announcement at his spacious country residence on Route 1, Trinity, as he celebrated his 100th birthday Friday, amid the well-wishes of hundreds of friends, patients, former patients and people prominent in the official life of the state and nation.

The announcement reversed one made on the occasion of his 90th birthday when he had said he would quit upon reaching his hundredth birthday. But the patients keep coming and as he said last Friday, "I don't want to leave home and I don't want to die."

The quotes in the opening paragraph were a part of a citation presented to Dr. Bulla from the members of the Men's Bible Class of Mt. Vernon Methodist Church, of which he is a member. Inscribed on a bronze plaque, the citation read in full: "The Men's Bible Class of Mt. Vernon Methodist Church present a Citation to Dr. Jefferson Davis Bulla, on his One Hundredth Birthday. A Devoted Physician—a Trusted and Beloved Friend and Neighbor, September 28, 1962."

It was in August, 1888 that Dr. Bulla came to the Mt. Vernon community to begin the practice of medicine with the late Dr. Thomas Winslow. This was following his graduation from the Baltimore College of Physicians and Surgeons but Dr. Bulla says that he actually began his practice two years before that, with his father, the late Dr. A. C. Bulla.

He got married, to the former Mathe McCrary, the next month after the beginning of his practice and said he "didn't have five dollars" at the time. According to Dr. Bulla, "there wasn't much money in the country at that time, but I got plenty to eat." But this venerable, county doctor, the last of his kind, has never refused to attend a person because of the lack of money. During his practice, which has spanned three quarters of a century, his philosophy has been, "if they had any money to pay me, I took it and if they didn't, I went on anyway."

READS MESSAGES—Dr. Jefferson Bulla, reading congratulatory messages on the occasion of his 100th birthday at his Trinity home.

For many years he was the family doctor in the vicinity in which he lives and the surrounding areas. It is estimated that he has delivered 5,000 babies during his long practice. An average of ten to fifteen patients still come to his home daily, particularly for the treatment of fungus or what is more familiarly known as "athlete's foot." Dr. Bulla's birth occurred in Back Creek Township, about four miles west of Ashboro, and the home in which he was born is still standing on old highway 64 and is occupied by members of the family of one of his deceased sisters. His mother was the late Milliecent Rush Bulla.

In addition to his doctor father, a brother, Dr. A. M. Bulla, was also a county doctor in the Back Creek area for many years prior to his death several years ago at the age of 94. Dr. Arcl Bulla, son of Dr. A. M. Bulla, is another doctor in the family and is now retired after serving for many years as the Wake county Health Officer. on the day of his birthday to the days of his childhood and he remembered the first church he attended, the Smyrna Grove Church, which was erected close to the old family homestead. He remembers, as a small boy, going to sleep on one of the slab benches which was used in the structure. That particular church was disbanded but recently a new church with the same name was erected on the same site and Dr. Bulla expressed a desire to visit the site and identify some of the graves in the old cemetery.

His hearing is somewhat defective but his eyesight was good enough to catch the photographer in a surprise picture which he was trying to make. It was thought that he could not walk about without some assistance but as he left his residence with members of his family to go to the home of a grandson for a birthday supper on the evening of his 100th birthday he refused the proffered assistance of

'HELL PROBABLY STAY IN HARNESS'

Dr. Bulla Still Going Strong At 100

The man who can lay uncontestable claim to being the oldest practicing physician in North Carolina and possibly over a much larger geographic area as well, observes his 100th birthday today. He is Dr. Jefferson Davis Bulla, of Trinity, where Dr. Bulla has practiced his profession since 1888. That as the year he graduated from the Baltimore College of Physicians and Surgeons.

The only known living physician in North Carolina who is older than Dr. Bulla is Dr. Arcl Bulla, his brother, Dr. A. M. Bulla, who is 103. Dr. Milliecent, who is 103. Dr. Milliecent, retired from medical practice in 1944 after 56 years in the medical practice in the town resort city.

It is estimated that Dr. Bulla has treated an average of 15 patients a day at his home office, even though he no longer makes house calls as he did for most of the 74 years he has been practicing medicine.

The Randolph County physician is but one of several physicians of which the Bulla clan boasts. He is not the son and brother of a physician. A nephew and grandson also are among the members of the medical profession continuing the family tradition of medical service. His parents were Dr. A. C. Bulla and Milliecent Rush Bulla. His brother, Dr. A. M. Bulla, died several years ago at the age of 94.

A grandson, Dr. Jeff D. Bulla, is serving with the Armed Forces Induction and Procurement Center in Raleigh as part of his active duty tour with the U. S. Navy as a reservist.

A nephew, Dr. A. C. Bulla of Raleigh, is now retired following a long period of service as Wake County Health Officer. A family celebration of the occasion of Dr. Bulla's 100th birthday will be held Sunday. A host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren are expected to be on hand.

Dr. Jeff Bulla II exhibited deep affection for the senior Dr. Bulla while talking about some of the experiences he had heard him relate. He quoted Dr. Bulla as stating, "I am going to quit when I get to be a hundred." The younger man, however, says he's not convinced Dr. Bulla will completely quit the work upon reaching the age of 100 years. "He'll undoubtedly want to stay in harness as long as he's able."

Almost every form of available vehicle has been worn out

Robert Cicero Laughlin, 69, died at his home in High Point Wednesday. He had been in declining health for six years and seriously ill for several days. He was a native of Randolph County and a resident of High Point for the past 20 years. Among the survivors is his wife, Mrs. Lillie Mae Hunter Laughlin of the home.

Rites Are Held Saturday For R. C. Laughlin

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. from Mt. Vernon Methodist Church. Interment will follow in the church cemetery. The body will be taken to the home Tuesday at 4 p.m.

H. A. Brown Is Feted At Party

Last Sunday was a special day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Brown, Sophia route one, when a number of relatives gathered there to celebrate the seventieth birthday of Mr. Brown. Due to rain, the picnic lunch was served indoors with Mrs. Harry L. Smith returning thanks. The honor guest received many handsome gifts.

Dr. Bulla Still Going Strong At 100

They Have 159 Years Of Work At Crown

What has Crown Hosiery Mills Inc. meant to High Point in its 50 years of operation? The answer comes from two men and two women who among them, have a total of 159 years of employment with Crown.

The employe with the longest term of service at Crown Hosiery is Roy Grissom of 809 Grace St. He went to work for Crown in 1917, only four years after the company was formed. In the years since, Grissom has provided for a family of three boys and a girl, all grown now, through his work at the hosiery mill. Mrs. Minnie Johnson has 40 years of employment at Crown. She went to work at the mill in 1922. Mrs. Johnson is the mother of four boys, two of whom make their homes in High Point. She lives at 1610 Valley Ridge Dr. and is a member of the Church of God.

GIE FALLENSTEIN, ROY GRISSOM, MRS. MINNIE JOHNSON AND JAMES KING—LONG-TIME EMPLOYEES AT CROWN HOISERY

Miss Maggie Fallenstein of Rt. 4, High Point, has worked at Crown since 1923. She is a member of Main Street Methodist Church.

James M. King has worked at Crown Hosiery since 1927. The father of nine children, five girls and four boys, he lives on Rt. 2, Asheboro. His youngest child will graduate from high school next spring. King is a member of Canaway Baptist Church in Randolph County.

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

SOPHIA, RT. 1, Aug. 11.—This community had quite a shock last Friday morning to hear of the sudden death of a special friend, Muriel M. Lowe Farlow, 73, who died during the night. She was the daughter of Thomas and Lillas Lowe and taught in the public schools of Randolph, Guilford and Alamance counties. She was a life long active member of Marlboro Meeting and of the USFW of the church. On July 14, 1927 she was married to J. Walter Farlow who survives in addition to a daughter, a sister, Mabel Farlow and a brother, William Lowe. Muriel will be greatly missed in her home and Meeting. For years she was a good teacher in the Sunday school and was faithful in any way that she could serve. The very large crowd at her funeral last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from far and near surely did attest to her high esteem. Burial was in the church cemetery.

REV. E. W. JONES
Funeral services for the Rev. E. W. Jones, 83, will be conducted today afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Hayworth Memorial Wesleyan Methodist Church. Officiating will be the Rev. W. C. Lovin, pastor, of the Rev. E. L. Henderson of Thomasville, the Rev. M. C. Conner of the Rev. E. P. Bueck, both of High Point. The body will remain at Davis Chapel until one hour prior to the service when it will be placed in the church. Interment will be in Sandy Ridge Wesleyan Methodist Cemetery at Colfax.

A large crowd attended the annual birthday dinner in honor of David Walker at his home last week. He is quite old but enjoys these homecomings very much. The descendants of David and Rachel Davis held their annual homecoming with a picnic dinner at the old homestead now occupied by the only surviving child of the couple's large family, Aunt Elva Davis, who is quite old and not very well recently. A large crowd attended. Thomas Decamp and other members of his family of Ohio have been visiting with the Lowe relatives in this community. Their mother was the late Laura Lowe Decamp and their father, the late, Joseph Decamp, formerly of this community. Howard Davis and family of Iowa have been visiting the Davis relatives throughout the community. He is the son of Tom M. Davis who went to Iowa several years ago and settled there with his wife, Luella. Agnes Welborn Spencer is in very feeble health at this time. David Taylor, son of William Taylor, underwent an appendectomy at High Point Memorial hospital last week.

Sophia Route One News

Davis, Steeds, Walker Meet; Class Visits Morrow Mountain

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1.—This seems to be the time of year for families to get together in reunions and enjoy reminiscing the old days and are glad to have some of these accounts to report.

Davis Descendants Meet

The descendants of David and Rachel Davis gathered at the old home place last Sunday after church for a reunion. First was a sumptuous picnic dinner and good fellowship was enjoyed by the approximately 75 present. President of this group is Stanley Farlow, vice-president, William Hyton, secretary and treasurer, Grace Brumson, historian, chairman, Ruth Brown, and memorial chairman, Ethel Loflin.

Steed Reunion Held

The descendants of Charles and Sue Johnson Steed gathered at Cedar Square Church basement after church services last Sunday for their annual reunion. A picnic dinner was spread. The afternoon was spent in conversational visiting. Only one of this couple's children is living, Tom Steed, about thirty were present with some coming from Indiana and Pa.

Well known former resident of this community, He is not able to visit all the friends and relatives he would like to, so the Allens are inviting those who would like to see Mr. Allen and family to a picnic luncheon at the Pleasant Ridge Fellowship Hall at the noon hour, Sunday, August 12.

Walker Family gathers the descendants of David M. and Nell Walker gathered at the old home place last Sunday after church services for their first reunion. A picnic dinner was served and the afternoon spent in conversation. Approximately 130 were present including nine of the ten children, C. M. Walker lives at the old home place.

Kemp's Host Beeson's

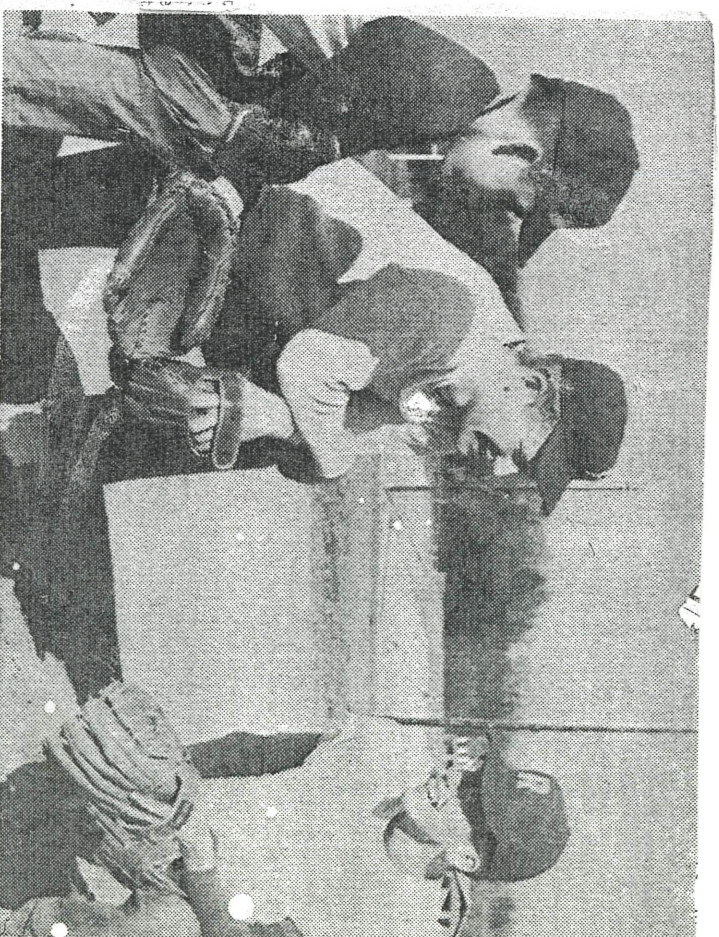

The descendants of Sidney and Nan Coltrane Beeson held their annual family reunion last Sunday at the home of a grandson and wife Richard and Joan Kemp in Asheboro, following church services a picnic dinner was enjoyed. The afternoon was spent in social conversation. Many of the descendants were present.

Junior High At Morrow Mt.

Junior High Sunday School Class of Marlboro went to Morrow Mountain State Park last Sunday along with their teachers Mrs. Fannie Davis and Garfield Davis. There were 20 present. First was Sunday School, then a picnic dinner and finally an afternoon of recreation.

Sympathy Extended

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Lucille Pickett in the death of her husband, J. E. Pickett, last week. Also to relatives near here of R. R. Gray of Archdale who passed on also last week and to the family of Troy Skeen who passed away this week. He was well known throughout the area and we were sorry to hear of this sad news and feel that

INFELDERS DISCUSS STRATEGY—Three Handelman Tiger infelders huddle during practice to talk over the coming season. Left to right are Ray T'les (third baseman), Charlie Graham (shortstop), and Dale Stevenson (second baseman). Absent when photo was taken is letterman first baseman Ormie Rich.

MRS. BEN MILLIKAN

Funeral services for Mrs. Pearl Andrew Millikan, 79, of Ciler City, were conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Sandy Fork Funeral Friends meeting and burial made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Millikan died Wednesday in a Siler City hospital following one year of declining health.

She was a daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Andrews, who were residents of Asheboro for a number of years while Mr. Andrews was pastor of the Asheboro Friends Meeting. Mrs. Millikan was a member of the South Fork Friends Meeting and had served as Sunday School teacher of the ladies' class of the church and was a past president of the Women's Missionary Society.

Surviving are her husband, the Rev. Ben Millikan; one sister, Mrs. R. P. Smith of Liberty; three brothers, Troy Andrew of Alavista, Va., Ralph Andrew of Albemarle and Kim Andrew of Climax.

Mrs. R. G. Hall

RANDLEMAN — Funeral for Mrs. Pearl Davis Hall, 76, of Rt. 1, Sophia, was to be held today at 3 p.m. at Sophia United Church of Christ.

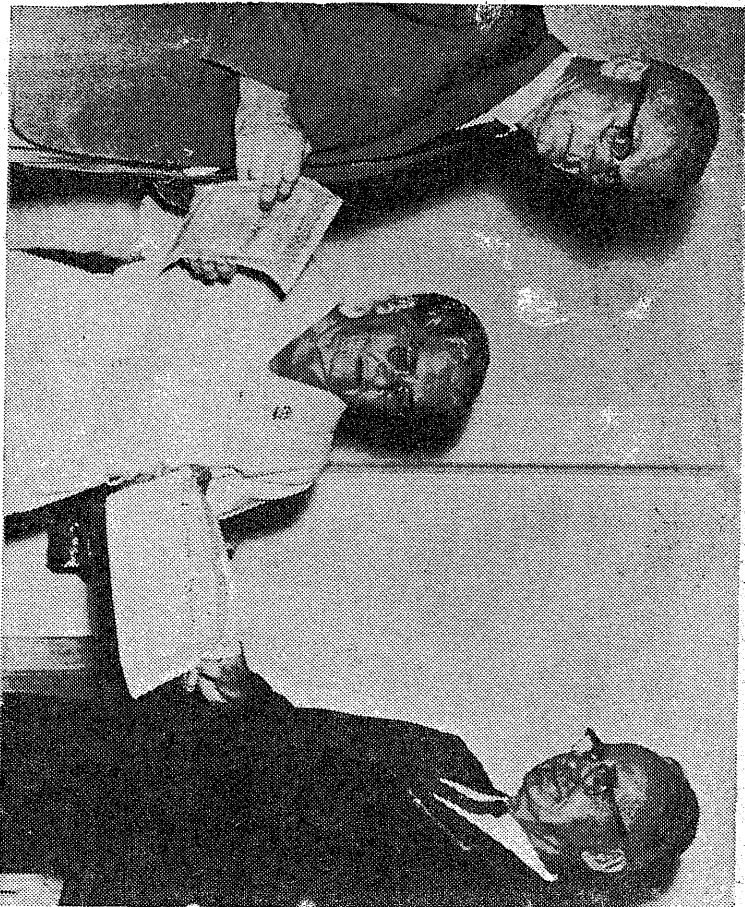

Mrs. Hall died Saturday in an Asheboro hospital following a long illness. She was a native of Randolph County and a member of Sophia United Church of Christ. Survivors include her husband, A. Grady Hall, four sons, Troy and Howard Hall, both of Rt. 1, Sophia, Cleus Hall of Randleman and Grady W. Hall of Ovirigs Mill, Md.; a daughter, Mrs. I. L. Waynick of Greensboro; a brother, Joe Davis of Rt. 3; a sister, Mrs. Mary Lamb of Rt. 3; and a half-sister, Mrs. Alice Ashmer of Marshall, Ind.

Minor Actions Reported By City Police

City police report the following actions during the past week: Jessie Franklin (Gud) Holmes, of Loach Street, was served a capias for non-compliance. Arthur Dennis Davis, of 647 Meadowbrook Drive, was charged in a warrant with assault on a female.

Personals

C. A. and Mabel Farlow are spending several days at the home of their daughter and husband, Curtis and Catherine F. Andrews at Mt. Gilead. Mrs. Harlie Beeson and Mrs. Joann Short and Mrs. Bea Beeson and daughter, Shirley spent several days recently at Carolina Beach and other places of interest. They enjoyed a tour of the battleship U.S.S. North Carolina. Earl and Helen Cook and three children of Raleigh are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Grace Brumson. Kenneth and Faye Hayes and children, Joey Loflin and Paul and Clara Davis recently spent a few days at Carolina Beach and other places of interest. They also took a tour of the battleship U.S.S. North Carolina.

CERTIFICATE — Whitred Bruton, chairman of the official board at Charlotte Methodist Church, presents certificates of appreciation to Mrs. Brad Bulla, a member of the church for over sixty years, and to Elmer Walker, long time superintendent of the Sunday School.

Long Time Church Member Honored For Service

By RALPH L. BULLA

Mrs. Brad Bulla, a member of Charlotte Methodist Church for more than sixty years, was awarded a "certificate of appreciation" during the morning worship service at the church Sunday morning, September 4.

Many accomplishments at the Charlotte Church can be attributed to Mrs. Bulla, dating back at least to 1911 when as a young woman she raised money to buy the first musical instrument for the church, an organ which cost $25.

She has continued to help in money raising projects throughout the years and her latest and perhaps her biggest accomplishment was helping to raise the "monk" for the fellowship hall which was erected in 1960. She personally raised over $400 towards this project and was instrumental through the Randolph Methodist Mission and other sources in helping to obtain several more hundreds of dollars for the erection of this building.

At about the same time or shortly thereafter Mrs. Bulla, as a long time historian for the church, collaborated with Mrs. Ruby K. Marsh, local feature writer and news correspondent, in publishing a history of the church, which served also for the purpose of recognition and appreciation of those people who had rendered service since its beginning.

The publication, printed in booklet form, gives a detailed account of the church's happenings since its organization in 1870 and its beginning in a brush arbor several years prior to that time.

Mrs. Bulla assumed the responsibility for the publishing of the booklet and stood good for the financial end of it.

Although she has served in all of the other areas of the church organization, teaching secretary of the Sunday School, women's society and other aspects,

Funeral Services Lewis S. Davis Tuesday 2:30 P. M.

Funeral services for Lewis Sylvester Davis, 60, of Route 1, Randleman, a prominent dairy farmer, will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Marlboro Friends church with the Rev. Floyd Teague and the Rev. J. Floyd Moore and the Rev. Frank Berry officiating. Interment will be made in the family plot in the church cemetery. The body will be placed in the church a half hour prior to the service and returned to the home this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Davis was pronounced dead on arrival at a High Point hospital Sunday evening after suffering a stroke. He had been in declining health for several months.

He was a son of the late Reuben S. and Minnie Coltrane Davis and had been a lifelong resident of the Cedar Square community. He was a member of the Cedar Square Friends church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lula Hohn Davis of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Hohnsworth of Rt. 1, Sophia, and Mrs. Myra Whitesell of High Point; one son, D. S. Davis of the home; 11 grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Luther Hohn of Greensboro; and one brother, Branson E. of Route 1, Randleman.

Bowers-Farlow Vows Spoken

In Sophia Evening Ceremony

SOPHIA, Feb. 8 — Miss Frances ice, scooped neckline and short Erzell Farlow became the bride sleeves. She wore lace mitts and a here this evening of Sgt. William veil of illusion attached to a crown Ford Bowers at Marlboro Friends of lace and taffeta. The bride carried her father's Bible topped with a white orchid.

The mother of the bride was attired in a dress of soldier blue crepe with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore powder blue crepe with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The couple was entertained Friday evening following the wedding rehearsal with a cake cutting at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. Colbert Farlow.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. Colbert Farlow and the late Mr. Farlow of this city. She attended Appalachian State Teachers College and is now employed at Malyon Beauty Shop, High Point. The groom is the son of Mrs. W. E. Bowers of High Point and the late Mr. Bowers. He attended High Point City Schools and is now serving with the army in Germany. He is currently on leave.

For a wedding trip to Florida the bride changed to a navy blue suit with fitted jacket and sheath skirt with navy and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

On their return the couple will reside temporarily with the bride's mother here.

Out-of-town guests present for the ceremony were from Greensboro, Thomasville, High Point, Salisbury, Asheboro, Kernersville and Durham.

Sophia, Rt. 1 News Civilians Visit Boys Home; Pre-Easter Services Close

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1 — On Sunday, March 12th a group of New Market Civilians visited the Boys Home at Lake Waccamaw. The group, consisting of 24 members and 11 boys (sons of Civilians members) left early Sunday morning by bus.

The visit was very enjoyable and enlightening as to the purpose and functioning of the home. North Carolina Civilians provide for and support one cottage at the Boys Home, which gives 16 boys a complete home including food, shelter, clothing and help and guidance for mental and spiritual growth.

Motto of the Boys Home is "To Save a Boy and Make a Man".

The week of March 13 - 18 being observed locally as clergy week, the New Market Civilians honored the community clergy at their meeting on Friday, March 17th. Visiting ministers were the Rev. Bob Darsh, the Rev. Troy Jones and the Rev. Charles Walker.

For the program Richard Beeson, a past president, read the club history and Theon Farlow read the Civitan Creed. Final plans were made for the Ham and Egg supper to be held March 18th. This was very successful and all proceeds will pay for the floor covering in the kitchen of the community building.

The club elected to donate $25 to the Randolph County Cancer Society.

Champions of the recent New Market Rook Tournament sponsored by the New Market Civitan Club were announced. They were J. V. (Buck) White and Herb Smith.

The Marlboro ladies prepared and served a delicious meal.

Pre-Easter Services

The Pre-Easter weekend service at Marlboro closed last Sunday night. Herschel Folger used the theme in all four services, "Our Confusion Today". He developed the topics into our confusion about the church, people, home, and individuals.

Cedar Square 4-H Club met with Mrs. Robert Davis at her home last week for their March meeting. D. W. Coggins called the meeting to order.

Kemp Davis led the 4H

Personals

Eugene and Faye Coltrane of the Cedar Square Community are spending a few days in Florida. They plan to travel to Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis have recently returned from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where they attended a dealers meeting.

Several around here are attending the community housing school being held at the Asheboro Public Library. This school is for people interested in building in the future. They are Leroy and Delois Russell, Farlow and Peggy Davis, Peggy Heath, and Branson and Kay Coltrane, Marie Davis and Judy Peale.

We are glad that Mrs. Nora Farlow seems to be doing well. She has taken short visits to her sister, Mrs. Esther Rich, and a few friends.

Mrs. Faye Cox reports that her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elsie Cox Fox who has been quite sick at the Lutheran Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Fannie Maxey has returned to her home in Cuba, New Mexico, after a few weeks visit here with her mother, Mrs. George Cox, her sister, Mrs. Clyde Spencer, and brother, Ben Cox. Her mother went home with her to spend some time there. Kathleen accompanied them to Ft. Smith, Arkansas.

Birthdays

Birthdays congratulations to Ekoyl Steed, Theresa Spencer, Melvin Farlow, Ethel Loftin, Ethel Farlow, Clara Davis, Rosa Hunsucker, Mary Staley and Clyde Heath.

Sympathy Extended At Hinshaw Death

By ALTHEA BROWN
 SOPHIA, Rt. 1 — It is with the very deepest regret that this writer wishes to extend sympathy to the family of Mrs. Della Cox Hinshaw, who passed away last Thursday, August 31, at the golden age of 88 years. To know her was to love her. She was a quiet soft spoken person and quite friendly, a mother worthy of the name. There is no one on earth that can have the gentle touch of a true mother's hand and her influence will always reach out in her family.

Though she lost her youth, her hair turned gray, eyes weak and her steps grew slow, she trusted God and did her best and for many years was active in her home church, Holly Spring Friends, and her neighbors, friends and the community around here. She had to leave her old home several years ago but no complaint was heard from her.

She lived among her children and we were glad when it came time for her to be in this community with her daughter and husband, Willis and Ethel Beeson and attended church at Marlboro.

Now your angel mother sleeps in heavenly peace, but her parental care and love will linger long in your minds. So many fond memories of the old home and parents remember how sacred to all it can be.

The homes she has shared will miss mother, but no doubt are much happier for her abode in each one. The large attendance at her funeral last Saturday afternoon attested to the high esteem of the family. It was a most impressive service, quiet with low sweet music and songs. The messages given by the various ones were very fitting for her Christian life. Several ministers were present. She was quietly laid to rest in her family plot in the church cemetery beneath a mound of beautiful flowers.

Fifth Sunday Service Held
 The fifth Sunday evening service sponsored by the Randolph Memorial Association, was held at Marlboro last Friday evening. There was a good attendance. Several ministers were present. Bill Kincaid of Randolph Baptist Church gave an inspiring message.

Reunion Planned
 All the descendants of the large family of deceased Jonathan and Nancy Lamb Vickors will be held at a home near Level Cross this Sunday, September 6. There are a number of the family members over in here and other sections. This is usually much enjoyed so all

Oldest Citizen Here Passes; Cedar Square Xmas Program

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1 — Well, Christmas is over. It was a very happy time in many homes and a very sad time in many others due to death and other folks in hospitals. But we have to bear the sad part along with the good. This writer though being sick and sad also, wishes to express heartfelt thanks for all the beautiful cards and all the gifts that were presented to Albert and me. We say many the Lord's richest blessing rest on each one having a part in our Christmas cheer. And to everyone else everywhere now comes the new year and let's resolve and mean it that we will try our best to make it the best year ever by helping others.

Resident Passes
 This community has lost one of its oldest citizens in the death of Miss Mary Osborne, 71, Saturday, December 22nd. She was the daughter of David and Sarah Walker Osborne. She was born and reared in her old home on Sophia, Route 1, and was a very quiet, kind hearted person, doing her bit for others when she could. She was never married but devoted her love and care to her nephew whose mother, her sister, died when he was quite small. She had been in declining health for a long time.

Mary will be greatly missed by her brother and sister, Marvin and Sadie Osborne in the home and by her nephew, William D. Taylor and his family as she was often sick in this home. They all were a very devoted family and we extend our sympathy to each one.

Marble Xmas Program are Friends Merit Much Appreciate

Personals
 Miss Clara Davis who has been confined to bed for several months, was taken by ambulance to Cloverdale Church Home on South Elm Street. High Point last week for convalescing. Mrs. Elmina Cook is also a patient at this home and these two patient friends have lived here many years.

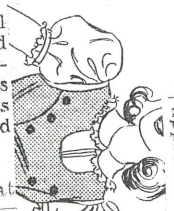

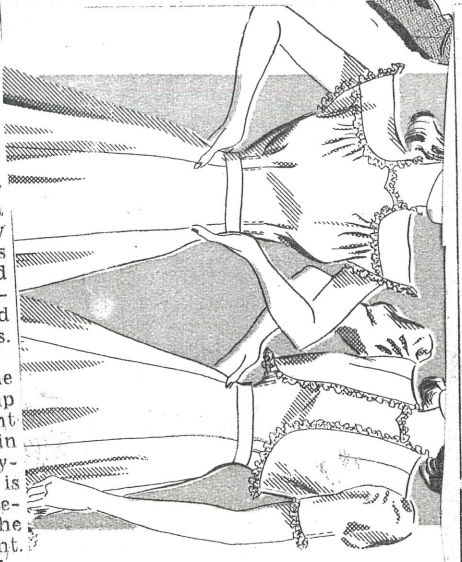

Frank Farlow came home from Randolph Hospital in Marlboro last Saturday after a few days treatment.

Sorry to note that Mrs. Willson (Della Adams) Robbins has not been very well the past few days.

 Bill and Opheila D. Denham and four children have returned to their home at Merchantsville, New Jersey from a week's visit with her father, Paul Davis.

Glad that Mrs. Willie (Daisy Trotter) Wood of High Point, Route 3, who recently fell down steps at her home and broke her back and was taken to High Point Hospital for treatment, is now at home and convalescing, although very slowly.

New Market School opened last Friday. There is quite an increase in attendance and some new teachers.

Miss Clara Davis who has been confined to bed for several months, was taken by ambulance to Cloverdale Church Home on South Elm Street. High Point last week for convalescing. Mrs. Elmina Cook is also a patient at this home and these two patient friends have lived here many years.

Frank Farlow came home from Randolph Hospital in Marlboro last Saturday after a few days treatment.

Sorry to note that Mrs. Willson (Della Adams) Robbins has not been very well the past few days.

Bill and Opheila D. Denham and four children have returned to their home at Merchantsville, New Jersey from a week's visit with her father, Paul Davis.

Glad that Mrs. Willie (Daisy Trotter) Wood of High Point, Route 3, who recently fell down steps at her home and broke her back and was taken to High Point Hospital for treatment, is now at home and convalescing, although very slowly.

New Market School opened last Friday. There is quite an increase in attendance and some new teachers.

Youth Fellowship Social
 Last Monday evening the young youth fellowship group had a social in the basement at Marlboro. They were all in Halloween costumes and enjoyed themselves. Iris Farlow is now leader of this group. Refreshments were served to the 26 ghosts and goblins present.

Cedar Square Youth Revival
 Cedar Square Youth revival will be conducted this weekend at the church. The Rev. Don Osborne, pastor of Center Friends Meeting will bring the messages which begin Friday night and close Sunday evening.

Personals
 We are sorry to report that E. J. Whitehead, 84, who has been confined to his home for quite a while tried to walk last Thursday and fell to the floor and broke his hip. He was taken to High Point Hospital and the past Monday he underwent surgery. The report is that he stood quite well and is resting well as can be expected in his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickler of Spencerville visited Clara and Paul Davis last Sunday. They were friends of Clara when she taught school here for so many years.

Mrs. A. D. (Ora Loflin) Farlow of Bahama spent a few days last week at the home of her sister Mrs. Cora Loflin Beeson who has been quite sick for some time but gradually seems to be improving to some extent. Stanley and Fadine Farlow of New Market Grange accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Heston Hockett of Center Grange held at Kingston last week. They spent last Friday night at the home of Bill Hollowell's family. They report a most interesting meeting. We are glad to note that New Market Grange was one among those to receive the Grand Community Award which was $25. This was much appreciated.

Death Is First Break In Large Family Circle
 The death of Robert Milton (Bill) Cox was the first break in a large family circle of nine brothers and one sister, the children of the late Steven Clark and Mary Frances York Cox of Route 1, Ramseur.

His funeral at Parks Cross Roads Christian church was attended by a large assemblage of people, as the church was filled long before the funeral hour. Relatives, neighbors and friends of Bill Cox and his eight brothers and his sister came to the service to commemorate his memory and to listen to the tribute from the venerable white-haired minister who had known him for a score of years.

The family of Clark Cox have always been known for their honesty, sobriety and substantial citizenship in Eastern Randolph county and the first passing from among this large family group has brought expressions of regret from the people of that area.

Surviving brothers are Walker, Ivan, Arthur, Hubert, Cecil, Talley, Rufe and Jim, and the sister, Mrs. L. P. Williams.

Marlboro Friends Meeting
 Marlboro Friends Meeting folks were much impressed with their Christmas program and the good attendance. The pastor, the Rev. Bobby Medford, was presented a Christmas tree about covered with dollar bills and checks. This was quite a surprise to him which he accepted in his own nice way.

As this is the beginning of a new year, we want you all to feel interested in Marlboro and to attend. You will find a hearty welcome and a class of your choice with able teachers.

Personals
 T. L. Hicks of Newberry, South Carolina, visited Burleigh and Lillie Wall December 22nd. These folks used to work together but had not seen each other in 30 years.

Harold Cook, son and Ted Prince

Marlboro Class Has Cedar Square Xmas Program

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1 — The Marlboro Senior High Sunday School class held their regular monthly meeting in the form of a Halloween party Tuesday evening at Marlboro Church. The meeting was opened by the business session followed by a social period. Some of the members came in costume. Teachers for the class were Sue Pugh and Peggy Da...

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

SOPHIA, Rt. 1, Jan. 12 — Mrs. Zorada Loflin, who has been confined to her home by illness, is slowly improving.

Avery Davis and family visited friends and relatives in Charlotte during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormie Rich and Mrs. Esther Rich have returned home from a visit with relatives at Pine Level.

Misses Mary and Edith Wellborn of Greensboro recently visited at B. J. Whiteheads, Clarence Havers' patient in a Richmond hospital.

Miss Hettie Newlin had as her dinner guests last Sunday, Kenneth Pugh and family, Miss Nannie Farlow and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eranson Crofts and little daughter, Diane, have returned from a visit with relatives in Connorsville, Tenn. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crofts, Jr. of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Notre Farlow is visiting relatives in High Point. From the J. E. Woods have moved from this section to the Allen Jay community.

John V. Fayre and family of Thomasville were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pugh.

Mrs. Eleanor Hartley has returned to her home at Sophia after a visit with her son, Bryce, and family at Statesville.

Master Craig Pueh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Pugh, has returned home from the Randolph hospital where he was a patient.

William Frazier Dies Enroute To Local Hospital

William Perry Frazier, 58, died suddenly enroute to High Point Memorial Hospital Friday shortly after 12 noon. He had been in declining health four years, but his death was sudden and unexpected.

Frazier was born in Randolph County, Nov. 2, 1901, the son of Elwood and Ada Hinshaw Frazier. He had resided in the Archdale community for 19 years. He was employed by P. A. Thomas Car Works.

On March 26, 1952, he was married to Mrs. Martha Venable Misenheimer, who survives of the home. Surviving also are two step-sons: Carl Misenheimer and Clellus Misenheimer, both of High Point; one step-daughter, Mrs. Edith Rickard of High Point; two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Trotter of Trinity and Mrs. Pearl Farlow of High Point.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. from the First Church of the Nazarene on East Green Street by the pastor, Rev. A. D. Holt. The body will be placed in the church thirty minutes prior to the service. Burial will be made in Mount Lebanon Church Cemetery, near Randolph.

The body will remain at the Koonce Funeral Home until time to leave for the church.

Reported; Revival Closes

Asheboro, N. C. — The Rev. Bob Medford, pastor of the High Point Memorial Hospital, reported that the revival had been well prepared for in the way of 24 hour prayer chain for one week and in small group meditation and prayer periods in various homes which was most encouraging to those taking part. The attendance was good and much interest was taken.

Marriage Announced — Miss Brenda Carolyn Robbins and Jesse James Connor were married Friday evening, October 23, at the home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John Banne on this route.

Only immediate members of the two families were present. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Robbins, Jr. and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Connor. We extend congratulations.

Persons to congratulate Durward Lee and Eva Lee McCall Atkins who were married October 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ballard of Asheville spent the week end with their cousins here, J. B. Pearce and Mrs. Lillie Davis and family and Mrs. Blanche D. Farlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Robbins are building a new brick home near the Robbins home place. Well, the hum of log cutters saws and the saw mill of the lenley crew on the Newlin face here cutting the timber is being heard. Also log cutters and saw mill crew run for M. Farlow are cutting timber for McLain Farlow. Farmers are busy picking corn and taking up ground for grain. seem to be making good use six nights of preaching by the pastor, the Rev. Bob Medford. This revival had been well prepared for in the way of 24 hour prayer chain for one week and in small group meditation and prayer periods in various homes which was most encouraging to those taking part. The attendance was good and much interest was taken.

Marriage Announced — Miss Brenda Carolyn Robbins and Jesse James Connor were married Friday evening, October 23, at the home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John Banne on this route.

Only immediate members of the two families were present. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Robbins, Jr. and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Connor. We extend congratulations.

Persons to congratulate Durward Lee and Eva Lee McCall Atkins who were married October 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ballard of Asheville spent the week end with their cousins here, J. B. Pearce and Mrs. Lillie Davis and family and Mrs. Blanche D. Farlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Robbins are building a new brick home near the Robbins home place. Well, the hum of log cutters saws and the saw mill of the lenley crew on the Newlin face here cutting the timber is being heard. Also log cutters and saw mill crew run for M. Farlow are cutting timber for McLain Farlow. Farmers are busy picking corn and taking up ground for grain. seem to be making good use of this beautiful autumn weather. We regret to know that Mary Wade Bulla Farlow happened to fall at her home and break her hip. She is a patient at High Point Hospital and seems to be doing nicely.

Also Mrs. Luna Davis is still a patient in High Point Hospital and is doing very well.

A. D. and Ora L. Farlow of Bahama spent the weekend with Farlow - Loflin relatives here.

Congratulations to Elmer and Adis Beeson on the birth of their first child, a son, Reginald Colbert, born Saturday, October 31st.

Funeral Services for Charley Harley Frazier Sunday 2:30 P.M.

Funeral services for Charley Frazier, 58, of Archdale, were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Poplar Ridge Friends Meeting with Rev. D. H. Holt, of Asheboro, officiating. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Frazier died Friday in a High Point hospital. He had been in failing health for 15 months, but his death was unexpected. He suffered a stroke at his residence shortly before his death, and was taken to the hospital.

He was born in Randolph County January 15, 1902, a son of the late Winston and Dora Frazier. He went to an agricultural community 12 years ago and attended church at Poplar Ridge Friends Meeting. Mr. Frazier had engaged in farming and carpentry work his entire life. In 1941 he was married to the former Ceila Hill, who survives, with a son, Charles, and daughter, Faydeane, all of the home; a brother, Rufus Frazier of Glassboro, N. J.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Flynn of Route 4, Burlington, and Mrs. Ann Hill of Archdale.

Dewey English, Farmer, Dog Trainer, Dies

Dewey English, resident of Archdale, suffered a heart attack at his farm late Saturday afternoon. He was rushed to High Point Memorial Hospital and was pronounced dead upon arrival here.

Mr. English was a widely known professional trainer of Field Trial Bird dogs. He trained many dogs that won first place in the national trials in this country and Canada. More recently he operated a dary at his farm.

Mr. English was born in High Point on June 22, 1898, the son of Joseph Addison and Sarah Clapp English. When he was a lad, his parents moved to Randolph County. He attended schools in Randolph.

He was a member of the Archdale Methodist Church.

On Dec. 25, 1923, he was married to Miss Sallie Crowson also of Randolph County, who survives of the home in Archdale. Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. William B. Lackey of Jamestown and Mrs. Joseph T. Soren Jr. of Archdale; five grandchildren; one brother, Paul English of Route 3; five sisters, Mrs. Jack Aldridge, Mrs. Edgar Coltrane, Mrs. J. C. Frazier, Mrs. Maie Walker, all of Gray Wall of Archdale.

Funeral services will be held in Archdale Methodist Church Monday 5 p.m. with the pastor, the Rev. Ernest Page and the Rev. Isaac Harris, minister of Archdale Friends Meeting, officiating. Interment will be in Mt. Vernon Methodist Church Cemetery. The body will be placed in the church at 1:30 p.m. and will be taken to the residence late this afternoon.

Five Generations Help Couple Mark 50th Anniversary

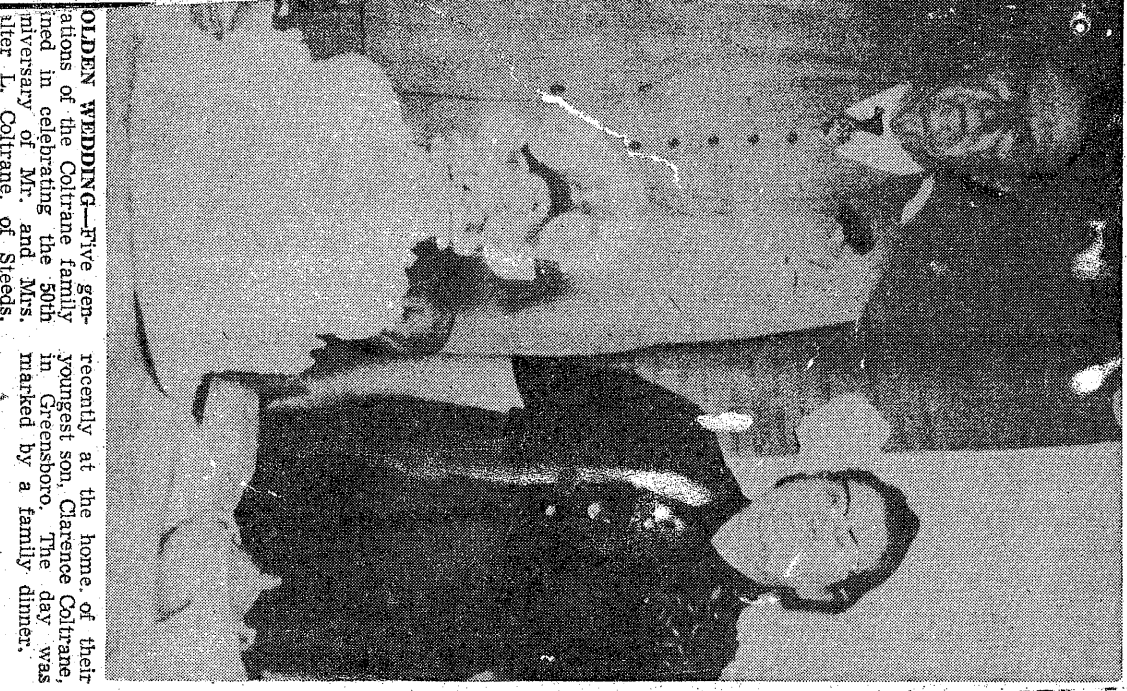

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Coltrane, of Steeds, marked their 50th wedding anniversary on Jan. 17 with a family dinner at the home of their youngest son, Clarence Coltrane, in Greensboro.

Attending the dinner, in addition to their youngest son, were Mrs. D. W. White of High Point, Mrs. W. B. Craven of Steeds, and J. H. Coltrane of Greensboro, all children of the couple. Another son, Reid Coltrane, of Jacksonville, Fla., was unable to join the rest of the family for the celebration.

A number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren were also present, as was Mr. Coltrane's mother, making five generations of the family at the reunion.

Mrs. Coltrane is the former Miss Sarah Bruce, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Bruce of Moore County. Mr. Coltrane is the son of Mrs. S. C. Coltrane and the late Mr. Coltrane of Randolph County.

Mr. and Mrs. Coltrane are celebrating their 50th anniversary on Jan. 17 with a family dinner at the home of their youngest son, Clarence Coltrane, in Greensboro. The day was marked by a family dinner.

OLDEN WEDDING—Five generations of the Coltrane family joined in celebrating the 50th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Coltrane, of Steeds.

Recently at the home of their youngest son, Clarence Coltrane, in Greensboro. The day was marked by a family dinner.

54-inch fabric for skirt 1 1/2 yds. 7 1/2 yds. Dennis Farlow of New Market school was named president of the new club, and will preside over Monday night's activities. Other elected officers for the young club include Curtis Farlow, vice president; Theodore Rich, secretary; Garfield Davis, Rich, secretary; Orny Rich, sergeant-at-arms; and the Rev. Bob Medford, chaplain.

Following the charter meeting, the New Market Civitans will gather each second and fourth Friday of the month. Meetings will be held in the New Market School cafeteria. Including members of the sponsoring club, about 100 are expected for Monday night's event.

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

William C. Lowe, 69, Dies

HIGH POINT, Jan. 27 — William C. Lowe, 69, died here today. He was a native of Randolph County. He was a member of Springfield Friends Meeting and its Brotherhood class.

Lamb At 69

He is survived by his wife; three daughters by a former marriage, Mrs. Helen Herndon and Mrs. Hazel Cagle of High Point and Mrs. Halce Harry of Greenville, S. C.; four stepdaughters, Mrs. Ruth O'Neill, Mrs. Elsie Meadows, Mrs. Dor Hailowe and Mrs. Agnes Wilder of High Point; one stepson, Jeter Cook of High Point; four sisters, Mrs. Mary M. Barker of Archdale, Mrs. Fannie Payne of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Thelma Newton of Burlington and Mrs. Lucie Lowe of Greensboro; four brothers, James and Clyde Lowe of High Point, Farley Lowe of Greensboro and Ben Lowe of Mebane; one grandchild and eight stepgrandchildren.

King-Size Eggs Bring Guilford Poultryman Premium Prices

Low egg prices give poultryman H. A. Brown of High Point little cause for worry. He gets premium prices for the time for all the eggs his New Hampshire hens can produce. The 17 sons? They're king-size eggs, averaging 26 ounces to the dozen with some weighing as much as 30 ounces.

The eggs his hens produce are so large, in fact, that you can't get 30 dozens in a standard crate. Manager Burdy of the High Point POCX Store will verify that statement. Because he's tried it. The accompanying photo should give a general idea of the relative size of the eggs.

Mr. Brown spares no pains in keeping his layers in top quality egg production. In addition to POCX Super Laying Mash for his layers and POCX Starling and Growing Mash for his baby chicks, he feeds them generous daily helpings of warmed buttermilk and scalded oats.

Mr. Brown keeps 400 layers the year 'round, replacing culms and two-year-old hens regularly. He says that 400 layers are about all he and Mrs. Brown can take care of properly. Together they spend a good many hours every day changing the water, cleaning out litter, and keeping everything generally in the best possible sanitary condition.

He designed and built a special brooder for his baby chicks after watching the chicks' reactions to all types of brooders for many years. He said that his own brooder, which has three bulbs (green, blue, and white), keeps the chicks from crowding so much, thus preventing suffocation. The chicks seem to be comfortable under his homemade brooder. Fresh litter is placed under the chicks every day and the water is changed three times a day.

This adds up to a great deal of work for Mr. and Mrs. Brown, but it's the kind of work they have been doing for the last twenty-six years since Mr. Brown retired as a newspaper correspondent for Delaware and Maryland papers and came to High Point to live.

They like the work and are willing to spend long hours tending their flock. But, whatever the seasons may be for that success in egg production, the fact remains that they sell just about the largest hen eggs ever seen in Guilford County.

H. A. BROWN
... super egg producer

Funeral Services Mrs. R. Lee White Held Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Lucinda White, 87, of Route 1, Sophia, were conducted at 4 p. m. today from the Central Alliance Church by the pastor, the Rev. J. E. Nelson. Burial was made in the Glenola Baptist Church Cemetery.

Mrs. White, widow of R. Lee White, died in a High Point hospital Tuesday evening after a year of declining health and a serious illness since Sunday. She had been a resident of the Sophia vicinity for 37 years and was a member of the Central Alliance Church and of the Ladies Bible Class of the church.

Memorial Hospital Set For Sophia Woman's Mother

SOPHIA — Mrs. Winnie Bobo Clark, 66, of Atlanta, Ga., died yesterday in Randolph Hospital. She had been visiting a daughter, Mrs. Pearl Hayes of Sophia when she became ill and was hospitalized. Survivors are her husband, A. S. Clark; two daughters, Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Mildred Eberhart of Forest Park, Ga.; mother, Mrs. R. A. Bobo of Atlanta; five brothers, B. P. and A. P. Bobo of Canton, Ga.; E. O., M. L. and A. S. Bobo, of Atlanta; three sisters, Mrs. P. J. Harrison and Mrs. Harold Williams of Atlanta, and Mrs. G. O. Davis of Birmingham, Ala.

Funeral will be held in Atlanta Friday afternoon.

JOSEPH GURNEY MILLIKAN

Funeral for Joseph Gurney Millikan, 80, resident of Rt. 2, Thommasville, was conducted from Mount Zion Presbyterian Church Tuesday at 11 a. m. by Rev. J. B. Stutts, pastor, and Rev. Kenneth Miller, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church. Pallbearers were Wade Coldfelter, Ernest Black, Presley Floyd, Earl Niblog, Lloyd Myers, Wilbur Black, Newell Grubb and Carl Trotter. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Millikan died in City Memorial Hospital Saturday following an extended illness.

Sophia, Route One News

Cedar Square Meeting Has Homecoming

Sophia, Rt. 1—Last Sunday was homecoming day at Cedar Square Friends Meeting. The usual services were held Sunday morning, with the Rev. Sam Leveing of Mt. Airy, bringing the 11 o'clock message.

A short service was held in the afternoon. Tonight (Monday) at 7:30 the revival services will begin and will continue each evening through the week. Roy Putman is the evangelist. All are urged to attend.

Honest Dealers Donald Henley of Asheboro who has been sawing pine timber for several throughout this community, has moved his saw mill to near Coleridge to saw for a while. Later he expects to move with his crew of workers back in the community. They found the pine timber infested with worms or soft insects that would soon ruin sale of the pine. It was nice dealing with this crew they were honest and fair in their dealings to all.

Grange Meeting Randolph Pomona Grange will have been held New Market will be held at their day night, May 1st, at their clubhouse which is located on South Fayetteville Street.

New Market ball field work has been busy getting ready for this season's games. Concrete has been poured to build permanent seats at the field and also sand has been put over the parking lot across the road on the new community center site and will be used for ball field parking.

Revival services began at Glenola Baptist Church Sunday evening. Church pastor, Halc the Rev. Cecil Wright is doing the preaching.

W.M.S. Meeting Marlboro Women's Missionary Society No. 1 and 2 met together at Marlboro recent as well as several other churches.

This month the top was, "The Meeting in the Development of Christian Leadership." The regular routine business was held and it was approved to send a donation to the girls' school in Africa also to Happy Grove Jamaica.

There was a panel discussion on Christian leadership at those taking part were the pastor, Bobby Medford, Halc Beeson, Bunn Pugh, Sue Pugh and Nora Farlow.

Weekend Gary and Norma Alford Rorer; Logan White, catcher; Robert Hinson and two children of LaSalle; first base; Donald Staley; right field; George Crofts, short; blame for the shooting on here with her parents, W. Bow Phillips, third base; Sherrill Young, center field; no "harm would and Ruth Alford.

So sorry to note that Mi center field and Wayne Davis left Amelia Farlow had the misfortune to fall recently when hompsed of Logan White, Robert father, throwing her over its he Howard Rich is manager of the shooting "was wrong," and breaking a rib and bruising New Market Tigers. Some of that he "wanted to tell the full her. She is out of school boys said the other teams heavy."

Congratulations to Low out to win the championship. "Our partner's investigation would and Doris Lanier on the bi only trouble here," Farlow said in the death, inasmuch last Saturday, April 18th, at time High Point Hospital. Most and baby are home and do fine.

Sorry Evelyn Lanier has been a patient in Randolph Hospital, Asheboro, for quite some time. She is slowly improving.

Bill and Eva Ashburn spent last Sunday visiting his brother-in-law, D. H. Parrisi who is a patient at Veteran Hospital in Durham. Mrs. E. M. Brown of High Point is visiting her son and wife, Arthur and Ruth Brown, few days. Remember this Sunday, April 26th is the date for everyone to go to their respective place and get the second feeding. A number of New Market Home Demonstration members attended the 12th District Home Demonstration meeting at Reidsville last Thursday. Several from New Market Grange accepted Center Grange invitation for last Friday night and enjoyed seeing pictures of India. We are sorry to report that Miss Clara Davis is a patient in High Point Hospital for some time and treatment.

Trinity Man Contends Death Was Accidental

By FRED BURGESS, Staff Writer Shirley Ezell, Jr., a 20-year-old Route 1, Trinity, man, was shot down yesterday afternoon when he was driving with his 18-year-old wife, Sheriff Wayne Wilson reported that he was picked up in the young father told off.

Ezell had originally told Deputy R. V. Weston, investigating the shooting, that the Saturday afternoon shooting was done by his 2 1/2 year old son. According to his story at the time, he and a youngster were outside the house, and a few moments later he sent his son back inside, he heard a shot and found his father being driven to a High Point hospital, she was pronounced dead upon arrival.

NEW MARKET—The closing of the Little Ezell was questioned by Weston soon for the New Market League season can come "non-trivial" for the New Market Tigers.

For the first time, the team of 10- and 12-year-olds will have its own home ground instead of having to travel to Glenola or Levellsville to play.

The League is made up of long-established teams, the New Market Tigers, Trinity Bulldogs, Allen Jay Panthers and Archdale Cardinals.

Herciel Farlow, 13, a league, automobile, placing her on the veteran who is now too old to play, seat, and returned to the team with the kids, said competition for use, to pick up the rifle and sharp but he expected the following all fingerprints from it.

ing players would make up the team: Murray Skeen, catcher; evidence that he had first base; George Crofts, short; blame for the shooting on here with her parents, W. Bow Phillips, third base; Sherrill Young, center field; no "harm would and Ruth Alford.

So sorry to note that Mi center field and Wayne Davis left Amelia Farlow had the misfortune to fall recently when hompsed of Logan White, Robert father, throwing her over its he Howard Rich is manager of the shooting "was wrong," and breaking a rib and bruising New Market Tigers. Some of that he "wanted to tell the full her. She is out of school boys said the other teams heavy."

Congratulations to Low out to win the championship. "Our partner's investigation would and Doris Lanier on the bi only trouble here," Farlow said in the death, inasmuch last Saturday, April 18th, at time High Point Hospital. Most and baby are home and do fine.

Sorry Evelyn Lanier has been a patient in Randolph Hospital, Asheboro, for quite some time. She is slowly improving.

Bill and Eva Ashburn spent last Sunday visiting his

Level Cross Supper Attracts Multitudes

RANDLEMAN — Mrs. Bertha Toomes, president of the W. S. C. S. of the Level Cross Methodist Church, and Mrs. Lee Petty, chairman of the buffet supper, held last Saturday night, have announced that the supper was very successful and they would like to offer an apology to all the many people that had to be turned away.

The supper, held from 5-8 p. m. saw the food beginning to run out by 7 and long before 8 people had to be turned away. The women served approximately 300 people instead of the 200 meals planned. Also they were very pleased to have guests from Asheboro and the areas around town coming by for the supper.

Proceeds are to go for the building fund of the church and to be used especially in the church kitchen and one of the projects is a stove. Mrs. Toomes explained, since there was no a stove in the kitchen when the food was gone last Saturday they could not prepare extra.

She announced that the last weeks in September the society would again hold a buffet supper. Since last Saturday was the first of this type, they did not know how to judge the crowd but the next supper there will be enough food for everyone announced.

Many Sophia Reunions Are Held; Auction Sale Set

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1 — Last Sunday was quite a pleasant day for the descendants of Jim and Hannah Hodgkin. A large number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Clyde and Kathleen Spencer for their 27th annual reunion, but due to the heavy rain of hurricane Donna passing through and this was the first time it had rained on the occasion.

As the crowd gathered they were directed to go to the Mt. Vernon recreation center where there was room for all and plenty of lunch for everyone.

A song was sung and Jack Spencer, president, welcomed the group. Ralph Clark had the devotion and prayer. After which a short session was held with prizes being given. The oldest one present was Mrs. Alice Spencer Davis, 84. The youngest was Danny, son of the late Annie Spencer Walker.

The largest family was six of the late Walt Clark. There was first three of the original Spencer family left. They are Mrs. Alice Spencer Davis of High Point, John Spencer of RS and Mrs. Emma Spencer Kennedy of Asheboro. There were approximately 125 present, some being from Washington, D. C., California, Florida, South Carolina, and various places in Carolina.

Auction Sale Planned — There will be a lunch sale at Cedar Square on Saturday beginning at 12 o'clock. There will be a lunch sale also many articles will be including nice hatters (to be fresh) and calves all from top dairy herds of the community; also quilts, aprons, clothing — especially children's and various other articles all donated. Arrangements will be Albert and Althea Brown cause. The proceeds will be used for the building fund.

Loftin Reunion — The Loftin clan had their reunion last Sunday at the Christian Church in Randleman. Chester Haworth of High Point gave the 11 o'clock message and special song by Mrs. Louise Loftin. There was a business session in the afternoon and song by Mrs. Louise Loftin. The number of relatives throughout this community. Several attended.

Victory Reunion — The Victory reunion was held last Sunday week at the home of Mrs. Bertha Victory Teague near Randleman. The crowd began to gather near 11 o'clock and enjoyed a social period. Then a picnic lunch. This was followed by a brief business session presided over by the president, Omie Rich. A talk was given by Rev. Sam Nelson and considered one of the best and largest occasions for the Victory in some years. The interest and fellowship was very good. There are several of the relatives throughout this community.

Marlboro Revival Planned — Revival services will begin at Marlboro this Sunday night at 7:30 and will continue each night until Friday night. The pastor, Rev. Bob Medford will be assisted by Rev. C. Excellence Rozelle of Winston-Salem. He is a good speaker and we believe he will bring good messages. There will be much good singing.

Funeral Services will be conducted at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Marlboro Friends Church by the Revs. John Phipkin, James Bolick and James Denny. Interment will follow in the church cemetery. The body was to be taken to the home at 3:30 p.m. today.

patient at Baptist Hospital. Winston-Salem, where she recently underwent a serious major operation. She is slowly improving. She has been well for a long time. Am sure messages and cards would cheer her up very much.

Albert and Althea Brown spent last weekend at Salem. Va. They were taken by his great niece and husband, Jim and Pat Hepburn and Jack. They enjoyed a pleasant family reunion with other relatives at the home of the Willey Givens. They also went to the Dixie Caverns and other places of interest in the mountains.

Osmond in R. O. H. — Very sick. Very slowly improving and sure cards and messages would cheer her up. Address: Sophia, Route 1. She is a lovely visitor. We hope Mary will soon get better.

Congratulations to Lewis and Linda Patton Loftin who were just recently married. We wish for them much happiness and success. Glad they have their lovely new house at Edgar. Start their new home life in the Davis home.

Mrs. Luther (Martha) Jones and little Nancy of the Community visited for one day last week. Mrs. Orinda (Martha) Jones spent the past weekend in the Davis home.

Grady Herdin was taken sick while at work in High Point Tuesday and was taken to the hospital for treatment. Mesdames Rosa Hunsicker, Blanche Farlow and Nanette Davis spent Thursday with Mrs. Martha D. Jones near Fairfield. We are so glad to know that Martha continues to improve.

Church Vows Are Spoken By Davis - Dawson Couple

Miss Trudy Evelyn Dawson and Branley Leon Davis were united in marriage last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Cedar Square Friends Meeting with Rev. Dallas Rush officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dawson of 408 Playground Rd. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis of Randleman.

The altar featured an archway against a background of greenery flanked by branched candelabra.

Adding music was presented by Joseph Gamele, soloist, and Mrs. Raymond Miles, organist.

The bride, escorted by her father, was attired in a formal gown of bridal satin and lace, featuring a chapel train Her elbow - length veil was attached to a crown of crystals and pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with an archid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Clifford Motley, sister of the bride. Miss Sharron Shard was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Jimmy Kinney, Miss Maria Sibbett and Mrs. Sonja Allen.

The attendants were identically attired in floor-length dresses of red brocade. Their bouquets featured red and white pompons.

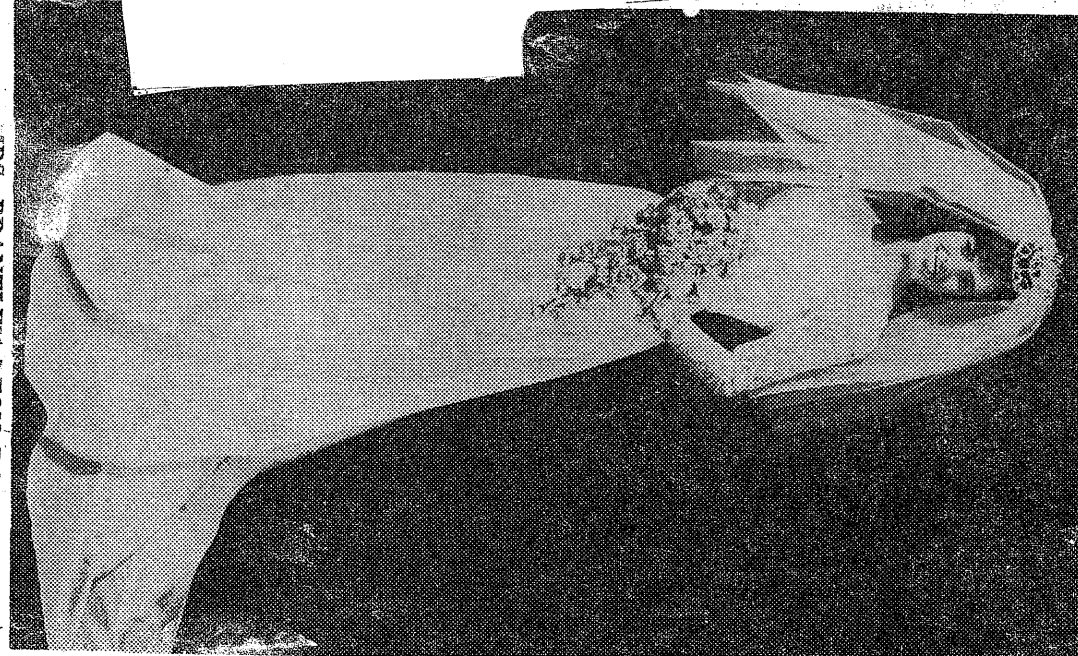

Misses Barbara Hohn and Cathy Phillips registered the guests.

Mike Davis, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jerry Dawson, brother of the bride; Rommie Davis, brother of the bridegroom; Clifford Motley, brother-in-law to the bride; and Albert Johnson.

The bride is a graduate of Trinity High School and is a secretary for State of High Point Inc. The bridegroom graduated from Randleman High School and Kings Business College. He is presently employed by Custom Stamp- ing Inc.

The bride's parents entertained with a cake-cutting at the church dining hall after the rehearsal Tuesday evening. Mrs. Leroy Cranford and Mrs. Clifford Tilly assisted with serving. The table featured a poinsettia centerpiece.

Following a Florida wedding trip, the couple will live at Rt. 1, Randleman.

MRS. BRANTLEY LEON DAVIS

Sophia News Friends Quarterly Meeting Set; Sympathy On Recent Area Deaths

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1 — Not much news this week as no church service was held last Sunday and no activities of any kind during the weekend due to the snow. A few more cases of flu.

We are glad C. A. Farlow is home from High Point Hospital and is slowly improving.

Southern quarterly meeting of Friends will be held at Cedar Square Saturday, February 27 beginning at 10 o'clock with a business meeting presided over by Birtford Farlow. This will be followed at 11 o'clock with a worship service. The will be James J. T. formerly of Lawrence, J now of Guilford Co noon the ladies of this church will serve lunch and a business session will be held in the afternoon with Clyde Hinshaw presiding clerk. There are 13 meetings in this quarter and we hope all will be represented.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Nora Stout Farlow and Mrs. Esther Stout Rich of Sophia in the death of their brother. Also sympathy to the other members of the Stout family of Parker Stout, 73, of Pine Level who passed on last week. The funeral was held at Marlboro last Friday afternoon and he was laid to rest beneath a mound of flowers. We do know will be greatly missed

In his home, by his family and friends, but we do feel that our earthly loss is Heaven's gain and no doubt he is at rest.

Sympathy also to one of our close neighbors, Mrs. Flossie Overton of here and to other members of the family in the death of their mother, Mrs. Nettie Russell Sanders, 73, of Asheboro the past week. It is hard to give up mother, our best earthly friend for many years, but we know these things happen and no doubt our loss is a gain. And I also know that you will cherish her memory with sacred sorrow and look forward to meeting her some day.

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

Sophia, Rt. 1, Sept. 15—Several from this section, attended the Victory reunion held at the Level Cross Methodist church the first Sunday in this month. Mrs. Zorada Loftin was the oldest member present and her little grandson, John Dwight Hayes was the youngest.

Elmer Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beeson and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Davis attended the funeral of Mrs. Ruth Tweed in Asheville recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Branson Croftis announce the birth of Patricia Diane at the Memorial hospital in High Point.

Mrs. Emily Pugh attended the school of alcohol studies held at Pfeiffer College last week from Tuesday through Thursday, sponsored by the Allied Churton League of North Carolina.

Mrs. Channey Lanier is on the sick list, we are sorry to note. Mr. and Mrs. Troy Milkkan have returned to their home after a visit in the homes of Bill Hill and Colbert Beeson. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pugh and son, Danny, Cohen Davis and Lewis Loftin attended the automobile races in Darlington, S. C., on Labor Day.

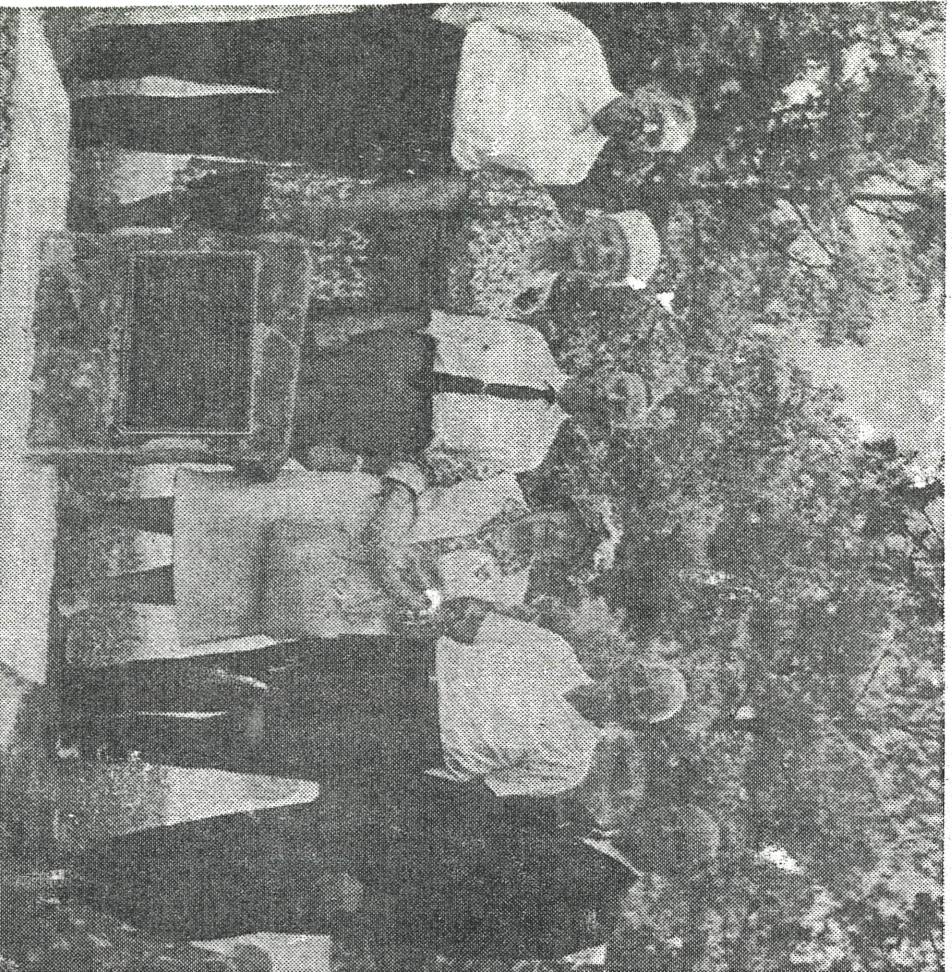

The Clyde Loftins, the Lawrence Alreds and the Kenneth Pughs were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Whitehead at the S. C. on Labor Day. Saturday evening.

Funeral Rites Rev. B. B. Bulla Conducted 8-1962

Funeral services for the Rev. Baud Baxter Bulla, 79, of Route 1, Sophia, who died Thursday shortly after 5 p. m., at his home, were conducted Saturday at 3 p. m., from the Marlboro Friends Meetinghouse. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

A native of Randolph County, Rev. Mr. Bulla was a son of the late Daniel Webster and Emily Letitia Alfred Bulla, and spent the greater portion of his life in Randolph County. He was a retired Friends minister, having served a number of churches in Randolph and surrounding counties. He was a birthright Quaker and held membership in the Marlboro Friends Meeting.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eva Taylor Bulla; two daughters, Mrs. John R. Albetson and Mrs. John W. Dyer, both of High Point; a son, Johnny Bulla, an expatriate golfer of Phoenix, Ariz.; two brothers, Oscar Bulla of Graham, and Robert Bulla of Sophia; three sisters, Mrs. Jennie Weiborn of Trinidad, Col., Mrs. Lena Cole and Miss Lillie Bulla, of Chatsworth, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

UNVEILING SCENE — A Randolph County marker at the fourth annual session of the Southeastern Newlin Association in Alliance County Sunday afternoon. Left to right are Harvey Newlin, Snow Camp, Conservative Friends Minister and well known woman participated in the unveiling of a in Randolph County; Hessie Newlin Davis, Route 1, Sophia; Walter Guthrie, Snow

Camp; Josie Newlin Rivers, Ridgeland, S. C.; Newlin Bush, Fort Wentworth, Ga.; and Dr. A. I. Newlin, brother of Harvey Newlin and professor of history at Guilford College. The marker was unveiled to the memory of James Newlin, oldest son of John and Mary Pyle Newlin, ancestors of the Newlin family in North Carolina.

Randolph Woman President Of Newlin Family Assoc.

By RALPH L. BULLA

Members of the Newlin family in Randolph County joined other family members for the fourth annual reunion of the Southeastern Newlin Association at Spring Friends Meeting House near Snow Camp Sunday, August 2.

A Randolph County member of the family, Emily D. Pugh, Route 1, Sophia, was elected president of the reunion organization for the forthcoming year, 1964-65.

Her mother, Hessie Newlin Davis, also of Route 1, Sophia, participated in the unveiling of a memorial plaque to James and Deborah Lindley Newlin and their children in the cemetery at Spring Friends Meeting House at the close of the reunion session Sunday afternoon.

James Newlin, oldest son of John and Mary Pyle Newlin, ancestors of the Newlin family in North Carolina, was a brother of Nathaniel Newlin, great-grandfather of Hessie Newlin Davis.

John and Mary Pyle Newlin come to North Carolina in 1767 from Concord, Pa., and settled about two miles from the site of Spring Friends Meeting House.

Later, due to the question of slavery in the south, some of the Newlins went out west and settled in Illinois and Indiana.

One of the family members planning to go west was Joseph Newlin, clerk of the Spring Friends Monthly Meeting, son of Nathaniel Newlin and grandson of John and Mary Pyle Newlin.

In addition to being located in the proximity of historic Cane Creek Meeting House, Spring Friends Meeting is also not far from Chatham Friends Meeting House.

But it was at West Grove Conservative Friends Meeting, presided over by that distinguished Conservative Minister, Harvey Newlin, brother of Dr. A. I. Newlin, professor of history at Guilford College, that this reporter worshipped Sunday morning.

The Meeting House was built along simple lines but yet was a substantial structure. The division of rooms, one for the men and one for the women, followed the earlier structures of the Friends movement and there were the benches for the ministers and the elders which faced the others.

But Joseph Newlin was married to a Randolph County girl, Ruth Farlow, and it is said that her family ties were so strong that she persuaded Joseph Newlin to remain and settle in the Marlboro-Sophia area from which the Randolph County Newlins have originated.

Joseph Newlin was the grandfather of Hessie Newlin Davis, who participated in the unveiling of the monument Sunday afternoon, and her sister, Hettie Newlin, who resides with her, and was also the great-grandfather of Jack Newlin of Danville, Va., former Randelman resident, who served as president of the Southeastern Newlin Association last year.

The benches were padded and were comfortable on the floor. There were no pictures or ornaments on the walls except for the simple designed Friends calendar.

Worship procedures follow the Conservative practice of allowing time for periods of meditation and it was following one of these periods that the meeting was dismissed by the traditional handshake of the ministers and the elders.

Ah the Conservative Meeting was Burton Newlin, son of Harvey Newlin, who is married to the former Daphne Allen, of the Holly Springs area in Randolph County, and David Newlin, nephew of Harvey Newlin, who is married to the former Dixie Byrd, also of the Holly Springs area.

Spring Friends Meeting was founded in 1793 and derived its name from a spring which is located on the meeting house grounds. However, the meeting was established twenty years earlier and worshipped under the care of the Cane Creek Meeting until its organization in 1793.

OBSERVES BIRTHDAY — Mrs. Cora Moffitt, a birthright member of Holly Springs Friends Meeting and a resident in Asheboro, celebrated her 91st birthday Wednesday.

By RALPH L. BULLA

MRS. CORA Catherine Stout Moffitt, a birthright member of Holly Springs Friends Meeting, celebrated her 91st birthday yesterday, March 7, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Lee Fritz, at 323 S. Cox St.

A native of the Buffalo Ford section between Ranssaur and Coleridge, Mrs. Moffitt first came to Asheboro following the death of her husband, John Jackson Moffitt, in 1901.

She has made her home in Asheboro since that time, except for intervals of residence with two sons and a sister elsewhere.

The birthday occasion of this white-haired nonagenarian passed off very quietly, with no family celebration held because of the illness of a son. However, there are plans for a family gathering later.

Mrs. Moffitt was born on March 7, 1871 at the family homestead in the Buffalo Ford section, a short distance of what is known as Hinshaw Town. Her parents were Aaron Stout and Sophia Osborne Stout.

She was the oldest girl out of a family of six girls and three boys. Asked if being the oldest girl brought upon her the responsibility of looking after the younger children, she said: "I wasn't ever at the house."

As an explanation for this, she had said that she had "worked in the field every day in the week except on Sunday." Her father was a farmer, a Quaker, a strict disciplinarian and a firm believer in hard work.

Holly Springs Friends Meeting at that time was of the Conservative belief and Mrs.

Moffitt says that her mother always wore a black bonnet and never a hat. Mrs. Moffitt, although subscribing to the Quaker beliefs, still doesn't see why the Quaker women of the era when she was growing up couldn't have worn hats instead of bonnets, saying the bonnets were hot and "like being in a jug."

In speaking of her birthright membership in the Holly Springs Friends Meeting House, Mrs. Moffitt said that "I don't want to join any other church. I don't think there is any church any better than the Friends."

Mrs. Moffitt is a modern Quaker in comparison to the practices of her girlhood days but in speaking of the present Holly Springs, she took a middle road and said: "They have got mighty fast down there now."

HER EDUCATION was rather complete for that day and time. She attended a one-room school at Holly Springs, then a two-teacher school in Hinshaw Town and finished her education by attending for two years the boarding school at Shiloh. She was a good scholar, particularly in spelling, and at one time could spell every word in the Blue Back Spelling Book.

She finished her schooling at the age of 21 and according to her version "I was married before I was 22." A strong believer in education, she now thinks she should have gone to school another year or two.

Her husband came from the Brush Creek community near the Chatham county line and it was in this community that Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt live today.

Sophia News

Cedar Square Friends Meeting Have Steak Supper; Revival Will Begin Sunday; Visiting, Illness Is Told

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1.—Cedar Square Friends Meeting women prepared and served a supper in their basement last Saturday night. Their main specialty was steak and delicious hot biscuits along with other things.

The crowd was real large and the ladies found themselves out of steak so substituted a ham as far as it would go. They regretted very much not having enough as intended. They were really appreciative to all who attended, and they do intend to have a ham supper some time in the future. The proceeds of the clear profit will be used for the building fund. They feel in need of some Sunday school rooms now and funds to build a parsonage later.

REVIVAL WILL BEGIN

A revival meeting will begin at Cedar Square this Sunday night and will continue each night until the following Saturday night. J. Floyd Moore is pastor and Victor Murchison will be the evangelist. The permanent date of this meeting is the fourth Sunday in April but owing to the Nation Friends Conference at High Point, May 2 to 6, this meeting date was changed to this date.

JESSE COLTRANE

One of our past Marlboro boys who was raised near by but for many years had been away passed away last week. It was Jesse Coltrane, 71, the oldest son of Thomas and Mary Frazier Coltrane. He has a circle of relatives and friends here who were very sad for his death. But he had been badly afflicted for 12 years and we feel our earthly loss in Heaven's eternal gain and him at rest. He was a carpenter by trade. Though living

Sophia News

Marlboro Women's Group In Meeting; Homecoming Planned At Cedar Square

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1.—Marlboro Women's Society met at the home of Mrs. Joann Spencer with Mrs. Tassie Bulla as co-hostess on Thursday night. Fadhine Farlow, president, called the meeting to order. Nora Farlow gave the devotional with comments by Clara Davis and prayer by Eva Bulla. Nora also gave the program reading from the blue print. Then the discussion of business and plans made for National Conference soon in High Point. Ethel Beeson is our representative with others attending much as possible. At the conclusion of the business we adjourned to meet with Fadhine Farlow and Etta Wood in May. During the social period the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

HOMECOMING PLANNED

Cedar Square folks were much pleased over the results of the country ham supper they put on in their church basement last Saturday night. They express appreciation to those who attended. This Sunday is homecoming day for Cedar Square. This time Sunday school will be 9:45 and service at 11 o'clock with his family at Ferguson he did not lose interest in his old home community, family and friends. He desired to be brought back and be placed in the old cemetery with his parents near by his old home. The family have our sympathy.

PERSONALS

Sorry to note that Mrs. Ellen Beeson of Cedar Square Community who several months ago fell and broke her hip and leg is not doing so well. She is home but hard to be up and around. She can be in a wheel chair. She was in High Point Hospital for sometime. Mary and Sadie Osborne have been right sick at their home for several days with flu quite a number of folks all around have been having sore throat and flu.

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1.—There has been quite a lot of Christmas activities during the past week and everyone has seemed to enjoy the spirit of Christmas immensely. The greeting cards were beautiful and so many nice gifts. Due to the fact this writer has been confined to home with flu, have not been able to get all the news wishes for during the holiday season.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Marlboro Missionary Women's Society met with Lillie Wall at her home with Althea Brown as co-hostess (but unable to be present). The meeting was called to order by the president, Fadhine Farlow who read the subject for this month, "The Grace of Devotion." Haisie Beeson was devotional leader. Nora Farlow was program leader. A business session was held, then adjourned and during the social period, Lillie, assisted by Ruth Brown, served refresh-

PERSONAL MENTION

The pre-school conference was held at New Market last Monday with 18 little ones present that will start school this fall. The county supervisor and county nurse spoke to the mothers. Carr Redding and Farlow Davis recently took a motor trip to Wisconsin in the interest of cattle buying. They came back home and reported a very interesting trip. They each have a dairy farm and bought some heifers and these arrived by truck last week.

By ALTHEA BROWN

with a visiting speaker, a picnic dinner, and the afternoon will be devoted to memorials and singing. The public is invited. York Teague, a former pastor, will give the devotional in the afternoon.

PERSONALS

Smith of Archdale. Dallas and Ethel Cox Farlow spent the past week end at Lynchburg, Va. with Ethel's sister and brother-in-law Edward and Bertha Cox Carson. John Pipkin returned home Monday from Behel Friends Meeting in Va. where he conducted a weeks series of services. His wife Maybelle joined him there on Saturday and returned home with him. In the absence of John at Marlboro last Sunday morning the Cedar Square pastor, J. Floyd Moore filled the pulpit and gave a real good message.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Clinton McDowell who has been quite sick for several weeks shows a little improvement but still in a very weak condition. Elmira Cook is also in a very weak condition from very frequent spells of asthma. Sorry to note that Robert Bulla who was improving from a recent operation at High Point Hospital and been home for some time has not been feeling very well the last few days. Also John Farlow who is still in a very weak condition now but has improved to some extent. Miss Beulah Nance is not too well at this time and her father (Blanche) Farlow has been at home now is still in a very weak condition now but has improved to some extent.

PERSONALS

Miss Beulah Nance is not too well at this time and her father (Blanche) Farlow has been at home now is still in a very weak condition now but has improved to some extent. Mrs. Beulah Nance is not too well at this time and her father (Blanche) Farlow has been at home now is still in a very weak condition now but has improved to some extent.

PERSONALS

There were 19 women present and one visitor, Mrs. Abithord Tiltson. We are very glad to know that Mrs. C. A. (Mabel Lowe) Farlow has returned home from High Point Hospital. So nice she could spend Christmas with her family. Hope she continues to improve.

PERSONALS

The children-in-laws, a grandchild of Frank and Nannie Davis all gathered at the old home of their parents Christmas Eve for a get together family festivity. Those present were Charles and Lois (Davis) McDowell and children, Luther and Martha B. (Davis) Jones and children, Carl and Evelyn (Davis) Hull and Cindy Kay, and Frank W. Jr., and Hazel Davis and Stevie.

PERSONALS

There has been quite a bit of flu throughout this community the past two weeks. Among those sick were Emily Kenneth and Fanny Pugh, Lawrence and Mary Alice Allred, Doris Lanier

PERSONALS

Tommy, little son of Kermit and Faye Hayes, who has been sick off and on for several weeks with temperature and breaking out, regret to know it flares up at times yet. Ormie and Frances Rich, and Mrs. Gwen Farlow visited A. D. and Ora I. Farlow at Bahama last Sunday afternoon.

PERSONALS

Elmira Cook who has been sick for a long time, remains in a weakened condition. The revival meeting is in progress at Glendia Baptist church and will continue each night this week.

PERSONALS

Charles Hendricks and several of the students of Guilford will be at Marlboro this coming Sunday morning, Jimmy Childress of White Plains Meeting will speak.

PERSONALS

Elmira Cook who has been sick for a long time, remains in a weakened condition. The revival meeting is in progress at Glendia Baptist church and will continue each night this week.

report good news for our many good readers and to you each year. Happy New Year and may you enjoy a very prosperous year more than ever.

John F. Beeson Passes Saturday; Funeral Sunday

Funeral services for John Franklin Beeson, 90, were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Marlboro Friends church with Rev. O. H. Fulger, pastor of the Ashboro Street Friends church, Greensboro, officiating. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Survivors include two daughters, Miss Allene Beeson of Greensboro; two sons, J. Henry Beeson, of Elkin; Hansel Beeson of Greensboro; 9 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Robbins Funeral Held Tuesday At Robbins Church

Funeral services for James Monroe Robbins, 74, who died at the home of his son, John R. Robbins, early Sunday morning, were held Tuesday at 10 o'clock at the Robbins church in Greensboro. The Rev. W. L. Payne officiated.

Survivors are five daughters, Mrs. John Dudley of Greensboro; Mrs. Ray Hunt, Mrs. T. I. Payne and Mrs. Carson Kimble all of Thomasville; and Mrs. E. Lee Wainner of route 1, Thomasville; three sons, John F. and J. Marvin Robbins, both of route 1, Thomasville, and Clarence W. Robbins of Thomasville; one brother, Troy Robbins of Liberty; one sister, Miss Geneva Robbins of Camp Butler; 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Wesleyan Methodist church in Robbins and burial was in the family plot at Mt. Vernon Methodist church in Randolph county. Rev. Melvin L. Gentry and the Rev. Earl B. Hunley officiated.

Funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Wesleyan Methodist church in Robbins and burial was in the family plot at Mt. Vernon Methodist church in Randolph county. Rev. Melvin L. Gentry and the Rev. Earl B. Hunley officiated.

Funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Wesleyan Methodist church in Robbins and burial was in the family plot at Mt. Vernon Methodist church in Randolph county. Rev. Melvin L. Gentry and the Rev. Earl B. Hunley officiated.

SENIOR CITIZENS — Honored guests at a senior citizen party sponsored by the New Market Home Demonstration Club were the above people from the Sophia, New Market and Cedar Square areas. First row, left to right, Mrs. Will Coltrane, Mrs. Flossie Bristow, Mrs. Emil Hohn, Mrs. Althea Brown, and Mrs. Lillie Lamar; second row, left to right, Emil Hohn, Alva Loflin, Mrs. Eva Bulla, Mrs. Cecil Farlow, Mrs.

Lottie Millikan, and Mrs. Troy Millikan; third row, left to right, Mrs. Lula Davis, Burtleigh (Pop) Wall, Mrs. Burtleigh Wall, Mrs. W. B. Ridge, Mrs. Alva Loflin, Mrs. Channey Lanier, and Mrs. Nora Farlow; and fourth row, left to right, Will Coltrane, Mrs. Jim Steed, Mrs. Lacy Presnell, Mrs. O. B. Parris, Mrs. Branson Davis, and Mrs. Roney Fields.

Senior Citizen Ages Total 1,684; New Market Club Honors Gathering

By RALPH L. BULLA

Twenty-four people, whose ages totaled 1,684 years, were honored at a senior citizen party given by the New Market Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon, May 28.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. D. S. Davis, Route 1, Randleman, who is president of the Randolph County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs.

Greeting the guests, who came mainly from the Sophia, New Market and Cedar Square areas, were the hostess, Mrs. D. S. Davis, and Mrs. Troy Hall, president of the New Market Home Demonstration Club.

Registering the honored guests were Mrs. Garfield Davis and Mrs. Fadhie Farlow. Refreshments consisting of evergreen and cookies.

June 16, 1955

HARPER CLEVELAND FRITTS

Harper Cleveland Fritts, 55, was dead on arrival at High Point Memorial hospital Wednesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. He had been in declining health four years, but death was unexpected.

He was born in Lexington Dec. 11, 1899, a son of the late Webb and Ada Fritts. He was formerly employed as a cabinet maker by Tomlinson of High Point.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Romanchick of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Helen Foster of High Point; four sons, Forest, Bill, John and Donald, Fritts, all of High Point; the step-mother, Mrs. Jane Fritts of Lexington; six sisters, Mrs. Annie Sink, Mrs. Lizabeth Leonard, Mrs. Myrtle Leonard, Mrs. Melba Thompson, Mrs. Beulah Allen and Mrs. Mary Lanning of Lexington; three brothers, the Rev. Harvey Fritts, Floyd Fritts and Sam Fritts, all of Lexington. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 4:30 o'clock in the Methodist Church by the pastor, Paul Will. The body will remain at chapel until the hour of the were served by Mrs. D. C. Sisk and Mrs. Seth Stanley.

A huge basket of red roses and red geraniums, later given as prizes, decorated the spacious den of the new residence.

An informal program was held during which the honored guests reminisced about the earlier years, their school days, their former teacher and their time of courting. Mrs. Eva Bulla recited a poem she learned in school and many of the guests expressed appreciation and said they were glad to be remembered, on the occasion of the senior citizen party.

Burtleigh (Pop) Wall received the door prize while Mrs. Cecil Farlow received the prize for being the oldest person in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coltrane, married for 54 years, were given a prize for the couple who had been married the longest.

Honored guests present for the occasion were Mrs. Troy Millikan, Mrs. Eva Bulla, Mr. and Mrs. Burtleigh (Pop) Wall, Mrs. Althea Brown, Mrs. Channey Lanier, Mrs. Branson Davis, Mrs. Lizzie Steed, Mrs. Lula Davis, Mrs. Rodney Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Will Coltrane, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Loflin, Mrs. Mabel Farlow, Mrs. Wesley Ridge, Mrs. Flossie Bristow, Mrs. Lillie Lamar, Mrs. O. B. Parris, Mrs. Lacy Presnell, Mrs. Nora Farlow, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hohn.

Special guests present were Mrs. Lottie Millikan, Beaumont, Texas aunt of Mrs. D. S. Davis, and Miss Rose Badgett, Randolph County Home Economics Agent.

Present from the New Market Home Demonstration Club were Mrs. Lula Davis, Mrs. Lillie Coltrane, Mrs. D. C. Sisk, Mrs. Stanley Farlow, Mrs. Troy Hall, Mrs. D. S. Davis, Mrs. Lizzie Steed, Mrs. Garfield Davis and Mrs. Cora Stanley.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ferree Varner of route 3, Ashboro, announce the engagement of their daughter, Peggy Jean, to James Thad Allman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thad Allman of route 3, Ashboro. The wedding is being planned for the late summer.

Allred - Beeson Marriage Vows Spoken Saturday Eve

Wed. 2/8 - 1964

SOPHIA, March 7—Miss Eye-lyn Paige Beeson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. Beeson of Sophia, became the bride of Donald Reid Allred, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Neal C. Allred of Randleman, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

Close friends and relatives attended the ceremony at which the Rev. Seth B. Hinsshaw, uncle of the bride, officiated. The double-ring service was used. Music was furnished by Mrs. Virginia Mason, cousin of the bride, pianist, and Don M. Gates, uncle of the bride.

For maid of honor the bride had her sister, Miss Nancy Beeson. The bridegroom had his brother, Neal Allred, for best man. Candlelight illuminated the scene with candles being lit by Edwin Beeson, brother of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with Chantilly lace-lined bodice featuring a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. The full skirt extended into a short train and the fingertip veil was attached to a crown of satin, embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and streamers.

The maid of honor wore a ball-length dress of blue crepe-tulle made princess style. She carried a cluster of pink daisies. The bride's mother was attired in a rose silk lace dress and her corsage was of white baby orchids.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with an informal reception in the home. The bride graduated from High Point Memorial Hospital School of Nursing and is employed at High Point Memorial hospital.

The bride-groom spent four years in the U. S. Air Force. He is now employed at Myrtle Desk Co., in High Point.

WED AT SOPHIA—Mrs. S. J. Cash is the former Mrs. Cora E. Woods of Sophia, Rt. 1. The rites were solemnized in the Maraboro Friends' parsonage with the Rev. John Pipkin officiating. Wed. 2/8 - 1964

Bulla Continues To Practice Medicine At 90

DR. JEFFERSON BULLA

his years of medical school. Dr. Bulla read medicine under his father.

"It cost $1,000 to send me to Baltimore. It wasn't many had $1,000 in those days."

Dr. Bulla graduated in 1888 and came to Trinity to join old Doctor Winslow. "He was 85 and pretty near worn out," Dr. Bulla recalled.

In the fall of 1888 Dr. Bulla married a girl he had known all his life.

They had 12 children, but one was born dead and one boy died of polio when he was 5 years old. Now, Dr. Bulla has 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Wilderness Area

When Dr. Bulla started his practice, there were no cars and scarcely any buggies in the area.

"This was a wilderness," he said, waving a hand at the rolling farmlands beyond his window. "Hardly any of the timber was even cut out. Why, if a man had a horse and a collar and a buggy, he was called a big man. Not one in a hundred had one."

The doctor bought a Texas pony to ride on his calls.

"His name was Bob and he was the best horse I ever had. I remember one time I went five or six miles at night for a baby. Afterwards, I started home, but there weren't any roads—just cart trails all crossing, and trees. I hadn't any more idea how to go than a goose.

"I gave the pony his way and he came on home like a dog."

There were few hospitals and people didn't go to them much, anyhow.

"I've delivered between five and six thousand babies—not one of them in a hospital. I quit about 20 years ago. I couldn't take being up all night.

"Babies always seem to be born at night. I couldn't tell you why."

Dr. Bulla's first case was malaria.

"There used to be right much malaria around here. Then they tore up the dam and flooded a millpond down the road and I haven't seen a case in years.

Typhoid prevalent

"Typhoid was the big killer. Every summer I'd have a nest of it. Spread by water. I vaccinated pretty near the whole township. Last case I had was a fellow by the name of Spencer.

"He had a nice shady well, sweet gum and sugar maples all around. I was called over there to see him and, the first thing I said was I wanted a drink of water.

"They gave me some from the well and it was the best I've ever tasted. Then I went in and looked at him and saw he had typhoid.

"Well, I says to him, you can drink all that well water you want, but I've drunk my last of it. He argued with me, but when I sent a sample off, it was swarming with typhoid.

"All six of the family came down with it, but they all lived. The doctors thought it was pretty much of a miracle that I pulled them all through."

Dr. Bulla twisted his carved cane in his crinkled, still powerful long hands.

"I always had real good luck with typhoid."

Dr. Bulla never caught the fever even after drinking the deadly well water.

"When I came out of school, they were just beginning to do abdominal work. I never did much surgery—just cutting off fingers and trimming people up and such.

Appendectomy

"First operating case I ever had was when I helped another doctor on my brother's boy. He had appendicitis. We put him up on the eating table.

The tools?

"Well, we had a couple of knives," said Dr. Bulla. "The boy came through in fine shape." Dr. Bulla never went back to school, but he has kept up with medical advances. He uses penicillin and sulfa and the newest drugs. He likes sulfa tablets best for his flu patients.

"That's what I get most of in the winter—flu," he said.

Dr. Bulla spends a good deal of time these days in the old wood rocker in his living room, losing his toes at the stove that warms the room.

"I've outlived everybody," he said. "I've been practicing almost 70 years and that's about as long as anybody ever give out pills."

"Asian flu is nothing in the world but plain old flu.

"Ye used to call it the grippie. Until the First World War flu."

He peered over his spectacles; "No, you can't remember about that.

"I treated more than 600 cases right here. They died with it. Oh, they died with it. There was one family of five—they all died. I was down in Charlotte and I went to the hotel by the railroad station.

"The clerk told me he used to look out and see the whole platform loaded with coffins. Coffins piled as high as they could pack them. And those were only the ones that were transferred here. He never knew how many rode on by.

"They never knew why it killed so many."

Suffered Flu

Dr. Bulla himself caught the flu during those hectic days. It couldn't kill him and it couldn't stop him, but it did change his smoking habits.

"After I had the flu, I couldn't bear to look at my old pipe. Couldn't even stand to have a pipe in the same room with me. After six months, I got so fat I couldn't get down to the my shoes.

"That's when I started smoking cigars. I've smoked enough cigars to buy me a real nice plantation, I figure."

Dr. Bulla was born in September, 1862. There's some family debate over the exact date, but he celebrates his birthday on the 24th.

His father, Dr. A. C. Bulla, lived about "10 miles down the road" from where Dr. Jefferson lives now.

"I never had a chance at a college education," Dr. Bulla said wistfully. He finished country school and then his father sent him to Baltimore to the College of Physicians and Surgeons for two years. In between

Friends To Dedicate Meeting House On Sunday

Seven years of dreams, planning of philosophy at Earham College and work will be climaxed for members of High Point Friends Meeting Sunday at the dedication of their new, half-million dollar meeting house at 800 Quaker Lane.

Two dedication services have been scheduled for the occasion. The first will be held during the regular 11 a.m. Sunday morning worship hour. Then, at 3 p.m., a special "Community Service" will mark the dedication.

A special invitation has been extended to the general public to attend the afternoon dedicatory service, as it has been timed to avoid conflict with meetings of other church congregations.

Speaking at both times will be Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, professor of philosophy at Earham College in Richmond, Ind.

According to Cecil Haworth, High Point Friends minister, the dedicatory services will follow the usual Friends custom of simplicity, with no rituals planned.

Dr. Trueblood is an important figure in the world of Friends. The author of some 14 books, he has held faculty positions at a number of colleges, including Harvard and Stanford Universities and Guilford, Haverford and Wabash Colleges.

He was editor of "The Friend" from 1935 to 1946, and has since served as Chief of Religious Information for the U. S. Information Agency.

The 12-acre site on which the new meeting house stands was purchased in 1949. Groundbreaking for the new building was held Feb. 20, 1955 and the cornerstone was laid Nov. 27, 1955. First services were conducted in the new church plant June 24 of this year.

The structure, designed by the local architectural firm of Voorhes and Everhart, combines Colonial lines of the meeting house and the chapel with utility of modern construction in educational and other wings.

Special features of the meeting house include Honduras mahogany pews and recessed lighting fixtures.

The meeting house will seat 500 persons, while the Robert R. Ragans Fellowship Hall at the rear has a seating capacity of 300.

A colonnade connecting the chapel and the meeting house and enclosing the church courtyard adding to the effect of the building's design. Church offices and a reception room face the courtyard. Church kitchen space and audio visual rooms are located at the rear of the building.

Four parking areas will accommodate 165 vehicles for off-street parking.

A $25,000 Moller organ, given by Mrs. M. B. Smith as a memorial to her husband and son, sets off the interior of the meeting house as does the platform furniture.

A memorial to the late David H. Parsons Sr. from the Brotherhood Class which he formerly taught

OLD-TIMER — Mrs. Wilson

Barnes, above, of Route 2, Ashboro is a faithful member of the Back Creek Friends Church and seldom misses a service there. She has 29 grandchildren and 41 great-great-grandchildren. A resident of Randolph County all her life, she will be 92, July 22. A feature story on Mrs. Barnes appeared in a previous issue of the Courier-Tribune.

HIGH POINT VISITOR

AUTHOR AND HOSTESS

Miss Margaret Coit (left), Pulitzer prize winning author, visits with Mrs. D. H. Parsons at whose home she was a guest this weekend. Miss Coit's mother, Mrs. Archa Coit, now living in West Newbury, Mass., is a close friend of Mrs. Parsons, and was a former High Point resident.

Community Shocked At Death

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Route 1 — Several folks throughout the entire community were shocked to hear the sudden death of Eugene Nelson Harris, 73, who passed last week. He was well liked and respected by those who knew him. How well we remember he and his wife attending services at Marlboro in the past. Evelyn, we feel sympathy to you and the Lord's richest blessings sort you in your lonely grief.

Cpl Irvin Alford on Camp Line visited his parents W. and Ruth Alford on the arfield and Edith Davis and then had a carry-in supper at the home of her father, Fred Green last Tuesday evening on High Point Route 2. He was spending a few days at his home as he is a patient at Western N.C. Sanatorium, Black Mountain. He is much improved.

There are quite a few colds and illness all around the community at this time.

Joey Loflin, son of O. G. and Ruth Loflin is recovering from a tonsilllectomy.

So glad to hear that Willis Beeson, who is in High Point Hospital for treatment is doing nicely and hopes to be home before too long.

Randleman Native Dies Following Extended Illness

RANDLEMAN—Mrs. Florence Davis McKenzie, 65, wife of R. W. McKenzie of Randleman, died Saturday at Wesley Long Hospital in Greensboro after an extended illness.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Viola Reeder of Route 2, Randleman; two sons, Reece of Route 2, Randleman, and Bruce of Columbus, Ohio; two step-daughters, Mrs. James Stuckard Mrs. Mary Lou Steven of Route 2, Randleman; three sons, Charles McKenzie of Greensboro and R. W. and Tommy McKenzie of Asheboro; one sister, Mrs. Myrtle Robbins of Route 4, High Point; two brothers, Will Davis of Sophia and Harrison Davis of Route 2, Randleman; 12 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 3 p.m. at Midway Wesleyan Methodist Church on Worthville Road. The body was taken to the home today at 10:30 a.m. and will lie in state 30 minutes before the service at the church.

Millikan Rites Planned Tuesday Marlboro Church

Mrs. Arminta Welborn Millikan, 71, of High Point, died in High Point Memorial hospital Sunday at 12 o'clock. She had been in declining health for the past 11 months and critically ill for the past week.

She was born in Randolph county March 15, 1883, daughter of the late Robert M. and Minerva Dix Welborn, and had lived there until the past ten years when she moved to High Point.

On January 20, 1909 she was married to John Manley Millikan who survives, of the home; two step-daughters, Mrs. W. G. Friddle and Mrs. W. C. Welch of High Point; two step-sons, Robert H. Millikan of High Point and John O. Millikan of Tennessee; three sisters, Mrs. C. S. Spencer of Trinity, Mrs. R. W. Farlow of Greensboro and Mrs. J. E. Davis of Randleman; 11 step-grandchildren and 12 step-great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock at Marlboro Friends church, of which she was a member, and attended as long as her health permitted. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Rev. John Phipps, pastor of the church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. York Teague, of Cedar Square, a former pastor of the church.

The body will remain at Carby-Orrall funeral home in High Point until 30 minutes prior to the funeral when it will be placed in the church.

BRIDGE BETWEEN NATIONS — Appearing at the meeting of the Mary Sue Moser 4-H Club in New Market last week were, left to right, Mrs. Sue Pugh, leader for the club, Richard Freeman, assistant Agriculture Agent, Miss Maria del Carmen Montenegro

Bravo, 4-H supervisor from Ecuador, South America, Ronnie Loflin, who conducted a class in oxygen-acetylene welding, and Miss Joyce Harper, assistant Home Economics Extension Agent.

NEW DRESSES, ALL — Participants in the dress revue held by the Mary Sue Moser 4-H Club in the New Market community last Thursday evening were, left to right, Shirley Beeson, Karen Beeson, Jean Ridge, Amelia Farlow, Elaine Farlow, Sue Ellen Ridge and Debbie Spencer.

New Market Club Is Host To Visitor From Ecuador

A special guest of the Mary Sue Moser 4-H Club of the New Market community at its meeting last Thursday evening was Miss Maria del Carmen Montenegro Bravo, of Ecuador, South America.

Miss Montenegro, a 4-H supervisor in her country, is on a study leave from the extension service in Ecuador to study and observe the 4-H program in the United States.

She will spend 18 months in the United States, during which time she will obtain a Master's Degree in home economics at the University of Missouri.

She was accompanied to the meeting of the Mary Sue Moser 4-H Club, which was held at the home of W. S. Beeson, by Miss Joyce Harper, assistant Home Economics Extension Agent of Randolph County, and Richard J. Freeman, assistant Agriculture Agent.

A dress revue for the girls and a class for oxygen-acetylene welding for the boys, conducted by Ronnie Loflin, featured the 4-H meeting last Thursday evening.

Participants in the dress revue were Shirley Beeson, Karen Beeson, Jean Ridge, Amelia Farlow, Elaine Farlow, Sue Ellen Ridge and Debbie Spencer.

AGRICULTURE...
The...
to...
in...
now...
discou...
Two weeks of...
and...
St...

'Just Backwoods,' But Capable Man

By RALPH L. BULLA

"I'm just a backwoods fellow," said the old gentleman and his overalled figure and the place in which he lives indicates that is exactly what he is.

But after having talked with him the greater part of three hours you find that he is anything but "backwoodsy."

Rev. Samuel Snow Nelson, a minister in the Church of the Nazarene, a former missionary to the British West Indies and South America, a writer a political leader and a philosopher could hardly be termed as belonging to the backwoods.

In 1928, Sam Nelson came close to making political history by being elected to the legislature from Guilford county as a Republican. He received 13,371 votes and only 12 voters separated him from the Democratic candidate after three different sets of election returns had been signed and after 24 hours of counting the ballots.

He lives alone on Route 1, Sophia, in the upper part of Back Creek township, a half of mile from the township line and a half of mile across the branch from the place in which he was born on April 1, 1881, the son of Rufus and Sara Roach Nelson. The house in which he lives is reached by a narrow woods road and sets in a small clearing, old and unpainted. The general area is dense and thickly but the immediate area is cleared and there is a beautiful row of boxwoods.

There is no electricity and plumbing and water is procured from a spring, bountiful and clear, a distance from the house.

The inside of the house, although crowded, cluttered and disarranged, contains several rare old volumes and many antiques of value.

There are stacks and stacks of newspapers in the house and until a year ago Sam Nelson's column "Hayseed" was carried in 193 newspapers throughout the entire country, including The Courier-Tribune and several of which were located in the state of Oregon.

"Hayseed" was defined by its author as being a person who didn't know anything. Sam Nelson may be hayseed in his appearance and the place in which he lives, but otherwise he has a keen authoritative knowledge of most any matter under discussion. For instance, the interview was interrupted before it hardly got underway by a man who came to seek legal advice before going into the Greensboro courts.

Sam Nelson was born on April Fool's Day during a snow storm which was shoe top deep and that accounts for the middle portion of his name. He was raised on a farm and went to a free school at Marlboro for three months out of the year and sometimes the patrons of the school would pay for an extra month. It was in a building owned by the Marlboro Friends Meeting, with the county paying the quakers for the rent of the building. He also went to the school at Ashboro for a brief period and from there to Guilford College for a full year and the beginning of another year.

Upon quitting college he began preaching with an independent group and soon thereafter went to the British West Indies and South America as a missionary and worker in evangelism. He was gone for two years, one year of which was spent on the Isthmus of Panama. It was while at Panama that he became acquainted with Col. Gorges, the man who was first successful in combating yellow fever.

One of many experiences in the life of Sam Nelson occurred during his stay in Panama and that within itself would constitute a full size story. However, we shall only mention briefly that his interest in the evangelism of a group of Indians and the resulting efforts of a British missionary brought upon them the protest of the Catholic church and the intervention of the Panamanian revolution. A small shooting revolution started and an American gunboat with both the American and British Ambassadors aboard was sent out to quell the disturbance.

THE REV. SAMUEL SNOW NELSON

When he returned to this country from Panama, he enrolled again at Guilford College and remained there until he was awarded his degree. Asked if he was bitter over being counted out of the election to the legislature in Guilford county, he said he was not sore but did not like the efforts of some members of his own party in maneuvering him out of the office to which he feels that he was rightfully elected. It was during the year in which Al Smith and Herbert Hoover were running for the presidency and Sam says that he conducted a good lively campaign, speaking everywhere they would let him. When asked if he had a platform, he said: "I didn't run on my looks." Needless to say, the year being less than a year, the religious question and the prohibition issue both figured in the campaign of the Nazarene preacher in Guilford county.

Assuming that Sam was actually elected to the legislature and later counted out, he was asked if he thought that he went in with the Hoover landslide. The answer was quick and to the point: "no, I slid Hoover in."

Sam was pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Greensboro for many years and it is in Guilford county that his wife and three children still reside. He spoke of having "three fine children," Shelton, a post-office employee, Elbert Lewis, an employee of the Greensboro News-Record, and Mrs. Raeford Thompson, wife of a part-time Nazarene minister and an equipment supply man. There are also 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Besides Guilford county, he has served churches in the counties of Randolph, Forsyth, Stanley and Rowan. He still retains his credentials with the Nazarene church.

There was also a time when he ran a printing plant, with two linotype machines and a cylinder press.

He is not writing as much as he did a year ago and said that his column was only running in about 50 papers now. For the past year his health has not been quite as good as usual, although he is still a very active man. He was asked as to how he spent his time and the reply was "sleep, eat and talk when I get anybody to talk to." In response to the inquiry as to whether many people did not see him, he said "they did until I built my picnic table."

The Reverend Samuel Snow Nelson has reached the age of 77 years and his step is a little slower, his shoulders slightly more joped and occasionally there is a break in his usually resonant voice. But he is still vibrantly alive and keenly alert to all that goes on about him. Dullness and boredom have had no part in the life of this venerable minister and philosopher but instead he has lived challengingly and in full enjoyment of the years which have been given to him.

Rev. Murray C. Johnson, of Greensboro, to Preach on Sunday Morning

PASTOR TO BEGIN A REVIVAL MEETING ALSO

(By Mrs. Althea Brown) Sophia, Rt. 1, Aug. 17.—Southern quarterly meeting of Friends will be held at Marlboro next Saturday and Sunday, August 22nd and 23rd. At the 11 o'clock service on Saturday the message will be given by some visiting minister. After noon a business session will be held. Sunday morning will be Sunday school and at 11 o'clock Rev. Murray C. Johnson, of Greensboro, is expected to preach. The pastor, Rev. Edward Harris, expects to begin a revival, which will continue each night next week. He will be assisted by some visiting minister. Every one invited and welcome to attend quarterly meeting and revival. Marlboro is an old established place, the present church having been rebuilt in 1889 and is always noted for its large attendance and good services. Sunday is homecoming day for many of the old residents who have left the community at the old home church for quarterly meeting and to visit with their relatives and friends. The church has a nice well-kept cemetery, which is quite a credit to the caretaker, D. V. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hemphill of Climax, entertained a few relatives last Sunday when they served a sumptuous dinner in honor of their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Davis, who were married some time ago, but owing to the prolonged and serious illness and death of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Davis, this wedding reception was delayed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Troy Pearce and daughter, Ruth, and son, Newton, of Asheboro. Miss Cora Davis, Nathan Davis, and G. Davis and children, Mr. and Mrs. Davis have received some nice presents. They are living in High Point, where both are employed.

Grain threshing is over in this community. The crop was considered very good here. On N. E. Davis' place there was an average of 23 bushels per acre on five acres; Milton Small averaged 31½ bushels per acre on five acres; and Clark Small an average of 26 bushels per acre on five acres. All late crops are looking fine since the good rains and farmers are much encouraged at the prospect of having a good crop yet. Tobacco cutting is on and the crop is good and curing nicely.

Final Rites for Mrs. Mary Spencer Conducted Sunday

Final rites for Mrs. Mary Lenora Moore Spencer, 79, who died unexpectedly at her home on High Point, Route 3, early Friday morning, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Glensola Baptist church and interment made in the Marlboro Friends church cemetery.

Mrs. Spencer moved to the Glensola section from Seagrave about 50 years ago, and was a charter member of the Glensola Baptist church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Sarah York of the home and Mrs. Ruby Watson of Route 1, Sanford; two sons, Jasper E. Spencer of the home and James A. Spencer of Route 1, Guilford; one brother, J. D. Moore of High Point; one half brother, Edgar Moore of Route 2, Monroeville; and one half sister, Mrs. T. C. Routh of Route 3, Pittsboro.

Wm. Coltrane Succumbs In Greensboro

William Homer Coltrane, 51, of 404 W. Bessemer St., Greensboro, died of a heart attack in a Greensboro hospital early this morning. He had been ill for several weeks, a former resident of High Point. Coltrane was born in Randolph County in 1902, son of the late Rufus E. and Partha Gray Coltrane. Educated at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, he was active in sports circles here, and was past president of the Chapel Hill YMCA. He was graduated in 1925.

After graduation he was for some years coach at Greensboro High School, and also played semi-professional baseball before going into business. At the time of his death, he was regional sales representative for the Mystic Tape Co.

He was active in civic and church affairs in Greensboro since 1925, and was a member of Grace Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife, the former Annette Donovan; two daughters, Misses Cornelia and Gray Coltrane of the home; one brother, R. Clyde Coltrane of Trinity; and two sisters, Mrs. W. Barber Davis of High Point and Mrs. Berta Coltrane McBane of Pittsboro.

Funeral arrangements are in complete.

Mrs. Ellen Ridge, who has been real sick, is slowly improving. We hope for her a quick recovery.

Miss Margaret Farlow and friend, Louise Early, from Marlboro, N. C., attended service at Marlboro. Margaret is a young minister and is pastor of the Friends church at Poplar Ridge. She is a Marlboro girl and is well known and has the good wishes of her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Nice and daughter Ruby, and son, Robert, from Eudora, Kansas, spent last Tuesday night with Mrs. Sarah and Miss Gwen Loftin.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Loftin and three daughters, Iris, Treva and Virginia, returned last Wednesday from a two weeks' motor trip to the home of Mrs. Loftin's brother, Thomas Davis, and family at West Branch, Iowa. They report a very pleasant trip.

Miss Virginia Dorsett, of Asheboro, and Wallace Fields recently visited Miss Joetta Norman.

Mary Jane, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Doss, of Asheboro, spent last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Coltrane, and aunt, Mrs. P. S. Davis.

Mrs. Gladys Gray Davis and little daughter, Barbara, Joe, spent a few days last week with her aunts, Misses Maggie, Jane and Lola Fallenshine, on the Fairfield road.

Mrs. David Davis and little sons, Farlow and Jimmie, spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Farlow, near Sophia.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Milkkan are this week moving from Mrs. Eliza Williams' farm to the P. P. Fentress place, near Worthville.

Miss Mary Alice Davis visited Miss Dixie Helms in Randolph last week.

Feb 17, 1954

Ernest Farlow, 73, member of a pioneer High Point family, died Sunday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Long, in Charlotte. He had been an invalid for several years.

Mr. Farlow was a charter member of High Point Friends Meeting and he was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are three sisters, Miss Mamie Farlow, Mrs. Sue Boeckmann and Mrs. Fred Long, all of Charlotte.

The funeral will be held at 3 p. m. Tuesday with a graveside service at Marlboro Friends Church in Randolph county.

Ernest Farlow
Home in Charlotte

ERNEST FARLOW — P 9
Ernest Farlow, 73, member of a pioneer High Point family, died Sunday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Long, in Charlotte. He had been an invalid for several years.

Surviving are three sisters, Miss Mamie Farlow, Mrs. Sue Boeckmann and Mrs. Fred Long, all of Charlotte.

The funeral will be held at 3 p. m. Tuesday with a graveside service at Marlboro Friends Church in Randolph county.

-- "What Type Of People Would Resort To This" --

Historical Monument Desecrated

Vandalism Of Patriot's Graves Enrages County Citizens

By C. HENRY KING

"GRAVE - ROBBERS seek-ed the tomb of JAMES Ham Trogdon."

This was the lead phrase and consensus of hikers and horsemen returning from the wilderness gravesite of Randolph's early Man of Independence, in recent days.

A steady trickle of curio-braved the two-mile hike to the rugged west bank of Sandy Creek, north of Ramsour's water plant, after hearing of the tomb's desecration.

One of the county's "hallowed spots," the memorial was in memory of a beloved Revolutionary War figure who defied the Tories during their eighteenth century forays.

People in this area are incensed about the tomb's defacement and express outrage over the outright excavation of the site.

Questions are on the lip, everyone who speaks of the event: "Who and what type of people would resort to this sinister vandalism, and what, if anything, could they possibly hope to find?"

Indeed, after 182 years, what could one find in the sepulcher of a slain and ROBBED man?

Still, there is the gaping, four-foot deep hole left by persons unknown alongside the massive, upturned, 1000 pound concrete slab that casts an eerie shadow on the wooded creekbank.

THE DEATH of the Randolph patriot is traced to the SCENE OF VANDALISM — The overturned monument and balustrade which marked the gravesite of Revolutionary figure is clearly seen in this oblique view, while the mound of year 1783 when there was a real knock-down, drag-out type of drama enacted further down the creek.

Details are lacking, of course, but the raw story was that one William Trogdon attempted to save his mill from Tory pillage and then, against overwhelming numbers, lost both the mill and his life.

Patriot Trogdon was found and buried in a grave which was originally marked with native-stone uprights. About the turn of the century it was marked by someone who left their initials as G. H. P. (Believed to be Hugh Parks; a humanitarian and civic minded man of the section.)

The grave has always been well marked but seldom dirt in foreground is that which came from unearthing grave, resulting in four foot hole dug by unknown persons.

(—Story on page 1.)

Handwritten: 1963-don was his 3rd great-grandfather. In the record, he first found him in Orange county, organized. Then on the 1779
Tax List for Randolph county and in Randolph at the time of the Federal Census in 1790, and a number of times thereafter to the time of his death in 1805.

Handwritten: on westbank of the creek

DEDICATION MAY members of Hopewell church will dedicate handsome new church (above) at the annual ial service Sunday. May building was built and in a year and a half in leadership of the past
Charles Johnson (right)

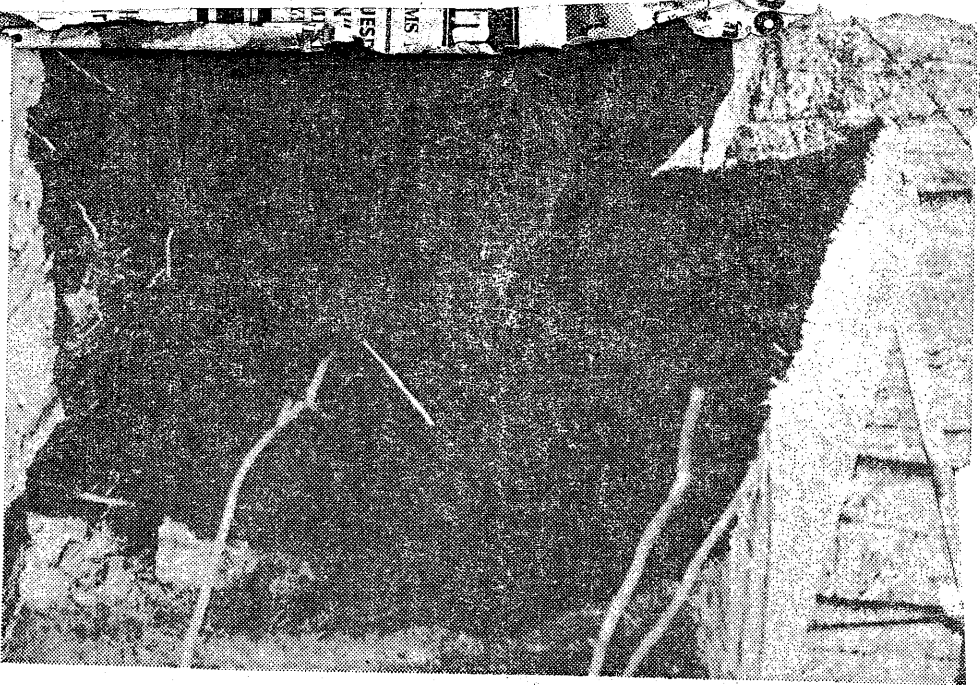

1930/1950

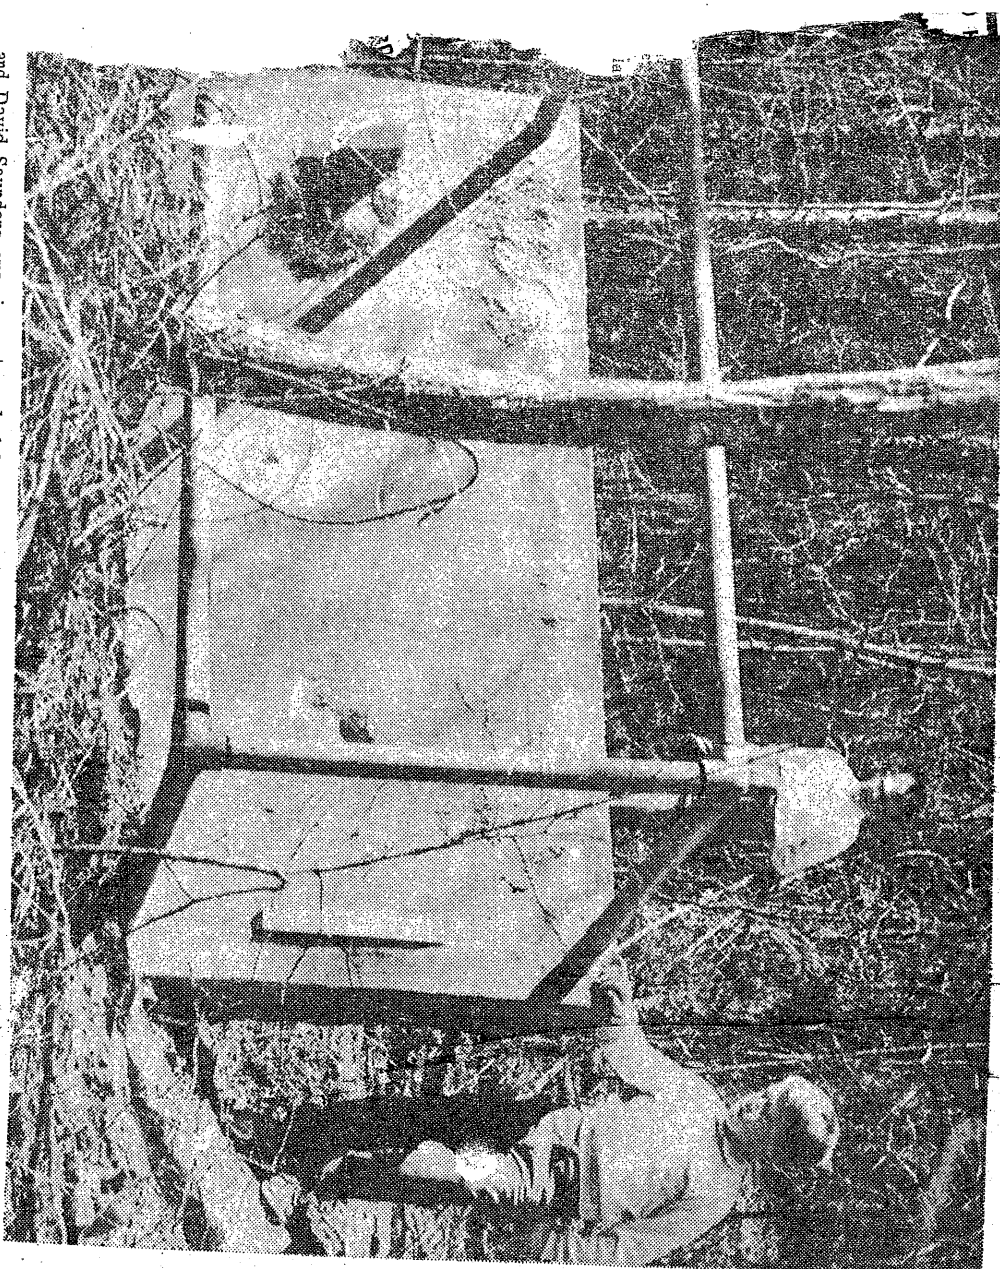

Did Someone Rob This Grave?

ORIGINAL MONUMENT — This grave, in the quiet forest along the banks of Sandy Creek, was found desecrated recently. The tomb was overturned and the site excavated by persons unknown. It marked the death spot of Revolutionary Patriot William Trogdon of Randolph County.

Samuel Saunders examines the four foot hole of grave-site of Patriot William Trogdon. Massive concrete slab is upturned at right and casts shadow in grave itself.

and David Saunders examine upturned slab of masonry and rock marked top give evidence which concrete before persons unknown decided concrete slab which probably weighs over 1000 pounds. Two large pines, size of tree in center, was kid nearby and thought to be the "prime movers" in entering tomb. Heads and footstones have been broken off (stubs visible) and could not be local.

Last Rites Mrs. E. R. Miller Held Sunday P.M.

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Royal Miller, 80, were held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Hopewell Methodist church with Rev. J. L. Love in charge. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Miller died Saturday afternoon in a convalescing home in Winston-Salem after declining health for four years. A native of Randolph county, she was a daughter of the late Robert L. and Nancy Elder Royal. She was a lifelong member of Hopewell church and had lived in Trinity all her life.

She is survived by three sons, Worth Miller and Reid Miller of Trinity and Coke Miller of High Point; four sisters, Mrs. L. H. Frazer and Mrs. Emma Welborn of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Arthur Jones, Jr. of James-town and Mrs. James Coole of High Point; one brother, E. L. Royal of High Point; and two grandchildren.

because it is in an area of Sandy Creek that has not heard the axe or plow in a many a year. Only a few of the more intrepid hikers and hunters ever penetrate the area because it is wild and overgrown.

In 1926, when the section was more accessible, W. F. Trogdon (now deceased) of North Wilkesboro, assumed that the unpublished notes of local historians and legends about the slain William Trogdon were referring to an ancestor of his whom he had been tracing, and he had the grave marked with a large concrete slab.

A steel balustrade and two tombstones completed the monument which was carved with the story of the Revolutionary figure, known locally. To this local lore, W. F. Trogdon added that the slain Trogdon was "the father of Ezekiel, Samuel, Solomon, John, and William Trogdon, Jr.; also of one daughter."

The error of attributing these children to the William Trogdon slain in 1783, was later noted by Raleigh attorney Thad S. Ferree, who had made a careful reading of the state records and noted that the William Trogdon with the above-mentioned children was still living on the fourth day of April, 1805.

Mr. Ferree had found proof of this statement in "The Record of Wills in Randolph County," Mr. Ferree's interest was sparked because this later day William Trog-

EXCEPT for the addition of the children's names, the story carried on the tombstones is essentially that handed down in this area since Revolutionary times.

The markings read: "In memory of William Trogdon, who was shot and killed here, at his mill, by the British Tory soldiers under Captain David Fanning, during the Revolutionary War. Mr. Trogdon advocated the American Independence; several of his sons being in the Revolutionary Army."

Inside face of headstone read: "The Tory soldier went from house to house killing those who favored the Independence. This William Trogdon was the original (an assumption of W. F. Trogdon) Trogdon settler in this county, from whom all other Trogdons descended.

The footstone was marked "W. M. T." on the inside face and "Erected by W. F. Trogdon, 1926" on the outside face.

Scratched in the concrete slab, apparently as an afterthought, is "W.M. Trogdon 1715 - 1783."

IN YEARS past a few half-baked students of the American Revolution have looked at the date and smirked; the year 1783 being well beyond the 1781 surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown and the departure of BRITISH troops from North Carolina.

They reckoned, however, without the notorious Col. Daniel Boone.

Although it is only about twenty miles long, the creek contains more interest per mile, perhaps, than most other streams in the state. The names of David Fanning, Herman Husband, Shubal Stearns, Samuel Walker and Andrew Hunter recall stirring deeds or unequalled accomplishments.

The Redman's name is connected with this water-course also, and therein lies a thread of mystery that may throw some light on the peopling of Trogdon's grave.

The pine forest above Trogdon's grave was once a field and those who tended it in years gone by say that there was a mention of an Indian grave in the vicinity. Perhaps those who opened Trogdon's tomb thought it was the Indian's grave which had been erroneously marked instead of the patriot's.

STILL, the senseless destruction of a county landmark to retrieve a few beads, broken potsherds, or arrowheads would not have been booty enough for the treasure-hunters of today. The stone monument of labor hewn and its uprooting is a massive and concrete violation of the past.

By a few people interested in history had knowledge of Trogdon's grave, fewer still knew of the events surrounding his name.

Some believe that the tomb is only an approximation of his burial place, but the unpublished record shows otherwise and the original, native stone markers can still be seen today, protruding from beneath the now upturned slab in which they were encased forty years ago.

Opposite the grave, on Sandy Creek's east shore, is an old mill race. It is partially filled with silt. It has always been assumed that this was Trogdon's mill site.

THE TOMB inscription seemed to authenticate this, but an interesting footnote appeared in a conversation with Cornelius Julian, for many years postmaster and local historian.

Mr. Julian had been born in 1871 and from his earliest years was interested in historical lore, and in youth and manhood he made copious notes from inquiries he made among the oldtimers of his own day.

Julian said it was handed down to him that Trogdon's mill was at the junction of Highway 22 and Sandy Creek. This would place it at the site of the Ramseur water plant, Julian added that when William Trogdon's mill was under Tory siege Trogdon realized his mill was unsharable so took to the wooded area northward. His strategy being to reach another mill, and help. His pursuers caught and disposed of him at the place where he is buried.

This sidelight was among the unpublished lore the late Mr. Julian had collected in regard to Sandy Creek and its bash which is steeped in much history.

Although it is only about twenty miles long, the creek contains more interest per mile, perhaps, than most other streams in the state. The names of David Fanning, Herman Husband, Shubal Stearns, Samuel Walker and Andrew Hunter recall stirring deeds or unequalled accomplishments.

The Redman's name is connected with this water-course also, and therein lies a thread of mystery that may throw some light on the peopling of Trogdon's grave.

The pine forest above Trogdon's grave was once a field and those who tended it in years gone by say that there was a mention of an Indian grave in the vicinity. Perhaps those who opened Trogdon's tomb thought it was the Indian's grave which had been erroneously marked instead of the patriot's.

STILL, the senseless destruction of a county landmark to retrieve a few beads, broken potsherds, or arrowheads would not have been booty enough for the treasure-hunters of today. The stone monument of labor hewn and its uprooting is a massive and concrete violation of the past.

By a few people interested in history had knowledge of Trogdon's grave, fewer still knew of the events surrounding his name.

Some believe that the tomb is only an approximation of his burial place, but the unpublished record shows otherwise and the original, native stone markers can still be seen today, protruding from beneath the now upturned slab in which they were encased forty years ago.

Opposite the grave, on Sandy Creek's east shore, is an old mill race. It is partially filled with silt. It has always been assumed that this was Trogdon's mill site.

THE TOMB inscription seemed to authenticate this, but an interesting footnote appeared in a conversation with Cornelius Julian, for many years postmaster and local historian.

Mr. Julian had been born in 1871 and from his earliest years was interested in historical lore, and in youth and manhood he made copious notes from inquiries he made among the oldtimers of his own day.

Julian said it was handed down to him that Trogdon's mill was at the junction of Highway 22 and Sandy Creek. This would place it at the site of the Ramseur water plant, Julian added that when William Trogdon's mill was under Tory siege Trogdon realized his mill was unsharable so took to the wooded area northward. His strategy being to reach another mill, and help. His pursuers caught and disposed of him at the place where he is buried.

This sidelight was among the unpublished lore the late Mr. Julian had collected in regard to Sandy Creek and its bash which is steeped in much history.

Although it is only about twenty miles long, the creek contains more interest per mile, perhaps, than most other streams in the state. The names of David Fanning, Herman Husband, Shubal Stearns, Samuel Walker and Andrew Hunter recall stirring deeds or unequalled accomplishments.

The Redman's name is connected with this water-course also, and therein lies a thread of mystery that may throw some light on the peopling of Trogdon's grave.

The pine forest above Trogdon's grave was once a field and those who tended it in years gone by say that there was a mention of an Indian grave in the vicinity. Perhaps those who opened Trogdon's tomb thought it was the Indian's grave which had been erroneously marked instead of the patriot's.

STILL, the senseless destruction of a county landmark to retrieve a few beads, broken potsherds, or arrowheads would not have been booty enough for the treasure-hunters of today. The stone monument of labor hewn and its uprooting is a massive and concrete violation of the past.

Annie Harlow Spencer, Saint Hill was 87 Feb 1 - 1963

By MRS. FLOYD COX
ASHEBORO, RT. 1 - Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. at Holy Spring Friends Meetinghouse for Lewis Hinshaw. Mr. Hinshaw would have been 90 years old in April. He was a lifelong resident of this community and a birthright member of Holy Spring meeting. Lewis led a long and active life in both church and community affairs, working quietly and with deep devotion for what he believed to be right.
He passed away Saturday morning, January 19, at the home of his daughter, Esther Allen, in Ashboro following several weeks of illness. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Burton Macon and one son Carl Hinshaw. Mrs. Macon and Mr. Hinshaw reside in the Holy Spring community.
There are also 14 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren, plus a host of friends and other relatives who will miss his quiet presence. The funeral services were conducted by Joseph Price of High Falls. Rev. Jack Caughron, pastor at Holy Spring, and Walter Macon. Women's Fellowship Meets.

W. Lewis Steed Dies Following Heart Attack

W. Lewis Steed, 68, resident of Route 1, Randleman, died in High Point Memorial Hospital yesterday at 8:05 p.m. He had been in declining health for two years and in a critical condition for almost two weeks.

He was born Jan. 12, 1890, in Randolph County, a son of the late Robert and Mary Ingram Steed. A dairy farmer, Mr. Steed had been a resident of Randolph since 1915. He was a member of Ebenezer Methodist Church, Oct. 24, 1915, he married the former Miss Lela Doster, who survives of the home.

Surviving in addition to his wife are two sons, C. L. Steed of Winston-Salem and Vance Steed of Route 1, Randleman; three daughters, Mrs. L. P. Gaffney of Route 1, Randleman, Mrs. Glenn Gay of Greensboro and Mrs. O'Neil Thilolson of Burlington; two brothers, Jim Steed of Route 3, High Point, and Ben Steed of Detroit, Mich.; two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Coltrane of Route 1, Sophia and Mrs. Cora Crawford of Charlotte; and nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. from Glenside Baptist Church by the pastor, the Rev. James Bostick, and the Rev. Frank Berry, pastor of Ebenezer Methodist Church. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

The body was to be taken to the home at 4 p.m. today where it will remain until 30 minutes prior to the services.

MRS. JAMES S. COX

Funeral services for Mrs. Olive Spencer Cox, 69, were held in the Sechrist chapel Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Cecil Hawthorne, minister of Central Friends Meeting, and Rev. W. G. McFarland, pastor of Main Street Methodist Church. Interment followed in the family plot in Oakwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Montrie Idol, Jr., Frank Wall, Herman H. White, Henry Year, Raymond Cox, Jr., and James C. Cox.
Mrs. Cox, a former resident of High Point and widow of the late Artemus H. Cox, died in a Wilmington hospital Tuesday evening at 8:45 o'clock. She had been seriously ill for three days but death was unexpected. She had been making her home in Wilmington for the past six years.

Bulla Family Seeking Restoration Of Old Cemetery At Back Creek

By RALPH L. BULLA

Members of the Bulla family are working on a project to restore the old Bulla cemetery in Back Creek Township at which the first Bulla to come to this part of the country is buried.

Letters were sent recently to all members of the Bulla family soliciting funds to finance this project which has long been discussed by family members.

In the cemetery is the grave of Thomas Bulla who came from Chester County, Pa. to form the beginning of the Bulla family in this area of the United States. His death occurred in the year 1809.

Most of his family, including his wife Esther Weddis Bulla, moved to Indiana either before or after his death. However, one of his sons, Daniel Bulla, remained in this vicinity to become the more immediate ancestor of the Randolph County Bullas.

Eleven children were born to Daniel Bulla and his wife, Sally Cunningham Bulla, and many Randolph County residents are the immediate descendants of these eleven sons and daughters of Daniel and Sally Cunningham Bulla.

These eleven children were Charisa Bulla Farlow, Calvin Bulla, Adelia Bulla Farlow, Arche Castlereagh Bulla, Daniel Bulla, Xantippe Bulla Harlan, Alexander Bulla, Alfred Bulla, Chesterfield Bulla, and James Bulla and his twin sister Sarah Bulla Redding.

The Bulla cemetery, situated on the east side of Back Creek and across from the old Bulla homestead located on the west side of this creek, contains, in addition to the graves of Thomas Bulla, also the graves of Calvin Bulla and Alfred Bulla and members of their families.

There are also several unmarked graves in the cemetery and along with its restoration, an effort will be made to identify these graves as belonging to other members of the above listed families.

Provision for land for the Bulla cemetery was made in the will of George E. Bulla, son of Alfred Bulla, dated January 26, 1932 before his death the following September.

After bequeathing "the home place" to his brother, T. V. Bulla, another section of the will of George E. Bulla read as follows: "I give, devise and bequeath unto Frank Bulla, Arch Bulla and Callie Newby, my brothers and sister, all of that certain tract or parcel of land containing thirty - Two (32) acres, said tract of land lying on the East Side of the waters of Back Creek in Back Creek Township, Randolph County, North Carolina, save and except about One (1) acre, upon which is now located the Bulla Family Burial Grounds, said acre of land to be and remain forever as a Burial Cemetery."

Another sentence in the will, pertaining to the cemetery read "it being my wish and desire

PLAN RESTORATION OF CEMETERY—Descendants of two of the men buried in the old Bulla cemetery in Back Creek Township stand behind the tombstone of Thomas Bulla, first member of the family to come to this part of the United States, and survey the site at which a restoration of the old cemetery is planned. Left to right are shown Mrs. A. C. (Callie) Bulla, Mrs. Edith Bulla Cranford, Mrs. Stanton Poole, Tommy Bulla, Miss Kate Bulla and Don Bulla. Mrs. A. C. Bulla is a daughter-in-law of Alfred Bulla who is buried in the cemetery.

But it was only recently that the letters soliciting the funds for the purpose were sent out by Ralph L. Bulla and Miss Edith Welborn, descendants of Alfred Bulla who is buried in the cemetery.

The letters were signed by Ralph Bulla and it is to him that contributions toward the restoration are to be sent. An account, under the name of "Bulla Cemetery Fund" has been established at one of the local banks.

Members of the family making contributions thus far are Miss Lillie Bulla and Mrs. Lena Cole, Charlotte; Mrs. A. C. Bulla and Paul Bulla, High Point; Claude and Millie Bulla Tedder, Guilford College; Miss Mary Welborn and Bainford Bulla, Greensboro; Kenneth Bulla, Route 2, Asheboro; Mrs. Nellie Perree, J. D. Brookshire, Claude G. Brookshire, and Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Brookshire, Randleman; Charles Bulla, Pittsborough, Pa.; Judge J. B. Craven, Morganton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bulla, Mrs. A. C. (Callie) Bulla, Mrs. Charles Kesler, Miss Kate Bulla, Earl Bulla, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W.

By RALPH L. BULLA

Mrs. Sarah Jane Underwood Pritchard, who was 99 years of age, was laid to a well deserved rest Tuesday afternoon in the cemetery of the Neighbors Grove Wesleyan Methodist church.

She died in her sleep in the early hours of the morning Monday at the home of her daughter in Archdale and at the time of her death was the oldest known living person in Randolph county.

A native of Randolph county she was born on June 30, 1866 not too far from the place where she was buried, in the vicinity northeast of what is now Randolph Memorial Park. Her parents were Samuel and Martha Odell Underwood.

She was buried beside of her husband, William Alexander Pritchard, who died on January 20, 1937 at the age of 80 years. In attendance at the funeral rites in her memory was her 97-year-old brother-in-law, C. A. Vonannon, former North Ashboro resident who now lives at The Methodist Home in Charlotte. Mr. Vonannon married Mrs. Pritchard's younger sister, Martha Luzina Underwood.

Sick, blind and helpless, Mrs. Pritchard had no desire to live any longer. She told this correspondent last summer at the time of her 99th birthday: "I don't want to live to be hundred." She also made this prediction: "I won't go another year."

However, despite her sickness and suffering, she maintained her memory and keenness of mind until the very end.

A few days before her death she expressed the desire that she would go to sleep and not awaken. The last wish of this woman who came close to the century mark was granted as she died easily and without any notice shortly past the midnight hour. Thus it was with her life, she had been at the midnight hour for many years.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. EVELAR JANETTE PRITCHARD KEERANS (Keerans), who lives on the Alridge Road in Archdale, and a son, H. A. Pritchard of Bisbee. Also surviving are four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Keerans had taken care of her mother for 15 years and had rendered loyal and devoted service in this respect. The daughter herself will be 78 years of age on November 4 of this year.

Sarah Jane Underwood and William Alexander Pritchard were married on June 20, 1880 and following their marriage they lived for a brief period with Mr. Pritchard's parents, Benoni and Temperance Cross Pritchard, who lived just beyond the four mile bridge between Asheboro and Randleman. Afterwards, they lived near Central Falls, below Asheboro, near Seagrave, in Moore county and finally in Bisbee where Mr. Pritchard died.

October 15, 1955

But for the final resting place for both Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard, they were brought back to the community in which they were born and reared, to be buried among the friends and kinsmen of their childhood.

Officiating ministers for the funeral service of Mrs. Pritchard at the Neighbors Grove church Tuesday afternoon were Rev. Clyde Auman, associate pastor of Centenary Methodist church in Winston-Salem, a long time friend of the family, Rev. George Hunter, a Presbyterian minister in Archdale, and Rev. Paul E. Alford, pastor of the Neighbors Grove church. The church choir, under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Pritchard, sang "Pack of Ages" and "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms."

Bulla who is buried in the cemetery while Mrs. Cranford is a granddaughter and Mrs. Poole and Don Bulla are great-grandchildren of Alfred Bulla. Miss Kate Bulla is a granddaughter of Calvin Bulla, also buried in the cemetery while Tommy Bulla is a great-grandson of Calvin Bulla. Tommy Bulla is also standing directly behind the tombstone of the man whose name he bears, the first Bulla, of whom he is a great-great-great-great-grandson.

that the Bulla Family Burial Grounds remain undisturbed and at the disposal of any of our relatives for burial purposes." Announcement of plans to restore the old cemetery was made last October at the annual reunion of the Bulla, Farlow, and Millikan families.

But it was only recently that the letters soliciting the funds for the purpose were sent out by Ralph L. Bulla and Miss Edith Welborn, descendants of Alfred Bulla who is buried in the cemetery.

The letters were signed by Ralph Bulla and it is to him that contributions toward the restoration are to be sent.

An account, under the name of "Bulla Cemetery Fund" has been established at one of the local banks. Members of the family making contributions thus far are Miss Lillie Bulla and Mrs. Lena Cole, Charlotte; Mrs. A. C. Bulla and Paul Bulla, High Point; Claude and Millie Bulla Tedder, Guilford College; Miss Mary Welborn and Bainford Bulla, Greensboro; Kenneth Bulla, Route 2, Asheboro; Mrs. Nellie Perree, J. D. Brookshire, Claude G. Brookshire, and Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Brookshire, Randleman; Charles Bulla, Pittsborough, Pa.; Judge J. B. Craven, Morganton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bulla, Mrs. A. C. (Callie) Bulla, Mrs. Charles Kesler, Miss Kate Bulla, Earl Bulla, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W.

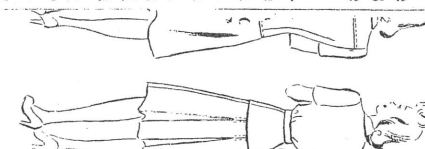

Mrs. Hill was born in Union township near Calhoun's Chapel, which was named for her people and was located about three miles from the High Pine church. She was not quite 16 years of age at the time of her marriage and in discussing this matter, she quickly added in an aside, "I'm ashamed of it."

Mr. Hill was working at a saw mill in the vicinity in which Mrs. Hill lived when the young couple became acquainted, courted and married. They were married at the home of John Welch by Squire Milton Cox, grandfather of Roy Cox, Editor and Publisher of The Courier-Tribune.

Mrs. Hill said that Roy Cox's father, Sidney Cox, and John Slack followed them to the Welch home on horseback and therefore were witnesses to the wedding.

Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Hill and they are Mrs. Aster (Clora) Cagle, of Route 3, Asheboro, Alvin Hill, of Route 3, High Point, and Delbert Hill, of Route 3, Asheboro. There are several grandchildren and great-grandchildren

2834

L. P. Hayeses Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

10 The Courier - Tribune, Thursday, October 3, 1957

Left Randolph 56 Years Ago . . .

Returning Texan Says Money Cannot Buy Joy Of Reunion

By KATH L. BULLA

An 81-year-old resident of Beaumont, Texas, who left the rocky soil of Back Creek township in Randolph county nearly 56 years ago, has returned to his native Randolph county to visit relatives and to attend the annual reunion of his family.

"No money could buy the joy I get in coming back," was the happy expression of Benjamin Elwood (Bennie) Millikan, who arrived at the home of his brother, Troy W. Millikan, on Sophia, Route 1. He was accompanied by his wife, and they will remain until the annual reunion meeting of the Bulla, Farlow, and Millikan families at New Market school before returning to their Beaumont, Texas, home.

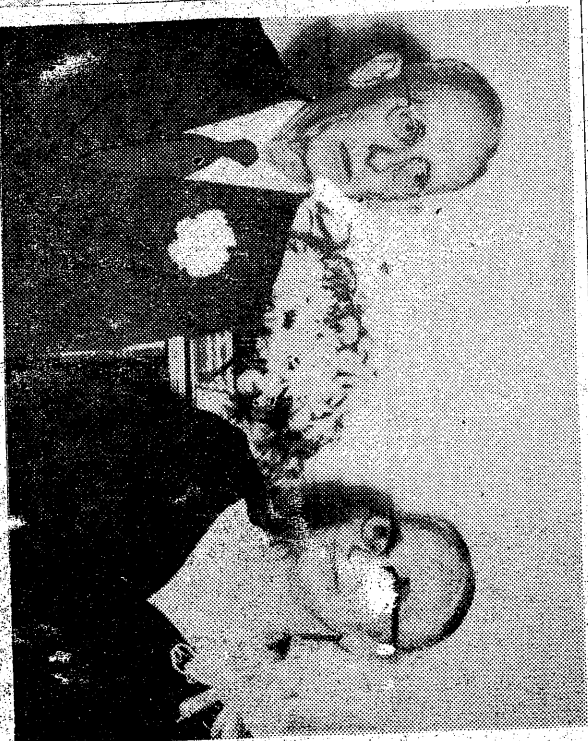

NOW IS RETIRED

Mr. Millikan retired in 1952 after almost 40 years of service with Gulf States Utilities Co., and Gulf States former parent company Stone and Webster. He is the son of Azel Millikan and Ann Eliza Spencer Millikan, and he was born July 13, 1876, at the homestead, at which his brother, Troy W. Millikan, still resides.

The Millikan farm is now fertile, prosperous, and is supporting a large dairy but Bennie Millikan says it was hard and rocky when he filled the land and cultivated the soil in the days of his youth before the turn of the century.

This youthful looking octogenarian was recently the subject of a feature article in The Beaumont Texas Journal, which was entitled "Hard Work Keeps Retiree Healthy." The article dealt with the gardening activities of Mr. Millikan, with emphasis on both vegetable and flower gardening.

HAPPIEST IN 2 STATES
Contentment and hard w

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS—Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hayes celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Sunday, April 4 at their home on Sophia, rd., 1

Page Center Photo

that he figured he was "well paid for it."

A couple of observations of a half century ago is interesting in view of present day wages and prices.

Mr. Hayes started to work for 40 cents a day, later being raised to 60 cents, and Mrs. Hayes paid $5 a month for room and board when they were both working at Franklinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes have spent their entire lives in Randolph county, with the exception of two years spent in Davidson county. They are presently members of Sophia Christian Congregational church.

Their ten children are Roy E. Hayes, Mrs. Felice Hayes Underwood, Denver F. Hayes and Cleo Hayes, of Randleman, route 2, Kennt K. Hayes, Sophia, route 1, John Charles Hayes, Sophia, and Stacy Hayes, Floyd L. Hayes and Misses Orie Hayes and Doris Lee Hayes of the home.

Five of their seven sons served in the military forces during World War II.

It would be fabricating to say that the golden wedding anniversary story of Lewis and "Lou" Hayes is one mellow with age, reminiscence and inactivity. Because they are vigorous in both body and mind.

Their anniversary story is not one of a couple who have lived their lives and are now reaching the end of life's journey. Instead, it is a story of a couple who are currently living.

He borrowed the money the license from his brother law, W. P. Moon, and when harvest time came around, bound wheat for three days pay him back.

Mr. Hayes said he was in work but chuckled and said I

SHARON LYNN FARLOW
Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Farlow of birth of a daughter, Sharon Lynn, on Sept. 23 at High Point Memorial Hospital.

"HAPPIEST MAN IN TWO STATES"
Benjamin Elwood (Bennie) Millikan have kept this Randolph native in good condition, both physical and mental. Mr. Millikan himself says that he is the happiest man in Texas and North Carolina. He and his wife live on pension from his firm added to their social security payments and they have their flowers.

He stayed at home and worked on the farm while his younger twin brothers, Troy and Gurney, attended Guilford College, he taught the Caraway school for half of a term, which was a month and a half, and worked as a general clerk at a store in Naomi Falls, which was at that time a part of Randleman.

McKINLEY INAUGURATION

He has never forgotten an experience during his youth and that was his trip to Washington, D. C., for the inauguration of William McKinley as President of the United States on March 4, 1897. He went with his older brother, Joe Millikan, who was quite a politician and whom Mr. Millikan termed as a "rank Republican." While in Washington, Mr. Millikan remembers that they spent some time in the company of Sheriff Hendricks, who was also from Randolph County, and he says that during the inaugural address he had a seat up near the front and close to President McKinley.

It was just before Christmas in the year 1901 that Mr. Millikan left the home into which he had grown into young manhood to go to Savannah, Ga., to live with his sister, Armanda (Mandy) Millikan Tussey, and to take a job with the Central of Georgia Railway Co., a job which was procured through his brother-in-law, Jake Tussey, also a railroad man. He was started off at the rate of $50 a month, $30 more than he had been making, and he said that he had so much money that he "didn't know what to do with it."

After several years with the railroads, he transferred to Southern Electric and Power Co., and he remained with the utilities until his retirement in 1942. However, in 1918 his company sent him to Pensacola, Fla., where he remained until 1925 when he was transferred to Beaumont, Texas.

His wife is from Beaumont and it is there that Bennie Millikan will live out his days and it is there that he will have his final resting place. But a portion of the great heritage of this adopted son of Texas remains in the red soil of the land which bore him and it is here that he finds happiness in his return visits.

Car Wrecks; Three People Hospitalized

1966
Dunbar Feb 5

RANDEMAN — Three persons were admitted to High Point Memorial Hospital yesterday after the state-owned station wagon in which they were riding wrecked on U. S. highway 311, near Sophia.

Highway patrolman W. M. Swindell listed the injured as Jenny Marie Jones, driver of a late model station wagon owned by Pembroke State College; and two passengers, Maggerie Kanale, who had several teeth knocked out, and Linda Daniels, who suffered fractures of both legs. The driver first reported that she was not injured, but she later entered the hospital. Swindell said that the station wagon was traveling south and attempted to pass another vehicle, also owned by Pembroke State College. When the first vehicle started to turn back into the right lane, the right tire went flat and the vehicle struck a concrete bridge abutment.

The other college-owned vehicle was not involved in the accident. Possibly no one would have been injured had they had their seat belts fastened, Swindell stated.

No charges will be filed in the accident.

Damages to the station wagon were estimated at $500.

Earlier Sunday, Mrs. Lily Collins Brown of Rt. 2, Trinity, was charged with failing to yield the right-of-way. Officers said that she pulled out into U. S. 311, near Sophia, and to avoid hitting her a 1963 model car ran off the road, hit a ditch and overturned. Swindell said that driver of the car which overturned was Grady Bryant Eaton of Rt. 3, Carthage. He escaped injury but his car suffered some $300 in damage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, Jr., and son, Steven of Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Wade L. Davis of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Davis and children, Sammy Laura and Tim of P.O. A. Noke, Va., spent Christmas with their mother, Luna P. Davis and their brother, Austin Davis and family. Nov 1968

On Monday night before Christmas the children, in-laws and grandchildren of Zoradz Lotfin gathered at the home of Ornlie and Frances Lotfin Rich at Sophia for their Christmas supper party.

The family of Walter Farlow gathered at the home of a son and daughter-in-law, Stanley and Faidie Farlow Sunday for a family get-together dinner. Those present were Raymond Farlow and family, Joe Gertrude and family, Roy and Gertrude Farlow, Willard and Martha Eunice Farlow Hodgkin and family.

James and F. Annes Farlow and sons, Tony, Ted and Richard, of Bahama spent Monday with Cleo and Floyd Steed, Sherrill and Ken. Other dinner guests were Carl and Cora Beeson, Howard and Bea Beeson and children, W. S. and Shirley, Gwen Farlow and Elmer Beeson. Among the Christmas visitors in the Austin Davis' home were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Temple of Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs. John Myrick of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Slink and sons, Jerry and Danny, Clyde Lawrin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGulinh of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hendricks of Salisbury, Lt. J. W. McGulinh, Jr. of Dobbin's Air Base

New Market Has Habit Of Winning

By DON WRENN
Enterprise Staff Writer

NEW MARKET — Desire is possibly the strongest motive action at the New Market Community Center Assn. which has received recognition both from county and area development associations.

The New Market community development group has won first place in Randolph County for the past three years and has finished second the same number of years in area competition in some eight counties.

The New Market group can boast of one of the finest community buildings to be found anywhere and can point with much pride to the beginning and completion of programs which have created for both the young, not so young, and all other something to do and a place to do it in, and which have brought one Randolph community closer together.

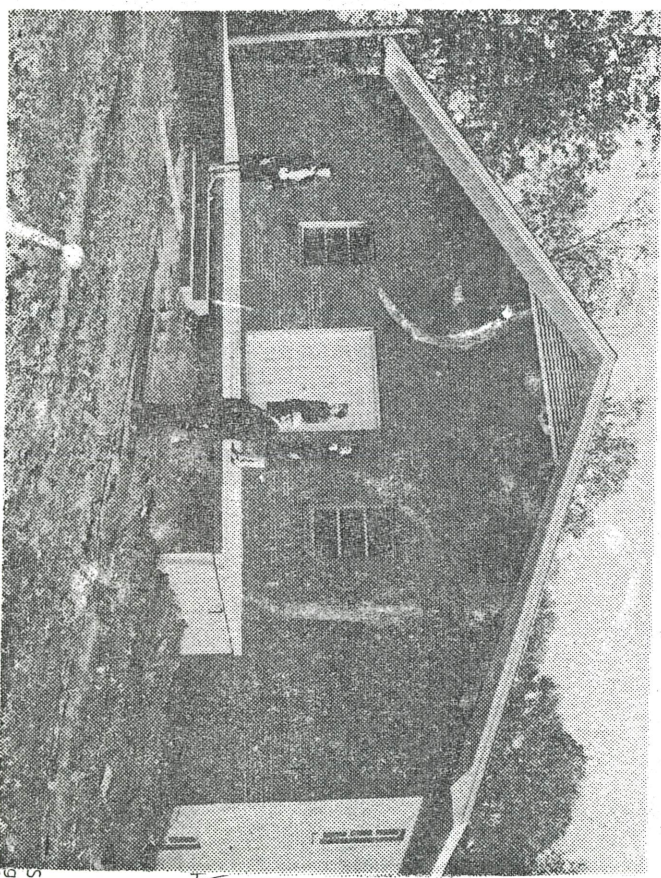

Possibly the first desire of the originators of the community center in New Market was to do something for the young people. This has been accomplished to a degree by the organizing of Little League baseball teams and construction of one of the finest fields on which to play, the forming of Girl Scout troops, and the building of a structure where youngsters can dance or entertain themselves without leaving the area.

A second desire involving the New Market community association, development must have been to do something for the young adult, those in-between, and the senior citizen, and this has been done in part by the staging of square dances at the new center and the planning of programs to hold the attention

A third desire for this outstanding community group would be the recognition that their community is growing and developing rapidly and plans must be made for the future.

THIS THIRD DESIRE can well be recognized in the programs scheduled for this year, including a look into the need for zoning in the area; conservation of natural resources, including special attention to seeing a good supply of clean water will be available; better education for not only the young, but those who haven't had time to complete one before; public speaking so their citizens can better express themselves before public gatherings; and even defensive driving.

(See NEW on Page 2-D)

THE new Market Community Center

FROM PAGE 1-D

Who gets the credit for the New Market Community Center Assn. and its achievements to date?

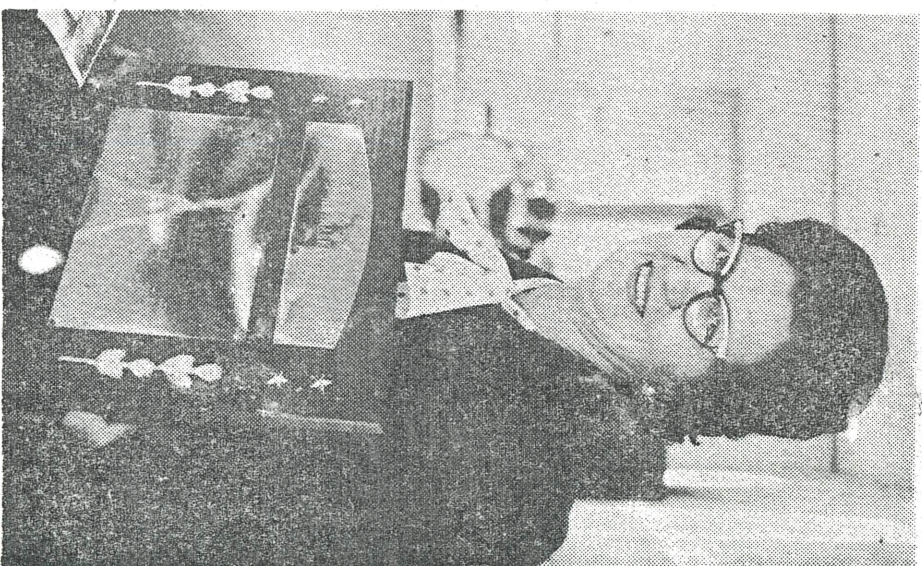

Possibly the group that has had a lot to do with planning and guiding is the New Market Grange, the community's oldest organization in continuous activity since 1935.

The women of the New Market Home Demonstration Club have drawn the burden of looking the numerous supporters from which have come funds to build and to furnish the new center. They have also provided hard working candidates for community of Hears under whose guidance the organization has flourished.

ments and actions of the New Market Civitan Club would be to create long list of achievements, almost unbelievable when completed.

Much of the Civitan's attention has focused on the need of the community's youth attending to this interest in the best facilities for Little League competition, including a well-lighted field for night contests.

Other important aids to the community development association have come from the numerous sup-churches in the area, including three Protestant churches, and four Friends Meetings. Again repetition arises in the leadership in the development of comes for the development of club provided leaders, but also have the Civitan's, the Grange, the churches and the area in general.

Mrs. Colbert Beeson With First Place Award
(Staff Photo by Don Wrenn)

Of course the new building is also available, not only to the school and the association's own members, but to any group or anyone else in the area who need it.

THE NEW MARKET Community Center moved towards becoming a reality on March 12, 1964 when a group of local citizens met to discuss the Market School and decided to organize. They drew up a charter, elected officers and then proceeded to plan and develop. Their success is mirrored on a wall of the building where hangs a number of trophies, signifying their winning of three county first place awards, and three area second place awards for their achievements to date.

The founders did not limit membership to those in the immediate area, but opened the welcome to all those in the township who desired to join. Today some 300 families in the section can take pride in helping in some way with the development of the association.

The original officers elected in 1964 who still hold office are Mrs. Colbert Beeson, president; Martin Overton, vice president; Mrs. Said Brown, historian; and Mrs. Emily Pugh, secretary. Mrs. Edith Davis is the treasurer. She replaced Carr V. Redding who recently resigned.

Directors are R. S. Davis, Redding, R. E. Brown, Howard Beeson, Joe Ridge, Leo Wyrick, Stanley Farlow, Clyde Spencer and Exie Hall.

The 44 feet by 88 feet building, which has a full basement, cost an estimated $30,000. Since it is not completed, it remains a major project for the association.

While many have worked and helped to shape the community organization, members are especially appreciative of the efforts of Dew Smith, Branson Davis and Colbert Beeson. And Harvey Adams of Level Cross who gave advice in building construction.

But as Branson Davis himself notes, "It would be hard to point out any one individual who has done any more than anyone else for this project because so many have worked so hard for it, and they all deserve credit."

The residents in New Market have a feeling of achievement and closeness because they have worked together to see mutual desires come true.

JULIUS FARLOW
Succumbs In Greensboro

GREENSBORO — The funeral for Julius Branson Farlow, 81, of 911 Gregory St., who died yesterday, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Hanes - Imbrey Chapel. The Rev. Robert I. McChesney, pastor of the First Pilgrim Church, of which Farlow was a member, and the Rev. William B. Bedford of the Gospel Tabernacle will officiate.

Burial will be in Marlboro Friends Church Cemetery in Randolph County. The body will be taken to the residence at 9 a.m. Friday and remain there until one hour before the service.

Farlow, in declining health for several years, had been a patient in Wesley Long Hospital for two weeks before his death.

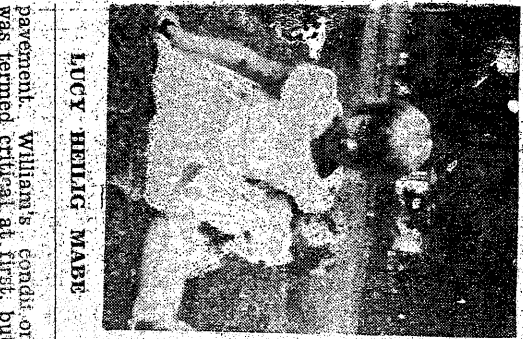

He was a native of Randolph County and moved to Greensboro in 1902. He attended a carpenter school in Greensboro. Surviving are his wife, the former Cora Clayton; two sons, David L. Farlow of Greensboro and Joseph N. Farlow, Presbyterian missionary on Formosa; one daughter, Mrs. W. M. Hensley of Johnson City, Tenn.; two sisters, Mrs. Rachel Taylor of High Point and Mrs. Sybil White of Sophia; two brothers, William Farlow of High Point and Harvey Farlow of Trinity; and three grandchildren.

School Girl, 6, Killed By Truck; Brother Injured

Lineman Hurt By High Voltage After Tragedy

Asheboro's second traffic death of the year, and the city's second traffic death since June 1948, occurred at 3:23 p.m. Friday afternoon after a 6-year-old school girl was struck by a pickup truck, dying instantly.

The victim was identified as Lucy Heilig Mabe, 9 Foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Mabe of North Elm street.

LUCY HEILIG MABE

Investigating police officers said the girl and her 9-year-old brother, William, had apparently walked for several minutes across traffic-filled East Sallsbury street, at the Sallsbury-Elm intersection, just before the accident took place.

Then, the investigation indicates, as James Marion Green, 52 of Route One, Ramsour, approached driving toward the center of town, the children started from behind an east-bound vehicle and ran into the path of Green's oncoming truck, which struck the girl.

Lucy it was indicated, was thrown into her brother, knock Green swerved his truck to the right, apparently to avoid running over the prostrate children, and crashed into a utility pole, snapping it in two places.

Sophia, Rt. 1 News

Sophia, Rt. 1, Oct. 22—Sorry to note that Mary Sadie and Marvin Osborne have not been very well for sometime.

Arlow Nance, who has been ill several months, is not improving.

Pearl Davis, who has been in declining health for sometime, is slowly improving.

D. V. Davis, who has been confined to his home for several months, is still not improving.

We also regret that Annie Farlow Spencer, who has been confined several months, remains somewhat unchanged.

She is still not able to talk very much, and is at home.

Marboro Missionary Woman's Society met at Haisie Beeson's recently to make quilts to send over as Friends Missionary work.

The children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters of Dallas and Ethel Farlow met at their home last Sunday to celebrate the birthday of Dallas with a picnic dinner. A good crowd attended.

Congratulations to Ralph Bulla and all of those who assisted him in making the Bulla, Farlow, and Low, Milkmaid, and other successes this year. It really seemed the best ever, Ralph, and thank you for the good write-up in the Courier-Tribune.

Ethel Beeson and Irene Peace are attending the United Society of Friends Woman's Conference this week at Wilmington, Ohio. They are representing Marlboro and Poplar Ridge.

Oswald and Rosa Irwin of Phoenix, Va., recently spent a few days at H. A. Brown's, and the Irwins were good friends at North East, Md., when they were young. They had not seen each other in over forty years.

Sorry to note that Marjorie Farlow of this community has a very sick mother, Nancy Cannon, of Asheboro.

May Farlow and son, McDuffy, and Zorodo Leffin were visiting around Asheville the past week-end.

William's condition was termed critical at first, but reports today indicate that he is recovering satisfactorily.

Gravel was indicated on a charge of involuntary manslaughter officers said, and was freed under $1,000 bond Friday night.

An aftermath of four hours later, occurred about four hours later, as Linemen of the Carolina Power and Light Company's construction crew labored to reconstruct the street lighting.

A Lee street man, Raymond Collins, about 38, was severely shocked by a high voltage current when he came into contact with a live wire, and required hospitalization for treatment of the electric burns and shock he sustained.

Collins' condition was also reported as "satisfactory."

School Reunion Is Well-Attended; Friends Conference Is Held Sat.

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

SOPHIA, Route 1—Last Sunday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock was a most happy occasion in the basement of Marlboro Friends Meetinghouse.

There were 67 students of the old Marlboro School of 1911 the year Harris Johnson and Ida Ridge Parker taught, met together in a reunion.

Through the weather was quite chilly and rainy outside, the inside held many happy school-mates with their much loved teachers again after 49 years.

Many live throughout this community, others some distance away and eight of the number have passed on which gave us a very sad feeling, still others who could not attend.

When all had greeted each other, Harvey Farlow, student, called the meeting to order and introduced Marlboro pastor, Bob Medford who read scripture and extended a welcome to the group.

This was followed by prayer. Harris addressed the group with some very good thoughts of what this school had meant to him. Ida also expressed her mind on the school and her home community, as this was her old home school and church.

A number of the students also gave interesting talks. Then Harris called the roll as in school with each one present responding "present" and standing all together. Each teacher was presented with a nicely framed picture of the 1911 school group.

Each was a gift from the group. Each was a gift from the group. Each was a gift from the group.

Mrs. Alice Spencer Davis, 87, widow of Leander Davis of High Point fell at her home and is a patient in High Point Hospital and is right ill. Wednesday report was that she seems a little more alert to notice things more but general health is not improved.

Mrs. Maggie Essie Davis is a patient in High Point Hospital. Mrs. Carl White has been and is yet seriously ill after pneumonia in High Point Hospital. Wednesday morning report was that she is nothing things a little better.

Their home is near Fairview Service Station but both were raised near Glenola and are known by Ralph and Daffie D. Skeen and two children of near Archdale D. Farlow Sunday.

Mrs. Davis Cashatt, president of Farlow Davis seems to be having a night bad case of flu at the present.

Sophia, Rt. 1, Nov. 2—Muriel L. Farow was hostess to the United Society of Women of Marlboro Friends Meeting Thursday afternoon at her home. The meeting was called to order by Ethel Beeson, the president. The devotional was given by Dora Adams. The program leader was Nora Farlow and the topic for this month was "Follow Me Through a Better World."

The project for this month is collecting for the needy. Muriel served delicious refreshments to the members.

Sympathy is extended to the relatives of Joseph C. Millikan, 81, whose funeral was conducted at Trinity Baptist church Thursday at 11 a.m. by the pastor, J. C. Gatewood. Burial was in Marlboro cemetery. His wife was formerly Josephine Davis. Mr. Millikan was well known and was section foreman with the Southern Railway for 30 years. His home was on route 2, Trinity.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Annie Beeson Marsh. Those funeral was held at Marlboro Meeting House Saturday at 2 p.m. Burial was in the church cemetery. Annie was well known and was section foreman with the Southern Railway for 30 years. Her home was on route 2, Trinity.

Funleigh and Lillie Wall have been sick with flu but able to be out now. They enjoyed having some old friends of theirs while living in Philadelphia, Pa., to visit them last Monday.

Try Courier-Tribune Ads for best results.

School Reunion Is Well-Attended; Friends Conference Is Held Sat.

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

everyone said that it had really been a great pleasure to meet on this way on such a happy occasion and it just had to be held again next year. Other places represented were Archdale, High Point, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Kinston, Salisbury, Asheboro, Seagrove, Sallsbury and Guilford.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE The Women's Missionary State Conference was held at the New Friends Meetinghouse in Asheboro last Saturday. It began at 10 o'clock with a business session presided over by the state president, Ruth Hockett. About 250 were present and 80 out of 61 societies were represented. At noon a delicious lunch was served and then browsing and fellowship was enjoyed. In the afternoon there was a panel discussion. The various secretaries were asked questions from the audience and they replied.

Then Asheboro Young Women had a play entitled "Guests For Lunch." Alean Plutz of Spring Garden Friends Meeting, Greensboro, sang a solo which was followed by a short silent prayer. We thought the 11 o'clock message given by Clara Weaver teacher, in Girls School in Kinston, East Africa, was most interesting. She told so much of the life and ways of the natives there.

MEMORIAL DAY This Sunday will be memorial day at the Marlboro Friends Meetinghouse. Morning worship will be as usual, picnic dinner at noon, and fellowship period in the afternoon will be the memorial service. The Rev. Harvey Haggel, pastor of Elm Street Baptist church, is officiating. Marlboro is an old town.

SOPHIA, Rt. 1, Jan. 2—Arthur and Ruth Brown entertained the adult class of Marlboro home Saturday night. The main event of the evening was the Bible quiz which the class teacher, Nora Farlow, was the leader. Later the guests were invited to a table of dainty refreshments and hot coffee. It was a most enjoyable occasion with about 20 being present. Grace Bronson of Florence, S. C., sister of Ruth was a visitor.

Jane Davis entertained a number of her classmates overnight recently. Games and record playing were enjoyed. Her mother, Faye Davis, served a delicious breakfast to the group next morning. Those present were Lynda Owens, Ann Daniels, Betty Jo McCollum, Sheila McCaskill, Joyce Gilmore, Becky Farlow, Carolyn Mead, Ida Jean Johnson and Linda Farlow.

On Sunday night before Christmas the pastor, Paul Luckwell and quite a number of young people of Archdale M. E. church sang Christmas carols at Anna Davis' home.

A Christmas Eve supper party was given by the family of Carl and Cora Yonkers at their home which was very enjoyable. Many gifts were distributed by Howard and Ida Beeson and children, W. S. Id. Shibley, Cleo and Eloyal Watson Steed and two sons, Sherrill, Ken and Odell Beeson, Gwen Farlow and Emer Beeson.

Funleigh and Lillie Wall have been sick with flu but able to be out now. They enjoyed having some old friends of theirs while living in Philadelphia, Pa., to visit them last Monday.

Try Courier-Tribune Ads for best results.

School Reunion Is Well-Attended; Friends Conference Is Held Sat.

Sophia, Rt. 1, News Items

established church and noted for its many homecoming friends on this special day and we are hoping there will be many present this time. Lots of visitors usually come and are welcome. It is a real church homecoming.

PERSONALS Arthur and Ora Loftin Farlow of Bahama spent last Sunday in the community and attended the 1911 School reunion at Marlboro. They are both Marlboro folks and she was a student at that time.

Samuel and Ida Ridge Parker of Kinston spent the weekend at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, W. B. and Verla Ridge. They all attended the school reunion at Marlboro. Well, we do feel like congratulations are in order for one of this community's boys and his new bride. They are Raphael Farlow of here and Geraldine Andrews of Snow Camp. They were very quietly married in the home of the bride's sister last Wednesday night at 7:30 by the Rev. Virgil Pike. They left on a honeymoon trip to Williamsburg, Va. Upon their return, Raphael will return back to his army duty at Fort Belvoir, Va., and his bride will return to her nursing at High Point Memorial Hospital. Raphael was raised here and is the son of Mrs. Blanche Ward Farlow and the late Lewis Farlow.

Several of the community men met together at the New Market School cafeteria last Saturday night and enjoyed a delicious supper prepared by the Friends' Church. The amount of about $60 will be used for building fund of Sunday School room over the church basement, which we hope will be in the not too far distant future. The men that night organized a Civitan Club. There were 35 charter members. The officers elected were president, Dewey Farlow; vice president, Curd Farlow; secretary, Bunn Pyatt, treasurer, Rev. Bob Medford.

We are sorry to note that Fardine Farlow's father, Gunney McDowell, had to return to High Point Hospital after being home only a few days. His condition does not seem to serious so we hope he will be home soon again. We are very glad to report that Mrs. B. J. (Jessie Davis) Whitehead, who has been home from the hospital for sometime, is still doing nicely. The Sunday reunion table flower arrangement presented by William Nance, a former Marlboro student of High Point, was requested to be given some sick person in the community. So Jessie was selected as the winner of it and she also received some nice orchids and probably other mother day gifts. They never had children but were attached to them and in many ways should be honored as good friends as she was very interested in things and giving much as she could. She expressed appreciation for the gifts.

Randleman Woman Succumbs At 66; Rites Tomorrow

RACHEL ROSINA TURNER, 66, died yesterday afternoon in a Pleasant Garden nursing home. She had been invalid for 26 years. Surviving are her husband, Charlie S. Turner of Randleman; three sons, Charles A. and Lawrence A. Turner of Route 1, Sophia, and Walter E. Turner of Route 1, Greensboro; one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Moore of Sophia; two brothers, Lindsay Adams of Route 1, Randleman, and Harris Adams of Route 2, Asheboro; eight sisters, Mrs. Mary McGhee and Mrs. Malita Bowers of High Point, Mrs. Della Robbins, Mrs. Clarence Spilman and Mrs. Nancy Trogon of Route 1, Sophia, Mrs. Myrtle Hinstaw of Route 2, Randleman, and Mrs. Calie Hunt and Mrs. Gracie Hussey of Route 1, Randleman; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The funeral will be held Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Old Union Methodist Church of which she was a member, and burial will be in the church cemetery. The Rev. John Edwards and the Rev. Billy Britt will officiate.

Funleigh and Lillie Wall have been sick with flu but able to be out now. They enjoyed having some old friends of theirs while living in Philadelphia, Pa., to visit them last Monday.

Try Courier-Tribune Ads for best results.

Five Generations

Gather At Observance

BY RALPH L. BULLA

Five generations came together for the 81st birthday celebration of Mrs. Mossie Phillips Cox, Route 1, Bennett, on Sunday, April 9.

Other members of the five-generation group were Mrs. Cox's daughter, Mrs. Albert Brown; Mrs. Brown's daughter, Mrs. Nuby Welch; Mrs. Welch's son, Harold Welch; and Harold's fifteen months old daughter, Angela.

In addition to Mrs. Brown, other children of Mrs. Cox include another daughter, Mrs. Howard Hammer, and a son, Carl Cox, all of whom live in the close proximity of their home.

The family observance of Mrs. Cox's birthday was held at the new brick home, at which Mrs. Cox lives with a granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harriester. She reached her 81st year on Tuesday, April 11.

The new brick house is located at the site of the old home to which Mrs. Cox came with her husband, W. R. (Bob) Cox, about a year after their marriage in 1906. Mr. Cox died January 21, 1962.

The old house burned down a year ago last January and Mrs. Cox lost all of her belongings. Although she is living in a new modern home, Mrs. Cox still remembers the tragic loss of her home and its furnishings and sadly remarked "I can't over it yet."

A native of the Fall Creek section in Chatham County, Mrs. Cox attended the one-teacher school of that area and was a member of the Fall Creek Baptist Church.

But after her marriage to Mr. Cox and her coming to the Bennett section of Randolph County, she transferred her church affiliation to the Pleasant Grove Christian Church where she still retains her membership.

Her pastor, Rev. Hayes Riter, was present for her birthday celebration, as well as her son, two daughters, other members of her family and a few GENERATIONS MEET — Five generations came together for the 81st birthday celebration of Mrs. Mossie Phillips Cox, Route 1, Bennett, on Sunday, April 9. Left to right are Mrs. Albert Brown, daughter of Mrs. Cox; neighbors. Her immediate family includes 23 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and the one great-great-grandchild.

The minister praised the life bute to this aged lady came from her son's wife who said "there couldn't have been a perhaps the most sincere tri-finer mother-in-law."

Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Nuby Welch, daughter of Mrs. Brown; Harold Welch, son of Mrs. Welch, who is holding his fifteen months old daughter, Angela.

Sophia News

Bridal Courtesy Honors Miss Tinggen; Coltrane Reunion Set; Personals

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Route 1—Mrs. Hazel Gray, Mrs. Ruth Richardson and Miss Donna Steed joined hospitality last Thursday night at a bridal courtesy to Miss Betty Grace Tinggen. The event took place at New Market School Cafeteria. The honoree was presented with a novelty corsage of kitchen utensils by the hostesses as well as a shower of lovely gifts from the 58 guests present. Following bridal games, refreshments were served which consisted of cake squares, lime punch, nuts and nuts. Her color scheme of green and white were carried out in refreshments and tables which had white and gradoli. The bridal table had white doilies and green candles. Above the table was an open umbrella draped with white and green tissue. The honoree will be married Thursday night, October 13 at First Baptist Church at Randleman to Guy Spencer Steed.

We did regret to hear of the death of a man who has been well-known around here all his life. He was John Brewer, 69, of Glenola who died rather suddenly at his home Sunday, October 2. He had been in declining health for sometime but at that time he seemed some better and it was rather unexpected. He was the only living

Residents Married

Mrs. Blanche Hill Farlow of this route and William A. Hill of Trinity, route were quietly married Friday night September 30 at the home of his son, Carl Hill at Hillsville. The officiating minister was Rev. Waldo Smith, a Friends minister, in the presence of a few relatives and close friends of the couple. The home altar was very nicely decorated by the daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hill. They moved into a nice new brick home on Trinity, route. Congratulations.

Personals

Mrs. Lillie F. Davis was an all-day guest of her cousin, Mrs. Darcy (Steed) Elder at High Point last Sunday. Ethel C. Farlow spent last week visiting in the home of Mrs. Stacy Hugghins at Nicholas, S. C.

A community singing held at Cedar Square Friends Meeting house last Sunday night which was considered quite a success. There were four choirs contributing the church's and a number of specialists. They sang to a full house and was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Lillie F. Davis and Walt Farlow and their families. So glad to note that Mrs. Debert (Lena Stout) Hinshaw will be quite sick at Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, where brought home in Cedar Square Community last week. She is improved and may have this week. Her sister, Mrs. Clara B. Spangle, Tenn., is caring for her. Care would be appreciated. Address: Route 1, Randleman.

Bullas, Farlowes And Millikans

Large Group Attends Meet Of 3 Families

Despite the inclement weather, a large and representative group was in attendance at the 30th annual reunion of the Bullas, Farlowe and Millikan families held Sunday at New Market school near Sophia.

Carl L. King, well known singer and Clerk of Superior Court of Randolph County, conducted the opening song service and also served as guest soloist for the morning session. The devotional period was conducted by J. C. Pearce, prominent Baptist layman whose wife is connected with both the Bulla and Millikan families.

The families were welcomed by Joseph F. Hawkins, principal of New Market school, and the program for the entire day was in charge of Ralph L. Bulla.

Mrs. W. C. Hammer and Mrs. Hal M. Worth, of Asheboro. A telegram was also read from the children of Dr. Arch Dougan, of Cary, N.C., announcing the death of Dr. Dougan and his burial on Saturday before the meeting of the reunion on Sunday.

Out of state people in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. B. E. (Bernie) Millikan, of Beaufort, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Oris Millikan, Chinedist and daughter, Janice Marie of Salem, Va.; Mrs. Mandy Millikan, Tussey, and daughters, Mrs. Lillian McLeary and Mrs. Helen Laird, of Savannah, Ga., and Charles Bulla, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Nora Bulla Spencer, 88 year old Asheboro route 2 woman, was a three time winner of the prize for being the oldest member of the three families in attendance while Troy Millikan, of Sophia, route 1, with all nine of his children present, won the prize for having the largest family. Both prizes were presented with appropriate remarks by Fred M. Kearns, Jr.

Then a business session. The representatives were named: Roy Ballard of Asheville are expected to arrive here this week which include Emory Farlow and Mrs. Lillie F. Davis and Walt Farlow and their families. So glad to note that Mrs. Debert (Lena Stout) Hinshaw will be quite sick at Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, where brought home in Cedar Square Community last week. She is improved and may have this week. Her sister, Mrs. Clara B. Spangle, Tenn., is caring for her. Care would be appreciated. Address: Route 1, Randleman.

A. D. and Ora L. Farlow of Bahama have recently visited their Farlow-Loflin relatives here. Faye Hayes, Zorndo Loflin, and Clara Davis visited daughter, Mathe in Centre Community last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. M. (May D.) Farlow of Guilford is spending a few days in this community.

Three families went to Joseph Benjamin Millikan, ten weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. Azei Millikan, of Sophia, and this prize was presented by proud great-uncle Bennie Millikan from Texas.

An impressive memorial service was held in the afternoon session for the following deceased members of the families: Tamer Millikan Alford, Watie Bullard, Colbert Farlowe, Earl Leiding, E. B. Wrike, Muriel Farlowe, Dr. Arch Dougan, Edgar Farlowe, Lolla and Effie Farlowe.

The memorial service was concluded with prayer by Rev. John Pipkin, pastor of Marlboro Friends Meeting, and with singing of "Beyond the Sunset" by Nora S. Farlowe.

In the business session, new officers were elected as follows: President, Aza Millikan, of Asheboro, route 1, vice president, Robert Richardson, of Greensboro, secretary and treasurer, Nora S. Farlowe, of Sophia, and chairman of program and arrangements, Jim Dulla.

In the school cafeteria during the noon hour. Serving as refreshment committee for the occasion were Mrs. Ina Millikan and Mrs. Tassie Bulla and Mrs. Laone Loflin.

Other music during the day was furnished by Janice Chinedist, accordian, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Smith, of Liberty.

Powers for the occasion were furnished by Mrs. Virginia Garner, of Garner's Florist, a member of the Millikan Family, Robert Richardson, of Greensboro, in memory of his mother, Flora Millikan Richardson, and Jim Dulla.

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1 — Southern Quarterly meeting of Friends was held at Marlboro last Saturday. A business meeting was held at ten o'clock followed by a worship service at eleven o'clock. The sermon was given by George McDowell, pastor of Back Creek and Science Hill meetings. It was a most inspiring message.

At the noon hour the Marlboro ladies served dinner in the basement. Good fellowship was enjoyed for a while and was followed by the afternoon business meeting.

A good attendance was reported.

Personals

Marlboro Woman's Missionary Society meeting was held at the F. F. Sunday school room last Thursday evening with a good attendance reported. Tassie Bulla gave devotions and Vanalia Farlow with her daughter Elizabeth Ann, gave the program. The new officers were installed by Nora Farlow.

Personals

Miss Mary Carol Briles of Washington, D. C. is spending two weeks with her father, Willard Briles. She is also visiting other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Cora Beeson was taken by ambulance from High Point Hospital last week to the home of her son and his wife, Howard and Bea Beeson. She will remain for some time, not being able, on account of a broken hip, to get about. We are glad to hear she seems to be doing very well. Am sure visits and cards will do Cora much good. Her new address is Sophia, Rt. 1, in care to Howard Beeson.

The thoughtful attention of others really means a lot to us elderly folks when we can't do too much for ourselves, especially without our life companion. One has to experience it to really know how lonely one can be.

Bill and Ophelia (Davis) Denham and four children, Kathleen Rosemary, Maureen and Bill, Jr., arrived Sunday night from Merchantville, New Jersey for several days visit at the home of her father, Paul Davis, and her aunt, Clara Davis, who has been confined to her bed for a long time.

Mrs. C. M. (May D.) Farlow of near Guilford spent last Monday with her sister, Mrs. Cora Loflin.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Lottie (Micha Cox) William in the death of her husband last week. She has several Cox descendants around here that remember her and her Cox family in the Parks Cross Roads Community.

Glad to note that Frank Farlow who has been in declining health for some time, is able to be on some.

Students Of Old

1001 Gather For

Reunion On Sunday

By RALPH BULLA

THE 7th ANNUAL reunion of the students of the old Marlboro School was held Sunday, July 17, at the Marlboro Friends Meeting House, situated a short distance from the old school site.

Forty eight of the former Marlboro students were in attendance. However, family members and visitors brought the overall number to 83.

Speaker for the occasion was Bill Payne, principal of the New Market School which replaced the old Marlboro School for the school year 1936.

Enrollment at the New Market School last year was 522 but in 1935, the last year of the Marlboro School, there were only 22 students Ferreze, Edith Julian, Victoria Brown, Argus Lineberry, Senith Johnson, Joe Milkkan, Ethel Hinshaw, Charles K. White, Tom Elder, Muriel Lowe, Clara Davis, Edna Beeson, Myrtle Lawrence, Alice Farlow, Blanche Farlow, Nathan Edwards, Emma Ridge, and Guy Leonard.

THE IDEA of a school reunion for former Marlboro students came about in the spring of 1960 when Harris Johnson and Ida Ridge Parker, who taught at the school during the school year 1910-11, and some of the students planned a reunion of the students for that particular school year.

These two teachers, along with 1910-11 students Carl and Cora Loflin Beeson and Alhea Farlow Brown, made plans for the reunion, assisted by Harvey Farlow, Frank Davis and Lillie Spencer Wall. Alhea Brown sent out invitations based on an old school picture for the year 1910-11.

Students who attended school that year included Leona Farlow, Carl Beeson, Jerome Davis, Jesse Farlow, Frank Davis, Vernon Spencer, Hal Farlow, Marvin Osborne, John Ridge, Olive Farlow, Clyde Ridge, Emery Farlow, James Winshaw, Mary Osborne, Hettie Newlin, Hessie Newlin, Lillie Farlow, Lillie Spencer, Ora Loflin, Paulah Coltrane, Nannie Davis, Esther Loflin, Rosa Sinclair, Jessie Spencer, Gwen Loflin, La Beeson, Nellie Farlow, Alsea Davis.

Sadie Osborne, Grace Spencer, May Davis, Ham Farlow, Lester Wall, Nance, Walter Davis, Ella Nance, Mae Hill, Olive Ard, Harris Coltrane, Walter Beeson, Russell Hill, Jeffrey Cox, Wesley Cox, Jimmy Farlow, Robert Spencer, Cleo Hill, J. J. Spencer, William Nance, Evla Farlow and Flora Berry.

Also, Alhea Farlow, Jim Davis, Clifton Davis, Flossie Snider, Mamie Spencer, Blanche Hill, Blanche Davis, Garland Beeson, Ila Snider, Clara Ward, Alease Nance, Carl Ward, Mabel Hill, Paul Wysslow, Buford Farlow, Theresa Spencer, Angie Farlow, Pearl Spencer, Howard Hill, Lester Farlow, and Cornelia Coltrane.

SIXTY ONE persons were present for this reunion of the students who attended the Marlboro School in the school years 1910-11 and the following at reunion was held

The first school in the community was started in 1892 and was named Guilford. Later the school was moved to a new location and was named Marlboro.

Teachers for the Guilford school were a Miss Grove, Maggie Hockett, Lu Lowe, Emma Coltrane, Ingram, Lana Bulla, Roe Gray, Elmina Farlow, Ilen F. Ridge, Delphina Frazier, Bird Bulla, Gaston F. Bird Bulla, Ed Wright, Bertha Wright, Ed Highhill, Orlanda Nance, Ora Bulla and Eliza Spence.

Teachers at the Marlboro School were Mamie Peterson, Lenora Bray, Swanna Lowe, Leona Bray, Joanna, Tom Ridge, Ethel Cox, Deca Carter, Esther Hussey, a M. at which time it was decided to make the gathering an annual event.

Officers for the organization were then checked, consisting of Harvey Farlow, president; Frank Davis, vice president; Alhea Farlow Brown, secretary, and Carl Beeson, treasurer.

For the reunion in 1962 a decision had been made to include in the reunion all students and teachers who had been a part of the school from its beginning in 1892 until its discontinuation in 1935.

Each year since the reunion has been held a great deal of interest has been manifested at each successive gathering.

Carl Beeson, one of the ori-gators of the reunion and the first treasurer of two years after its organization, and last year Harvey Farlow, first president of the reunion organization, also passed away.

Succeeding Harvey Farlow as president was Rufus Davis, who in turn was succeeded by Carl Ward. However, Mr. Ward was unable to attend last Sunday's reunion and Mr. Davis continued in that position for the sixth annual session.

Frank Davis has continued to serve as vice president and Ethel Farlow served as treasurer for two years. Alhea Brown now serves as both secretary and treasurer, with Emily Pugh as the assistant secretary and treasurer. Lillie Spencer Wall was formerly in charge of the memorials.

At the reunion on Sunday, July 17, a nominating committee composed of Ruth Allred, Rufus Davis and Dorothy Smith was named to report out a slate of officers for the next year.

IN ORDER that the reunion organization would continue through the years, even as the roll of former students thinned out with each succeeding year, another revision was made in the organization at the session this year. It was decided to broaden out the group a step further by making descendants of former students a part of the reunion organization.

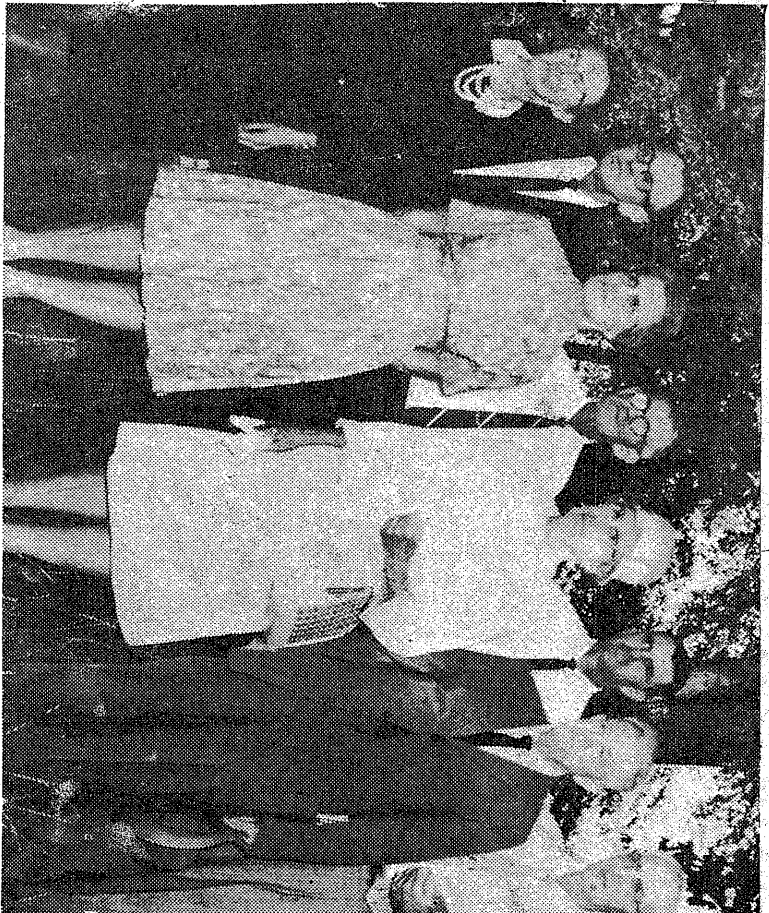

Next

all descendants of students at the Gunn Grove and Marlboro schools will be invited to participate.

Many former students have died since the organization of the group in 1960 and this past year was no exception. Pay Loflin Hayes and Ethel Cox Farlow conducted the memorial service which was held in memory of Maud Welborn Farlow, Jeff Dorsett, Rachel Farlow Taylor, Cornelia Coltrane Ross, Harvey Farlow and Agnes Spencer.

Former teachers present for the reunion were Ethel Hinshaw Fields, Guy Leonard, Harris Johnson, Edna Beeson Kemp and Edgar Highhill.

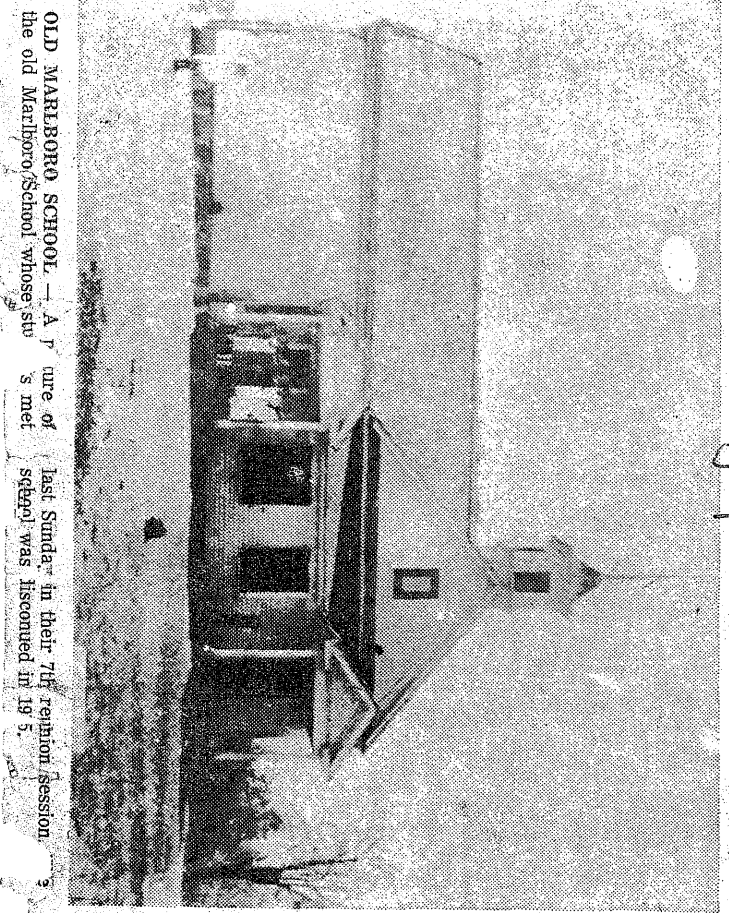

Prizes were awarded to 84 year-old Arthur Farlow for being the oldest student in attendance; to 38 year-old

REUNION PARTICIPANTS — The above people are some of the participants in the 7th reunion of Marlboro School students which was held Sunday, July 17, at the Marlboro Friends Meeting House. First row, left to right, Alhea Brown, secretary of the organization since its beginning in 1960; Ethel Hinshaw Fields, a former teacher at the school; Ora Loflin Farlow and her husband, Arthur Farlow, of Bahama, former students who came the farthest to attend the reunion.

July 21 - 1964

Second row, left to right, Rufus Davis, former president of the organization who presided over the 7th reunion; Frank M. Davis, who has served as vice president since 1960; Wayne Loflin, youngest former student attending the reunion last Sunday; and Harris Johnson, teacher at the school for the school year 1910-11. Arthur Farlow was also the oldest former student attending this year's reunion.

OLD MARLBORO SCHOOL — A picture of the old Marlboro School whose students met last Sunday in their 7th reunion session. School was discontinued in 1935.

Steve McCoy Caughron Jr., 11, of Rt. 1, Sophia, died in High Point Memorial Hospital Friday at 7:30 a.m. from injuries received Wednesday when he was hit by a automobile while riding for a school bus.

He was born Nov. 20, 1955, in Guilford County, a son of Steve McCoy and Frankie Harris Caughron Sr. Caughron Sr. He was a fifth grade student at Archdale School and was a member of the New Market Christian baseball team. Steve had lived in the Sophia area all of his life and was a member of the Poplar Ridge Sunday school.

Surviving in addition to the parents are one sister, Lisa Caughron of the home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Caughron of Rt. 1, Sophia; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harris of Rt. 1, Sophia; and the paternal great-grandfather, Sam Crofts of Rt. 1, Sophia.

Services Conducted Randleman Widow Injured in Fire

AT GRAY'S CHAPEL

Funeral services for Mrs. Randleman, Mrs. Matthe N. Smith of Randleman, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. at Pugh Funeral Home in Randleman with interment immediately after in the cemetery of the Gray's Chapel Methodist church.

Mrs. Howell died in an Ashboro hospital Saturday after suffering a brief illness caused by shock and exposure during a fire Friday morning that almost totally destroyed her home in Randleman.

Five Chet Worth Gresson of Randleman said the fire started about 8:30 a. m. Friday morning, and was caused by an oil stove in the kitchen of the two-story wooden frame building. Firemen from the Randleman department battled the blaze for more than an hour before bringing it under control, at which time the inside of the dwelling had been almost totally consumed, with only a shell remaining.

Mrs. Howell was brought outside about an hour after the fire started, and was unconscious when she was found. Firemen said she did not appear to be burned, but was suffering primarily from exposure and smoke.

Mrs. Howell, who had lived a one since the death of her husband, John M. Howell, about 15 years ago, had been a member of Bethany Methodist church near Randleman since girlhood, and until recently took an active interest in civic and church affairs.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Matthe N. Smith of Wanchula, Fla., Mrs. Pearl Bittles of Ashboro, and Mrs. Winnie Morgan of Danville, Va., and three brothers, David C. Nelson of Gibsonville, William V. Nelson of Mount Gilsead, and Sam Nelson of Millboro, and several nieces and nephews.

Services were conducted by the Rev. C. F. Perry, pastor of Gray's Chapel Methodist church in Wood. Pat Patterson, Edgar Shank, Vernon Nelson, James Cork and C. C. Howell.

HOWELL

Services Conducted Randleman Widow Injured in Fire

AT GRAY'S CHAPEL

Funeral services for Mrs. Randleman, Mrs. Matthe N. Smith of Randleman, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. at Pugh Funeral Home in Randleman with interment immediately after in the cemetery of the Gray's Chapel Methodist church.

Mrs. Howell died in an Ashboro hospital Saturday after suffering a brief illness caused by shock and exposure during a fire Friday morning that almost totally destroyed her home in Randleman.

Five Chet Worth Gresson of Randleman said the fire started about 8:30 a. m. Friday morning, and was caused by an oil stove in the kitchen of the two-story wooden frame building. Firemen from the Randleman department battled the blaze for more than an hour before bringing it under control, at which time the inside of the dwelling had been almost totally consumed, with only a shell remaining.

Mrs. Howell was brought outside about an hour after the fire started, and was unconscious when she was found. Firemen said she did not appear to be burned, but was suffering primarily from exposure and smoke.

Mrs. Howell, who had lived a one since the death of her husband, John M. Howell, about 15 years ago, had been a member of Bethany Methodist church near Randleman since girlhood, and until recently took an active interest in civic and church affairs.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Matthe N. Smith of Wanchula, Fla., Mrs. Pearl Bittles of Ashboro, and Mrs. Winnie Morgan of Danville, Va., and three brothers, David C. Nelson of Gibsonville, William V. Nelson of Mount Gilsead, and Sam Nelson of Millboro, and several nieces and nephews.

Services were conducted by the Rev. C. F. Perry, pastor of Gray's Chapel Methodist church in Wood. Pat Patterson, Edgar Shank, Vernon Nelson, James Cork and C. C. Howell.

Sophia, Rt. 1 News

Deaths In Community; PTA, Homemakers Gather

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1. — The surrounding community was saddened over the death of Mrs. Lena Stout Hinshaw, 50, March 4th at home. She had been sick for some time. She was born and reared in the Cedar Square Friends Meeting Community, and was a member of the church.

She was the daughter of Walter and Ada Cox Stout. She married Delbert Hinshaw and together they reared a family of three sons and one daughter who are a credit to their parents.

We extend to the family our sympathies.

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Route 1. — The Southern quarterly meeting of Friends was held at Back Creek last Saturday with the Rev. Charles Snow of Guilford College as guest speaker. There was a business meeting at 1 a.m., and the worship service was held at 11. The ladies' meal and good fellowship was enjoyed by all. About 1:15 a business meeting was held. Though the temperature outside was 3 degrees, there was a very good attendance.

Hat and Bake Sale
Just a reminder that the Home Demonstration Club of North Market will sponsor a hat sale and bake sale at the community building on March 3rd and 4th.

Weekend Services
There will be a weekend vival service at Marlboro Protestant Church on Thursday, March 17, 18, and 19th. On Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, H. Shel Folger of Winston-Salem will bring the message.

New Market PTA
The New Market PTA met in regular session on Thursday evening. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Blanche Farlow's 3rd and 4th grade, Mrs. Cashnatt's class, and Mr. Farlow's class took charge of the program which was enjoyed by everyone.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, and the treasurer's report was read. A motion was made to adopt the revised by-laws for PTA.

The nominating committee was appointed with the following selected: Mrs. Julia Nelson, chairman; Wade Payne, Mrs. Shirley Bishop, and Bill Payne.

The president urged those present to join PTA if they had not done so already. He also mentioned the magazine subscriptions in order to point out that a few more subscribers were needed.

Motion was made and approved for the PTA to sponsor Girl Scout Brownie Troop 43 again, and to accept Herb Smith as Little League Baseball coach. A collection was taken to honor founders Day for PTA on February 17th.

Members were reminded of the upcoming events: Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring a "Hat Party and Bake Sale" to be held March 3rd and 4th at the community center. The annual school picnic will be held April 14th, and the school

Death

We are sure that some around the community remembers Lena McGee who passed away in New York City recently. She was the daughter of Charlie and Daisy Spencer McGee, former residents in the community.

Homemakers
The Homemakers of Cedar Square met March 9th with Mrs. Harold Peelle.

Assistant agent Miss Martha Brannon gave a program on painting in the home.

New Market PTA

The New Market PTA met in regular session Thursday, March 9th, with the president, Miss Wood's first grade present.

There will be an important meeting at the Randelman Elementary School on February 29 beginning at 7:30 p.m. in connection with the supplemental tax proposal.

The room count was taken, and Mrs. Blanche Farlow's 3rd and 4th grade classes, and Mrs. Vadolia Farlow's 5th and 6th grade classes were winners.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pugh of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hawkins of Huntsville, Alabama, have been visiting their Hinshaw relatives in Randolph County and surrounding areas. They were dinner guests of Willie and Ethel (Hinshaw) Beeson last Friday.

The Beesons also had their daughters, Mrs. Jewell Farlow and Mrs. Nancy Macon and her sister, Mrs. Clara Hodgkin of Route 1, Hainsour, and Seth Hinshaw of Guilford College.

Those attending the quarterly meeting at Back Creek last Saturday from Marlboro were Ethel Beeson, Faidne Farlow and Althea Brown.

Happy birthday to Roy Pierce Kermit Hayes, Byron Farlow Rufus Davis, Opheila Farlow and Mrs. L. J. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garre Carolyn Small sang three songs, David Scott, who was born on February 23rd. They live on High Point. Mrs. Garrett is the eldest daughter of S. A. at

sent an Easter program which was enjoyed by everyone. The Rev. Brown McKinney, pastor of the Mt. Lebanon Old Union Methodist Churches gave some devotional thoughts on Easter. Sherrill Shaw and Dr. Groves presented some facts about the teacher supplement tax proposal.

Minutes were read and approved, and the treasurer's report was given.

After the room count, it was determined that Miss Wood's first grade and Mrs. Vadolia Farlow's 5th and 6th grades were the winners.

There will be an Easter Sunrise Service at Marlboro East-Sunrise morning beginning at 5:45 a.m. at the church.

Bill Payne, principal of New Market School will be the guest speaker, and there will be a social music.

The attendance has been good in the past, and we are hoping for an even better number this year.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Davis of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hawkins of Huntsville, Alabama, have been visiting their Hinshaw relatives in Randolph County and surrounding areas. They were dinner guests of Willie and Ethel (Hinshaw) Beeson last Friday.

The Beesons also had their daughters, Mrs. Jewell Farlow and Mrs. Nancy Macon and her sister, Mrs. Clara Hodgkin of Route 1, Hainsour, and Seth Hinshaw of Guilford College.

Those attending the quarterly meeting at Back Creek last Saturday from Marlboro were Ethel Beeson, Faidne Farlow and Althea Brown.

Happy birthday to Roy Pierce Kermit Hayes, Byron Farlow Rufus Davis, Opheila Farlow and Mrs. L. J. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garre Carolyn Small sang three songs, David Scott, who was born on February 23rd. They live on High Point. Mrs. Garrett is the eldest daughter of S. A. at

Father-Daughter Banquet Scheduled

SOPHIA, Route 1. — One of our oldest citizens, Mrs. Edna L. Yow of her home at 1006 Tipton St., died unexpectedly at 4 p.m. yesterday while at work in Washington, D. C., where he has been working for the past few years.

He was born Nov. 11, 1897, in Randolph County, a son of George and Frances Rush Yow. He was married Sept. 8, 1918 to Edna Livingston. He was a birthright member of the Marlboro Friends Meeting. He was a member of a Masonic Lodge at Washington, D. C.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Edna L. Yow of her home; three daughters, Mrs. Gary Davis of High Point, Mrs. Mary Lou Allen, of the home, and Miss Peggy Jane Yow of Orlando, Fla.; two sons, L. J. Jr. and Charles James Yow, both of Washington, D. C. four grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Ida Small, of Sophia; and a brother, John Yow of Sophia, Route 1.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Davis of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hawkins of Huntsville, Alabama, have been visiting their Hinshaw relatives in Randolph County and surrounding areas. They were dinner guests of Willie and Ethel (Hinshaw) Beeson last Friday.

The Beesons also had their daughters, Mrs. Jewell Farlow and Mrs. Nancy Macon and her sister, Mrs. Clara Hodgkin of Route 1, Hainsour, and Seth Hinshaw of Guilford College.

Those attending the quarterly meeting at Back Creek last Saturday from Marlboro were Ethel Beeson, Faidne Farlow and Althea Brown.

Happy birthday to Roy Pierce Kermit Hayes, Byron Farlow Rufus Davis, Opheila Farlow and Mrs. L. J. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garre Carolyn Small sang three songs, David Scott, who was born on February 23rd. They live on High Point. Mrs. Garrett is the eldest daughter of S. A. at

Members were reminded of the upcoming events: Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring a "Hat Party and Bake Sale" to be held March 3rd and 4th at the community center. The annual school picnic will be held April 14th, and the school

ELIZABETH ANN FARLOW Miss Farlow At Nat'l FHA Meet

Miss Elizabeth Ann Farlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McLain Farlow of Sophia, is attending the National Future Homemakers of America convention in Chicago, Ill.

Miss Farlow met with other state delegates in Raleigh last Saturday and left by train for the convention.

A rising senior at Randelman High School, Miss Farlow has held most offices in her local F.H.A. chapter and last year served as president. She is pianist for the Randolph County Chapter.

Receiving both her junior and chapter degrees, she is presently working on her state degree.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pugh of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hawkins of Huntsville, Alabama, have been visiting their Hinshaw relatives in Randolph County and surrounding areas. They were dinner guests of Willie and Ethel (Hinshaw) Beeson last Friday.

The Beesons also had their daughters, Mrs. Jewell Farlow and Mrs. Nancy Macon and her sister, Mrs. Clara Hodgkin of Route 1, Hainsour, and Seth Hinshaw of Guilford College.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Davis of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hawkins of Huntsville, Alabama, have been visiting their Hinshaw relatives in Randolph County and surrounding areas. They were dinner guests of Willie and Ethel (Hinshaw) Beeson last Friday.

The Beesons also had their daughters, Mrs. Jewell Farlow and Mrs. Nancy Macon and her sister, Mrs. Clara Hodgkin of Route 1, Hainsour, and Seth Hinshaw of Guilford College.

Those attending the quarterly meeting at Back Creek last Saturday from Marlboro were Ethel Beeson, Faidne Farlow and Althea Brown.

Happy birthday to Roy Pierce Kermit Hayes, Byron Farlow Rufus Davis, Opheila Farlow and Mrs. L. J. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garre Carolyn Small sang three songs, David Scott, who was born on February 23rd. They live on High Point. Mrs. Garrett is the eldest daughter of S. A. at

Members were reminded of the upcoming events: Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring a "Hat Party and Bake Sale" to be held March 3rd and 4th at the community center. The annual school picnic will be held April 14th, and the school

Skeen Funeral Set For Friday

Mrs. Laffie Hazel Davis Skreen, 39, of 4611 S. Main St. was dead on arrival at 5:20 p.m. Wednesday at High Point Memorial Hospital. She had been in declining health 18 months and seriously ill three weeks.

Mrs. Skreen was born April 27, 1908, in Randolph County, a daughter of D. Alexander and Deborah Newlin Davis. On June 30, 1934, she was married to Ralph J. Skreen. She had been a resident of the Archdale Community all her life and was a member of Archdale Friends Meeting.

Surviving are her husband, Ralph J. Skreen; four daughters, Mrs. Charles (Peggy) Fletcher (Marie) Kady of Royal Oak, Mich., Mrs. James (Jane) Richardson of Rt. 2, Trinity, and Miss Sarah Lou Skreen of the home; three sons, Grover Skreen of Ft. Bragg, and Hershel Skreen and Michael Skreen, both of the home; three grandchildren; and three brothers, Ray Davis of Archdale, Joel Davis of S. Main Street and Paul Davis of Florence, S. C.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Davis of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hawkins of Huntsville, Alabama, have been visiting their Hinshaw relatives in Randolph County and surrounding areas. They were dinner guests of Willie and Ethel (Hinshaw) Beeson last Friday.

The Beesons also had their daughters, Mrs. Jewell Farlow and Mrs. Nancy Macon and her sister, Mrs. Clara Hodgkin of Route 1, Hainsour, and Seth Hinshaw of Guilford College.

Those attending the quarterly meeting at Back Creek last Saturday from Marlboro were Ethel Beeson, Faidne Farlow and Althea Brown.

Happy birthday to Roy Pierce Kermit Hayes, Byron Farlow Rufus Davis, Opheila Farlow and Mrs. L. J. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garre Carolyn Small sang three songs, David Scott, who was born on February 23rd. They live on High Point. Mrs. Garrett is the eldest daughter of S. A. at

Members were reminded of the upcoming events: Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring a "Hat Party and Bake Sale" to be held March 3rd and 4th at the community center. The annual school picnic will be held April 14th, and the school

T. H. Ellington

LIBERTY — T. H. Ellington, 86, of Pleasant Garden Road died Thursday at Moses Cone Hospital after a short illness.

Survivors include his wife, the former Martha Johnson; a son, Tommy Ellington of Greensboro; and two daughters, Mrs. Clayton S. Swink of Guilford College and Mrs. Curtis C. Farlow of Sophia.

Funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Bethel Methodist Church near Clinax by Rev. Fred Carlisle and Rev. John Davis. Burial will be in Marlboro Friends Cemetery. The body will remain at Loflin Funeral Home until the hour of service.

Luther Yow Sr., Former Resident, Succumbs At 62

Luther Jerome Yow Sr., 62, construction engineer of 1006 Tipton St., died unexpectedly at 4 p.m. yesterday while at work in Washington, D. C., where he has been working for the past few years.

He was born Nov. 11, 1897, in Randolph County, a son of George and Frances Rush Yow. He was married Sept. 8, 1918 to Edna Livingston. He was a birthright member of the Marlboro Friends Meeting. He was a member of a Masonic Lodge at Washington, D. C.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Edna L. Yow of her home; three daughters, Mrs. Gary Davis of High Point, Mrs. Mary Lou Allen, of the home, and Miss Peggy Jane Yow of Orlando, Fla.; two sons, L. J. Jr. and Charles James Yow, both of Washington, D. C. four grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Ida Small, of Sophia; and a brother, John Yow of Sophia, Route 1.

Funeral arrangements are being made by the Loflin Funeral Home, 1006 Tipton St. The body will be taken to Sechrist Funeral Home, 1006 Tipton St.

On The Art Of Nomenclature

TO THE EDITOR:

If there's anything stranger than the origins of place names, it must be the highly-piggedy manner in which they are bestowed.

In the case of North Carolina counties, municipalities and communities, the result is sometimes perplexing.

Greensboro, for instance, logically should be in Greene County, but it's in Guilford; and the town of Washington, N. C., is not in Washington County, but in Beaufort; while Beaufort is the countyseat of Carteret County. And if a tourist, seeking Waynesville's summer cohesiveness, should assume he would find it in Wayne County, he'd land in Goldsboro!

Confusing, isn't it? The jumbled geographical distribution, though, is not the only unusual feature of this state's nomenclature. North Carolina has place names to fit almost every need or mood.

For the man who would be well grooved, there's a Bath, a Barber, and (presumably a variety of) Coats.

Would you be Gay? That's in Jackson County. Better still, there's a Merry Hill down in Bertie. Or maybe the very Spot you're seeking is the one in Currituck.

Want to take it easy? We recommend Lenoir's Glory.

For the ambitious, on the other hand, the state has an Advance, an Acme, an Apex, and a Climax.

Admirers of the fair sex will find Blanch, Carolina, Henrietta, Mamie, Marcella,

12A-The Courier-Tribune, Asheboro, N. C., Thurs., Sept. 6, 1962

Sophia, Route One News

Youth Group Enjoys Picnic; Families Reunite In Area

By ALTHEA BROWN

SOPHIA, Rt. 1—Mrs. T. A. (Bird) Bulla, Brookshire, 80, passed away September 1st. She had lived in Randleman many years but was known and loved by many around Sophia and Marlboro communities and had family connections all around here also. She was a quite friendly person and to know her was to like her. She was soft spoken and had a sweet smile.

She came to Marlboro church services as long as she was able and was a good mother, neighbor and friend. She had been afflicted in recent years but bore it all with much patience. She had Christian faith and honor and her fine family of children, can call her blessed and that she did what she could for them and no doubt she is now rejoicing in heaven. We know those eight children of hers miss the old home ties and her memory is sweet to them indeed as they think back to their parents and home life they all had together which will never be forgotten.

The large crowd at her funeral at Marlboro last Sunday evening and the large array of flowers that covered her mound in the family plot at the church cemetery really attested to the high esteem of this family.

Youth Outing

The Youth Fellowship of Marlboro had a picnic supper at Quaker Lake last Saturday evening. They had a period of social recreation and enjoyed a meal. Leaders of this group are Marshall and Iris Farrow and Nancy Hunt.

Residents Move

F. M. Davis, Jr. and wife, Hazel have recently sold their house and lots near his old home, the F. M. Davis, Sr. place, to James B. Atkins and wife of High Point. They have moved in and F. M., Jr. and Hazel have bought a nice new brick house in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Ham-Egg Supper

SOPHIA — The New Market Christian Club of Sophia will sponsor country ham and egg supper from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday. The supper will be served in the New Market Community Building.

Open 1967

Olivia, Ruth, Sophia, and Stella, and in Catawba County, there's an unnamed Maiden. Who the girl was a place up in Yancey County was named for the fellow didn't say; he just called it "Yixen."

But to come back to Tar Heel counties and their widely scattered namesakes:

Since Greensboro is not in Greene County, you'd at least expect to find Greenville there. You won't. It's in Pitt; and Pittsboro, which seems to belong in Pitt, is in Chatham instead. Stokes and Stokesdale are in Pitt and Guilford, respectively, rather than in Stokes.

Up in the west, Asheville is not in Ashe County, but in Buncombe. Nor did Ashe get any of the places that bear his name — Asheboro is in Randolph, Ash in Brunswick, and Ashford in McDowell. Franklin is not in Franklin County. It's in Macon; and Macon is in Warren County, with Franklinville in Randolph.

And so it goes. Columbus is not in Columbus County, but in Polk, while Polkton is in Anson and Polkville in Cleveland, Columbia isn't in Columbus County, either; instead, it's Tyrrell's countyseat. And the community of Brunswick is in Columbus County rather than in Brunswick. There's a Moore County, but neither Mooreville nor Mooreboro is there; they are in Iredell and Cleveland.

Four variations of the word Jackson are found in Tar Heel place names. There's a Jackson, a Jackson Hill, a Jackson Springs, and a Jacksonville — but some of 'em is in Jackson County.

While there are exceptions to prove the rule, there are exceptions to the exceptions. Henderson-

12A-The Courier-Tribune, Asheboro, N. C., Thurs., Sept. 6, 1962

Sunday at the home of Arthur Marley of near Level Cross. At 11 o'clock a business session was held with congregational singing. Bob Hayes was speaker of the day and at the noon hour a picnic dinner was spread. This was all arranged and held on the front lawn. The afternoon was spent in social visiting with approximately 150 attending.

Next year the reunion will be held at the home of Mrs. Bertha Vickrey Toomes Teague, Spencer-Hodgkin Family To Meet.

The Spencer-Hodgkin reunion will be held next Sunday, September 9th at the home of Clyde and Kathleen Spencer near the old home place of James and Hannah Hodgkin. All relatives and friends are invited to attend. In case of rain it will be held at the Mt. Vernon hut.

In the absence of Marlboro pastor, the Rev. Bobby Medford, Seth Hinshaw, Executive Secretary of the Yearly Meeting, delivered a most inspiring message at Marlboro last Sunday.

Don't forget the revival meeting at Marlboro which is scheduled to begin Sunday, September 9th. Thomas Butt, pastor of the Bethesda Friends meeting in Dunn will be the guest speaker for the services. Let's all do our best to make this revival a success in a spiritual way. Don't wait to be invited personally but attend as many services as possible.

A. M. Vuncannon

Alvin Monroe Vuncannon, 83, of Burlington, Kan., died at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in Randolph County, N. C., July 3, 1883, a son of Charles A. and Martha L. Underwood Vuncannon. He was married to Mamie Wellborn in 1908. They moved to Kansas where he farmed and raised cattle. He later operated a blacksmith shop. At the time of his death, he was operating a small novelty shop.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Charles (Eva Mae) Kunkel of Burlington, Kan.; one son, Clifton Vuncannon of Waverly, Kan.; two grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. R. J. (Corra) Shoemaker of Clara Cox Apts., Mrs. J. E. (Gailie) Suits of 911 English Rd., Mrs. Leff. Shoemaker of 241 Boulevard and Miss Aliah Vuncannon of Charlotte; and one brother, A. Oram Vuncannon of Orlando, Fla.

Funeral will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. in Waverly, Kan. Burial will be in Waverly.

ville, for instance, is in Henderson County — but Henderson is the countyseat of Vance, while the community of Yanceboro is not in Yancey County, but in Craven; and Rutherfordton is in Rutherford County — but Rutherford College is in Burke.

The rule is that most names seem misplaced. Jonesville, surely, ought to be in Jones County — it's in Yadkin; Rockingham, in Rockingham County — it's in Richmond; Stanley in Stanly County — it's in Gaston. Nor is Davidson in Davidson County, but in Mecklenburg; Alexander is in Buncombe, rather than in Alexander; Leesburg is not in Lee, but in Caswell; and Graham, in Alamance, is a long way from mountainous Graham County, as is Caldwell's countyseat of Lenoir — from down-east Lenoir County.

The famed Indian town of Cherokee isn't in Cherokee County, but in Swain; Clayton is in Johnston County, rather than in Clay; and Cleveland is in Rowan, not Cleveland. Madison County has no town of Madison, but Rockingham has. And Yanceyville, which by all the rules, should be in Yancey County, is in Caswell.

But whatever the confusion, if there is significance in place names, North Carolina has just about everything.

There's Comfort (in Jones County) Concord (in Cabarrus), Comet (in Bladen), Harmony (in Iredell), Liberty (in Randolph), a Method (in Wake), Relief (in Mitchell), a Welcome (in Davidson), and a Windfall is awaiting someone (in Perquimans). Then, just for luck, there's a Horse Shoe (in Henderson).

WELMAR JONES

Fagg Funeral Set Wednesday

Julius Madison Fagg Sr., 69, of 514 E. Lexington Ave. died this morning about 2 a.m. in High Point Memorial Hospital. He had been in declining health for several years and in a critical condition for six weeks.

Mr. Fagg was born April 9, 1893, in Rockingham County, a son of George and Alice Beeson Fagg. He had been a resident of the High Point area most of his life and was last employed with Peerless Furniture Co., having retired 25 years ago. He was a member of Lexington Avenue Baptist Church. In 1919, he was married to the former Miss Carrie Jones, who survives of the home.

Surviving in addition to his wife are four sons, J. M. Fagg Jr. of High Point, Thomas H. Fagg of 901 Willowbar Terrace, Donald P. Fagg of the home and David J. Fagg of Davidson College, Davidson; three daughters, Mrs. Raymond (Druicilla) Miles of Rt. 3, High Point, Mrs. S. A. (Nancy) Hiest of 514 Manor Dr. and Mrs. W. F. (Delphine) Ogile of 516 Manor Dr.; 20 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Cunby Chapel by Rev. W. W. Robbins and Rev. L. R. McNeill. Burial will be in Oakwood Park Cemetery. The body will remain at the Cunby Mortuary until placed in the chapel 30 minutes prior to the services. The family will be at the funeral home tonight from 7 until 9.

Deaths And Funerals

JOSEPH MILLIGAN

Funeral services for Joseph Covell Milligan were conducted Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in Trinity Baptist Church by the pastor, the Rev. J. C. Gatewood. Interment followed in the family plot in Marlboro Friends Cemetery. Pallbearers were Charles Crooker, Homer Spencer, Emery Peace, Robert Blair, Walter Ward and W. A. Hill.

Mr. Milligan, 81, a resident of Rt. 2, Trinity, died in the local hospital Tuesday morning following an illness of only a few days. He had been a resident of this section since 1916 and prior to his retirement was for 30 years a section foreman with the Southern Railway.

Country Man Is Killed In Farm Accident

TRINITY—A route two man, T. Cleo Floyd, 68, was fatally injured Saturday afternoon near his home in a tractor-harrow accident.

Investigating officers said Floyd was found, fatally injured, under a tractor and bog-harrow on the farm of his nephew, R. G. Floyd, about ¾ mile from the victim's home.

Deputy Sheriff R. V. Weston of Randolph County said the accident apparently occurred about 3:30 p. m. Saturday. He said that Mary Floyd, 16, a daughter of R. G. Floyd, found Cleo Floyd under the tractor and harrow in a basement excavation. Floyd was pulled from beneath the machine still breathing but was dead before an ambulance could arrive.

Weston said the R. G. Floyd had dug out a basement for a building. Cleo Floyd, Weston said, came to the farm with his own tractor and expressed his desire to borrow the bog-harrow.

The harrow, he said was at a point near the open basement excavation. Cleo Floyd pulled the harrow to his own tractor and that apparently when the vehicle started to move that it became overloaded and fell back into the basement excavation.

Weston said that R. G. Floyd was not there when it happened but had left about 30 minutes before on his own tractor to go to another point on the farm. He said Mary Floyd came back from a short trip to a store and found the fatally injured man.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Loula, Williams Floyd of the home; four sons, Paul, of Route 4, High Point, Howard of Route 2, Trinity and Cleo W. and Charles Floyd of Thomasville; Royals and Mrs. Alby Robbins of Route 2, Trinity, Mrs. Howard Hill of Route 3, High Point, Mrs. Colvin Brower of Cuba and Miss Jean Floyd of the home; three sisters, Mrs. R. E. L. Hayworth and Mrs. Daisy English of High Point and Mrs. W. S. Guate of Pleasant Garden; 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral Services For Miss Georgia Gray Monday 4 P.M.

Funeral services for Miss Georgia Gray of Randleman, were held this afternoon, Monday, at 4 o'clock at the Fugh Funeral Home in Randleman and interment made in the St. Paul's church cemetery.

Miss Gray died Saturday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Davis in Randleman following an illness of two weeks. Surviving in addition to Mrs. Davis are two other sisters, Mrs. M. A. Chaney, of Randleman; Mrs. Samuel Sawyer, of Haw River, and a brother, O. car Gray, of Randleman.